FUNDS for COMAS, PERU

Gym Stars to Benefit Project

Jump shots, hook shots and maybe a few double dribbles at Arlington High School gym Saturday night will help carry out the pledge of Arlington Heights citizens to be "Good Neighbors" to their sister city of Comas, Peru.

The Harlem Stars, led by famed basketball player-comedian "Goose" Tatum, will oppose the New York Rens under the sponsorship of the Arlington Heights Inter-American Friendship Program.

The purpose: to raise money (preferably $4,000) for a well to provide water for the people of Comas, a suburb of Lima, the Peruvian capital.

Is a well needed? It is estimated that seven children die each week in Comas from causes directly related to the lack of water.

Already Arlington Heights citizens have contributed 30 drums of drugs, clothing, school supplies and toys to Comas for distribution by the friendship committee established at that end.

It is hoped that a well in Comas will result in a saving of money which otherwise would be used to purchase water, which money in turn can be used to drill a second well, and so on.

"Goose" Tatum will not be the only star on Saturday's program, which will begin at 8 p.m. The coach of the rival Rens will be none other than Satchel Paige, peerless baseball pitcher. And at halftime the famous singing group, "The Ink Spots," will give a concert.

Tickets may be obtained at the door or by calling one of the following telephone numbers: CL 3-1703, 253-0161, CL 5-3695, CL 3-7615 and CL 5-6645.

STUART R. PADDOCK

ON OUR WAY TO MEXICO:

The story of the toll road and Route 66 is nothing new to write about, but in the southern part of Illinois we saw two signs that interested us. In Bloomington the "Pig Hip" restaurant reminded us of the "Whole Hog Sausage" which we found in Florida. A sign reading "Honest Abe Hamburgers" made us wonder if Abe ever enjoyed one!

Our second stop was in Little Rock where we found that all was quiet "segregation-wise."

The average citizen there throws all the blame for the late "war" upon the daily press and such magazines as Life and Time.

We were told that many of the residents were not aware of the mob action around the high school until they read the stories. Negroes are not to be found in some educational institutions which have established admittance quotas.

Colored people are not barred from public events or entertainment, but there are very few colored people in the audience. The proprietor of a roadside eating place, appealing to truckers, told us "We just do not serve them."

Driving into Little Rock, we anticipated seeing the Territorial Restoration — a Williamsburg on a small scale. The original capitol building was erected in 1820 and built of hand hewn oak logs and so it remains today, behind the red heart hand-beaded cypress siding. The original buildings had reverted to "slums" but in 1939 the restoration was started and today comprises about ten buildings on perhaps a block of land.

The restoration is interesting because of the excellent state of preservation in which the materials of construction were found under the paint and additions. All the bricks are hand-made and the 23 chimneys are all as they were originally. Authentic furnishings have been restored to these buildings, even to some of the curtains obtained from England where the looms still make the fabrics of that early period. The hand - carved doors and mantels are the original ones.

We were particularly interested in the print shop and home of William Woodruff, founder of the Arkansas Gazette, oldest newspaper west of the Mississippi River dating to 1824. "Don't Touch" signs were everywhere, but we could not resist the temptation to show another visitor (from Rockford, Illinois) how the Washington Hand Press operated. The charming girl guide quickly said "Don't Touch." It was the same kind of press upon which we printed the Palatine Enterprise for a short time in 1899.

The subscription price of the Gazette was $4 a year if not paid in advance — not much difference in price than our papers sell for today, 138 years later.

The use of the "Fence Post" was different in 1824. The paper printed a challenge to a duel that is interesting. The 19-year-old son of a man who had been maligned in an election campaign challenged the detractor. Today, false campaign stories are forgotten almost immediately after elections. Perhaps if the threat of a duel for honor's sake was imminent the campaign publicity might be more gentlemanly.

We were told at Little Rock that Hot Springs is a rival of Las Vegas. Although the state of Arkansas has laws against gambling, which are not enforced. So far we know nothing about the night life here and we have never been to Las Vegas, but in daylight the streets do not appear much different from Northwest Highway back home —with hundreds of hotels and baths added.

We have known for some time that Hot Springs becomes a mecca for politicians from all parts of the United States following elections. Nobody mentions it, but the much - heralded mineral baths are supposed to counteract the excessive number of cocktails some candidates consume during a spirited campaign.

FOR TWO VILLAGE BOARDS

JOINT MEETINGS SLATED

Seek Better Coordination

In the future a committee of the Arlington Heights Village board will hold meetings with a committee of the board of local improvements so that trustees will know what the other board is thinking and doing, and vice versa.

The joint committee was agreed upon Saturday morning at a meeting of members of the two boards.

Village President John G. Woods proposed the idea, and Russell Colvin, president of the board of local improvements, endorsed it immediately, saying, "This is exactly what I have in mind; in fact, I have already discussed it with a couple of members of my board."

Saturday's meeting, and the idea of a special committee, grew out of difficulties in reaching agreement on the proposed special assessment project for Arlington Heights Park Manor.

This area in the southeast part of the village was subdivided in the Nineteen Twenties, ran into the depression, and afterwards never developed to the standards of other parts of the village. The upgrading of the area is one of major goals of the present administration.

The sharpest disagreement between the two boards has been on the question of street widths in the area. The village board recommended narrower-than-usual paving to make the assessment less expensive for home owners to increase the chances for approval. The board of local improvements refused to accept the village board recommendation. In turn, the village board has failed to guarantee 25 per cent of professional fees for the assessment, as requested by BOLI.

The most recent request for such a guarantee led to Saturday's meeting.

Trustee Norval Stephens and Harold Klingner of BOLI each declared that he felt the question of street vacations was more vital than street widths.

"Let's find out first which streets are to be abandoned and which are to be cul de sacs so sewer and water can be put in," Klingner said.

Robert Bishop, commdissioner on a number of special assessment projects, was present and recommended that the guarantee of 25 per cent of professional fees be given.

Bishop also said he had served on the board of local improvements when elected officials were members, and recalled that in those days "politics motivated a lot of decisions, especially when there were big audiences."

Trustee William J. Moore said, "We seem to be mired down in the gray area of what is policy and what is not. But this is the only case I recall where the village board and the board of local improvements have had differences."

Trustee William E. Sauer declared, "The only thing I see that we have to accomplish is to get this thing (the assessment) through, and soon."

Colvin said, "I have great faith in the joint committee idea. We are going to get Arlington Heights Park Manor solved in the way the people down there want, or we will not get it solved at all."

Moore observed, "Most important are the people down there, yet the village as a whole is concerned, too. I don't think you will satisfy the people in Arlington Heights Park Manor 100 per cent."

A letter from the executive committee of Arlington Heights Park Manor was sent to members of both boards last Thursday, but was not discussed at Saturday's meeting.

In this letter, the executive board recommended that zoning revert to single-family residential in the area, with the possible exception of perimeter lots, so that the need for wider streets caused by apartments and stores would not exist.

The home owners said they did not see themselves getting the financial benefits they expected when they withheld objection to the proposed apartments and stores.

NORTHWEST HWY
KENSINGTON RD

CONSTRUCTION WORK on a sewer, shown above, kept Kensington (Foundry) Road blockaded at Northwest Highway. The blockade should be removed in a few days, according to Bill Luehring, Arlington Heights superintendent of public works. Cold weather has caused some delay, he added, because union rules keep the men from work when the temperature is below 10 degrees above zero.

Park Officials Hot Over Permit Hassle

The focus of dispute over the proposed maintenance building in Pioneer Park apparently shifted this week.

Park officials said they believed they have satisfied the objections of neighboring residents, but the tension between the park board and Harold "Red" Best, Arlington Heights building commissioner, obviously rose several degrees.

Charles Cronin, park board president, met with Best for more than an hour Monday evening trying to get a building permit for the structure. Best refused to issue one, and Cronin left in anger.

LATER IN the evening, Best reported on the situation to village trustees, who were holding a special meeting. Best said he did not issue a permit because he was afraid the pitch of the proposed roof was so great that the tar and gravel roofing materials would slide off.

Commenting on this, Tom Thornton, park superintendent, said Tuesday: "Mr. Best was the person who suggested the roof."

Best also said he would probably issue the permit if the proposed location were Recreation Park instead of Pioneer Park.

Jack Siegel, village attorney, said he believed the village could not enforce zoning restrictions on the park board's use of park land, but that the village could require compliance with the building code.

ON DEC. 3, several residents spoke at the village board meeting, in opposition to the proposed building.

Last Thursday eight residents met with Thornton who explained the plans and invited them to choose the building elevation that they liked best.

Thornton said that he believed objections were satisfied when the meeting ended.

But then came the clash between Best and Cronin.

No Yule Gifts For Employees

The Arlington Heights Village Board has reaffirmed the policy of former years against members of village boards and commissions and village employes accepting Christmas gifts from persons with whom they conduct village business.

Village employes have been reminded of the policy by Village Manager L. A. Hanson, who has established a procedure for the return of such dure for the return of such gifts.

Attorney Post

Jack Siegel, village attorney for Arlington Heights and the Villaeg of Schaumburg, has been named part-time corporation counsel for the City of Evanston.

Planners Say

Yes to Apartments, No to Shop Center

Arlington Heights Plan Commission said both "yes" and "no" last Wednesday to the owner of 35 acres south of the village.

After a pre-annexation zoning hearing for land just west of Northwest Community Hospital between Central and Kirchoff Roads, the commission approved apartment zoning for 20 acres nearest Kirchoff, but disapproved the request for zoning to permit a shopping center on the south 15 acres.

The recommendation will go to the village board, which makes the final decision.

THE PLAN commission suggested that Johanna Gosch, the petitioner, consider giving up shopping center plans in favor of an institutional development, which might include a clinic, doctors' offices, a convalescent home, and a home for the aged.

The petition covering the property originally asked for offices and research use for the 15 acres near Central, but the ordinance requires that the village shall know who will occupy office and research buildings before that zoning classification is bestowed.

Fifteen apartment buildings, containing a total of 300 apartment units, are planned on the north 20 acres. Half of the units would have two bedrooms and half one bedroom. Rent is planned to be $139 a month for the one-bedroom units and $155 a month for the two-bedroom apartments.

The total cost of the apartment development would be $4 million, the plan commission was told. The estimated cost of the proposed shopping center was $3 million.

MEMBER Clyde Ferry led the opposition on the plan commission to the proposed shopping center. At one point in the hearing he said, "I question the feasibility of putting a shopping center in the middle of nowhere across from a Nike base."

Later in the discussion on the wisdom of building a shopping center, Ferry asked rhetorically, "Where does Central Road go?" and answered himself: "It doesn't go anywhere, it peters out beyond Wilke."

The vote on the plan commission recommendation was 6 to 2 with two members abstaining because they missed part of the hearing. Voting "yes" were Nick Barkulis, William Hannum, Ferry, Brice Miller, Charles Bennett and Chairman Harold E. Carlson. Voting "no" were Charles Cronin and George Hauff.

Testifying in behalf of Mrs. Gosch's petition were Don Florence, Arlington Heights real estate man, and architects Peter Tsolinas and Jerome Thelander, with offices at 121 S. Emerson, Mount Prospect.

Santa to Open Local Headquarters Today

Santa Claus will arrive in Arlington Heights today (Thursday).

His headquarters will be at 9 S. Dunton Ave., where he will consult with his youthful admirers through Dec. 24.

Santa's hours will be: from 4 to 8 p.m. Thursday and Friday, Dec. 14 and 15, and the same hours Monday through Friday of next week. On Saturday, Dec. 22, the hours will be from 1 to 5 p.m., and on Dec. 24 from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m.

SANTA'S visit to Arlington Heights is sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, which is also providing enough free candy for 10,000 kids, and sponsoring free movies at the Arlington Theatre.

The free movies will be shown at 9 and 11 a.m. Saturday, Dec. 15, and Saturday, Dec. 22. Tickets may be obtained from participating merchants, who have posters announcing the free movie treat in their store windows.

Paddock Photo Contest Planned

Announcement of a photographic contest open to all northwest suburban residents was made this week by Robert Y. Paddock, vice president of Paddock Publications, Inc.

Entitled Paddock Publications Northwest Suburban Photographic Contest, it will begin officially next week when complete rules and deadlines are published in the 14 Paddock newspapers.

"We feel there is a tremendous wealth of photographic talent in the northwest suburbs," Paddock explained, "and we'd like to provide some form of recognition for these photographers' efforts."

Judging of the contest will take place the week of Jan. 20. Complete details will be published next week in the issues of Dec. 20.

Inside This Week

The second article in Paddock Publications' latest series, "Harvest's End," exposes the slum housing plight of northwest suburban migrant and ex-migrant farm workers.

A full report in photo and text tells of the discovery near Palatine of extinct, elephant-like Mastodon bones estimated to be 10,000 years old.

How a team physician earned unique recognition from 30 championship football players is told in a heart-warming story from Prospect High School.

The final article in a special 3-part report on food labelling raises the question of whether new chemical advances are designed to improve food for consumers or merely increase profits for producers.

A late summary of top Illinois news from the wires of United Press International bring readers abreast of statewide developments.

'Messiah' Music

Music from Handel's "Messiah" will be performed at a free concert beginning at 3:15 p.m. Sunday at Miner Junior High School, Miner Street and Dryden Avenue, Arlington Heights.

The chorus and Arlington Heights Symphony Orchestra will be directed by Mel Kasen.

Soloists will be: Vera Valentine, soprano; Mrs. Helen Reese contralto; Isaac Strain, tenor, and William Fricke, baritone.

The corus and orchestra will hold its final rehearsal at 1:30 p.m. Sunday, just before the concert.

Attorney to Report On Rezoning Hearing

Village Attorney Jack Siegel will report next Monday to Arlington Heights trustees on a public hearing on rezoning for 79 acres at the northeast corner of Wilke and Dundee Roads.

The hearing, continued from one held last spring, was scheduled for yesterday afternoon (Wednesday).

The petitioners, Kenroy Realtors, reportedly were prepared to withdraw their request for mixed apartment and business zoning in favor of one for industrial and office and research uses.

KENROY Realtors have also said they hope to annex the land to Arlington Heights. They told Siegel they would give him a petition for annexation before the public hearing.

Siegel, in behalf of the village, strenuously opposed the apartment and business proposal presented last spring.

During discussion of the case last Monday, trustees indicated that they would look more favorably on industrial and office and research uses, which are in harmony with village plans.

HOWEVER, they instructed Siegel not to withdraw the village's objections, but instead to report to them at their regular meeting next Monday.

Part of the land is destined to be purchased by the state for a cloverleaf in connection with the future Route 53 expressway. Trustee Norval Stephens said, "I think we do not want to zone or annex in order to enhance the value of the land prior to possible condemnation proceedings for the cloverleaf."

Realty Firm May Drop Lounge Plan

Adelman & Brott, Chicago real estate firm, reportedly was prepared to withdraw a proposed cocktail lounge from its plans for a business and apartment development at Dempster and Linneman Roads near the United Air Lines headquarters in Elk Grove Township when the public hearing resumed on the matter yesterday evening (Wednesday) in the Mount Prospect village hall.

It is reported that United Air Lines will drop its objection to the requested zoning if the cocktail lounge is deleted from plans.

THE VILLAGE of Arlington Heights and United Air Lines strenuously opposed the petition at the first hearing Sept. 12. Recently a mimeographed leaflet prepared by United Air Lines and distributed to homes in the area urged residents to "Fight to Save Your Neighborhood. Stop The Encroachment of Saloons and Undesirable Businesses."

Jack Siegel, village attorney of Arlington Heights, questioned not only the proposed liquor license but also the plan for 244 apartment units. He filed a formal objection in behalf of the village.

At Wednesday's hearing, it was expected that testimony would be heard from Elk Grove Village and Mount Prospect, and from Elk Grove School District 59, which did not testify at the first hearing.

BOB'S TEXACO TOPICS

by Bob Bentz

BEWARE PEDAL PUMPERS

You see many drivers during cold weather pumping away on their car's accelerator, and racing the motor. This is called 'warming' the old bus.

You're wearing it out, too, many times faster than if you would let it run slowly. By pumping and racing the motor, gasoline by-passes the cylinders and dilutes the oil. This causes bearings and rings to grind down metal on metal.

Of course, you don't realize this until you do it often enough, and then a king-sized engine repair bill smacks you down.

It's a good idea to change oil often during cold weather, too. It'll pay for itself over the long haul, and give you a dividend of a longer lasting motor.

Another good idea is to drive over to 1604 W. Northwest Hwy., Arlington Heights, where BOB'S TEXACO AUTO SERVICE will give you fine and accurate auto services. We're not just another filling station. (Phone CL 3-9746)

Democrat Senator 'Aids' GOP Women

A $25 fee which was paid for use of a loudspeaker on Arlington Heights streets will be refunded to the Wheeling Township Women's Republican Club.

Village trustees approved the refund Monday after being told by Village Manager L. A. Hanson that no political organization had been required to pay the fee since the ordinance was defied by U.S. Sen. Paul H. Douglas, D-Ill., last Sept. 24 at the corner of Campbell Street and Dunton Avenue.

Sen. Douglas said the ordinance was an unconstitutional limitation on free speech.

Village Attorney Jack Siegel Monday reiterated an opinion given soon after the Douglas speech that the law probably could not be enforced against political and religious speakers.

Hold Men For Buick Burglary

An Elmhurst man and two companions from Bensenville have been charged with the burglary last week of Bill Cook Buick Agency, Arlington Heights, in which $85 was taken.

Larry Sutterlin, 454 W. 2nd, Elmhurst, is free on $5,000 bond. His court appearance is set for Jan. 16.

HIS TWO companions are Marc Eilrich, 15W684 George St., Bensenville, and Dale Allen, also of Bensenville, who did not furnish a street address.

Eilrich and Allen are held in DuPage County Jail on other charges.

uSterlin was apprehended Saturday and reportedly confessed the burglary to Officer Phil Olshefsky. (AF

Village Seeks Permission To Proceed on Sewer Work

Officials of Arlington Heights are meeting with Metropolitan Sanitary District officials this week to try to get permission to build the second phase of the village's $3.5 million storm sewer system according to original plans.

The Sanitary District permit for the second phase of the sewer program contains restrictions which would limit the flow of storm water. Arlington Heights officials have declared the restrictions "unacceptable."

VILLAGE President John G. Woods, accompanied by Village Attorney Jack Siegel, was scheduled to meet with Vinton Bacon, superintendent of the Sanitary District, Wednesday to try to get the restrictions lifted.

If they did not succeed Wednesday, they intended to appear before Sanitary District trustees a their regular meeting Thursday.

A contract for the second phase of the work was awarded Nov. 5 to Rossetti Contracting Co., whose bid was $922,912.65.

Opposition to Arlington

Opposition to Arlington Heights storm sewer plans has come this year from the village of Mount Prospect and the city of Des Plaines, whose officials have said the increased discharge of storm water into Weller Creek as a result of the new sewers will create a flooding hazard for the downstream communities.

ARLINGTON Heights officials have denied that this will happen. Their engineering consultants have said it will not, and they claim the figures produced by the Mount Prospect engineering consultants are likewise evidence that it will not.

Arlington Heights has also quoted the opinion of Jack Shaeffer, water expert of the Northeast Illinois Metropolitan Area Planning Commission, that presently Arlintgon Heights and the basements of its homes are acting as a vast retention basin for the entire Weller Creek area.

"It is manifestly unfair to ask Arlington Heights to accept the full burden of the Weller Creek problem," Woods said.

"We cannot in good conscience settle for less than the voters approved," he added. The storm sewer program was approved in a referendum a year ago.

LAST SUMMER several joint meetings of village officials of Arlington Heights, Mount Prospect and Des Plaines were held to seek a solution to Weller Creek problems.

The different villages passed resolutions asking Governor Kerner to release funds for improvements to Weller Creek, which he has not done because of the state's financial crisis.

No meetings of the joint group have been held in recent months.

Supervised Skate Areas Are Planned

Three supervised ice skating areas will be operated this winter by the Arlington Heights Park District.

General skating, plus a separate hockey rink, will be available at Pioneer Park. At Recreation Park, the multi-purpose playground area will serve as a skating rink. The third location will be the retention basin at Douglas and Olive.

Throughout the season, information on skating can be obtained by calling the park district's automatic answering service at CLearbrook 9-3936.

Await Final Fund Report

A final report on the results of the Arlington Heights Area Combined Appeal for nine civic and charitable organizations is awaiting the completion of collections in the Scarsdale area, according to Tom Stewart, general chairman.

Stewart said the final report would probably come after the holidays. The Combined Appeals annual meeting and election of officers will also take place soon after the beginning of the new year.

Auto Tag Sales Start Saturday

Arlington Heights vehicle stickers will go on sale over-the-counter Saturday morning, according to L. A. Hanson, village manager.

The new municipal building at 33 S. State Rd. will be open from 9 a. m. to 12 noon that day, and succeeding Saturdays for an indefinite period, Hanson added.

Cost of stickers is the same as last year.

Rembrandt Picture Popular Among Old Masters' Works

by GISELA FRERICHS

If you want to treat your family to a picture for that empty wall in your living room, it's a good idea to start looking around for it so that you can have it framed in time for the holidays.

You will easily find some pictures you like among the hundreds of reproductions of famous shops, book and museum stores. But the final choice might be hard.

YOUR TASTE may lean toward Rembrandt whose Man With The Golden Helmet hung over the mantelpiece in your parents' home. Though the picture would look well with your traditional furnitures, you wonder whether this favorite of yesterday fell out of fashion.

One way of learning about today's taste in pictures is to ask our art museums which annually sell thousands of reproductions to the art loving public. A recent survey shows that of the old masters, Rembrandt ranks first in popularity.

Other best sellers among the older art schools are El Greco's View of Toledo, Gainsborough's Blue Boy, and Goya's Don Manuel.

GRAND AS these paintings are, your family might prefer something more modern. Their choice might be the great French impressionist Renoir whose charming On The Terrace, Little Margot Berard, and Mademoiselle Lacaux are nationwide favorites.

There is something special about a Renoir painting. Give it an elaborate golden frame and it blends in beautifully with a traditional setting; a contemporary frame of simple design makes it a perfect choice for a modern home.

But not all art lovers seem to treasure happy pictures such at Renoirs. The Art Institute of Chicago reports that this year's best-seller of modern masterpieces is Picasso's The Old Guitarist, a sad picture in all hues of blue. The Tragedy, also a blue Picasso, is a best-seller at the National Gallery of Art in Washington D.C.

IF YOU feel you need a blue painting for an accent in your color scheme, but want a happier one, you could choose Picasso's Blue Boy. This is another best-seller, according to America's largest print publisher.

The same source reveals that of the contemporary American artists who hang in our museums, Feininger is the rage today. The Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York agrees with this. The Museum of Modern Art, however, lists Wyeth's Christina's World among its best-sellers. This painting, depicting an American scene, is a good choice for a traditional as well as a modern home.

Of course, there are other fine paintings, but with these museum treasurers you cannot go wrong.

AS FOR the prices of reproductions, the more you pay, the closer in color the print will be to the original.

Excellent reproductions range from approximately three to 20 dollars, depending on the size of the print. Most stores selling prints will also frame them for you. (A-14

January Payments Total $19 Million

January insurance dividend payments to some 290,000 Illinois veterans will total more than $19,230,000, John B. Naser, Veterans Administration Regional Office Manager in Chicago, said this week.

A combined annual and special dividend to World War II veterans (National Service Life Insurance) will total $18,283,000. World War I veterans (U.S. Government Life Insurance) will receive $947,000 as their regular annual dividend.

The regular annual dividend payments are usually spread out through the year, being paid on the anniversary date of each policy, Naser explained.

HOWEVER, the White House announced Nov. 22 that payments will be stepped up so that all will be completed during January. It may be as early as January 15, VA estimates.

In addition, John S. Gleason Jr., administrator of Veterans Affairs, has announced that another special dividend, to be paid at about the same time to World War II veterans, will be possible this year. A special dividend was paid NSLI policyholders in 1961.

This special dividend is paid from a contingency reserve fund which will remain more than ample to meet the needs of the insurance program. (A-14

Sherman Hospital Making Advances

Radioisotopes are now being used in diagnostic studies at Sherman Hospital, Elgin, Harold W. Salmon, administrator, announced this week.

Leonard C. Hurley, M.D., pathologist at Sherman Hospital, has recently been licensed by the Atomic Energy Commission to procure and use radioactive materials in diagnostic studies in the hospital.

James Stanley, hospital medical technologist, registered by the American Society of Clinical Pathologists, and Mrs. Susan Fairbank, technician of the Sherman laboratory staff, have recently completed a course in radioactive isotope techniques for medical technologists.

A RADIOISOTOPE instrument, costing $6,000, has been installed in a room on the second floor adjacent to the examining room, and is now being used under the direction of Dr. Hurley. Radioisotopes for diagnostic purposes are being obtained from the Atomic Energy Commission in Oak Ridge, Tenn.

"Radiation emissions from radioisotopes is used in the diagnosis of thyroid function, gastrointestinal function and absorption ability, and renal function as a sensitive indicator of variation from the normal," Dr. Hurley explained.

He added, "Radioisotopes also are extremely useful in determining blood volume before and after surgical procedures, decreasing the risk inherent in any such procedures." Radioisotopes are also of value in diagnosis of various blood disorders, according to the pathologist.

A MAJOR function of radioisotopes today, Dr. Hurley pointed out, is measurement of the exact amount of blood lost in an accident.

Dr. Hurley explained that minute trace quantities of radioactive material are given to the patient and the diagnosis is accomplished by using the radioactive instrument to measure the amount of radioactivity that is retained. (A14

Space Age Knocking on Midwest Industry Door

KANSAS CITY, MO., (UPI) — The space age, in the person of scientists from Midwest Research Institute here, has been knocking almost literally on the doors of Midwestern industry.

Now the campaign is nearing completion of its first phase and moving into a second. It is, in effect, awaiting a response to the knock.

"And we expect responses soon," a spokesman said.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) employed Midwest research to spread space age knowledge among industrial, civic and business leaders of six states and to bring about increased participation by university science departments in research and education in the space sciences.

Since the $250,000 annual program was announced Oct. 26, a team acting as missionaries for NASA has visited every major university and numerous communities in Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska, Arkansas, Iowa and Oklahoma.

JAMES ALCOTT and Howard Gadberry, and often Dr. Charles Kimball, president of the institute, have called on industrial leaders, spreading the gospel of technology. At each city, part of their presentation was tailored to the specific locale.

Industrialists in Hutchinson, Kan., for example, heard about a space age development which brought a new concept for a circuit breaker and an improved type of life raft, both of which offered ideas applicable to private enterprise.

Eldon Sneegas of the research organization described such space age benefits to industry as "economic fallout from the space program." He told of new concepts acquired from space developments and put to use by firms in Omaha, St. Louis and Kansas City.

"BUT SUCH economic fallout is not automatic," he said. "Irrespective of the quality of the idea we present, it requires an aggressive, intelligent attitude on the part of the firm which will ultimately benefit."

With the touring scientists go displays of industrial application of space age science. They include such items as a battery powered hand tool which utilizes the same type of power source as many space vehicles.

Gadberry identified four main kinds of space - related ideas useful to industry: new materials, new or improved processes; new product opportunities, management aids and techniques.

Only two remaining "first meetings" with industry now are scheduled, although others may be set up later. These are for Little Rock, Ark., Dec. 18 and Davenport, Iowa, Jan. 23.

MEANTIME, the space age missionaries moving into the second phase of the operation, return visits.

After industrial leaders of the various areas have mulled over the possibilities suggested by initial visits of the scientists, they may call for a return session in which their questions can be answered and specific advice given on specific possibilities.

Microphone Will Go to Pool Side

The "YMCA on the Go Show" takes its microphone poolside at the Northwest Suburban YMCA today, Thursday, from 4:30 to 4:45 p.m., on FM Station WNWC (92.7 on your dial) where Helen Coryell, "Y" women's and girls' program director, is conducting an advanced adult women's water ballet class.

Miss Coryell will describe a special water ballet routine while the class members are actually performing it in the water.

ON SATURDAY, the regular "Meet Your Neighbors at the Y" radio interview show will feature two singers, Karyl Jacobsen of Arlington Heights, who has starred as Annie in "Annie Get Your Gun" for the Best Off Broadway Players and also has sung professionally in the Chicago area, and Leonard Norman, also of Arlington Heights, who was a featured singer with the Horace Heidt Band.

The third guest on this program will be Tom Shand, "Y" Health Club Director, who will discuss the YMCA Men's Cambridge Club as well as the many services offered by the Men's Health Club for "Y" members.

The village has agreed to store the scene when it is not on display, and to set it up at the approach of Christmas.

Caucus Solicits Candidates Names

7 Letters have been sent to 89 Arlington Heights organizations by the Caucus inviting them to submit names of possible candidates for municipal office.

The Candidate Selection Committee of the Caucus will interview persons nominated and recommend two for each post to a public meeting, which will make its endorsements.

The date for the public meeting to choose a Caucus slate has been set for Feb. 11.

Four trustees and a police magistrate will be elected next April.

THE COMPLETE roster of the Candidate Selection Committee was announced this week.

Vacancies have been filled by Hugo C. Kibbie, 202 S. Vail, first precinct; Nathaniel Leighton, 746 S. Mitchell, third precinct; Henry Warga, 636 N. Chicago, fourth precinct, and Lowell Christy, 505 S. Belmont, eighth precinct.

In addition, Fred Ainslie, 106 E. Rockwell, has replaced Clyde Rhodes in the sixth precinct; John T. Amato, 910 N. Vail, has replaced Edward Wahl in the ninth precinct, and Dr. Jerome Schoen, 721 N. Gibbons, has replaced John F. White in the 21st precinct.

THE CANDIDATE Selection Committee already has held three meetings under the chairmanship of Fred Marks, 520 S. Mitchell.

Caucus Chairman Ed Neas is expected to announce his appointments to standing committees next week.

Prepare Ordinance

Classify Home As 'Nuisance'

An ordinance is being prepared which will declare the building owned by C. J. "Doc" Williams at 1 N. Hickory St., Arlington Heights, a "nuisance" and order the nuisance to be abated.

The village board approved the drafting of the ordinance after hearing a report Monday from Harold J. "Red" Best, building commissioner, that the structure was far below standard.

Best said that salvage materials have been used by Williams in construction, that poor workmanship was evident, and that many violations of the village building code could be listed.

BEST ALSO said that a "stop work" order which had been delivered to Williams by police had been ignored.

In addition, Best reported that Williams has threatened to shoot him if he entered the home.

"I haven't been shot yet, because I haven't gone in," Best said.

Best said Williams believed "a man's home is his castle."

WILLIAMS WAS fined recently by Judge Walter B. Dahl for building without a permit. Judge Dahl also ordered Williams to permit Best to make inspections in the home.

If trustees adopt the nuisance ordinance Monday, and Williams does not heed it, the matter can be taken to Circuit Court, Village Attorney Jack Siegel told trustees.

Formation of a new board of trustees of the Better Government Association was announced this week by Roy C. Ingersoll, BGA board chairman.

In addition to Chairman Ingersoll, the new board will include the following:

John E. Swearingen, Standard Oil Co. (Indiana); Ben W. Heineman, Chicago & North Western Railway; Harold Byron Smith, Illinois Tool Works; Edwin A. Locke, Jr., Union Tank Car Company; Gardner Brown, White, Weld & Co.; Julien H. Collins, Julien Collins & Co.; Daniel C. Searle, G. D. Searle & Co.; William G. Caples, Inland Steel Company; Cyrus H. Adams III, Carson Pirie Scott & Co., BGA president.

"BECAUSE OF the expanded BGA program," Ingersoll said, "particularly in connection with investigations of performance by public officials and public employees, we have for some time felt the need for a board of trustees composed of men who, because of their positions in the community, would best be able to evaluate policy and program in light of our principal objective—to make Chicagoland a better place in which to live and to do business."

The present board of directors will continue to be responsible for BGA operations within the framework of the policies and program developed by the board of trustees, and for making recommendations of candidates for public office. (A14

Farmer Is At End of Patience

SHEBOYGAN, WIS., (UPI) — When the 22nd car in three years careened off U.S. 141 into his farm, Arthur Remaker decided it wasn't going to leave quite as easily as it came.

Ran.aker, 65, refused to let a wrecker truck on his property to remove the car, which he says is going to stay where it is — overturned in his field — until he gets a settlement from the motorist's insurance company. He says he's tired of delays in payment.

MOTORISTS keep ignoring stop signs and a flashing signal and slamming into Ramaker's properly instead of turning either left or right as U.S. 141 and Wis. 42 split off in a T two miles north of Sheboygan. "One night we had two," the farmer reported indignantly.

But despite his solution to the damage problem, Rameker said said, "Another accident like this and I'll move." (B8

Santa Claus Fears Plot By Teens

MADISON, WIS., —(UPI)Santa Claus told police last week he thinks a disgrunted teen-ager is out to get him.

John Fry, 37, a Santa at the Hilldale Shopping Center here, told police he saw the shadow of a hand clutching a gun when he entered his darkened workshop last Friday and didn't think it was a friendly brownie's.

Fry told detectives that he turned and ran, stumbling over a Christmas tree and became tangled in the string of lights. The lights were still draped over him as he talked with police.

INVESTIGATORS found the back door was open. No money is kept in the building and Santa could give no reason for any intruder in his workshop.

He told police he has been bothered lately by teen-agers. One of them said he wanted a new zip gun for Christmas and added that if he didn't get one, he'd use his old one on Santa.

Farmers Can Sign Up for Wheat Plan

Cook County farmers are reminded they have until 5 p.m. this Friday to sign up for the 1963 winter wheat program. To be eligible for diversion payments, including an 18 cents per bushel price support above the $1.82 loan rate, wheat farmers must reduce their 1963 acreage by at least 20 per cent.

The purpose of the program is to reduce the burdensome over-abundance of wheat in this country, and at the same time maintain a fair wheat price to farmers.

COOPERATION of farmers in the 1962 program contributed to a reduction in the current carry-over of wheat. The 1963 program can reportedly further assist in the orderly management of wheat stocks.

Paul Fitzpatrick, office manager in Orland Park, urges interested Cook County farmers to call at the local ASCS office. They will be glad to explain how the program works on individual farms. Hours are 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday.

County Mulls Eliminating

The Cook County Board of Commissioners is considering eliminating payment of rent to villages to provide courtrooms for justices of the peace as one area where the 1963 county budget can be trimmed back.

County Board President Seymour Simon said Tuesday the matter would be discussed with the county's justice of the peace administrator, Attorney H. P. Reynolds.

Simon said he has discussed the issue with County Comptroller Richard Hodgman and Commissioner George Dunne, board finance chairman.

"Unless there are legal requirements to meet, we will stop the payments," Simon remarked.

HE SAID $69,600 was appropriated for this purpose last year, of which $30,000 has been spent over a 10-month period. An appropriation of $40,000 is being asked in the 1963 budget to pay these rents, Simon added.

The county began renting courtroom space for justices of the peace in its 30 townships after passage of a law in August 1961 which put the JPs on a salary basis and made them officers of the county. The legislation reduced their number per township, and removed the JPs from a fee system.

Simon also commented that progress is being made cutting budget requests in other county departments.

Simon related the number of civil service department positions are being reduced from 22 to 19, and the initial budget request of the department head of $149,000 has been slashed to $133,000. Last year, the appropriation was for $150,000, he pointed out.

THE DEPARTMENT of Central Services has reduced the number of positions by eight, from 83 to 75 posts, with its budget requests down from $785,000 to $711,000. The 1962 appropriation was for $724,000.

The county auditor has trimmed personnel from 115 to 106, and his appropriation has been whittled to $671,000 from the $694,000 originally requested. Appropriations for the auditor last year totalled $707,000.

Economies have also been affected in the purchasing agent's department, Simon observed. Personnel has been cut by one, from 40 to 39, while his budget is down to $393,000 from $410,000 asked. Last year, $426,000 was budgeted for his office.

Simon commented, however, that budget increases can be expected for the Cook County Hospital, Oak Forest Hospital and the Cook County School of Nursing.

"If we are to provide adequate care, there will have to be some increases. We are struggling now with the question of how much the increase will be," the county board president said.

HE SAID the county hospital budget is $637,000 over last year's appropriation of $12,600,000, but that he thought this excess could be reduced in half.

Simon said a cutback at the hospital would hinder services and might affect accreditation by the American Medical Association.

He said he was confident further reductions could be made in the highway budget.

Tri-Color Farm Horses Sweep High Score Awards

Over 250 people attended the banquet award dinner at the Swedish Club (Chicago) to applaud the champion and reserve hunters and jumpers of the Illinois area.

George W. Jayne's Fantasia captured the Working Hunter championship with stablemate, Souvenir, owned by Mrs. Robert Schmidt of Arlington Heights, taking the reserve.

Aztec Sun, owned and ridden by Betty Lue Helferich, was the only horse to win two championships, the Green Working Hunter and the 14 through 17 Children's Hunter. Sherylan Fante's, Ever-ready gave Aztec Sun a good chase in the children's hunters and took reserve.

THE 13 AND under children's hunter was decided at the last show with only one point difference. Katie Monahan's, Tina won the championship and Bob McGinley rode his Daybreak to the reserve.

Bill McGinley's, Pocahantas again received the championship trophy and ribbon for the second straight year for Open Jumpers. Curfew, owned by Steve Haight, was reserve.

Election of officers was held for the Town and Country Equestrian Association and William McGinley was unanimously elected president.

Sportsmans Cage Play Under Way

The Arlington Heights Park District's Sportsmans basketball league got under way last week, and from all indications it looks as though the teams are pretty evenly matched.

Defending Champion Hawkeyes had to rely on a 15 point half time lead in order to hold off a strong second half rally by the Scooters. The Hawkeyes came up on top with a 51-47 decision.

Last years runner-up, I.B.T. turned on the power against the Blues to rack up an 80-16 win.

Arlington Roofing took a very close 49-48 contest from the Misfits who just couldn't get going in the first half. Arlington Roofing took a 24-12 half time lead, but were out scored 36-25 in the second half.

Ridge Park–Sherwood

FROM RIDGE PARK

Birthday parties, book fairs and confirmations kept Ridge Parkers busy this week. Nancy Niell, daughter of the J. H. Niells, 630 N. Salem, was 5 Monday. On hand to help her celebrate were her sister, LeAnne, and brothers, David and Jeffrey. Joining in the party fun were Monica Schlickman, Mike Stein, and Jonathan, Christopher, and Bobby Bone. Former Ridge Parker Chris Vickery brought Ricky and Tammy back from Des Plaines to wish Nancy happy birthday.

Confirmation Wednesday at St. James was a special day for several Ridge Park families. Bishop Raymond Hillinger, scheduled to confirm the children, became ill, and the sacrament was administered by Bishop A. Wycislo of Chicago, who has just returned from the Ecumenical Council at Rome.

Patti Wayman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wayman, 924 N. Ridge, was among the children confirmed. Her sponsor was her cousin, Miss Maribeth Thompson of McHenry. Dinner was served to Patti's godparents, the James Thompsons, and Mrs. Carl Elshoff of McHenry. Sunday the Wayman family visited Mrs. Wayman's sister, the James Wagners of Milton, Wis.

MARK WINTERS, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Winters, 1015 N. Princeton, was confirmed with his brother, Jerome, as sponsor. The family celebrated by dinner out afterwards. On Saturday, Marcy Winters will enjoy a fifth birthday party planned by her big sister, Louise. Her guests will include Tara Stoltzner, Margie and Sheila McRae, Toni and Cindy Rahn and sister, Celeste.

Norman Wall Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Wall, 936 N. Ridge, celebrated afterwards with his sponsor, Harry Krol and family.

College days at Taft furnished the subject of conversation at a recent alumni reunion for the Richard Platts, 806 N. Kennicott, and the R. J. Splitts, 906 N. Harvard. At Old Orchard Country Club they found the Don Wheelers, 714 Elm, and reminisced happily about undergraduate adventures.

The Platts celebrated Terrence's eighth birthday by taking a group of friends to the Boy Scout pancake supper after games at the Platt home. Included were David Mills, Johnny Stevens, Douglas Law, Michael Topp, Bobby Givens, Rick Sundquist, David Higg and John Beresheim.

GARIN MICHAEL Kroll, son of the Duane Krolls, 918 N. Illinois, was christened at St. James Nov. 25 by Father Roth. His godparents were cousins, Miss Theresa and Michael Sesing, of Milwaukee. The Krolls entertained the Sesing family after the christening.

"Come over and help Patti with her music," asked Todd Shumate as he rang Jan Bone's doorbell Thursday evening. Unsuspecting, she crossed the street, to find neighbors gathered at Charlene Shumate's, 717 N. Salem, for a surprise going-away party. In on the secret were Rusty Walters, Mrs. H. Erickson and Mrs. Vera Iselberger, Ann Inselberger, Pat Phillip, Delores Niell, Margaret Schlickman, Liz Oertel and Mrs. Theodore Oertel.

Friday night Mrs. Arthur Hughes, 647 N. Kaspar, was hostess at a Kaspar Street coffee for Jan. Wishing her well were Ruth Griffith, Jerry Grandt, Virginia Bartik, Shirley Erd, Carol Wille and Dorothy Mussachio.

Dave's "birthday" present to Jan is the Bones' new home at 353 Morris Drive, Winston Park NW, Palatine. With moving day set for Friday, the Park. They moved here on Dorothy Cryer will continue the column for a week or two, Bones regretfully leave Ridge Jan's birthday three years ago. with Jan resuming after getting settled.

CONFIRMATION at St. James saw Kathy Barnes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Barnes, 1016 N. Kaspar, receiving the sacrament. Her sponsor was Mrs. James K. Barnes of Chicago. Dinner at Kathy's grandparents', the H. Fischers of Barrington, preceded the service and afterwards the Barnes entertained the James K. and the James J. Barnes families of Chicago.

Joanne Kieca, daughter of the Frank Kiecas, 821 N. Salem, had as her sponsor Mrs. Peggy Maher of Rolling Meadows. The Kiecas entertained Joanne's grandparents, the Matthew Voegtles of Mount Prospect and Mrs. Sophie Kieca of Chicago, for dinner. Present also were the Matthew Voegtle Jr. and the Thomas Voegtle families and Philip Maher, who took part in the confirmation ceremonies with the Knights of Columbus.

Two birthdays in the John Raitt family were celebrated Sunday by a trip to Chicago to visit Mrs. Raitt's sister, Miss Jean McLain, observing her birthday. Leslie Raitt, now 10, also was honored with the family celebration.

ANDY SCHLICKMAN, son of the Gene Schlickmans, 712 N. Fernandez, was also confirmed at St. James, with his sponsor being his uncle, Tom Muraski of Villa Park. They celebrated afterwards with dinner out. On Sunday Happy Birthday was sung twice in honor of Mary, now 6, and Gene. Joining in congratulations were the L. J. Schlickmans of Rockford, Mrs. Lucy Muraski and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Webner.

A recent birthday in the Seaman home, 919 N. Fernandez, called for a Thanksgiving celebration. On hand to help Susan turn 12 were her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Anders Hogfeldt of Harwood Heights and Mr. and Mrs. Gus Pantelis, of Chicago. There also were the Ronald Hogfeldts and Heiko Pollem, of Germany. Marguerite Seaman attended the University of Illinois dance in Chicago last weekend with Telie Avlonas, a foreign exchange student from Greece.

At the Howard Tollefson home, 1504 W. Brown, December proved a busy month. Lisa and Mark, the twins, were 2 and celebrated at a quiet family party, each with his own cake and candles. Johnny Tollefson was confirmed Wednesday at St. James. His sponsor was Vincent Lane, and the Tollefsons entertained the Lanes afterwards.

Karen, daughter of the Vince Lanes, 923 N. Race, was also a member of the confirmation class. She had Mrs. Blanche Tollefson as her sponsor.

Eileen Dunne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dunne, 1016 N. Illinois, was also confirmed. Her grandmother, Mrs. Catherine Megary, was her sponsor, and there was a quiet family gathering after the service.

FRIDAY the Dunnes entertained the Joseph Talabers, Bill Hennemans and the Richard Kortes for an evening of bridge. The group made plans for a holiday get-together and a gala evening. Tuesday Mrs. Dunne was hostess to Mrs. Sue Murphy, Mrs. Madeline Knight, Mrs. Betty Krebsbach, Mrs. Lou Hanigan, Mrs. Gabe Katovitch, Mrs. Julie Alm and Mrs. Mary Camp.

Mrs. Dunne and her mother are still praising the thoughtfulness of Don Langguth, a junior at Arlington High. En route home from church late one evening, the women ran out of gas. The boy a stranger to them, stopped, pushed the car off the road and offered to get gas from a nearby filling station. When all proved closed, he offered to go to his home and drain the lawnmower. That also was unsuccessful, so he returned and drove the women home.

FROM SHERWOOD

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Merl Peek will be happy to know they are back in Arlington Heights after more than two years in California. Formerly of Patton Street in Sherwood, they moved to Palos Verdes Estates, where he worked with smog control. They, with Lisby, Emery and Jeff, will live in Scarsdale.

Friends and neighbors of Mrs. Nat Burfeind, 1130 N. Harvard, are extending sympathy on the recent death of her mother of Columbia, Mo.

SHERWOOD parents are preparing for family reunions with their college children. Among those expected for Christmas vacation is Bill Poole, son of the James Pooles, 1106 N. Princeton. Bill, a TKE and forestry major at Southern Illinois University, Carbondale, has just taken exams for second class airman.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Burgess, 1218 W. Clarendon Road, are looking forward to the arrival of Bruce from Miami University in Oxford, Ohio. Bruce will spend only a week of his holidays here before leaving for Washington to attend John Petersen's wedding. The Burgess family enjoyed Thanksgiving in Des Moines, visiting Bob, Barbie and their youngsters. (A

Play School Registrants Being Taken

Arlington Heights Park District announced this week that new registrations were being taken for the second session of play school.

The new session will run from Jan. 8 through March 21. The play school meets on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursdays from 9 to 11:30 a.m. at Pioneer and Recreation Park fieldhouses.

BOYS AND GIRLS, ages 3, 4, and five years, are eligible for the class. The play school is a cooperative program and mothers are required to assist the teacher on a rotating schedule.

New registrants have until Dec. 21 to sign up. Starting Dec. 26, those in the first session will be able to fill whatever vacancies still remain.

The fee for the 11-week program is $15. (A

Annual Ball

Arlington High School's senior class will present the annual Christmas Ball, "Mistletoe Magic," in the boys' gymnasium, 9 p.m. Saturday night, Dec. 22.

Students and alumni are invited to attend, according to the sponsors. Tickets may be purchased at the door for $2.50 per couple. Don Jeris and his orchestra will provide the music. (ACM-EG

Supply, Demand Cause Oil Price Increases

Why is it that when the thermometer goes down, the price of home heating oil goes up? The answer can be summed up, says the National Oil Fuel Institute, in two words - supply and demand.

Heating oil prices follow the natural fluctuations of a free enterprise business - they are not government regulated as are some other fuels, points out the National Oil Fuel Institute.

This means seasonal variations, but the most economic price for the consumer year round.

IN THE summer just as you could have had a head start on the cold weather by filling your home storage tank when supply was high and prices were lower, your dealer and his distributor did the same thing — stockpiled to get a head start on winter.

Cold weather costs rise sharply for those in the fuel oil business. They have to add delivery trucks, employ additional personnel, and take on many other extra expenses to meet the 24-hour-a-day needs of their customers.

To keep your tank filled, the man way back at the beginning of the chain — the producer of fuel oil — must pay higher refining and transportation costs to send a steady supply to the storage depots.

RESULTING price increases, however, often mark only a restoration to previous winter price levels, the Institute says.

In addition, heating oil is expensive for the industry to store. This helps to explain why its price goes down in summer. During the hot months, oilmen give their customers a price break to induce homeowners to aid in storage by filling the home tank.

This is similar to the cycle in industries like the retail clothing industry which sell off-season merchandise at a reduction avoiding storage — but then prices go up to normal again when the new season arrives.

REGARDLESS OF these seasonal changes heating oil has kept the overall price line better than any other fuel, the Institute says.

According to the consumer price index over the last available five year period — 1955-61 — oil increased 2.7 per cent in price, gas 20.6 per cent, solid fuels 8.2 and electricity 4.7. All items combined increased 10 per cent.

The Institute adds that "oil has increased its bargain value by improvements in refining and equipment over the last ten years which have helped cut the winter requirements for the average American home by 20 per cent, or from 1,832 gallons to 1,458.

AT THE SAME time retail services have been stepped up, adding further oil heat values."

"Oil," says the Institute, "will be one of the best home bargains, this winter, for the 65,000,000 Americans kept comfortable with oil heat. It is a better product at fair prices controlled by the best agency ever - namely the natural forces in the market of supply and demand." (A14

27 Friendly Reasons

The people you see in this picture are the people who serve you at HARRIS PHARMACY. Some of them fill your orders at our always-popular fountain. Eight of them are experienced pharmacists available to meet your prescription needs accurately and promptly.

All of these people, however, have just one thing in mind right now . . . to help you with your Christmas gift selections, to make your shopping trips less of a chore and more of a pleasure.

These 27 friendly HARRIS PHARMACY people (actually there are 30, but three were too busy to stand still for the photographer) are genuinely interested in helping you. Practically all are Arlington Heights residents, maybe even your friends and neighbors. They like what they are doing and they know their business. They're skilled in helping you pick out just the right gift for everyone. (Indeed, they frequently know what the person you're shopping for really wants!)

Christmas shopping at HARRIS PHARMACY has become a tradition over the past 12 years because our customers like our friendly, helpful atmosphere. It's a policy we established when Arlington Heights was a much smaller community, and we mean to keep it that way.

Yes, all our HARRIS PHARMACY people are looking forward to seeing you again and helping you again this Christmas shopping season.

Sex Education Lecture Set For St. Viator Club Meet

Sex Education of Children - For Parents - will be the subject of a lecture by Rev. Francis L. Filas, S. J., Chairman, Dept. of Theology of Loyola University.

Father Filas will speak under the sponsorship of the St. Viator High School Booster Club in the School's auditorium, 1213 E. Oakton St., Arlington Heights, on Wednesday, Dec. 19, at 8 p.m. All club members, friends, and other interested parents are invited to attend.

Father Filas has spoken to more than 125,000 husband and wives or couples preparing for marriage in the past few years. His appearances on network T.V. for the past seven years in educational and religious telecasts have made him known to viewers throughout the country.

"THE EXPERIENCE, background, and reputation in his field enjoyed by Father Filas make this an occasion not to be missed by thoughtful parents concerned with this delicate problem," a Booster Club spokesman pointed out.

Father Filas entered the Society of Jesus at the age of 17 and was ordained in 1945 after the customary thirteen years of Jesuit training. Later studies and teaching took him to the University of Detroit, where he pioneered in introducing the Cana Conference Movement for husbands and wives in the Detroit area.

SINCE 1950 he has been stationed at Loyola University as a professor of theology, serving as chairman of the department since 1959.

He is a member of the board of Cana Conference conductors in the archdiocese of Chicago. He has spoken before more than 125,000 husbands and wives or couples preparing for marriage.

Father Filas is known to Chicago television viewers for his educational and religious telecasts, chiefly the annual Good Friday "Shroud of Turin," presented on local TV for the past 12 years, seven of them on network TV and seen by 36,000,000 viewers.

His doctorate degree was obtained in the theology of St. Joseph, winning recognition for him as an international authority.

An author of religious books, his latest publications are "The Parables of Jesus" and "St. Joseph and Daily Christian Living," both published by Macmillan publishers. (A14

Yule Spirit Shows At Coffee Breaks

CARBONDALE, (UPI) —Some elderly persons at the Jackson County Nursing Home soon will know that Santa Claus even comes to town during coffee breaks.

Nick Masters, owner of a Carbondale cafe, had heard that some equipment was needed at the nursing home. Imbued with the Christmas spirit, Masters waited for his businessmen friends to show up for their coffee break this morning and passed the hat.

ON THE FIRST go-around he got $150 and the fund is growing every time someone drops in for coffee.

One businessman pledged a new television set, another said he would buy two $57 work tables for victims of arthritis, and still another pledged a piece of therapy equipment. (A14

Board Okays Clerks 4-3

A new clerical assistance program for teachers at Arlington, Prospect and Forest View High Schools was approved by the District 214 school board in a 4-3 split vote Dec. 3.

The program to aid teachers with their "paper work" was recommended by the board education committee. To initiate the project eight additional clerks will be added to the school staff.

This will provide 320 extra hours per week in clerical help, and allow teachers to devote this time to teaching duties in place of office and record work.

Estimated cost of the program for the balance of the 1962-63 school term would be about $10,000 depending upon the time needed to hire the clerks. School administrators were hopeful clerks could be employed by Jan. 1.

Approval of the project was given only for the present school year. After the close of school in June, an evaluation will be made before a decision on continuing the program is sought.

OPPOSING the program were board members George Laubenheimer, Charles Lockwood and George Paris.

The men indicated the management consulting firm of Booz, Allen and Hamilton, employed by the school district last month for a survey of the administration and business systems, should study the problem of clerical help for teachers before action was taken.

Mrs. Eugenia Chapman, chairman of the education committee, stressed the plan had been under study for several months. The committee believed the clerks would relieve teachers for more important teaching tasks, she said.

MRS. CHAPMAN reported department chairmen had reviewed the plan and indicated the assistance would be of "great aid." Duties of the clerks would vary with each department.

Three clerks would be assigned to both Arlington and Prospect High Schools and two clerks would work at Forest View High School which has a lower enrollment.

Mrs. Chapman was supported by her fellow committee member, Arthur Aronson. Favorable votes also were cast by Charles Fyfe and Board President John Haas. (ACM-E

Symbols of Status Are Destroyed

O'FALLON, MO., (UPI)Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Harris wrecked their two automobiles last week in separate accidents.

Authorities said the couple had argued, and Harris, 36, left the house, driving off in his car.

THE MAN'S wife, Peggy, 30, followed in her car which ran down a 30-foot embankment near the Daniel Boone Bridge. She was hospitalized with fractures.

Police notified Harris, who went to the hospital. After visiting with his wife, Harris left in his car to return home and ran into a pole. He was given first aid treatment at the hospital.

League Sets Meeting in Hayes Home

The League of Women Voters of Arlington Heights will hold its December general meeting tonight, Thursday, at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Chester Hayes, 605 N. Chestnut, Arlington Heights.

There will be a review of the League's current legislative responsibilities on the state level followed by a general discussion of the possible items the Arlington Heights League would like to study on the state level in 1963-64.

Interest has already been expressed on expenditures of state funds, continuing studies on Constitutional Convention, and administration of the mental health program.

Women interested in attending this meeting are invited to call Mrs. R. McCarthy, membership chairman, at CL 5-2987.

ITEMS: Mothers have more influence on clothes their teenage daughters buy than they may think. It's not true that teenagers are influenced more by what other teenagers wear. A study of freshmen and senior high school girls in a midwestern state shows it isn't so. The opinion of mother, or mother and one other person, outranked that of girl friends, boy friends, or a combination of the two. Mother was listed as the girl's most frequent shopping companion and had more influence on large items, such as coats than on skirts and blouses.

Air Pollution Needs Require Federal Law

WASHINGTON, (UPI) - Federal law is the only realistic and permanent means to control air pollution caused by motor vehicle exhaust, a Chicago city official said Tuesday.

James V. Fitzpatrick, director of the city's air pollution control department, added it also might be necessary to call on Washington for authority to deal with non-moving sources of pollution, such as factories, which lie across state lines.

Addressing the National Conference on Air Pollution sponsored by the Public Health Service, he said the federal government should develop guide lines for metropolitan areas where pollution poses an interstate problem. He cited the Chicago area, composed of six counties in Illinois and two in Indiana. They include 1,000 independent political jurisdictions and a population of seven million.

FITZPATRICK suggested the 1935 Interstate Commerce Act establishing safety regulations for operating motor vehicles could be used as a pattern.

He also recommended the federal government:

—Step up research to identify specific pollutants and the specific diseases they cause. It is difficult to justify local programs by the mere statement that evidence points to a link between the two, he said.

—Emphasize the need to draw up quality standards for pure air.

—Improve health community control programs by recommending minimum laboratory needs, circulating informative bulletins, and developing technical libraries. (A-14

READING A NEWSPAPER account about the society wedding of their employer's daughter is an absorbing occupation for Maureen Liston, Mary Jo Herff and Kathy McMullen in their roles as servants in the play "Far, Far Away." The first dramatic effort of the 1962-63 school year by the girls of Sacred Heart of Mary High School was presented before parents and friends Monday in St. Viator High School Auditorium, Arlington Heights. Director of the play was Miss Therese Marie Cuny, school dramatics instructor. (B8

Eye 'Breakthrough' For Weather Delays

WASHINGTON, (UPI) The Federal Aviation Agency (FAA) announced Tuesday what it hopes will be a major breakthrough in reducing bad weather and peak traffic delays at major airports.

Effective Dec. 15, the agency said, it will start landing airliners simultaneously on dual runways at Chicago's O'Hare Airport for the first time in civil aviation history.

The program, which has been under study and test for two years, is designed to help crack the bottleneck that occurs when poor weather and heavy peak arrival periods "stack up" planes over airports.

PROCEDURES call for landing planes on O'Hare's two parallel instrument landing system (ILS) runways at the same time. Normally, only one ILS runway is used. If successful at O'Hare, the program will be extended to other major airports qualified to handle parallel approaches and landings on dual ILS runways.

Aircraft taking part in Chicago's parallel ILS approach system will be required to operate under instrument flight rules (IFR), and to have the necessary navigational and communications equipment to make accurate approaches to the assigned runway.

Ground radar will monitor and guide all IFR flights to either of two final ILS approach courses, the FAA said. To insure complete safety, planes turning into final approach will be separated by at least 1,000 feet vertically or three miles horizontally up to within eight miles of touchdown.

A 3,510 foot "No Transgression" zone will be established between the centerlines of the two approach paths. Radar will warn any pilot straying into this buffer zone.

The FAA picked O'Hare for the program's try-out because it is the nation's busiest airport, handling as many as two landings or takeoffs every 60 seconds.

According to an FAA survey, landing or takeoff delays of more than five minutes cost the airlines about $36 million annually. (A14

INVOLUNTARY; not under the influence or control of the will. "It was an involuntary act on my part."

Retailers Fight Consumer Boycott

CHICAGO, (UPI) — Joseph T. Meek, president of the Illinois Retail Merchants Association, said this week he has received State Department support in his battle against the boycotting of communist-made goods.

Meek said he asked the State Department for aid against an organized effort by downstate Illinois consumers to block the sale of many items made in foreign countries.

"Stocked in good faith," Meek wrote the State Department, "This merchandise stocked by patriotic retailers, represents a big investment in hard-to-get cash.

"We Americans need to move these goods to insure at least a partially profitable operation with which to pay employees, add more employes, pay rent and taxes and otherwise contribute to American prosperity," Meek said.

HE QUOTED the State Department's reply as saying "Within the limits established by applicable laws and regulations, the United States has long favored increased contacts between East and West which flow from trade in peaceful goods.

"Foreign trade, if it is to continue on a realistic basis, must be a two-way street," the State Department continued. "We are convinced the interests of the United States would not be served. . .by any action to reduce levels of trade with Poland or with the Eastern European Bloc in General."

School Contract to Second Low Bidder

The general contract for building Dunton School at Dunton Avenue and Cypress Street was awarded to the second lowest bidder Monday night by the school board of Arlington Heights District 25.

The successful contractor, Wil-fred's Inc., bid $158,350, which was $351 higher than Concannon Builders. After a performance and financial investigation, the board awarded the contract to Wil-fred's because the firm's major work has been in school construction, while Concannon's major work has been in home construction.

THE LOW BIDDERS were awarded the other contracts. They were: plumbing, F. J. Ryan Plumbing Co., $19,105; heating, Hans Jensen & Sons, $22,530, and electrical, Highland Park Electric, $19,248.

Dunton School is scheduled for completion in August, 1964.

The board also adopted a partial calendar for the alterations and site improvement at Wilson School. This calendar calls for contract drawings for both phases of Wilson School work to be completed by next May 13.

ON TV PICTURE COST

by ED LANDWEHR

When you pay your money, you should get what you pay for. But the average person wouldn't know when he buys a new picture tube for his television set. You just see the program and hope that it keeps running for your money's worth.

To make it even more confusing. thert are new tubes of various quality, and rebuilt tubes of even greater quality variation. You generally pick out the cheapest priced one if you're the average buyer. And thereby, you probably are paying the most when you consider the length of service and quality you receive in return.

LANDWEHR TV, 218 N. Dunton, Arlington Heights, would like to give you an estimate on your next picture tube replacement and an explanation of what you receive per dollar cost. More and more folks use the phone number CL 5-0700 because they find us a reliable organization to deal with. Try us.

Ogilvie Asks 10 Per Cent Slash of Sheriff's Budget

(See editorial this week, "The Sheriff's Dilemma," on Page of Opinion.)

Cook County Sheriff Richard B. Ogilvie Wednesday informed the county board he was pruning appropriations for sheriff's personnel by over 10 per cent.

His budget economies, he told county commissioners, include:

—Elimination of 54 positions from the 1963 budget.

—A wage freeze for all employes of the sheriff, with the exception of police department members and key administrative officials.

—A 40 per cent reduction in appropriations for window washing and other custodial services.

THE NEW GOP sheriff's appropriation requests, however, include an increase in salaries for members of the police force to bring them to a scale equal to that paid the Chicago Police Department.

"The reductions," he said, "do not take into account the fact that we have been compelled to increase the bailiff force as a result of election of 17 additional Superior Court judges on Nov. 6.

"Each of these new courts must be staffed by the sheriff's office and these employes will be provided within the framework of the appropriations as revised."

Ogilvie's revised budget calls for appropriations of $6,141,417, a savings of $201,002 over his predecessor's requests for $6,342,419.

WHILE OGILVIE is trimming back in some areas, he intends to add two psychologists to the Cook County Jail and beef up its medical corps as part of a rehabilitation and correction program.

Four new supervisory positions are also being created in the law enforcement division.

Ogilvie told the commissioners that the $114,000 appropriated for window washing in 1962 amounted to a cost of $5 per window washed. He added that he has conferred with representatives of the union who have accepted the 40 per cent cutback.

(Commissioner Charles F. Chaplin, R—Northbrook, was particularly piqued about appropriations for 61 county window washers when the 1962 budget was passed.)

The sheriff commented that "I have received the utmost in co-operation from the president and members of the county board, the county comptroller, and others. Without such help, it would have been impossible to prepare adequately our budget proposals in such a short time."

He observed: "It is obvious that we must eliminate as much as possible without interferring with essential services, in the interest of relief for the taxpayer." (B8

Don't Let Traffic's Pace Harm Holidays

The Christmas holiday period—which should be a joyful time of year for all families — often is marred in many homes by tragic traffic accidents.

J. J. Cavanagh, president of the Chicago Motor Club, pointed out this week that most people fail to realize that the Christmas holiday period is the most dangerous time of the year for anyone driving or walking.

Through the years the number of traffic accidents always has increased alarmingly during this festive season, he said.

STATISTICS show that December is one of the worst months of the year for traffic accidents and fatalities. In December of 1961, a total of 44 traffic fatalities and 16,241 traffic accidents occurred in Cook County including Chicago and suburbs. These figures are among the highest for any month in 1961.

"Basic, of course, to all Christmas and New Year's holiday safety advice," Cavanagh said, "is the old reminder — If you drink, don't drive; if you drive, don't drink!"

The motor club president also cautioned that traffic safety is a full time job, one requiring courtesy and alertness at all times.

Cavanagh urged motorists to be alert for slippery spots; signal well in advance of stopping and turning; keep a safe distance from the car ahead; be considerate of pedestrians; drive only at speeds suitable for existing weather conditions; keep cars in perfect mechanical condition; and maintain an even temper during the many delays that are bound to occur during this busy season.

HE STRESSED to pedestrians that December and January make up the greatest danger months for them because of earlier darkness and inclement weather. Cavanagh said pedestrian fatalities could be halved if both pedestrians and motorists observed all traffic regulations and increased their vigilance on the streets at night.

At all times, he added, pedestrians should obey traffic signals and cross only at corners. (A14

Suburb News of the Week

SCHAUMBURG — The first apartment zoning in the Village of Schaumburg was the prime topic at both the zoning board of appeals and the village board this week. Final decision on the 181-unit development with an adjoining commercial center has been tabled until February pending further study. Home owners in the area and school officials from District 54 are objecting to the proposal. See Hoffman Herald for detailed account.

MOUNT PROSPECT — A special FBI school for suburban police was announced this week for nine area communities. The school will be preceded by a series of three lectures, the first of which was held this week. The school is the result of Mount Prospect police requesting an opportunity for more specialized training. Instead of sending the force to school, Mount Prospect Village officials arranged to have the school brought to the men. The 9 weekly sessions will begin in February. Details in Mount Prospect Herald.

ROLLING MEADOWS — Preliminary engineering plans and cost figures for extension of sewer and water south of Algonquin Road paved the way for a special city council meeting next Tuesday to consider annexation of the area east of Illinois 53 between Algonquin and Golf Road. The proceedings are part of a larger annexation program being discussed by Mayor John J. Woods with heads of adjacent villages in an effort to avoid bitterness between the towns. Details in Rolling Meadows Herald.

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS — Village officials meet with Sanitary District officers to seek removal on restrictions on Arlington Heights storm sewer construction. Arlington Heights repeats denial that sewer program creates flooding hazards for other communities, and Village President John G. Woods says, "Arlington Heights must not be required to bear the entire burden of Weller Creek problems." Details in Arlington Heights Herald.

PALATINE TOWNSHIP — Alex MacArthur, Palatine Township Republican Committeeman and deputy GOP chairman of the Cook County Central Committee, is one of two area Republicans appointed deputy state treasurer. Details in the Palatine Enterprise and the Rolling Meadows Herald. (B8

Builders Are Told:

Construction Is Tied To Economy of Nation

Members of the Home Builders Association of Chicagoland were reminded last week that their construction volume is tied to the general health of the nation's economy.

This conclusion is compounded by changes in the wants of prospects for new home purchases and the changing shifts in mortgage money sources.

THE HEALTH of the building industry and predictions of new home construction prospects were discussed at a luncheon meeting of the HBAC mortgage finance committee with Chairman Robert C. Winkle presiding, Nov. 29. At the meeting in the HBAC Oakbrook - Center office, invited guests predicted:

(1) construction of multi-family units will continue to increase in 1963, (2) there will be a strong shift upward for new families who want homes, and (3) there is a steady shift to conventional financing for mortgage money sources.

Among those guests at the committee meeting were Dr. Oliver H. Jones, research director of the Mortgage Bankers Association; Joseph Lyons, director of Federal Housing Administration's Chicago office, Jack Roehm, loan guaranty officer of the Veterans Administration; Wyn Warman, vice president of the United States Savings and Loan League; and Edmund G. Britz, assistant loan guaranty officer of the VA; and Thaddeus J. Tarczynski, chief underwriter of FHA.

AN OVER-FLOW crowd heard Dr. Jones say that prospects for more homes to be sold in 1963 look good, if tax reductions to industry materialize. He stated that 1962 new home construction volume will be 12 per cent higher than in 1961.

Another observation is that since prices and wages are holding steady relationships, there is indication consumers are now thinking of buying new homes.

"Any decline in business activity in 1963 should be shallow and short-lived. I anticipate an over - all improvement that should bring the Gross National Product to about $580 billion," said Jones.

JONES PREDICTED that there will be ample credit available at somewhat easier terms. "However, there hasn't been as much demand for housing. The prewar backlog is no longer in the picture," he continued.

"Upgrading has become increasingly difficult as smaller down payments and less inflation make it difficult to build enough equity in presently-owned housing to finance new purchases," said Jones.

One of Jones' predictions was that multi-family units will show an increase, "along with single-family housing recovery during the next two years," he said.

DR. JONES pointed out to builders the key to increasing sales of new homes will not be in financing after 1965, but the challenge of satisfying low cost housing for new family formations.

According to Wyn Warman, the new Presidential Housing Order banning racial discrimination in the sale of homes with Government-insured mortgages will have little effect on conventional lenders.

Jack Roehm of the Veterans Administration, and Joseph Lyons of the Federal Housing Administration both agree that new home production will not be affected by the order to any measurable degree.

DR. JONES stated that he believed the net effect of the Executive Order, at this moment, is anybody's guess, and added, "The alarming fact about the executive order is that the President can control housing to such an extent without specific Congressional action."

He said, "Moreover, it cannot accomplish its purpose by regulating only a fraction of the residential market."

Trends noted by Jones include a steady decline of mortgages that have been financed by FHA, while savings have been more rapidly accumulating in institutions that are typically conventional mortgage lenders.

WARMAN NOTED that savings and loan institutions generally agree that there will be no change in the interest rates on mortgages during the first half of 1963.

Roehm predicted that his agency will see more business in single-family housing for the first part of 1963. "This is because there is more confidence in the economy. When there is confidence in the economy, people have more confidence in long-term indebtedness and this influences possible home buyers," he said. (A14

Dear Bob:

Sometimes we are all so busy we fail to take time to express our appreciation to those who have been so helpful to us. We thought now would be a good opportunity to "pat you on the back" for the terrific job Paddock Publications has been doing for us.

In addition to our regular advertising schedule, for the past two years we have placed a tabloid Christmas insert that has had not only an immediate effect, but also lasting results with some shoppers bringing in clips from the section many months afterward. This year we are concentrating on increased advertising on regular pages of your paper, knowing we will receive maximum results from the high readership.

We know our business will continue to grow with our major advertising investment placed in Paddock Publications. We'd like to tip our hat, too, to the personnel of your advertising department who come up with so many winning suggestions.

Keep up the good work.

Arlington Greens

The December meeting of the Arlington Greens Community Association was held Dec. 4 in the home of A. J. Tomaso, 635 E Clarendon, and final arrangements were made for the Christmas Dance that was held Saturday evening at the VFW Hall on Northwest Highway.

Seventy couples, Greens residents and their friends, filled the gaily decorated rooms for an evening of dancing, refreshments and holiday fun.

Hosting cocktail parties before the dance were the Don Schreiners, Howard Schicks, Bob McLeans, Ben Lockharts, Seymour Rechts, Gary Waffles and the Fred Mensches.

NEWCOMERS to the Greens are Mr. and Mrs. Hal Wright, 1145 N. Hickory Ave. Residents of South Belmont Avenue, for 14 years, the Wrights moved into the Greens early in November.

Confirmation services were held at St. James Catholic Church Wednesday evening. Bishop Aloysius Wycislo of Chicago officiated at the ceremony, having just recently returned from the Vatican where he was attending the Ecumenical Council. Among the class of 213 red and white robed young people and adults were numerous Greens and Hickory Meadows residents. A dinner party marked the occasion for Jimmy Josetti, 1156 N. Hickory. Among the 19 relatives attending were his grandparents, the senior Josettis, and sponsor Uncle Art Josetti of Chicago.

A dinner party also observed the occasion for Joseph Danna, 624 E. Clarendon. Sponsor Richard Rannochio and his parents were among the guests.

Grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Fred Blais of Fox Lake and the senior Metzels of Chicago were among the 15 guests at a supper party Sunday observing the confirmation of Michael Metzel, 1106 N. Dryden. Sponsor for Michael was a cousin, Jay Chaiser of Mount Prospect.

SPONSOR JOHN Parkin and his family were guests at the dinner party given by Mr. and Mrs. George Roby, 1149 N. Beverly, Sunday, observing the confirmation of their son, George.

A Sunday dinner party was also given for Ellen Kargol, 618 E. Clarendon. Her sponsor was an aunt, Mrs. Isabelle Hill of Chicago.

Karen Bylski, 1180 N. Beverly Lane, observed the occasion with a dinner party. Guests included her sponsor and aunt, Mrs. Dziedzic of Chicago. Friday evening Karen joined her sister, Christine, for "Little Sister Weekend" at Northern Illinois University, DeKalb. Mr. and Mrs. Bylski drove out on Sunday to attend the open house at school and pick up Karen.

Also enjoying a similar weekend was Betty Ryan, 620 E. Oakton. A family party observed the confirmation Wednesday and sister, Patsy, joined Betty for the weekend visit at DeKalb with their elder sister, Mary.

A refreshment party after the confirmation was given for Jimmy Nelson, 800 E. Oakton, and his sponsor, Uncle Jack Langhenry.

FAMILY PARTIES after the ceremony observed the occasions for Dennis Lindsey, James Tackes, Paul Kitto, Glenn Shannon, Joseph Bengal, Wayne Schreiner and their sponsors.

Sponsor and uncle, Joseph Cuccinatto of Des Plaines, was dinner guest in the Robert Williams home, 1122 N. Dryden, preceding the confirmation of Robert Jr.

A dinner also observed the occasion for Janet Saflarski, 647 E. Clarendon, and her sponsor, her grandmother, Mrs. Mae Baske.

A number of relatives attended the dinner party given for Richard Johnson, 709 E. Olive, on Sunday.

A dinner party before the ceremony observed the occasion for Tom Lutsch, 712 E. Oakton. Guests were his sponsor and uncle, William Lutsch and his family of Morton Grove. Friday evening the Lutsch family observed the ninth birthday of Jill.

AFTER THE ceremony parties were held for Mary Weaver and sponsor Mrs. Henry Testa; Donna Zaborowski and cousin, Elaine Ledwon of Elk Grove; Mary Ravas and aunt, Mrs. Arnold Jackson; Terence Traina and sponsor, Frank Galizia; Dennis Hill and uncle, Paul Vormittag; Kenneth Krewer and uncle, Richard Egger; Toni Bunnelle and sponsor, Karen Weirich.

From Hickory Meadows, Alice Nagorny of 616 E. Marion observed the occasion of her confirmation with a dinner party. Her sponsor was her sister-in-law, Terry. The Nagorny family were among the guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mel Stier, 1409 N. Douglas, for the party given for Gail, another confirmand. Mrs. Nagorny was sponsor for Gail. Other guests included the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Kostelny of Chicago, the George Stiers of Mundelein and the Henry Nagtls of Hickory Avenue.

Hostess for the December coffee for the Haddow Court ladies was Mrs. Len Hauskey, 1112 N. Haddow. (A

RIDGE

The Dec. 18 meeting of Ridge School PTA will develop the topic of new methods in teaching mathematics. Miss Lucy Driscoll, assistant county superintendent, will explain and demonstrate mathematic techniques in a program entitled, "Modern Math."

The meeting will be held at 8:15 p.m. in the Multi-purpose Room of the school. Mrs. Robert Hult, program chairman, will introduce the Harmonettes from Arlington High School, who will present musical entertainment.

ST. PETER PTL

After a brief business meeting in the gym, St. Peter PTL members and guests will adjourn to the cafeteria for a Christmas party at 8 p.m. Friday, Dec. 14

The Harmonettes from Arlington High School will highlight the entertainment for the evening. Also included in the festivities will be a Christmas carol sing-a-long, grab bag and refreshments.

Those attending are asked to bring a $1 grab bag gift. All parents are welcome.

WINDSOR

As has become traditional, fifth grade classes will present a Christmas program when Windsor Parent Teacher Association holds its December meeting Tuesday, Dec. 18, at 7:30 p.m. There will be no business meeting nor refreshments.

Members are reminded to bring with them their written topics for the January buzz session. The topics will be selected from those submitted next Tuesday night.

The two major projects of the ways and means committee, the Autumn Leaves Dance, and Taffy Apple Day proved financially successful, and according to Mrs. Allan Alvaney, ways and means chairman, they have now topped their goal for the year.

MINER JUNIOR HIGH

A Christmas Program to be presented two evenings is planned by Miner Junior High School, when the entire Music Department of the school will take part in a concert, under the direction of Melvin Kasen, Carl Ray and Peter Marti.

Parents of students in the odd numbered sections are invited to attend Thursday evening, Dec. 13, and those in even numbered sections on Friday evening, Dec. 14. The program will begin at 8 p.m. both evenings.

NORTH

The December meeting of North School PTA has been cancelled.

The January meeting will be held at North School Tuesday, Jan. 15 at 8:15 p.m. Speakers will be Dr. Marvin L. Burge, chairman of the School Finance Committee, Illinois Congress of Parents and Teachers, who will speak on "School Finance and Legislation."

DRYDEN

Dryden School PTA Christmas Program Dec. 18 will feature the Arlington Heights High School Choraliers under the direction of Mr. White.

The meeting will be held at 8:15 p.m. in the Multi-purpose Room. This is to be a family evening, and it is hoped that Dryden parents and children will come to hear the program. Parents will also have the opportunity to see the Christmas decorations at the school.

Refreshments will be served by parents of second graders and there will be candy for the children.

The colours are to be presented by the Girl Scouts.

KENSINGTON

Prospect High School's 45-voice a cappella choir and its specialty group will render Christmas carols at 8:15 p.m. Tuesday, Dec. 18, when Kensington School PTA meets in the school's Multi-purpose Room.

Moderator of a discussion group, consisting of three foreign students now living in Arlington Heights and Des Plaines, will be Mrs. Carl Lindquist. The group will discuss and show items pertaining to Christmas in their respective lands, the Panamas, Netherlands and the Philippines.

Fourth and fifth grade students have painted several murals which will be on display during refreshments. (A

Yule Party

Two hundred and fifty children and as many parents are expected to attend the annual Christmas party of Arlington Heights Garden Home Owners Association from 2 to 5 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 16, in the auditorium of South Junior High School.

Santa Claus will also attend and hand a gift to each child, according to Warren Loiselle, chairman of the party.

AUNT DODIE, of TV fame, will present a skit, and a 32-minute Christmas film in color will be shown.

Milk and cookies will be served to the children, while coffee and cake will be provided for the parents. (A

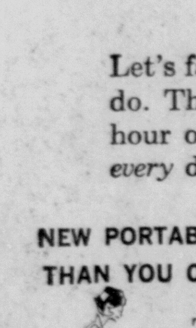
This Christmas give her a 32-minute vacation from dishes every day . . .

Give her an electric dishwasher

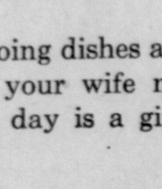
Let's face it—most wives don't like doing dishes any better than you do. That's why the gift that saves your wife more than one-half hour of dishwashing drudgery every day is a gift she'll appreciate every day for years to come. •

NEW PORTABLES GET DISHES CLEANER THAN YOU CAN WASH THEM BY HAND



Today's dishwashers (portables, too) preheat wash and rinse water to grease-cutting temperatures hotter than even gloved hands can stand. Automatically the dishes, glassware and silver come out sparkling, hygienically clean. Roll-around portables are ideal for apartments because they need no permanent plumbing connections, roll out of the way when not in use.

BEAUTIFUL BUILT-INS AUTOMATICALLY DO ALL THE DAY'S DISHES AT ONE TIME



Big capacity built-ins even get pots and pans shining with a gentle scraping beforehand. And you'll never again see dust, lint or dish towel streaks because drying is done only in pure-clean electrically heated air. More than a great gift, a built-in dishwasher is a good way to begin if you've been planning to modernize your kitchen.

You'll have more electric dishwasher models to choose from if you see your appliance dealer soon.

Cadillac

YOUNGEST CADILLAC IN SIXTY-ONE YEARS!

Take a good look at a new 1963 Cadillac and you'll see what we're talking about.

For this one has a freshness . . . a brightness . . . a spirit . . . a flair that you've never seen before in a Cadillac car.

It's the look of youth—and it's written in every clean, crisp line . . . and mirrored in every lithe, nimble move that the car makes.

And so it is not surprising that this beautiful new Cadillac is adding a host of youthful admirers to the ranks of its enthusiasts.

Nor is it remarkable that so many younger motorists can be seen this year at its wheel.

In fact, motorists of all ages have taken this Cadillac to their hearts as never before. The reception that has been accorded this new "car of cars"—whether measured by the praise of its followers or the number of its owners—is simply without precedent in motor car annals.

Why not visit your authorized Cadillac dealer soon for a look and a ride—and see for yourself what the talk is all about?

Young in fact or young at heart—we know you'll want to make it yours!

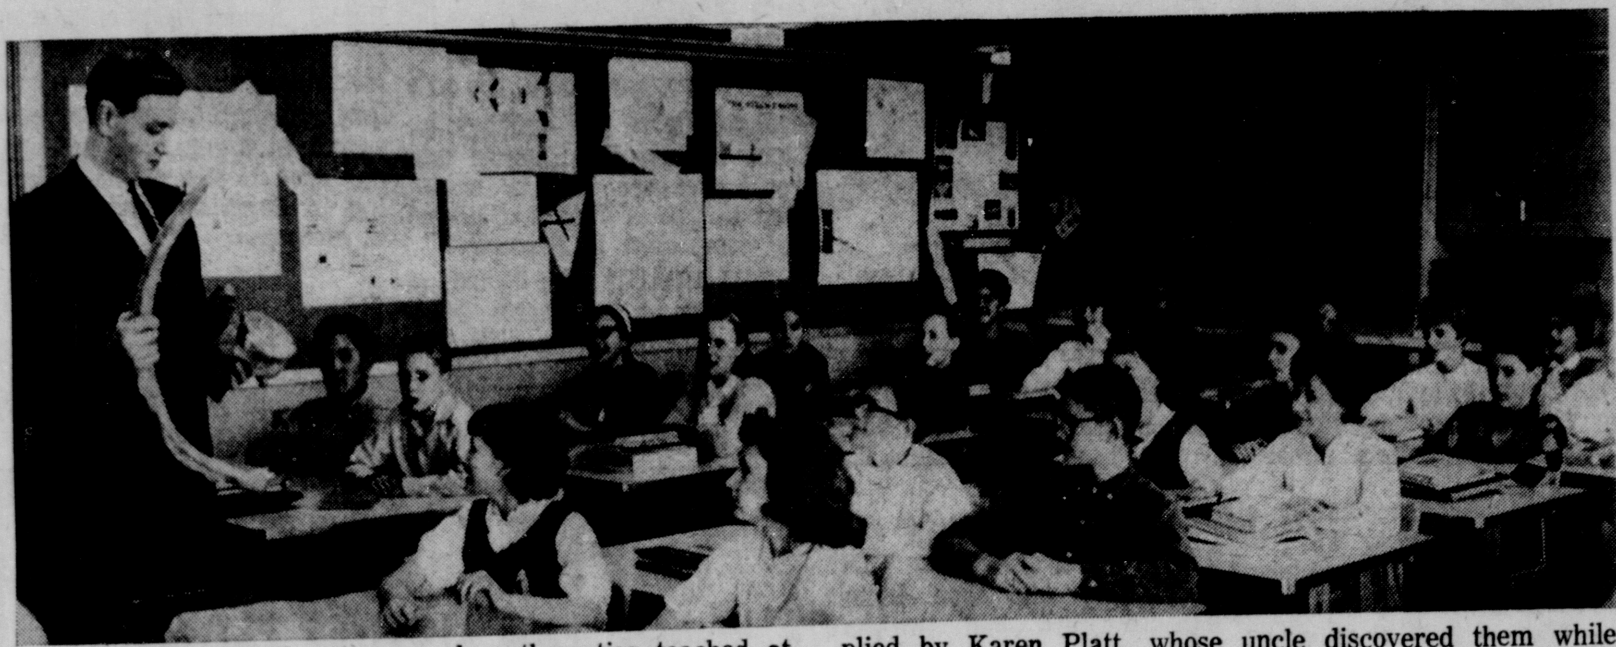
Palatine Farmer Unearths Mastodon Bones

BONES OF MASTODON were discovered by Edward and Leo Rembowski when they plowed field in the background.



DONALD WEGENER, science and mathematics teached at Miner Junior High School in Arlington Heights, shows class a 10,000-year-old rib bone of extinct Mastodon. Bones were supplied by Karen Platt, whose uncle discovered them while plowing. (A-14

History Goes Back Over 10,000 Years

by JOHN REDDY

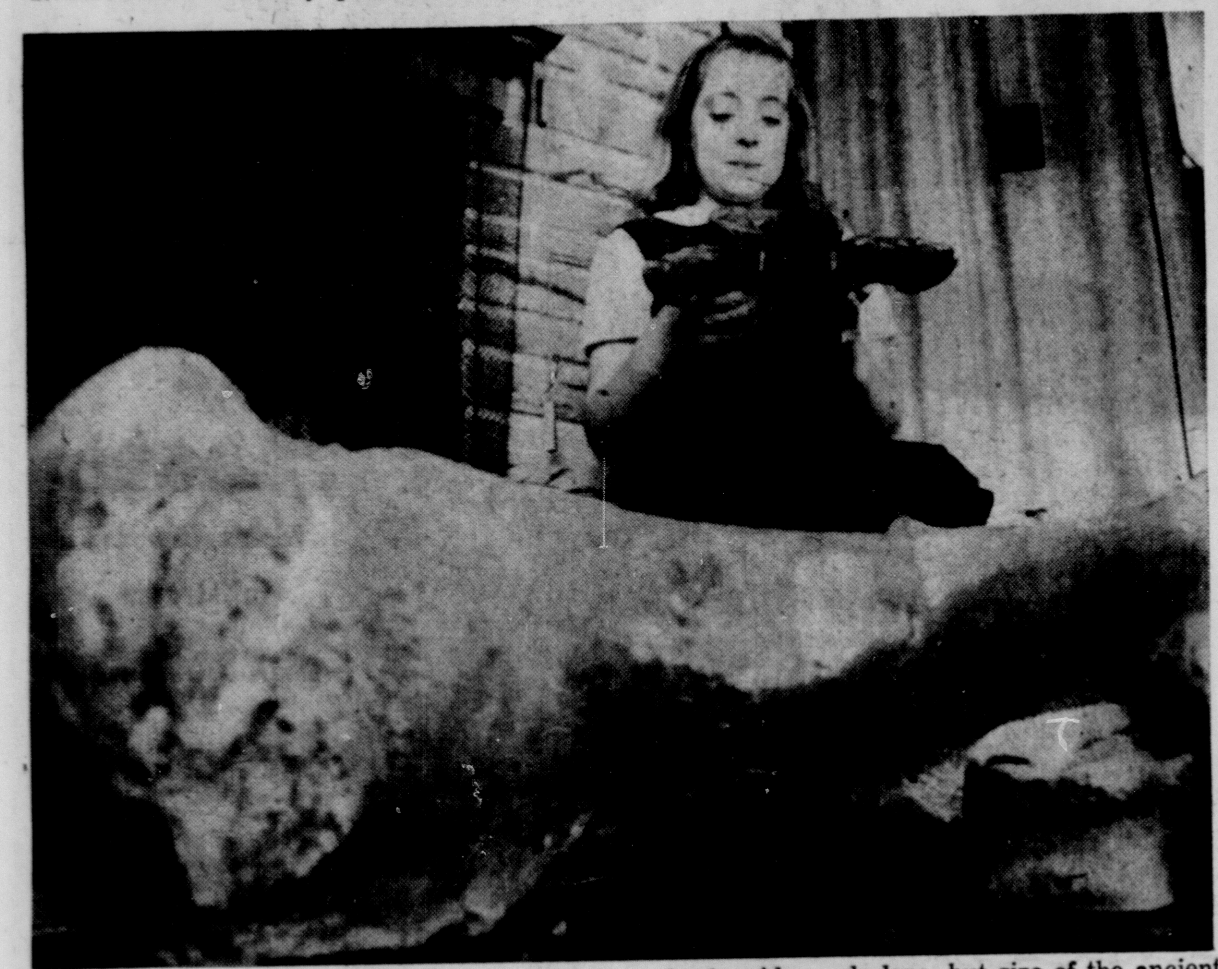
A Palatine farmer, racing to complete spring plowing, almost was thrown from the seat of his tractor when blades on his two-bottom plow hooked on what he thought was a rock.

But when he examined the object that had jolted his rig, he pulled from the ground a piece of history dating back 10,000 years.



MASSIVE THIGH BONE of Mastodon, found on farm of 9-year-old Donna Rembowski's parents, is enlarged somewhat by photographer's wide angle lens, but size of the ancient bone is appropriately emphasized. (A-14

For what Edward Rembowski uncovered was a thigh bone of a Mastodon, a long-extinct animal resembling an elephant.

Edward was working an almost virgin piece of land on his Brother Leo's 87-acre farm on Central Road between Roselle and Barrington Roads. Since that spring day, the Rembowskis have recovered a dozen bones, part of the leg, foot, pelvis and spine.

THE RELICS now are used for decorations in the Rembowski home. The remnants also have sparked keen interest in the formation of fossils and early plant life among students at Miner Junior High School in Arlington Heights where Rembowski's neice, Karen Platt, offered them for display.

Experts examining several of the bones at the Museum of Natural History verified the bones as those of a Mastodon, remains of which are "quite common along stream bottoms and gravel pits formed during glacial periods."

The animals used to roam continents everywhere. Their remains have been found in South America and the frozen wastes of Siberia.

BUT THE bones discovered on the Rembowski farm are the first to be unearthed in this immediate area.

The Rembowskis still dig in the 20 to 30 foot wide area, hopping to find the animal's skull and other bones. Discovery of the remains was near a small pond that was deepened to about eight feet during construction of the nearby Northwest Toll Way.

Mrs. Leo Rembowski says they are not certain whether or not the bones always were in the ground where they were discovered. There's a possibility, she said, that the bones they found may have been pulled from the bottom of the pond when it was deepened.

THE MUCK and earth pulled from the pond was spread over an area that heretofore had gone unworked because of the relatively low elevation. It was peat.

A spokesman at the Museum of Natural History said remains of the Mastodon have been found in peat bogs, created during the glacial periods.

When the ice began to withdraw, there were large deposits of soft muck, and numerous small rivers that carried away the melting ice.

It is theorized that the animals, which stood about 10 feet high, wandered across these "quicksand - like" traps, were swallowed up, their remains preserved because scavengers and the weather were closed out.

THE REMBOWSKIS, who also are skindiving enthusiasts, have scoured the bottom of the pond. Searching for additional bones has become something of a pastime.

At the Miner school, science and mathematics instructor Donald Wegener, says discussion of and examination of the bones has stimulated interest in social studies as well as the sciences, especially with respect relating the role of science in determining data used in studying the historical process. Step Toward Jumble?

Dan Ryan Expressway Will Open Saturday

by MORT J. SULLIVAN
United Press International

The Dan Ryan Expressway, billed as the world's widest road, opens for traffic Saturday, moving Chicago's Loop a little closer to points south.

The new road, which in places has 14 lanes of traffic, also in spirit moves Chicago a little close to the Los Angeles jumble of high-speed thoroughfares.

Just one wrong turn could put a motorist miles from his destination and perhaps high tailing it to Milwaukee instead of the Loop.

Completion of the expressway, which knifes through the city's sprawling South Side, brings the Chicago total mileage of such roads to 200 and their cost past $1.2 billion.

MORE EXPRESSWAYS are on the drawing board, but Mayor Richard J. Daley said recently he isn't sure it's a good idea to keep cutting up the city for such projects. The effect of the road building since World War II will be long felt. Thousands of families have been uprooted by the road builders and millions of dollars of property have been erased from the tax rolls.

Under construction or pegged for construction are 74 additional miles of expressway to cost nearly $240 million with a completion target date of 1967, part of a goal to have 524 miles of expressways honeycombing northeastern Illinois within 20 years at a total cost of $2.7 billion.

Engineers have as the next item on the agenda the Southwest Expressway, which will link the Chicago metropolitan area with the state's midsection.

The Southwest Expressway, a $141 million project, will cut through the Ryan Expressway just south of the Loop and move to a linkup with U. S. 66 where the Tri-State Tollway intersects.

IT WILL RUN past Midway Airport, once the world's busiest, in the southwest corner of the city, and cross the Tri-State Tollway, which links Wisconsin, Illinois and Indiana in a gigantic bypass of Chicago, just north of Willow Springs.

Beyond Willow Springs, it is U. S. 66 with Joliet, Dwight, Pontiac, Bloomington and the state capital at Springfield along the way. St. Louis lies another 100 miles beyond.

Highway officials in Springfield project that the Dan Ryan Expressway, named after the late president of the Cook County Board, will reach Kankakee about 1967.

ALSO IN SOUTHERN Cook County is Interstate-80, which figuratively will slice Illinois into one/third and two/third portions as it crosses the state from Hammond, Ind., to Davenport, Iowa, in the Quad-City area. It is now finished west from U. S. 66 west of Joliet to beyond the La Salle-Peru area.

Road building is under way in the Rock Island and Moline areas. The I-80 section east of 66 is slated for completion by the end of 1964, depending upon availability of funds. A linkup also is planned near Hazel Crest with the Tri-Stae Tollway for travel to Indiana. (A14

Progress Report on Addition to School

A progress report on the 12-room addition being added to Euclid School was given by the architect and contractor during the Dec. 4 meeting of the Board of Education of School District 26.

Glazing of the rooms is presently being completed, doors are scheduled for delivery by Dec. 15 and the heating unit ventilators are due to arrive Dec. 18. The addition is scheduled for completion in February.

THE BOARD also heard a report on improvements being made at Feehanville school. A new heating unit and incinerator will be installed in the east wing of the building. A new parking area and playground was discussed. An automatic program clock is being installed at the present time.

The board will discuss the purchase of furnishings for the Euclid School addition during the Dec. 18 meeting. Regular board meetings are held on the first and third Tuesdays of each month at 8 p.m. All meetings are open to the public according to Superintendent Herman C. Meiners. (ACM

SO EASY TO GET TO! 201 W. RAND RD. NEAR RT. 83, MT. PROSPECT

THE WALL CAME tumbling down! — The protective wall of plyboard and plastic behind which store fronts at Campbell and Dunton were being remodeled came down this week, revealing gleaming new exteriors. Helping take down the wall were merchants Jack Flaherty, Carl Ewert and Forrest Davis, along with Claude Markstrom, contractor; Ronald Stahl, architect, and W. F. Landmeier, owner of the buildings. The second phase of the remodeling, to beautify the second story of the buildings, will take place after the holidays, Stahl said. (A

Strip Nude

ST. LOUIS, (UPI)—A cellophane-clad calendar nude was ordered removed Saturday from the parole office wall in the Municipal Courts building here where juvenile delinquents are questioned.

The nude was taken down after a telephone complaint to a newspaper.

The caller said "seeing a picture like that can inflame their (delinquents) passions and incite them to commit sex crimes."

City Alderman Joseph W. Martino, head of a loan company which distributed the calendars said "There's nothing suggestive or lewd about it."

"It's just cheesecake," Martino said. (A14

Arrested by FBI Agents

The Federal Bureau of Investigation Sunday arrested Levi Patrick, 26, who is charged with deserting the United States Army artillery battery at the Arlington Heights Nike base last Aug. 20, United Press International reported.

M. W. Johnson, special agent in charge of the Chicago office of the FBI, said Patrick offered no resistance when agents arrested him in the Tennessee Inn, a bar at Sheffield and Dickens Avenues, Chicago.

Johnson said Patrick was a specialist 4 assigned to Headquarters Battery of the 45th Artillery. He has been turned over to military authorities. (A

Forest View News

Dempster Junior High seventh grade Christmas play will be given Dec. 20, at 8 p.m., in the auditorium.

The Student Council members have adopted their constitution and are working on a talent show for the end of January. Newly elected officers are: president, Sally Kruger; vice president, Arne Lundquist; secretary, Patricia Ayres; and treasurer, Donna Roberts.

MR. AND MRS. Ted Meyer and son, Gregg, Foster Avenue, have returned from a 2 week trip to Mexico. Included in their 5,000 mile wanderings was a stop in San Antonio to see the Alamo, through customs at Laredo, down the old Pan American Highway to Monterrey, through the Sierra Madre Mountains with its fertile areas of lemons, oranges, pineapples, corn and sugar cane, then on through tropical areas of palms and bamboo.

After many spectacular views they began a climb of 5,000 feet in 60 miles and finally reached a small village at an elevation of 8,209 feet.

They spent several days in Mexico City, visiting the National Palace, National Museum, Chapultepec Park and Castle, were held spellbound at the Mexican Ballet, climbed the Pyramids of the Sun and Moon, enjoyed a gondola ride in the Floating Gardens of Xochimilco, bargained at the various native markets, toured the University of Mexico and, of course, took in a bullfight.

FROM Mexico City they visited the famous old silver city of Taxco, with its cobblestone streets and 300 to 400-year-old buildings, and then two days at an old hacienda in Cuernavaca before heading for home.

Sharon Luczak, S. Arlington Heights Road, was home for the weekend from Quincy College. Former college friends who stopped by and stayed for Sunday dinner were Marianna Ronzani, Bob Sorensen and Jim Hamich.

Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Don Larson, W. Algonquin Road, attended the 25th wedding anniversary dinner party for Mr. and Mrs. John Pahl of Chicago, at the Spoke and Yoke Banquet Hall, later going to the Christmas Ball of the Infant Welfare Society at Old Orchard Country Club.

THE FIRST quarter general meeting of the Forest View Improvement Association will be held Jan. 10, 1963, at 8 p.m., at Forest View Elementary School, Estates Drive in Colonial Heights. The revised by-laws and amendments will be presented and voted upon.

There will also be a report on the activities of the board of directors and committees for the past three months. A membership list will also be distributed. Members and all interested persons are asked to make every effort to attend.

Birthday greetings this week go to Cynthia Mazurkiewicz, Robert Palmer, Phoebe Jane Garland, Scott Criscione, Harold Pine, Michael Criscione Jr., Arlene Drews and Gail Treder.

COLONIAL HEIGHTS

Deanne Cameron, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Cameron, Martha Lane, had two birthday parties last weekend. The one Saturday was for Bobby Lee, Laura Pagliuca, Barbara Neitzel, Denise and Jeffery Lowe, Karen and Curt Long, Michele Douglas, Kathy and Carrie Wunar and Deanne's brother, Bobby.

Sunday Deanne shared her party with her mother, Nadine. Guests were grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Cameron Sr. of Elmwood Park and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Guertin, Aunt Adrienne and 10-year-old uncle, Ramon Guertin, all of Westchester and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Gastel of Cicero, Deanne's godparents.

THE CARL Baardsen family, Estates Drive, spent the weekend at the senior Carl Baardsen home in Chicago.

Wednesday evening Mrs. Wade Gale, Estates Drive, visited Mrs. Lillian Levin in Chicago and Saturday evening the Gales entertained Mr. and Mrs. John Thalman of Des Plaines.

Dennis Toomey, Myrtle Drive, is home after a week's stay in the hospital.

LAKE BRIARWOOD

Mrs. Roy Jorgensen's mother, Mrs. Anna Schar of Elmhurst, is staying with the Jorgensens after being in the hospital for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Brown arrived home Saturday from a 2-week vacation. After Thanksgiving dinner in St. Louis they drove to New Mexico to see Carlsbad Caverns, spent three days in Phoenix and a week in Tucson.

THE LARRY DiLucchios attended a cocktail party in the home of Joe and Gaynelli Custer in Elmhurst Saturday evening.

Mrs. J. Kuhl of Chicago, Ed Holfeld's mother, spent the weekend with the Holfelds.

Recent guests of the Roger Bardwells were Mr. and Mrs. Roger Hill of Miami, Fla.

ELK RIDGE VILLA

Relatives came from Naperville and Oak Park to help Michele celebrate her fourth birthday at a family dinner Sunday given by her parents, Mike and Eileen Sloody, Robert Drive. They also celebrated Mike's birthday.

The Robert Schuberts, Robert Drive, attended a birthday dinner party Sunday afternoon in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Davellis in Evanston.

Jean and Jim Beck, Robert Drive, were hosts Saturday evening at a reunion party for some of Jim's co-workers from Chicago, Downers Grove and Niles.

Churchladies Schedule Festival

The Churchwomen's Organization of Grace Lutheran Church, corner of Euclid and Wolf Roads will feature "Christmas Around the World" at their Dec. 18 meeting.

Mrs. Richard Benson is in charge of the festivity in which representatives of England, Sweden, Denmark, Greece, Germany, Norway, and Japan will describe Christmas observances in those lands. Along with the description will be a display of costumes and music of the native land.

After the meeting, each nation will be represented by some traditional pastry and coffee. Mrs. Lavern Woods of Wheeling is the President of the Grace Lutheran Churchwomen.

Recently, the Churchwomen collected 3 cartons of canned food which was turned over to Lutheran Social Service of Chicago for distribution to the poor during the holidays. ACM

'To Breed Disrespect'

Expense Account Law Hit by Association

Proposed new Internal Revenue Service regulations governing expense accounts "will make liars out of conscientious taxpayers, breed disrespect for all tax laws and lead to a breakdown in our alleged self-assessment system," a spokesman for the Illinois Manufacturers' Association told the opening session of a two-day IRS public hearing in Washington, D. C., Dec. 4.

Clarence F. McCarthy of Arthur Andersen & Company, certified public accountants, Chicago, said the proposed regulations if adopted would "decrease the productive time of salesmen and executives by 5 to 10 per cent, increase internal bookkeeping costs and increase storage expense."

"IF THAT is the result the Internal Revenue Service is seeking, that is your prerogative," McCarthy said. "However, such a course of action seems at odds with the administration's concern with the sluggish growth in our economy."

McCarthy presented several counter-proposals for consideration. As a minimum, he called for modification of the proposed regulations so that:

(1) An aggregate amount and general description will suffice for minor expenditures totaling not more than $20;

(2) NAMES OF places and numbers of hours will not be required except for major expenditures of $50 or more;

(3) No detailed substantiation will be required as to employe social functions, employe recreational facilities such as lounge rooms, bowling alleys and tennis courts, and employe dining rooms;

(4) Itemized receipted bills will be required only for: (a) hotels, motels and air or rail transportation, no matter what the amount, and (b) major expenditures of $50 or more.

OTHER HIGHILGHTS of McCarthy's testimony:

"The proposed regulations concerning proof of expenditures go much farther than required by the new law, and as contemplated by Congress.

"It is impractical and unnecessary to require salesmen and executives to record in a diary or on an expense account form, hour by hour and day by day, every 10-cent phone call, the names of each restaurant patronized, the amount of each tip, the amount and place for each parking charge, the hours and minutes spent in each restaurant or place of entertainment, and the subject of each business discussion that prompted buying lunch or dinner for a customer.

"A STRONG inference can be drawn from the proposed regulations that other regulations to be issued shortly will deny the deductibility of that portion of entertainment or luncheon expense which is attributable to the businessman who was the host.

"However, the courts have held and will probably continue to hold that the cost of a taxpayer's own meal or entertainment expense is deductible in full if the expenditure would not have been made had he been able to follow his customary personal habits, and that the cost of a taxypayer's own meal is deductible in part where the expenditure exceeds what he otherwise customarily would have spent." College at Elgin Set By Baptists

ELGIN, (UPI) — Officials of the Northern Baptist Theological Seminary, Chicago, said today they had tentative plans for a four-year liberal arts college at Elgin.

Dr. Benjamin Brown, seminary president and president of the American Baptist Convention, said his organization had taken an option on the estate of Mrs. Joel L. Deuterman near the north edge of the city.

The seminary board will study proposed plans at a Dec. 13 meeting, Brown said.

The board now operates a seminary at 3040 W. Washington Blvd., Chicago, and is building a new seminary at Oak Brook. (A14

HARVEST'S END

By DICK HOFFMANN • Photographs by DON VICKERY

Second in a Series

Copyright 1962 Paddock Publications, Inc.

It is the ancient lament of Ecclesiastes: "Then I looked on all the works that my hands had wrought, and on the labour that I had laboured to do: and, behold, all was vanity and vexation of spirit, and there was no profit under the sun." This, too, could be the plaint of the Mexican-American migratory farm worker or the ex-migrant who has abandoned "stoop" labor for the permanency of employment and home.

The din created by the two parakeets is constant, as if they were uncomfortable in the presence of death. Their cage is strung from a ceiling beam in the one-room shack. In a nearby bed, an old man lies silent, his mouth forced open by the labor of his breathing.

He is 82 and has worked all his life in the fields. His face is cracked by a lifetime of exposure to the elements; it resembles the bottom of a dried-up river bed. For him, the harvest is over; all that is left is the remembrance, but this appears to have been washed from his vacant eyes. Now he awaits the end.

His wife, a small, grey woman whose hands are always clasped in front of her in apparent supplication, told me: "We have never asked for help from anyone." They now receive social security payments for all the old man's labors under the sun.

The couple is one of 10 families who live in shacks and a barn on the Troy Parker farm, located on the south side of Algonquin Road just east of Wilke Road and south of Rolling Meadows. They are ex-migrants who have established permanent residence in the northwest suburbs.

Those families I interviewed report they paid $36 a month rent in quarters which look like they once accommodated chickens or farm tools.

Multiplied by 10, this would represent a substantial source of revenue for the landlord, with little apparent overhead. It is doubtful if such housing could stand the scrutiny of county building and zoning regulations.

Since much of this housing once served as no more than seasonal shelter for migratory farm hands, the Cook County Truck Gardeners' Association has gone on record as being unequivocally opposed to having it rented out. Migratory housing is usually rent free during the picking season. Walter Sass, association president, says his organization attempted to have county officials correct such conditions as far back as 1951.

An inspection of such housing for ex-migrants, however, reveals little progress. Their homes are still scattered across the landscape in Elk Grove, Wheeling and Schaumburg Townships in a disorderly procession of poverty, like a straggling army of ghosts summoned from "The Grapes of Wrath." Some are finding better housing in trailer parks around the northwest area; others have been absorbed by the city, concentrated just south of the Harrison-Halsted area. Bounded by Cermak Road, the Loop, Ashland Avenue and Canal Street in what is called the "great social laboratory of Chicago," 23 per cent of this neighborhood's population are Spanish-speaking people.

Housing for migratory labor, under the spur of a state migratory housing law passed in 1961, shows promise of improvement. Even in this area, though, the pace has been ponderous. With the continuing encroachment of suburbia, farmers are reluctant to invest in housing since their land will soon be for sale.

On a farm at the intersection of Schoenbeck and Hintz Roads near Wheeling, we find such an example. Near a field of corn whose stalks are rusted by the hand of autumn, there is a grove of silver maple and black oak surrounding two frame structures which look like they have collapsed against a weathered trailer. The Zaratozo Cadena family, with five children, including a three-week-old baby, lived in its close, dark interior. They were migrants who stayed on after the harvest while the husband worked for a nursery, and paid $35 a month for the privilege. But they had to leave because the awkward-looking structure was without heat.

Robert DeJonge, chief engineer for the Cook County Department of Public Health, explains it is incumbent upon the operator of a migrant labor camp to apply for a state license. Many — perhaps most — have not. There have been 53 inspections in Cook County, only 11 in Lake County and seven in Kane County where truck gardeners are seeking new land; in vegetable rich DuPage County, only two have applied for licenses.

On a statewide basis, 52 per cent of the camps which applied for licensing had unsanitary water supplies; 52 per cent lacked proper arrangements for sewage disposal; 60 per cent had no bathing facilities; 38 per cent had neither sanitary water supply nor sewage disposal facilities.

Says DeJonge: "We are not trying to accomplish the letter of the law in the first year. Proper water supply and sewage disposal are the two areas we are concentrating on this year. Over the next two years — under a schedule set up by the state — we will seek more improvements."

Truck Gardener Sass, a big, robust man nearing 70 who seldom speaks below a shout, does provide housing for migrants which is above the average. When he applied for a permanent state license, however, 29 violations were recorded. It is obvious he regards many of the citations as bureaucratic harassment. "My fire extinguishers only had 4½ pounds of pressure; they're supposed to have 5; I put in two 100-watt bulbs in the living compartments; they want one 440-watt bulb," he boomed.

Sass, who once operated a farm off Tonne Road in Elk Grove Township, now owns 405 acres of land with his son eight miles west of Dundee on Illinois 72. He has constructed showers, a laundry room, and installed concrete floors in living quarters at a cost, he says, of $15,000.

Ward Duel, senior sanitarian for the Lake County Health Department, however, observes that housing occupied by ex-migrants escapes classification under the new housing law, and therefore blocks reform in this area. "The state law has slowed us down," Duel adds, "because its health standards aren't as high as the county's. How can we maintain good relations if we ask for more than state requirements demand?"

He shows us a farm at Old Rand Road and U.S. 12 south of Lake Zurich where, under threat of action by the state's attorney, garbage disposal facilities, privies with self-closing doors, and shower and laundry units were installed. A granary and shed without benefit of windows in which families once lived have been evacuated.

"I've gone the rounds with these people. I've found out they're reasonable if they find out the same applies to others. Once they get this work done, they feel pretty good about it."

Duel takes us to the Charles Fiore Nursery near Prairie View where no prodding was necessary. Four families and 60 single men live in farm homes and new bachelor quarters on the property. The bachelor barracks have baths, showers, and a central kitchen. Each man is assigned a room heated by an individual unit. There is a basketball court and volleyball net outside near playground equipment for children.

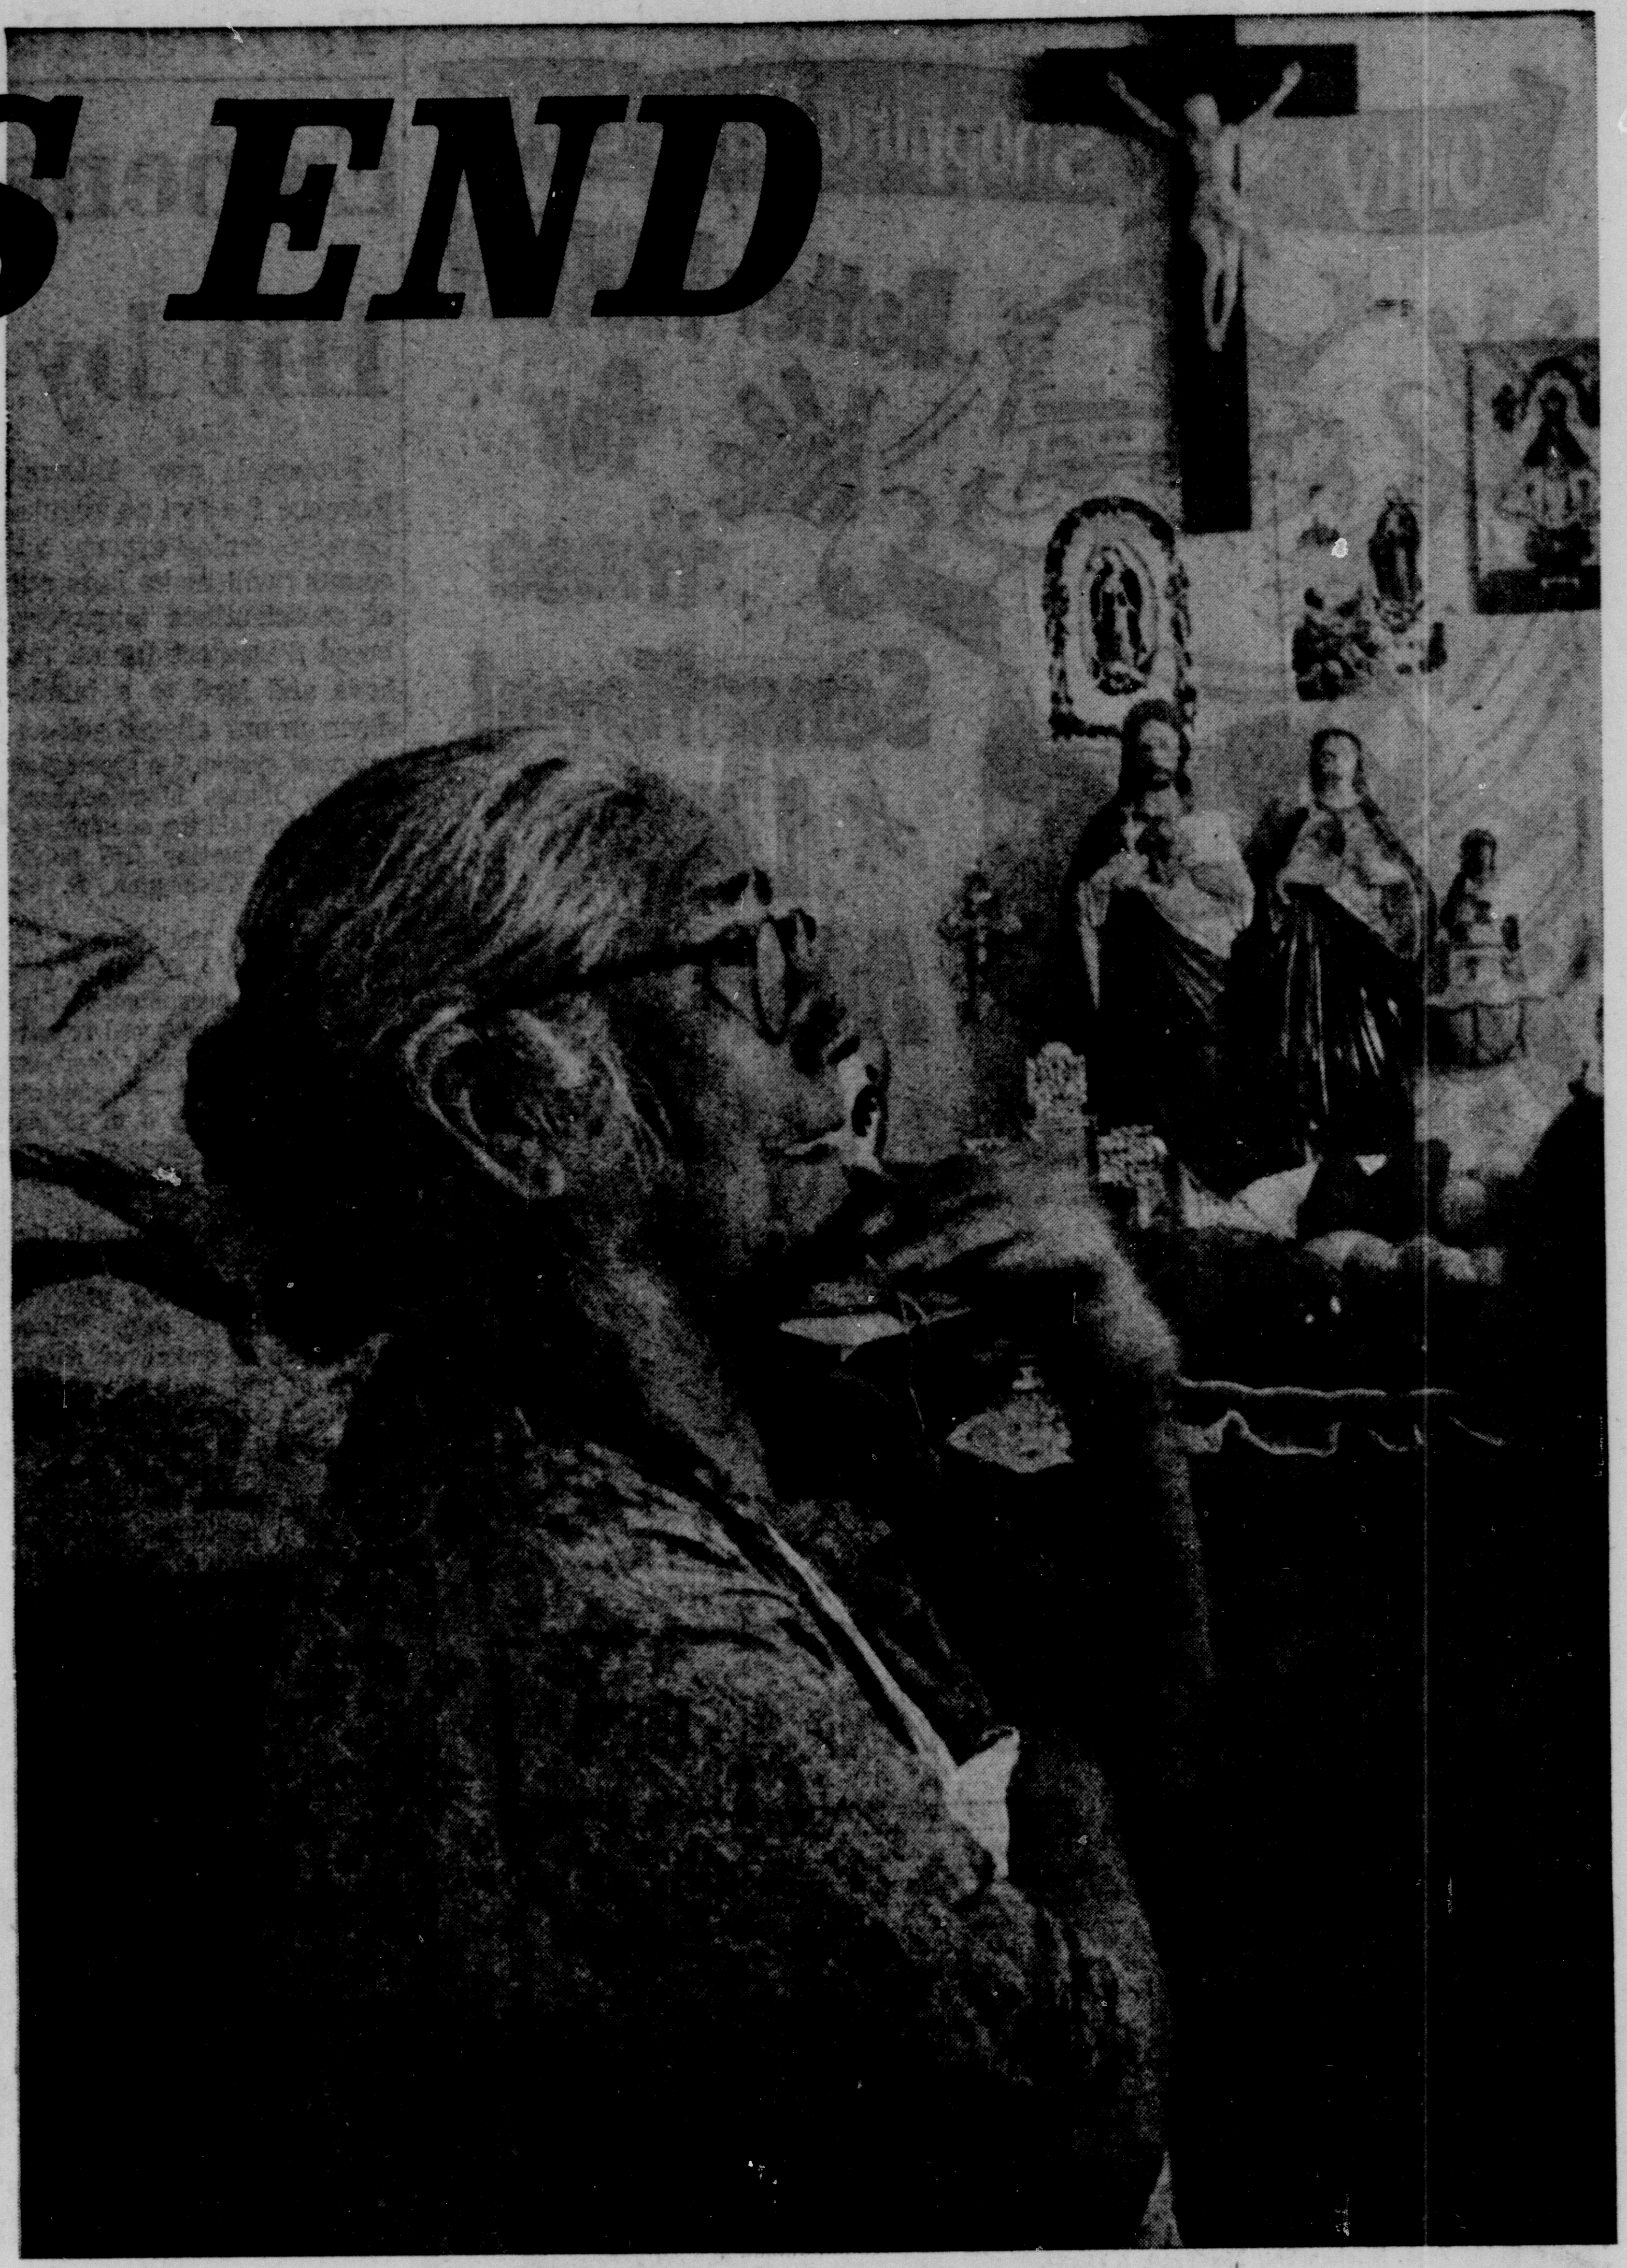
Alfred Fiore, who took over the business of managing the 800-acre nursery from his father, pays his employes $2.25 an hour, $1.65 to start, or $2 if they live away from the camp. They receive two weeks paid vacation each year. He has even constructed Our Lady of Guadalupe Chapel for their use.

Fiore seems almost offended when asked if he thinks farmers could afford to do what he has accomplished. "It's not a question of cost; it's one of necessity. You have to have decent living conditions or you'll get the curds instead of the cream of the workers."

Duel takes us to another migrant labor camp located on Bush Road off Illinois 83 south of Long Grove called "Mexico City." Since the sanitarian's first inspection, the farmer has moved two other buildings onto the property; one appears to be the severed half of a quonset hut. The camp is in a state of disrepair, and Duel walks about it shaking his head and muttering, "This is unacceptable. It's gone downhill since we last inspected it."

He feels compelled to volunteer: "Good health conditions for these people are important to the general health of the community. They go to our schools and laundries; this is a community health problem. We're not campaigning to give them all the comforts of middle class society but just want to keep them in good health."

Duel points out a new well he insisted the farmer drill. I press the pump handle and water hisses out. It is quickly sponged up by the dry earth, the rivulets of water reduced to mere stains. It reminds me of the migrants who vanish with harvest's end, and of those who have left the migrant stream. How quickly they disappear from sight and mind, as soon forgotten as the water swallowed up by the thirsty land.



"We have never asked for help from anyone."

'Inferno' at Red Oaks Store Checked After 5-Hour Battle

Long Grove's wailing alarm jolted firemen out from their bed covers to battle a 4 a.m. fire Dec. 5 that gutted the Robert McNitts' Red Oaks Shop on Main Street into a hollow shell. The fire is believed to have started from a faulty furnace. Half Day, Wheeling and Lake Zurich firemen struggled along side our crew for 5 hours, fighting to keep the flames from spreading to adjacent buildings. Our local men kept their three trucks on the scene, clouds of billowing smoke that water being pumped from Buffalo Creek and Twin Orchard.

Biggest hazard was the filled the building, preventing the men from saving much of the merchandise. Everything on the first floor was destroyed by flames so hot they burned blue, making, as one fireman expressed it, "the hottest fire he'd ever had to fight." Boxes and boxes of many scented candles, exhibited for holiday shoppers, sent forth fumes that cut and choked the throats of volunteers and sent them gasping for air from the glass-popping building. Gus Salmen was overcome from inhalation and Vernon Opsal was taken to Condell Hospital, where he was treated for a knee injury, suffered when he fell on ice that had accumulated during the 20 degree night.

MEANWHILE, next door at the Village Tavern, Dorothy Cogsburn kept a coffee-vigil, cooking three 75-cup pots full to keep the men going.

Neighbors who had slept through the fire were startled, on coming by at 9 a.m., to find firemen still sloshing through basement water, hip-boot high.

The burning building was first seen by Bonnie Weidner, who awakened her mother, Mrs. Gilbert Weidner, who in turn called the Melvin Towners. The Towners sounded the alarm.

The Robert McNitts want to say a grateful "thank you" to the firemen who carried on so heroically and to all their neighbors and friends who came forth to give a hand. The McNitts have moved some salvaged items, also stock which had remained untouched in a next door shed, to the basement quarters of the William Sayles' Village Tavern. There, thanks to the help of many willing hands, they were able to open on Saturday for holiday shoppers. For an indefinite time it will be the headquarters for the shop.

SPEAKING before the Kildeer Community Club members Dec. 6, on the 10th anniversary of his ordination as an Episcopal priest, Father James Jones told that the social and economic oppression which forces man to migrate and casts him in an environment of prejudice and unfair disadvantages is responsible for much of his crime.

The former chaplain of Cook County jail who founded St. Leonard House, a rehabilitation center for discharged convicts, traced criminology from the time of Moses, stating that he was against man's age-old deterrent philosophy to make the criminal suffer for his crime. He described St. Leonard's program of helping the ex-convict learn independence and responsibility.

At the refreshment period that followed, hostesses Mrs. Clinton Coakley, Mrs. Howard Taylor, Mrs. Tom Hoyne and Mrs. Richard Ireland, served cookies contributed by mothers of second and fifth graders.

Kildeer's Christmas tree, resplendently dressed in colorful ornaments made by eighth graders, heralded the Yuletide season, its traditional appearance in the school hall, presenting a glow of warmth the night of the Community Club program.

"JULENISSEN, the Christmas Elf," is the name of the presentation which first, second and third graders will give the evening of Dec. 19 with the teachers, Mrs. Virginia Weston, Miss Judith Behm, Mrs. Olga Nordberg and Mrs. Kelly Lou McCartney, in charge, assisted by Mrs. Robert Hill. It will include a tableau and dances, with Scandinavian, English, Dutch and Austrian narrations. On Dec. 21, Kildeer's last school day before vacationtime, parties will be held in all the classrooms. Yes, Santa will arrive!

When 20 Senior High Youth Fellowship members gathered for a swim party at the Orville Helds' last Sunday they learned much that will help them in their next summer's Mexico work project. Sharing his knowledge and experiences with them was Robert Whitford, freshman of the University of Wisconsin, an executive with the American Friends Service in Mexico City.

Youth Fellowship leaders combined work with social activity Dec. 7 during a supper party at the Long Grove parsonage. Leaders Kathy Jungbluth, Cathy McCartney, Jenny Johnson, Mark Williams, Tom Oberheide were present, with Paul Wall and Arthur Edmunds there as advisors and the Rev. and Mrs. Alfred Williams the hosts. Suzanne Schaum, also a leader, was unable to attend.

REMINDER: Dec. 16 is "Blanket Sunday" at Long Grove Church. The United Church Federation has issued an emergency request for 650,000 blankets to be sent to shivering Algerians. Long Grovers are asked to bring their contributions to the church by the 16th so they can be sent the next day from the Gurnee center.

The Women's Guild committee in charge of selecting the next book for discussion at circle meetings, beginning in January, has chosen, "Dear Mr. Brown," by Harry Emerson Fosdick, as the next to be studied. Guild education chairman Mrs. Edward Wachs has been advisor for the selection committee, made up of Mrs. Leslie Schauffler, Mrs. Walter Saunders and Mrs. Harry Oppegaard.

Mrs. Charles Herschberger and Mrs. John Krueger attended the Women's Guild Christmas party at Lake Zurich Community Church Dec. 6. As members of the Pinochle Club, the Kruegers attended a Christmas party Saturday night at the Roland Berghorns' in Lake Zurich. Sunday guests of the Kruegers were the Martin Fricks of Chicago.

MEMBERS OF Long Grove Church Saturday Morning Group hosted a potluck supper Sunday evening in the Gale Livengood home near Quentin Corners. Their guests were members of a similar discussion group from Chicago's Church of the Good Shepherd. The two groups have been meeting for joint discussions every few months, alternating between here and the city. Preceding the supper members engaged in the reading of a religious play.

Last Saturday's cutting winds made it a shivering venture for those who attended the George Meyers' auction sale of farm machinery, tools and antiques. The Meyers plan to leave the Gilmer Road farm and move to their house, now being remodeled, on McHenry Road.

From Mrs. Blanche Kloman comes word that the Arcadia Farm Polo Team played the Culver Military Academy's Cavalry Unit traveling team last Saturday, coming out 13-12 in their favor. Distinguishing themselves were Arcadia members: Peter Cirelli of the farm, James McGahan of Buffalo Grove and Melvin Merske of Milwaukee.

The Tony Berg home has been the scene of a succession of Yuletide gatherings. Members of the Long Grove Church choir will gather there for their party Dec. 20.

Joann Opsal was recently the godmother at the baptism of Lorie Ann DeQuaker, daughter of the Don DeQuakers in Menominee Falls, Wis.

NEWCOMERS Club members gathered Dec. 5 for a "get acquainted coffee" at Mrs. Barndon Decker's home. Newest arrivals who joined the group were Betty Schiewe, Alecia Liesendahl, Jean Mason, Becky Kelly, Helen Anderson, Mildred Lewis and Ethel Bivins.

On Monday members of the club's executive board met with President Mrs. Steve Rosos to plan a New Year's Eve party at the Rosos home.

Art group members held meetings recently in the homes of Mrs. Clifford Marx and Mrs. Roy Anderson. Nov. 30 the Ray Millers and the Roy Andersons browsed through the Old Town Art Fair exhibits at Chicago's Wells and Lincoln Streets.

Word from the Max Millers of Englewood, Fla., is that they are basking amid balmy temperatures.

Vacationers since Thanksgiving at the Wilders was Mrs. Wilder's mother, Mrs. Catherine Naumann of Oxnard, Calif.

Christ Church in Winnetka lured Mrs. Heinz Loeffler and Mrs. Harold Wilder with its bazaar and Christmas sale Dec. 5.

LOCAL VOLUNTEERS who this season are contributing services to Countryside School for Retarded are Mrs. Ray Lindemer, Mrs. William Mell, Mrs. Clifford Marx, Mrs. Andrew Sim, Mrs. Henry Stade and Mrs. William Salzman.

Saturday the John C. Petersons of Mardan Estates were guests at a dinner party in the home of Dr. and Mrs. Arndt Nordlie of Park Ridge.

Preceding his Community Club lecture Dec. 6, Father Jones was hosted at a dinner gathering at the Robert Coffins'. Also present was Bob's mother, Mrs. Charles Coffin of Winnetak, in past years a faithful contributor to Father Jones' work. Others in the gathering were the Hal Wilders, also the priest of St. Mark Church of Barrington and Father Philip Priestly of Libertyville Episcopal Church, who lives on Church Street.

Among recent couples' bridge sessions was the one held at the Milton Wingquists', attended by the Burt Schells, Tony Bergs, Mrs. Virginia Weston and Mrs. Doris Dombrow, the latter substituting for Mr. Weston.

When a lighted birthday cake was carried in for Mrs. Clifford Marx during a recent dinner gathering at the Village Tavern, the event was indeed a surprise, all carefully planned by her husband. Four couples shared the occasion.

BIRTHDAY WISHES were also in order at the "three layered cake splurge" the Fred Singelmans attended Saturday at the home of their daughter and husband, the John Newkirks. Celebrating were John Newkirk, Fred Singelman and Peter Pilgard, the latter from Barrington. Mrs. Newkirk has been employed as second grade teacher at North Barrington School.

The Singelmans are expecting her mother, Mrs. Charles Mathiesen of Manitowoc, to spend a month with them this winter.

Birthday wishes also go to Renee Dahlberg, Dec. 13; Mrs. Florence Steckroth, the 17th; and to Luria Steckroth, the 19th.

Get well wishes go to Mrs. John Walgren, who was on the verge of pneumonia last week; Mrs. Walter Gosswiller, a recent Condell patient; and to Bobby Green, who is fast recovering from surgery.

Our thoughts are with the Stewart Richmonds who were suddenly called to Vero Beach, Fla., to attend the funeral of Stew's father on Wednesday.

COMMUNITY sympathy goes out to Ed Deeke, our mailman, for whom these days require courage. His brother, Lou, died Sunday night after a long illness. Adding to his sorrow is the loss of his brother Elmer of Round Lake Beach, who, with his three children was burned to death Sunday morning when an overheated space heater caused a fire which destroyed his home. His brother Elmer's wife and a daughter survived.

Because so many have expressed a concern to show our mailman that our hearts are with him, we are acting upon their suggestion to set up a "Deeke Family Fund." Anyone who wishes to use this means of showing Ed that his friends are with him, may contribute toward it and mail the contribution to your reporter, Route 2, Box 154, Long Grove.

Just as it takes a zoning issue or an architectural ordinance to stir up and antagonize folks on Main Street, it has taken last week's Red Oaks fire to make Long Grovers reveal their nobler selves. As one person expressed it, "Twelve years ago when I moved here I came to love Long Grove because the people were so friendly and helpful. Then throughout some of the past hasseling I began to lose my faith in people. But today I know I still love it. In spite of all, I see it hasn't changed!" (CP

Cornerstone Ceremony For Christian Church

The Christian Church of Arlington Heights (Disciples of Christ) laid the cornerstone in its nearly completed building at Thomas and Mitchell last Sunday. Approximately 100 members and friends of the congregation attended the ceremony.

Participating in laying the cornerstone were: the Reverend Don L. Jones, minister; Joseph Bryson, choir director; Cecil Jamison, representing the elders; Joseph Barthel, chairman of the church board; Guy McCord, chairman of elders; Mrs. C. E. Parson, president of the Christian Women's Fellowship, and Donald Walsh, chairman of deacons.

THE CONGREGATION plans to occupy the building on Jan. 13.

It was five years ago, on January 12, 1958, that the newly organized church held its first service in the auditorium at Miner Junior High School, with the late Dr. Orvis F. Jordan as organizing pastor. The congregation has now grown to 240 members. Since July, 1960, it has been under the leadership of the Rev. Mr. Jones.

The first unit of the new church building will seat 220 and will provide 11 classroom spaces. It was built at a cost of $100,000, exclusive of fees and furnishings. Robert Swanson of Evanston was the architect. Edward Ekstrom of Arlington Heights was the general contractor.

Faith Ladies' Yule Party Is Dec. 19th

Faith Ladies Society, Arlington Heights, will hold its monthly meeting and Christmas party Wednesday evening, Dec. 19 following the Advent Service. Mrs. Edwin Kirchhoff, program chairman, has arranged for the Harmonettes, a musical group of Arlington High School, to give a group of Christmas selections. Miss MariBeth Kirchhoff will also give a solo.

IN LIEU OF the usual Christmas gift exchange, the ladies will donate money for the Ephatha Lutheran Church, a mission church for the colored deaf in Chicago. Rev. Leroy Mason will purchase gifts for the needy with the money donated.

The Ladies Bible Group will meet again in January because of the Christmas holiday.

Refreshments will be served following the December program by Mrs. W. Brandau and the ladies on her committee.(A

Student Nurses' Concert Monday

The Student Nurses' Chorus of Lutheran General and Deaconess Hospitals School of Nursing will present their annual Christmas concert at 8 p.m. Monday, Dec. 17, in the Maine Township High School East auditorium.

The program will feature Christmas music by the student chorus of 70 voices under the direction of Thomas Daniels, northwest area choir director.

Included will be selections by soloists and by trio and quartet groups.

Tickets, costing $1 are available now at the school, Dempster St. and Western Ave. Park Ridge. Tickets also will be sold at the door. (B-8

Police Seek Youths Who Hit Student

Jack McRae, 16, of 700 Crest, Elk Grove Village, told Arlington Heights police he was beaten at the tennis courts across from the Arlington High School gymnasium last Friday night after the basketball game between Arlington and Maine.

McRae told police he believed his assailants were students at Arlington. He said he thought he would recognize them if he saw them again.

McRae attended Arlington last year and is now a student at Forest View High School.

Fresh Holly To Be Sold By Scouts

Fresh-cut holly arriving by air freight this week from Oregon will be offered for sale door-to-door throughout the Arlington Heights area from Dec. 15 through Dec. 22 in a joint effort by Boy Scout Troop 135 and Explorer Post 135.

It is their third annual sale of holly, the proceeds of which go for Scout activities and purchase of camping equipment.

Each cellophane window box of the holly contains a generous quantity of leaf and berry cuttings.

The troop and post are sponsored by the First Methodist Church of Arlington Heights. Troop Scoutmaster is Thomas Clauter of Arlington Heights; Explorer Post adviser is Howard Richardson of Arlington Heights. (A

5 Democrat Groups Seek New Members

A membership drive was launched this week by Wheeling Township's five Democratic organizations.

James Stavros, township committeeman, said an "open invitation" was being issued to any interested citizens to affiliate with the Women's Democratic Volunteers, Men's Democratic Club, Young Democrats, Regular Democratic Organization of Wheeling Township, or the Democratic Volunteers.

"It is an important and rewarding responsiblity of democratic citizenship to work within the party of your choice," said Stavros. "We are eager to welcome the interest and participation of all Wheeling Township Democrats in our program and activities."

Information on membership is available at Regular Democratic Headquarters, 111 E. Davis St., Arlington Heights, or by telephoning CLearbrook 9-0044 or CLearbrook 9-0760.

Chop Suey Shop Opens

Chinese food has been added to the international cuisine available in Rolling Meadows with the opening of the Don-Moy "take-out" chop suey shop in the Coach Lite Shops on Kirchoff Road.

Wah Soon Moy and Yau Ping Ah are proprietors of the food shop, a branch of a family operated restaurant on Touhy Ave. in Chicago.

More than 100 Chinese dishes can be ordered, and other Cantonese foods not listed on the menu can be prepared on special request. Orders phoned in advance will be ready for prompt pick-up.

Grand opening of the chop suey shop will be tomorrow, Friday.

Series of Accidents Handled by Police

A series of accidents recorded on Rolling Meadows police records commenced Dec. 5, when a cruising squad noticed traffic backed up on Illinois 53.

On investigation, the officer found George Sill, 1313 Joan, Palatine, sitting in his car in the ditch about a quarter mile north of Kirchoff Road.

Sill had a bad bruise on his forehead. The local police stood by until the arrival of state police.

THEY ASSISTED the state officers again on the 7th, when cars driven by Mrs. Sara Collins of Lombard and Edward Dudziak of Palatine were involved in a collision at Algonquin Road and Illinois 53.

Rolling Meadows police directed traffic, and took Amy Collins, 4, to the Northwest Community Hospital for emergency treatment.

James Cauble, Palatine, received a citation for following too closely, after his car crashed into one driven by Mrs Arlene Sherman, 3500 Teal Court, on Kirchoff Road, Dec. 9.

Cauble said he had pulled into the center lane to pass cars ahead when he saw Mrs. Sherman was about to make a left turn. He could not stop in time to avoid the accident.

MRS. HOWARD Mehn, 4009 Jay Lane, got into trouble when she tried to give another motorist more room. Mrs. Mehn was parking in the National lot, close to the Meadow Drive entrance.

She backed up a bit to give more room to another car entering the lot, and bumped the auto belonging to William Kasper, 4303 Linden Lane.

John O'Malley, 3404 Sigwalt, backed into a parked car in front of his home Monday. The damaged auto belonged to Jim Burgin, 2205 Martin. (K

GOP Victory Party Attracts Over 100

More than a hundred invited guests attended the Victory Party given last Thursday evening by Alexander MacArthur, Palatine Township Committeeman, in Campbell's Hearthstone Restaurant, 764 W. Baldwin Road, Palatine.

Special guests were Hayes Robertson, chairman of the Cook County Republican Central Committee; Richard Ogilvie, newly elected Cook County sheriff; William Scott, recently elected state treasurer, who just flew in from a vacation in Honolulu, where he attended a state treasurers' convention; Donald Rumsfeld, R—13th Congressman, and State Sen. John A. Graham. All were accompanied by their wives.

Each guest, when introduced, said "a few serious words and much drollery regarding their new jobs, which added much to the enjoyment of the other guests," according to public relations officer, Margarete Chapman. (KP

Books Added To Library By Friends

A number of new volumes will soon be on the shelves of Rolling Meadows Public Library, many of them the gift of Friends of the Library.

The auxiliary organization presented a check for $1,000 to the library board for the purchase of books, and the board added another $500. The volumes are to be selected jointly by the Friends and Mrs. Ellen Carver, librarian.

Circulation for November was 3,897 volumes. (K

Boy Sets Fire to Home, Runs Away

A small Rolling Meadows boy ran away from home after setting the house on fire Friday night.

Damage to the Eugene Campion home, 3302 Owl, was limited to one bedroom, and 7-year-old Tim was found 20 minutes later by police, cold and frightened but unharmed, hiding under the Kirchoff Road bridge.

Tim was spending the evening with his pal next door, Frank Powers, while his parents were away. The boys went to the Campion home for a game. For a reason known only to small boys, a book of matches was lit and dropped down a hot air register.

TIM TIRED to put out the fire with a glass of water, then took the register off and tried to stamp it out, losing a shoe in the duct before the scared youngsters left the house.

Powers Sr., realizing the boys had been gone too long, went to the Campion home where he was greeted with a cloud of smoke. His son was in the yard and said Tim had run away. The fire department was summoned and police began the search for the missing boy.

Tim was taken to Northwest Community Hospital for observation, but suffered no ill effects from the exposure.

Unofficial estimate of damage to the house was about $600. (K

Bork Hits 34 Points For NIU

The King of the nation's football passers threaded the hoop for 34 points Saturday night in the top small college basketball contest involving Illinois teams.

George Bork of Mount Prospect, a recent Little All-American selection who rewrote the national record books with his grid aerials for Northern Illinois University, led the Huskies to an 81-79 victory over Central Michigan in an Interstate Intercollegiate Athletic Conference game at Mount Pleasant, Mich.

Bork had tallied 17 and 14 points in Northern's first two cage games.

Bork is the second Little All-American in football in recent years from the Paddock Publications area. Palatine High coach Al Eck was named to an end position on the Little All-American squad as a Northern Illinois senior.

We Can't Blame Social Lull on Spring Fever Anymore

Sidelights Of Arlington Heights

Arlington Heights, Scarsdale & Estates, Stonegate

Dorothy Meyer, CL 3-2298 Elsie Jedd, CL 3-5982

Was it just last week that this column blamed the December social lull on — of all things — spring fever? Maybe a brrr-isk comment about the current climate will reverse its trend again, and at least there'll be a more weather-pleasant alibi for any news shortage.

One of the events that kept last week from getting dull was Saturday night's Cotillion dance in Rolling Green Country Club. Among several local couples who hosted pre-dance get-togethers were the Howard Hansens, 730 S. Mitchell, who entertained a small group of friends before leaving with them for the country club.

In the A. Selan home, 706 S. Dunton, 22 local couples enjoyed the Selan hospitality and a pre-Cotillion cocktail party before going en masse to the gala dance.

At a birthday-inspired dinner party for eight in the William Franck home Friday night three rounds of congratulations were necessary to accommodate the celebrants at 504 N. Yale. Host Franck, Mrs. Richard Lavers and Stephen Jurco received the kind of crazy gifts, insulting birthday cards and hysterical song that only good friends dare to inflict on one another.

THE FRANK Precilios came home to 739 S. Dunton last Wednesday afternoon suntanned, rested and exuberant about an ideal week in Nassau. There were also a couple of days at the Hotel Fontainebleau in Florida, but it was weather-perfect, scenic Nassau that rated the raves. The Precilios sunned, sailed and enjoyed leisurely sightseeing, then came home to fog, falling temperatures and the Christmas rush.

Thirty neighborhood couples farwelled Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Glorch, soon leaving 822 S. Mitchell, at a late afternoon party Sunday in the Robert Chaney home, 406 W. Kirchoff. When the Glorches leave for their new local address after the holidays, they'll have with them gifts of remembrance from each couple.

Weekend guests in the Pete Carr home, 405 W. Willow, were Mrs. Carr's sisters, Mrs. Robert Hileman and her two children, and Miss Donna Jones, and their mother, Mrs. Clyde Jones, all of Peru, Ind. The accumulation of snow, pocketed at the Indiana end of Lake Michigan, almost prevented the visit, and more of the white stuff added over the weekend almost prolonged it.

THE JOHN Grays, 906 N. Mitchell, recently returned from a 5-day mostly-business stay in New York that also allowed time for a visit with their daughter and her family, the John Whites of Waldwick, N. J.

Also recently returned are the A. C. Jeffreys, 1311 W. Campbell, who enjoyed a brief stay with the senior Mrs. Jeffrey in Koshkoning, Mo.

Cathy Ploetz was 11 years old Sunday and took eight girl friends to see the Village Theatre presentation of "Little Women." The local little women then returned to the Ploetz home, 1004 N. Mitchell, for a festive birthday supper. Cathy's mom was assisted during the afternoon and evening by Mrs. Andrew Watt.

For Jim Letzel's seventh birthday Saturday there was a party with a circus theme and pin the nose on the clown supplanted the usual pin the tail on the donkey. All other games were circus-slanted, too, and Jim's six buddies and kid brother, Scott, ate up every minute of it. The cake at 1237 N. Chestnut was similarly appreciated, although the lion tamer and his beasts on top of the cake were soon without anything to stand on.

Sunday Jim's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Andrews of Chicago, came to say happy birthday and extend a surprise dinner-out invitation to further celebrate the birthday event.

CONFIRMATION Wednesday evening in St. James Catholic Church resulted in some family parties, but the early evening fog and a school-tomorrow day following cancelled or curtailed many more. Among the celebrations with just the immediate family was Stephen Hemsley's. Stephen is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Hemsley, 707 N. Highland.

Family parties that included aunts 'n' uncles and lots of cousins were held the Sunday before the confirmation of Dale Weidner, 1131 N. Dunton, and his next-door neighbor cousin, Vincent Weidner, 1135 N. Dunton. They each had their own parties Sunday, exchanged congratulations the night of their confirmation and went home to bed.

James Alm's confirmation brought his Grandpa and Grandma Alm here from St. Paul and they stayed for a 5-day visit at 823 N. Dunton so there was no urgent need to crowd a celebration into the same night as the confirmation.

MRS. E. T. Skoglund, 1122 N. Mitchell, wife of past president of Chicago's Orphei Singing Club, is slowly getting caught up to the season's demands after being totally occupied with the writing and producing of a show for the club's recent annual County Fair Night. Her original production, a satire on westerns and tuned to the all-Swedish membership of the club, was narrated by recording star and television personality, Win Stracke.

"The Winning of the West," with a strong Swedish accent that turned the w's to v's, had a cast of 26 Orphei and Orphei auxiliary members, and included such sterling characters as "Lars Maverick." Post-play publicity from the club indicates that "The Vinning of the Vest" vas yust Yim-dandy, an opinion Mrs. Skoglund modestly downgrades.

LAST THURSDAY night Mrs. Arthur Burmeister and Mrs. Clarence Loechl were co-hostesses at a neighborhood party in the Burmeister home, 1134 N. Dunton, welcoming a new neighbor, Mrs. George Bieber. The honor guest, newly-established in the former William Ross home at 1136 N. Dunton, was introduced to a dozen of her fellow "hausfraus" in the immediate neighborhood.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Paluch, former local teachers now in Guam, were recently featured in a Paddock Publications article telling of their experiences during Typhoon Karen which levelled most of the island. November 26, the day of the Paluch item, Mrs. Fred Walters, 415 E. St. James, received her first letter since the typhoon from her brother-in-law and sister, the Keith Kincaids, also in Guam.

Although thousands of the island's inhabitants were killed or injured and many more missing and presumed dead, the Kincaids, like the Paluches were in the minority who escaped injury. Rain, driven by winds up to 205 miles per hour, made a muddy mess of the interior of the Kincaid home, but the house itself was undamaged.

The roof of a less sturdy house was in the Kincaids' front yard next morning, and the streets throughout the island were littered, Mrs. Kincaid wrote, with everything from roofs to bathtubs.

Pictures of the island after Karen finished with it supplemented Mrs. Kincaid's verbal description which, she said, lacked adequate words to fully tell of the complete chaos left in Karen's wake.

THE JUNIOR Edward O. McKowns 206 S. Gibbons, will be hosts at a buffet supper party Sunday. Guests will include Mr. and Mrs. Charles Simons of La Grange Park and the John Weidles and Robert Metzes of Arlington Heights.

Mr. McKown's mother, Mrs. Edith McKown, will arrive in Arlington Heights Dec. 22, from her home in Sewickley, Pa. to visit during the Christmas holidays.

Mrs. Robert W. Carey, 103 S. Derbyshire, is giving a coffee Thursday, Dec. 13, in honor of Mrs. Robert Bierbaum, Mrs. Daniel Rufo and Mrs. Harvey Hoth, all newcomers to Stonegate.

Miss Nancy Lonergan, will arrive home Dec. 22, for a 10-day vacation with her parents, the W. T. Lonergans, 1002 Mayfair. Miss Lonergan, a former teacher at our Lady of the Wayside School, joined the Extension-Lay Volunteer Mission in August, and has been teaching in an elementary school in Guthrie, Okla.

Roy and Lee Garr, both students at Coe College, will arrive home Saturday to spend the Christmas holidays with their parents, the LeRoy Garrs, 316 S. Derbyshire.

THE ROBERT R. Lundstedts, 218 S. Gibbons, are looking forward to a holiday visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Lundstedt, who will come here from Rock Island.

Margaret Todd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Todd, 102 S. Brighton, marked her fourth birthday Nov. 30, with a luncheon and birthday party. Joining Margaret for the birthday celebration were David Coobs, Alan Reed, Martha Kline, Laurie Rosenfeld and Susan Kerrigan.

Mrs. August Burnier, 516 E. Fairview, and Mrs. Betty Riebe of Arlington Heights were in South Bend Sunday where they participated in the South Bend Women's Bowling tournament. While their team was not among the winners, this disappointment did not dampen their spirits near as much as the grueling ride home through a sudden vicious blizzard they encountered a few miles out of South Bend.

While Mrs. Burnier was away, her son and daughter-in-law, the Franz Burniers of Naperville, were here for the weekend and were hosts at a dinner party and bridge for their Arlington Heights friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell F. Christy, 505 S. Belmont, entertained members of the Cotillion Dance Club at cocktails Saturday before the dance at Rolling Green Country Club.

WALTER WOOLMER, a former Arlington Heights resident, returned here last Friday for a week's visit with the Peter Mc Quillons, 760 S. Belmont, after which he will go to Clearwater, Fla., to spend the winter.

Since moving from Arlington Heights, Mr. Woolmer has been living with his daughter and family, the Robert Kinneys of Binghamton, N. Y.

Mrs. Roy Baumann, 421 E. Orchard, returned from Boston Wednesday. Both Mr. and Mrs. Baumann went east to spend Thanksgiving with their son and daughter-in-law, Rev. and Mrs. J. Daniel Baumann, and Mrs. Baumann remained for a longer visit.

Rev. Baumann is serving as full-time pastor of the Evangelical Baptist Church of Norwood while studying for his doctorate at the University of Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Lane of Columbus, Ohio, were recent houseguests of their son and family, the Alfred Lanes, 619 E. Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Pierce, 503 E. Grove, were hosts at an open house Saturday to usher in the holiday season.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Rose, 611 E. Grove, have as their houseguest this week, her brother, George Tebbel of Birmingham, Mich.

Mrs. Louis Neckar, 516 Mayfair, gave an annual Christmas dinner party Wednesday for seven office girls of the Jefferson Park office of the Prudential Insurance Company.

THE EUGENE Lukasiks, 526 E. Central, gave the first of a series of pre-Christmas dinner parties Sunday for members of their large family. Joining the family group were cousins from Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. John Anczrek and the Henry Anczreks.

Thursday, the Lukasiks will attend a cocktail and dinner party at the Oak Park Arms Hotel for members of the Chicago Molded Company.

Miss Karen Lilleberg arrives home Friday from St. Olaf College to spend the Christmas holidays with her parents, the Ralph Lillebergs, 322 S. Derbyshire.

The Warren Klines, 114 S. Brighton, entertained Sunday evening for their longtime friends, Mr. and Mrs. William Pierce, who recently moved to Stonegate from Atlanta. (A

Steingraber To Realign Cage Squad

A realignment is in store for the Forest View soph basketball squad following the boys' fourth straight loss, a 46-29 drubbing at the hands of Wheaton Saturday.

Coach Rog Steingraber plans some changes before Saturday's home match with Glenbard East. He said the team was weak on defense — "especially at forwards and center" — and made several ball handling errors in the loss to the Tigers.

"We need a realignment to get more strength at the offensive guard position and better defensive play near the basket," said Steingraber.

The Falcons missed 22 of 33 free throws, enough to win the game. Pat Dunnigan led all scorers with 16 points. Gary Clemens added six for the Falcons.

Earns Rifle Award

George Walter Brinke Jr., 307 N. Lincoln Lane, Arlington Heights, became one of America's top riflemen, it was announced by the National Rifle Association of America, as the shooter was awarded the Distinguished Expert Medal, highest rifle qualification award in the nation.

The new high ranking shooter, to join the country's select group of high ranking marksmen, had to shoot hundreds of targets over a period of several months and climb through 14 lower qualification NRA ratings.

The new distinguished expert shooter attends Arlington High School.

Colts Upset Spikers

Last week the Arlington Heights Park District's Thursday night volleyball league opened its season with one surprising upset.

In the first contest the Colts pulled a 28-19 upset of the highly rated Spikers, who were last year's runners-up. The game, however, was not a fluke as both teams played well and the Colts displayed good team work to emerge the winner.

Defending champions, Klehm's Nursery—1, breezed to a 42-18 win and the Strats edged Able Electric 25-20.

Next week's feature contest will pit Klehm's Nursery against the Colts.

Frosh, Soph Teams Win At Prospect

Prospect High's frosh and soph wrestling teams picked up wins Saturday in a double dual meet with Glenbrook North. The Knight frosh won, 36-16, while the sophs bombed North, 43-13. Both squads are unbeaten.

At the frosh meet, Bill Kralnog, Jerry Cowan, Doug White, Marty DeStefanis, Tom Nading and Frank Abboreno all pinned their opponents. Fred Sessions and Larry Knaack won on decisions.

Mark Pasidora and Rick Lytle paced the sophomore win. Pasidora pinned his man in 27 seconds of the first period, and Lytle turned the trick in 38 seconds.

Other boys who pinned their opponents include Karl Meisenheimer, Jim Herod, Bill Becker, Jim Zaehler, Bill Woodward and Tom Knutson.

Knights to Host Holiday Mat Tourney

Coaches from eight area schools will meet at 8 p.m., Wednesday, Dec. at Prospect High to draw for brackets in the second annual Holiday Wrestling tournament set for December 21 and 22.

Prospect will host teams from Downers Grove, East Rockford, Forest View, Lake Park, Naperville, Niles West and York high schools. Preliminary matches will begin at 7 p.m., Friday, Dec. 21. Semi-finals and finals will be held at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. on Saturday, Dec. 22. Defending tourney champion is Naperville.

Collier's Soph Crew Wins Again

Warren Collier's soph basketball squad demolished Glenbrook North Saturday for the Prospect outfit's third straight win against one loss this year.

The Knights built up an 18-4 first quarter lead and coasted the rest of the way.

Collier was pleased with the defensive job done by guards Bill Henry and Bill Phillips in covering Al Wiggens, the Spartan's high-scoring guard. Wiggens was held to 12 points, eight below his average.

The Knight defense held Glenbrook to a weak 18 per cent from the floor, and Jeff Heiden turned in his best game of the season in both offense and rebounding.

Heiden led the Knight attack with 14 points. Phillips added 11, and Gregg Melzer, nine.

Classic League Opens

The Arlington Heights Park District's Classic basketball league opened the 1962-63 season with three games being played last week.

In the opener Team Number 6 took a 50-48 win from the Bravo Braves. Team Six built up a 17-point lead by half time.

Pure Oilers took home a victory by downing the Crows 63-42, while in the night-cap a strong Lynnwood team handled Klehm's Nursery 64-39.

The Library Corner

Library Is Decorated In Holiday Styling

by BETTY AINSLIE

It won't be long and holiday vacation will be here for all you fellows and gals.

Mom, you'll probably be busier than the proverbial one-armed paper hanger with the hives, so when the kids start fraying your nerves around the edges, send them to the library for some of these new books to fill in their extra time.

By the way, don't forget to send them in before Christmas to see the children's department display case at Arlington Heights Memorial Library.

SANTA AND his sleigh are suspended over sugar-cube houses, and Santa's workshop has merry and busy little elves turning out Christmas toys, and a group of ice skaters gathered around a Christmas tree.

It's hard to keep up with all the new books which keep arriving for the young adults, but here are a few brand new ones that will appeal to the older boys and girls.

"Wilderness Clearing" by Walter D. Edmonds is a junior novel about a 16-year-old boy and girl, clumsy Dick and clever Maggie; at least that is the way Maggie felt until she discovered Dick was the strong arm she needed when her father became ill and her brothers were killed by Indians.

A YOUNG TEACHER finds the things she learned in her first year as a school marm do not hold true with the problems she faces in the mining town of Timberlane in the book called "The Extra Special Room" by Margaret Hill.

"Ribbon of Fire" by Allen Campbell McLean is a story of the Scotland farmers who worked hard to get a living from the stony soil of this land. The story is full of suspense and strange characters.

Elizabeth G. Seibert has written a modern sure-to-be-enjoyed-by-girls story called "Sidonie." This is the name of the heroine who wishes to become a physical therapist, but can't go on to college for her education until she discovers the special legacy promised by a great-uncle.

OLDER BOYS will like reading "Too Late to Quit" by Wilfred McCormick, as it is about a young quarterback in a new fast-moving football story. The hero has to face some of life's real problems when he and his team are playing a game in Honolulu against a tricky and mysterious team.

A really modern book called "Starry Answer" by Mildred Lawrence has the age-old problem of getting along with others. Only this time the heroine is faced with a new crop of kids in her high school called missile kids, whose families have moved to this missile launching area. Intrigue and up-to-the minute background makes the characters very real indeed.

Summer love on an island off the coast of Maine is the plot of a book called "Turn Around Twice" by Elizabeth Ogelvie. A novel of mystery and romance about how a girl wins an island near Maine as a contest prize, but finds it takes more than a mere piece of paper to make the place hers.

FOR THE theatre fan or the one who likes to read about life backstage try the book called "So Near the Heart" by Amelia Elizabeth Ealden, which is all about a girl who graduates from college and hopes to go right into professional roles with American Shakespeare festival in Stratford, Conn.

She discovers that she is just classed as a beginner and has to learn to swallow her pride and learn the techniques and secrets of acting from the real professionals. (A

Cantata Set By Church

Arlington Heights Evangelical Free Church Choir under the direction of George Travers will present the Christmas cantata, "The Babe of Bethlehem," at 7 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 16.

The cantata was written and composed by Bernard Hamblem, who combined his own words with scripture text to portray the Nativity.

Performing the solo parts will be Mrs. Helen Reis, Mrs. Marie Foran, Mrs. Barbara Chase, Mrs. Lavone Holt, John Sherman and Adam Sergey. Mrs. Harriet Lindahl will accompany at the organ. (A

County Takes Part Of Federal Funds

Public schools in Cook County are participating to a larger extent than all other Illinois counties combined in the national defense program for improving instruction in science, mathematics and foreign languages, Dr. Noble J. Puffer, Cook County Superintendent of Schools, reported this week.

Dr. Puffer's report was based on a disclosure by George T. Wilkins, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, that a total of $1,578,571 in federal aid was received in Illinois in the year ended June 30 under Title III of the National Defense Act.

This section of the National Defense Act provides for the federal aid to schools for improving instruction in the three fields of science, mathematics and foreign languages.

"THE SCHOOLS of Cook County account for approximately 40 per cent of the total state public school enrollment," Dr. Puffer explained, "but the report on federal aid under the Defense Act shows that the Cook County schools received well over half of this assistance."

For the year ended June 30, the Cook County schools received $812,485 of the total of $1,578,571 paid by the federal government to Illinois schools. This left a balance of $766,086 that went to all other schools outside of Cook County.

In Cook County, Dr. Puffer reported that $636,567 of the federal aid was used for science instruction, $119,020 for foreign language, and $56,896 for mathematics instruction.

"THIS INDICATES that the administrators and the boards of education in Cook County are exploring every possibility to improve the total instructional program of their school system," said Dr. Puffer.

"Part of the greater participation in Cook County in the national defense program also must be attributed to the fact that we have a greater proportion of large school systems than other counties," he said. (B8

Rep. St. George to Honor Mrs. Church

New York Congresswoman Katharine St. George will head a group of national and local speakers slated to pay tribute to U.S. Rep Marguerite Stitt Church on Tuesday, Jan. 8, the Evanston Jaycees announced this week.

The Jaycees are sponsors of a community-wide testimonial dinner to honor Mrs. Church who is retiring Jan. 5 after 12 years in Congress. She succeeded her husband, the late Ralph E. Church, who had served 14 years in Congress.

The dinner, to be held at 7 p.m. in Patten Gymnasium on the Northwestern University campus, will also serve as the opening celebration of Evanston's 1963 centennial year.

GREGORY L. Wanberg, general chairman of the dinner, said Mrs. St. George would be joined on the program by U.S. Sen. Everett M. Dirksen. Both are honorary co-chairmen of the dinner.

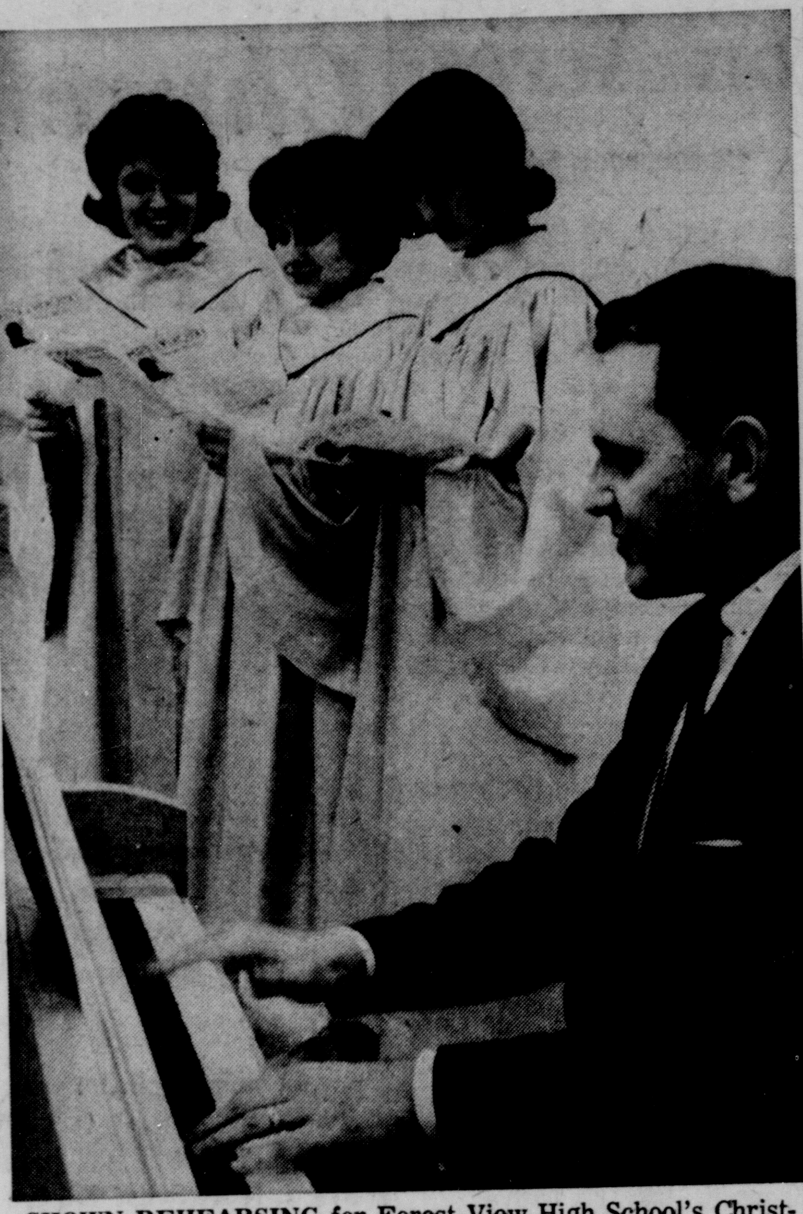
Other national figures include U.S. Rep. J. L. Pilcher of Meigs, Ga., and Fred Schwengel of Davenport, Iowa.

Pilcher is a ranking Democrat on the House Foreign Affairs Committee, and chairman of its Subcommittee on Foreign Economic Policy, of which Mrs. Church is the ranking minority member. Schwengel serves on the House Public Works Committee, and its special "watchdog" subcommittee on roads.

SPEAKERS will include 13th District Congressman-elect Donald Rumsfeld of Glenview; John D. Emery, mayor of Evanston; Harry L. Wells, vice president emeritus of Northwestern University who is master of ceremonies; Dr. K. Richard Johnson, president of National College of Education; Rev. Dow Kirkpatrick, minister of the First Methodist Church of Evanston; Ald. Otto R. Hills (6th), executive director of the Evanston Centennial Committee, and Jared L. Johnson Jr., president of the Evanston Jaycees.

Wanberg said Evanston organizations and residents had already placed reservations for more than two-thirds of the seats available. He urged interested groups and individuals to make their reservations as soon as possible.

Reservations for the $7.50 tickets are being mailed to the Marguerite Stitt Church Testimonial Dinner, Box 14, Evanston. B8



SHOWN REHEARSING for Forest View High School's Christmas Concert are (l. to r.) juniors Carol Torrens, Jane Del Guidice, and Pat Hermann. Accompanying them is Vincent I. Ahnquist, choral director. The program will be at 3 p.m. this Sunday in the boys gym. The public is invited without charge.

Patrolman Is Bitten

DU QUOIN, ILL., (UPI)—Patrolman Delmar Fulk went to the house of Mrs. Anna Little, 72, Sunday after neighbors said she appeared to be unconscious inside.

As Fulk crawled through a window, he was bitten six times on the hand by Mrs. Little's dog.

Mrs. Little was taken to a hospital where she remained unconscious Monday.

LATER IN the day, Fulk received a call from a man who said a dog would not let him in his garage.

Fulk said the dog turned out to be the one that had bitten him before and that it bit him again.

He took the dog to its home where it is being cared for by neighbors. (B8

Firm Tells Of Dumping On Property

Laseke Disposal Co., Arlington Heights, reported to police last Friday that a large pile of trash had been dumped where the company keeps its trucks at Champlain and Rand Road.

A disposal company employe found a letter addressed to Alan D. Reich in the pile of trash. Company records showed that a customer having that name lived in 1007 Frontenac, Arlington Heights.

Police questioned Alan D. Reich at the Frontenac address, who denied knowledge of the dumping. However, he said he would haul away the trash. (A

The merry sound of jingle bells fills the air as plans go ahead for the Arlingon Acres Civic Association's Christmas party under the direction of Mrs. Edward McMullen, 413 S. Prindle. The day is Saturday, Dec. 15, at 2 p.m., and the place is the American Legion Hall at Miner and Douglas, Arlington Heights.

An appointment has been made with Santa Claus himself to distribute gifts and candy to the children, while the grown-ups enjoy cake and coffee. A Christmas movie will highlight the affair.

Anyone wishing further information may call Mrs. McMullen at 392-1229.

Best wishes for many more happy birthdays go to Raymond Westman, whose big day was Dec. 7. Raymond is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Westman, 520 S. Forrest.

PLANS TO celebrate Lori Spagnoli's fourth birthday Dec. 5 had to be cancelled, because Lori was too ill to enjoy the festivities. However, her cake was taken out of the freezer Saturday and an impromptu family party was held, attended by her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Fumel of Skokie, sister, Jamie, and brothers, Michael and Joey. Lori is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Spagnoli, 1815 E. Grove.

Mark Longrie's fifth birthday Dec. 12 was celebrated Saturday at a party given by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Longrie, 429 S. Forrest. Guests included Mark Hermanson, Beth Ann Briscoe, Mark Kunz, Linda Gryzik, Kari Knutsen, her sister, Marcia, and brother, Keith. Birthday cake and ice cream were followed by party games which Marcia had planned, the favorite being a race between Walt Disney walking animals who were noisily rooted "home" to the bottom of an inclined board.

Mrs. Ray Fritz, 420 S. Phelps, was hostess last Wednesday at a coffee to celebrate the birthday of Mrs. Leo Smolinski, 2105 E. Grove. Other guests were nine fellow members of a birthday club.

The celebration of the ninth birthday Dec. 5 of Murray Lemons started on Thanksgiving Day in Olmsted, Ill., when he and his mother, Mrs. Lynn Lemons, were co-recipients of birthday congratulations at dinner in the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Huddlestun.

THE FOLLOWING weekend the family drove to Lavonia, Mich., where Murray was guest of honor at a dinner given by his great-grandmother, Mrs. Ethel Huddlestun. The finale took place Dec. 5 at a party at home, 504 S. Prindle, when Murray was toasted by his parents', brothers, Kevin, Spencer and Brian; and a friend of Mrs. Lemons', Miss Pierrette Vincent of Palatine.

Cindy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Straub, 521 S. Phelps, will long remember the party given Friday to mark her ninth birthday. The affair started with supper, followed by cake, ice cream and party games. Helping Cindy celebrate were her sisters, Nathalie and Danielle, and friends, Janet Schultz, Nancy Roman, Linda Richardson, Sharon Thompson, Karen Kucera, Karen Hagen, Karen Palluth, Marcia Anderson and Linda Vollhardt. Churchwomen Install Officers at Yule Lunch

The Christmas meeting of the Women's Association of the First Prebyterian Church of Arlington Heights will be Dec. 19, beginning with luncheon at 12:30 p.m. in Fellowsnip Hall served by Circle 7 under the direction of Mrs. M. Born, chairman and Mrs. W. Daube, co-chairman.

Mrs. Isaac Strain, pianist and new organist for the Church, and Mrs. R. B. Dunlop, violinist, will provide a background of Christmas music during the luncheon.

Newly - elected officers of the Association will be installed during the program beginning at 1:45 p.m. in the chapel. Conducting this service will be Mrs. A. G. Benedix, past president of the organization.

A TRIO, Mrs. G. W. Hasbach, Mrs. E. E. Zilen and Mrs. M.S. Brand, accompanied by Mrs. E.S. Auge, organist, will sing a group of carols to set the stage for a program of Christmas carols and customs eneitled "Sing the Glad Tidings" prepared by Mrs. D. E. Harting, music secretary.

Area women are invited and may make luncheon reservations by calling CL 3-0492. (A why live in an "INDOOR DESERT?"

just Dial the Proper Humidity

for more healthful, comfortable living

All winter long, the average American home, indoors, is drier than the Sahara Desert! Dry, stale, artificial heat robs the air of its natural moisture—inviting respiratory diseases...reducing comfort...drying out and damaging furniture and furnishings. This lost moisture must be replaced. Here's how: Aprilaire Humidifiers—high capacity units...automatic...with accurate, positive humidistat control provide and maintain the relative humidity that's better for your family's health and comfort. VIRGINIA TERRACE

The twinkling lights of Christmas are beginning to appear throughout the Terrace, but residents nonetheless are hosting non-seasonal confirmation festivities, family get-togethers and birthday parties.

Ray and Jeanne Parks, 1259 N. Wilke, recently entertained as weekend guests Ray's brother and family, the Richard Parks of Springfield. Niece and nephew, Debbie and David, particularly enjoyed getting together with their cousins and helped celebrate Bob's 9th birthday a bit in advance.

Last Wednesday Kathleen, daughter of Eileen and Raymond Brown, 1504 W. Oakton, was confirmed at St. James Catholic Church, with Miss Dorothy Green of Chicago as her sponsor. Saturday Kathleen continued her "big week" at a party in honor of her 10th birthday. Guests for luncheon and games included Kathleen's sister, Marianne, who served as assistant hostess, and Leslie Yates, Mary Jo Burkhardt, Nancy Colianni, Eileen Dunne, Ann Frisbie, Pamela Shay, Susan Crise, Marilyn Willow, Kathy Talaber and Terry Roser.

RECENTLY PAUL and Irene Pedersen, 1216 N. Chicago, hosted a surprise birthday party for Irene's mother, Mrs. Joseph Burke of Chicago. In addition to the immediate family, other celebrants included the B. Kehoes, Ray Harrows and the Jerry Salernos, all of Chicaog.

A family party was held Dec. 6 to celebrate the 17th birthday of Jean, daughter of Bill and Jean Guderley, 1228 N. Yale.

Last weekend Darrell and Francine Elder, 1334 N. Chicago, entertained the John Brinkman family of Rockford for a mid-day dinner and a tour of Randhurst.

Hugh Bredenbeck, 1706 W. Oakton, was guest of honor at a birthday supper Friday night hosted by his wife, Phyllis. Guests included his aunt, uncle and cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sands and Stephen of Glenview.

WEDNESDAY afternoon Carol Jean, daughter of Dick and Ruth Randle, 1448 N. Yale, celebrated her fifth birthday with a party for Mark "K.C.," Val and Mickey Moser, Kevin Mullins, Cheryl Speer, "Dee-Dee" and Sharon Leister.

Another confirmation celebrated in the Terrace Wednesday was that of Tommy, son of La Rue and Andrew Reed, 1328 N. Yale. Following the ceremonies in St. James', Tommy's sponsor, Hal Cates, joined by his wife, Marguerite, enjoyed cake and coffee with the Reeds.

Saturday afternoon Kathleen, daughter of Mary and Fred Maybee, 1251 N. Wilke, celebrated her 5th birthday at a party for Rose Marie Lilly, Susan Parks and Ricky Nieman. A second celebration took place the following day at a family dinner attended by her grandparents, the R. Kreuschers of Kenosha and the C. Johnsons of Waukegan.

Another birthday was celebrated Saturday. Tommy, son of Virginia and Lyle Miller, 1525 W. Clarendon, was guest of honor on the occasion of his seventh birthday. Guests included school friends and playmates, Michael Adkins, Greg Schafer, Gary Crowe, Michael Herbert and James Noon.

Virginia, daughter of Dorothy and Chuck Catlin, 1609 W. Olive, celebrated her ninth birthday Dec. 1 at a party for Cheri Clarkson, Cindy Ross, Shirley Rozdalovsky, Cathy Woods, Becky Bailey, Lynn Harper and Peggy Bonnell.

A LUNCHEON and movie party was held Saturday in honor of Gordon Heise, 1222 N. Yale, who was celebrating his 10th birthday. Hosted by parents William and Regina, guests included Ray Ostler, Robert Twilling, Tommy Reed and Gordon's brother, Wayne.

Susan McCable, 1236 N. Race, celebrated her 13th birthday Monday evening with a family get-together. Present were her brothers, John and Rick, along with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Wilmot and Mrs. Adeline Wynn, and Aunt Louise and Uncle George Wilmot.

A dual birthday dinner was held Saturday for Briggs and Alison, son and daughter of Warren and Joan Blackburn, 1326 N. Race. Hosted by their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Blackburn, the celebration was held in Chicago.

Jim, son of Betty and Laurel Hanley, 1507 W. Clarendon, celebrated his eighth birhday with a family party Saturday evening.

A family party a week ago Tuesday celebrated the first birthday of Robyn, daughter of Robert and Sandra Nelson, 1710 Nelson, 1710 W. Oakton.

When Susan, daughter of Bob and Ellen Wiley, 1329 N. Race, celebrated her 11th birthday Sunday, on hand were her sisters, Mary Anne, Patricia and Debby, brother, Michael, and their grandmother, Mrs. Ann Wiley of Elmhurst. (A

Two Named Winners in Club Bridge

Mrs. Ruth Myers of Roselle and Nelson Hammond of Barrington won first place in the club championship bridge tournament at Pioneer Park last Friday. Mr. and Mrs. William Nightingale of Arlington Heights were second.

Each first and second place winner received a bridge cup in addition to master points.

Mr. and Mrs. Don R. Lee of Glenview were third. The tournament was a 22-table game and the scrambled Mitchell movement was used, according to Chester P. Rumpf, tournament director.

The next duplicate bridge game will be held at the Northwest YMCA in Des Plaines on Friday, Dec. 14, at 8:30 p.m.

Duplicate bridge games, open to the public, are held at Pioneer Park on the first and third Fridays of the month at 8 p.m. The next game at Pioneer Park will be on Dec. 21. (A

WORD STUDY

"Use a word three times and it is yours." Let us increase our vocabulary by mastering one word each day. Words for this lesson:

APOSTATE; faithless to moral allegiance. (Accent second syllable). "We must quell this apostate state wherever it occurs in our community."

APTITUDE; natural or acquired capacity for a particular purpose. "He is a boy of remarkable aptitude for almost any sport."

FETTLE; condition; trim. "He has worked himself into fine fettle for the contest ahead."

Houser Announces Changes for GOP

Thomas J. Houser, Wheeling Township Republican Committeeman, announced this week that as of Dec. 1, Fred Ainslie of Arlington Heights is the new Precinct 6 captain, succeeding Mrs. William Stockdale, who resigned following the Nov. 6 election.

Mrs. Stockdale will continue her duties as secretary to the committeeman for the Wheeling Township Republican Organization, Houser said.

PRECINCT 11's new GOP captain is Henry Hips. Hips, appointed just shortly before the November election, carried his precinct to victory in the Republican column, Houser noted.

Charles Hood of Arlington Heights, who played a major roll in the GOP's "Operation Eagle Eye," replaces Joseph Dister as head of Precinct 30. Dister was promoted and transferred to Kansas City by his company.

Committeeman Houser effected an additional organizational change with the appointment of Albert Miller of Arlington Heights as an area chairman. Miller will be one of five men in the village serving as both area chairman and precinct captain.

Arlington High School To Participate in Match

Student teams from Homewood - Flossmoor, Wheaton Community and Arlington High School will be rematched on WNBQ's "It's Academic" colorcast Saturday, Dec. 22, Channel 5, 6 p.m. CST. Radio rebroadcast, will be over WMAQ, at 10 p.m.

The schools were matched on the first "It's Academic" telecast Sept. 29 and Wheaton was declared the winner. However, the correct answer to one of the questions was disputed and following a recheck after the program it was decided to rematch the schools at a later date.

HOMEWOOD - Flossmoor will be represented by Kim Saunders, Alice Dudley and David Lee. Dr. William Woodworth will be the faculty scorekeeper.

Bill Rathje, Robert Seston and David Kramer will represent Wheaton, with Miss Barbara Summers as faculty scorekeeper.

Charles King, Martin Purvis and Daniel Bedford will comprise the Arlington student team. Bruno Waara is faculty scorekeeper.

I BET YOU DIDN'T KNOW

If you entertain a small fear that automation and electronic gadgetry is about to nudge you out of a job, listen to this: Nerve tissue is some 10,000 times more efficient than the electronic monsters some people regard so warily. It is claimed, too, that the human brain has a memory capacity 280 million times as great as that of machines in use.

If all this is not to be taken with the proverbial grain of salt, then how come so many humans resort to the "string on the finger" means of remembering?

Let's hope you continue to remember, by the way, that PALATINE PAINT & GLASS CO. is the best bet for the "do-it-yourselfer" who likes to keep his home smart and modern. Paints, wallpapers, glass and scores of other products by name makers are always available (along with instruction and advice) at PALATINE PAINT & GLASS CO., 9-11 N. Bothwell. Phone FL 9-0954.

Contract on Heat, Air Is Awarded

The contract for the heating and ventilating systems for the Wheeling High School, under construction at Route 83 and Hintz Road, has been awarded to Hans Jensen & Sons contractors of 4903 Fullerton Ave., Chicago.

The Jensen bid was $568,394. This was the low bid from a field of 18 bidders.

THE GENERAL contract was awarded last week to Englehardt, Inc. of Libertyville in the amount of $2,185,200. Excavators have begun digging on the site.

Equipment bids will be awarded on Dec. 10.

The fourth high school for District 214 is scheduled to open September, 1964. (ACM-EG

Dog 'Grads' To Compete December 17

Some "graduates" of High School District 214's evening adult education program will compete for diplomas Monday night, Dec. 17.

A dog show, with competition in the novice division, will culminate instruction in the school's course for dogs and their owners.

THE PUBLIC is invited to the "show," which will be conducted by instructor Stuart Remus at 7:30 p.m. in the Arlington High garage, just north of the gymnasium. Some 12 canines will demonstrate their recent education as a conclusion of the first semester.

A similar course is being planned for the spring term.

Music of the Season

Christmas Festival at Prospect This Sunday

Prospect High School music department announces its annual Christmas Festival this Sunday, Dec. 16, at 3 p.m. in the fieldhouse. The offering of this festival to the community as a Christmas gift of the school is an annual custom, Principal Alvin Kielieke said. No tickets are required.

The band and combined choral groups will combine in a stirring procession based on the traditional "O Come, All Ye Faithful," following which the combined choruses will sing "O Sons and Daughters," the Sicilian hymn "O How Joyfully!" and the Polish carol "Gloria! Gloria!"

The Concert Band will play a transcription of Bach's Prelude and Fugue in D Minor, Adam's "Cantique de Noel," and a Christmas suite of five well-known selections arranged by Harold L. Walters.

THE SYMPHONIC Band will play a stirring arrangement of K. K. Davis' "Carol of the Drum" and "Winter Wonderland" by Smith and Bernard. The audience will join the band in singing two familiar carols.

The Prospect Choir will sing three carols of European origin: "Fum, Fum, Fum," Spanish; "Good Christian Men, Rejoice," German; and "Hasten Swiftly, Hasten Softly," Czech.

The choir will also sing Pitoni's "Cantate Domino," Morgan's "Sing, O Sing, This Blessed Morn," and Christiansen's "How Far Is It To Bethlehem?"

The climax of the program will be a cantata by Theron Kirk utilizing combined choral groups, soloists, narrator, actors and instruments. The cantata, "The Stable of Bethlehem," follows the traditional Christmas story in song and action.

Instrumentalists are Gayle Travers, Judy Henderson, Scott Nyquist, Robert Rush and Charles Jenks.

Music directors in the Christmas Festival will be Jenks, Sterling Mische and Edward Volz. (ACM

Art Preview At Schools' Board Meet

The Art Department of High School District 214 (Arlington, Prospect and Forest View) gave the school board a preview of its latest endeavors at the monthly curriculum meeting Dec. 3.

Edward Fischer, chairman of the department, showed portions of the film being made by the Art Club.

THE SUCCESS of a film made by the department last year was acclaimed by the University of Illinois, the Art Institute of Chicago and the University of Indiana. This stimulated the Art Club to initiate a second film.

The original film is on art images and will be released in April. All the filming is done by the department members and students. (ACM-EG

Christmas Program Set By School

A Christmas program will be presented by the children of Euclid School Dec. 19 and 20.

Children who attend the morning session will perform on Dec. 19 at 10 a.m., and those attending in the afternoon will perform on Dec. 20 at 2 p.m.

Tim Sabin, musical director for District 26, will be in charge of the programs.

At the Nov. 27 meeting, a nominating committee for the 1963-64 slate of officers was selected. Those serving on the committee are: Mrs. Richard Aylward, chairman; Mrs. Robert Esvang, Mrs. David Johnson, Mrs. Frank Lovel, Mrs. Terry Bullock, teacher representative and James Retzlaff, advisor. (ACM

Total Almost $300,000

Contracts Awarded For Fourth School

Equipment bids totaling almost $300,000 have been awarded for the Wheeling High School.

The new school, the fourth in High School District 214 (Arlington, Prospect and Forest View Schools), is under construction at Hintz and Elmhurst Roads. Opening date for the 2,500-student building is scheduled for September, 1964.

Bids for equipping the school ranged from a low of $1,921 to more than $80,000. The eleven bids were:

—ILLINOIS Range Co., $80,139 for food equipment, the low bid in a group of five;

—Moore's Landscaping Co., $23,485 for landscaping;

—I. P. Rieger Co.; $4,565 for band equipment; $16,808, $18,899 and $1,921 for various classroom items; low bidder or second low bid recommended by architect in each case;

Leonard Peterson & Co., Inc., $51,151 for science equipment, second-low bid but recommended by school administrators for superior quality;

—CHICAGO SEATING Co., $29,115 for homemaking equipment, $16,422 for art equipment; $23,906 for library equipment;

—Standard Steel Bleacher Division of Standard Steel & Supply, $29,870 for bleachers.

The bid for bleachers was $2,370 above the low bid, but the Standard bleachers provided storage space not available in the cheaper model.

CONTRACTS FOR auditorium seating and stage hanging were tabled for further study. These bids and contract awards are expected Dec. 17.

Scott Kelley of Berger, Kelly, Unteed and Associates, Wheeling school architects reported that contractors have started earth moving at the school site. He noted some sewers are in, and an office established on the premises.

Kelley told board members a meeting had been held with all prime construction contractors for the new school. "The rules of the road were set down and a clear understanding had by all as to the chain of command on the job," he said.

County Studies Disannexing Forest Preserve from City

Cook County Commissioner Fred Fulle, R-Des Plaines, Tuesday introduced a resolution calling for disannexation of forest preserve lands annexed by Park Ridge in 1958.

Fulle's resolution said that following the annexation of forest preserve property, which the county board granted the municipality, a number of property owners were involuntarily annexed to Park Ridge.

The resolution calling for disannexation is based on the contention of property owners being annexed against their will.

FULLE ASKED that a committee of the board investigate the matter, and County Board President Seymour Simon appointed five commissioners to look into the matter.

The area annexed is bounded by the Park Ridge city limits on the east, the Des Plaines River on the west, Higgins Road on the south and the Northwest Tollway on the north.

Commissioner Charles F. Chaplin, R-Northbrook, also brought up the matter of Wheeling's 1960 annexation of some 300 acres of forest preserve land east to Tri-State Tollway.

Chaplin said the board unanimously voted to permit Wheeling to annex the land, but after the village jumped the tollroad to annex another 325-acre tract, the commissioners voted to disannex the forest preserve prooperty from Wheeling. (A 1961 Supreme Court decision ruled that Wheeling could not annex across the tollroad.)

CHAPLIN SAID the matter of disannexing the property from Wheeling has never been resolved. He wanted the .commissioners to consider it at the meeting Tuesday, but Simon said the subject should be submitted to the board as a written resolution.

Elk Grove Village and Rolling Meadows recently indicated an interest in annexing forest preserve property on the north and south sides of Higgins Road to give them police powers in the area.

Municipalities can annex forest preserve land with consent of the county board. But the zoning uses of the forest preserve cannot be changed.

It would take a special act of the state legislature to convert the land to any other use, forest preserve district officials point out.

"WE HAVE LAND lying within the corporate limits of a number of municipalities," Roland Eisenbeis, chief conservationist for the forset preserve district, says, "but the land remains under our control."

Eisenbeis pointed out that forest preserve rangers still patrolled the preserves but turn law breakers over to the municipal authority whose boundaries extend into the woods.

"We also have to adhere to their municipal ordinances, such as selling liquor at refreshment stands," he added.

To Install New Warning Light

The County Highway Department has given Elk Grove Village permission to install a traffic warning light in front of the fire station, at Landmeier and Tonne Roads, trustee Charles Zettek announced Thursday.

The light will flash during fire calls to warn motorists approaching the station.

Dialing Meadowbrook

Mrs. Audrae Duke LEhigh 7-0909

While most of Santa's helpers are just beginning their activity, their Meadowbrook representative, Audrey Christiansen, District manager of Toy Shoppers, has concluded hers until next year. Audrey, 29 W. Manchester, hostessed her 10 top selling demonstrators and their husbands for cocktails and dinner at the Union Hotel Saturday evening.

Among those enjoying the companionship of fellow Rotarians at the dinner party sponsored by the Deerfield-Northbrook Rotary last Wednesday at Sportsman's Country Club were the Wheeling Rotary president, Ken Gill with his wife, Margaret, 417 Jerome, Yvonne and Tom Miller, 428 Stone, and the Dukes, 107 Meadowbrook Lane.

As Kay and Chuck Layman, 392 S. Meadowbrook, toured the Countryside Art Gallery Christmas Bazaar last weekend, they were proud to find on display the oil paintings and sketches of their neighbor, Inez Abrahamson, 320 S. Wolf Road. Regular gallery members, such as Inez, will continue to have their work on display at the gallery for their special "Art for Christmas" show which continues until the 25th.

DONNA KIME, 36 W. Manchester, thought she would fulfill her final obligation in Meadowbrook by attending a demonstration party given by Barbara Babbinni, 39 W. Manchester, Friday evening. Upon arrival she found 14 neighborhood friends had gathered to be a party to no other demonstration than that of their regards for the Kime family. After six years' residency in Meadowbrook, Donna and Warren are heading for a larger home in the Ivy Hill area of Arlington Heights.

As a memento of the Meadowbrook merry-makers Donna received a musical decanter and a hand-engraved pitcher. The "Good Luck, Donna" sentiments decorating the party cake are indicative of those extended to the Kime family by all those who mourn their move.

The Meadowbrook Easterners' Bridge Club members held their annual Christmas party Tuesday in the home of Aileen Moore, 408 Park. At the previous club meeting they had drawn names for their Christmas gift exchange, which was held over ice cream and home made Yuletide cookies.

JACKIE DELINSKY's birthday party was a surprise even to his parents, Lucy and Jack, as Jackie's 9-year-old sister, Paulette, made all the preparations for the gala affair. To celebrate Jackie's fourth birthday, Paulette invited eight neighborhood friends to the Delinsky home, 73 W. Manchester, Sunday afternoon. In addition to composing the guest list, making out and distributing the invitations, Paulette carried through as hostess, as well as cook. It was she who prepared the special birthday cake, served the refreshments and directed the activities. Neighbors have asked Santa to take special note of a young lady who is so thoughtful of her family, and especially of her younger brother.

As chairman of the Planning Commission, Bob Steinman, 134 W. Jeffery, rated a place in the official car touring the area last Saturday with Congressional Representative Donald Rumsfeld. Mr. Rumsfeld and his party even took a quick trip through the Meadowbrook subdivision as part of the inspection tour.

SANTA'S SLEIGH and six reindeer attended Thomas Richard Passolt's fifth birthday party last Saturday. The sleigh was a special cake created by Marilyn for the pre-Christmas birthday party. Guests at the Passolt home, 380 S. Nancy, were treated to lunch and party games, in addition to the sleigh cake and ice cream.

Playing on the Wheeling Park District ladies' volleyball team are Audrey Christiansen, Ann Franklin, Inez Abrahamson, Ruth Klien and Marilyn Greven, all of Meadowbrook West. Meadowbrook East is represented by Rena Ciolino and Dorothy Valenza. These Monday evening sportsmen will have an opportunity to pit their ability against a similar group from Roselle next week.

Jule Bengston will greet Christmas without any tonsils this year. The 6-year-old daughter of Jean and Bob, 142 S. Jeffery, underwent a tonsillectomy in Holy Family Hospital Friday. Reports indicate she is rapidly recovering from her surgery.

PLAQUES were presented to winners of the second annual Service Station Improvement Contest sponsored by the Wheeling Junior Woman's Club. The awards were made by Mrs. Hubert Sommerfeld, club president, at the Wheeling Community Council meeting Dec. 4. Center is Bob Koeppen of Koeppen's Cities Service, 10 E. Dundee Road, first place winner, and Al Eaton of Al's Enco, 352 S. Milwaukee Ave., second place. (W

Ordinance No. 885

AN ORDINANCE PROVIDING FOR A SANITARY SEWER SYSTEM IN CERTAIN PORTIONS OF THE VILLAGE OF MOUNT PROSPECT, GRANTING TO THE UTILITY SEWER AND WATER CORPORATION, ITS SUCCESSORS AND ASSIGNS, THE PRIVILEGE AND FRANCHISE TO CONSTRUCT, OPERATE AND MAINTAIN A SANITARY SEWER SYSTEM IN SAID AREA FOR SANITARY PURPOSES, AND GRANTING TO SAID UTILITY SEWER AND WATER CORPORATION THE RIGHT AND PRIVILEGE TO CONSTRUCT, OPERATE AND MAINTAIN SEWER MAINS, PIPES, LATERALS, CONNECTIONS, MANHOLES AND OTHER STRUCTURES, APPLIANCES AND DEVICES IN AND UPON THE STREETS, AVENUES, ALLEYS, SIDEWALKS, BRIDGES AND PUBLIC GROUNDS IN SAID AREAS FOR THE COLLECTION AND DISPOSAL OF SEWAGE FOR SANITARY PURPOSES.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED by the President and Board of Trustees of the Village of Mount Prospect, Cook County, Illinois:

Section 1. That there is hereby granted to the Utility Sewer and Water Corporation (hereinafter referred to as the Corporation), a Corporation existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Illinois, its successors and assigns, from date hereof until January 1, 1987, the franchise, right and privilege of supplying such portions of the Village of Mount Prospect as may now or hereafter lie within the areas designated by Exhibit A attached, which areas shall be hereinafter referred to as the "sewer area," and the inhabitants of said area with sanitary sewage disposal service for private and public use, together with the right to use the streets, avenues, alleys, sidewalks, bridges and public grounds of the Village of Mount Prospect lying within the sewer area for placing, maintaining, taking up and repairing sewer mains, sewer pipes, laterals, manholes, connections and other structures, appliances and devices for the collection and disposal of sanitary sewage within the sewer area.

Section 2. That the said Corporation shall have, during the continuance of this grant or extension thereof, the right to use streets, avenues, alleys, sidewalks, bridges or public grounds as may lie within the sewer area for sewer mains, pipes, laterals, manholes, connections and other structures, appliances and devices for the collection and disposal of sanitary sewage of the Village and its inhabitants. All work done by said Corporation in laying down sewer mains, sewer pipes, laterals, manholes, connections and other structures, appliances and devices, and all repairing, replacing and removing of such sewer mains, sewer pipes, laterals, manholes, connections or other structures, appliances and devices shall be done in accordance with the provisions of any ordinances governing same and any and all general ordinances of said Village governing the excavation in and repair of streets, avenues, alleys, sidewalks, bridges or other public grounds of said Village. In case said Corporation refuses or neglects to repair any such street, avenue, alley, sidewalk, bridge or other public ground within a reasonable time after said work is completed and notice in writing of such refusal or neglect shall have been given by said Village to said Corporation, the Board of Trustees of said Village may direct the necessary repair thereof to be made at the expense of said Corporation and said Corporation shall be responsible for all damages sustained by any person or persons by reason of such refusal or neglect on the part of said Corporation.

Section 3. That there shall be no unnecessary or unreasonable obstruction of the streets, avenues, alleys, sidewalks, bridges or public grounds of said Village by said Corporation in constructing the said sanitary sewer system or in placing, replacing, taking up or repairing any sewer mains, sewer pipes, laterals, manholes, connections or other structures, appliances and devices for the disposal of sanitary sewage, and the said Corporation shall restore all paved or unpaved streets, avenues, alleys and public grounds and all bridges and sidewalks as soon as reasonably possible and as nearly as practicable to their former condition, and shall hold the Village free and harmless from any and all claims, demands, actions or causes of action arising from the placing, replacing, taking up or repairing of such sewer mains, sewer pipes, laterals, manholes, connections or other structures, appliances or devices or from any cause or thing whatsoever arising out of or by reason of the occupancy or use of the streets, avenues, alleys, sidewalks, bridges or public grounds of said Village by said Corporation, including any expenses and attorneys' fees incurred by said Village in defending itself against any such claims, demands, actions or causes of action. When making street excavations for the aforesaid purposes or for any other proper purpose, the Corporation shall erect barricades at the end of all excavations and at all street crossings. Upon demand of the Village, to be evidenced by a resolution adopted by the President and Board of Trustees of said Village, the Corporation shall furnish to the Village an indemnity bond, in a sum not exceeding Five thousand ($5,000) Dollars, indemnifying said Village and its officers, servants and employees against all claims, demands, actions or causes of action arising from the making of excavations in the streets, avenues, alleys, sidewalks or other public grounds of said Village.

Section 4. That if the said Corporation shall desire to lay sewer mains, sewer pipes or laterals in a street, the grade of which has not been established, it shall be the duty of said Village to establish said grade. All sewer mains, sewer pipes and laterals laid in and upon said streets, avenues, alleys, sidewalks, bridges and public grounds shall conform to the grade established by said Village so that on the completion of said work no obstruction of sewer mains, sewer pipes, laterals or other material shall prevent the free use of any such street, avenue, alley, sidewalk, bridge or public ground. In any case where said Village shall make or cause to be made any street improvements, including surfacing, resurfacing, or widening of streets, resulting in any change in the street grade, the said Village agrees to include in the cost of such improvements and to pay all necessary costs of raising sewer mains, sewer pipes, laterals, manhole covers and other changes necessary to the maintenance of the sanitary sewage collection and disposal service and to have the work done under the terms of the general contract for such street improvements. If the Corporation shall be ordered or requested to make any such change, the cost of such work shall be billed to the Village and the Village shall pay the Corporation for same within ninety (90) days after said work is completed. If such improvements are constructed by any contractor engaged by the Village for the purpose of making such street improvements, then the same shall be done under the supervision of a duly authorized officer or agent of said Corporation.

Section 5. That in the operation of said sewage disposal system the Corporation shall use machinery, structures and appliances of such character and capacity as will furnish satisfactory disposal service (excepting during periods of unusual and unavoidable casualties) for private and public use, and shall use every reasonable means to keep the same in as good operating condition as possible. In the construction, installation and operation of the sewage disposal system, the Corporation shall obtain from the Board of Trustees of the Sanitary District of Chicago (or any other authorized agency or instrumentality of the State of Illinois) such permits or authorizations as may now or hereafter be required by law. The Corporation shall make arrangements or agreements with the said Board of Trustees for the collection and disposal of sewage from the sewage disposal system by means of a connection with any intercepter sewer of said Sanitary District of Chicago.

Section 6. That the Corporation shall not be required to furnish consumers with sewer service when all proper bills for water and/or sewer service used by said consumers have not been paid, particularly in the case of consumers who have become delinquent in their water and/or sewer bills and are still occupying or residing on the premises for which said delinquent bills for water and/or sewer service have not been paid.

Section 7. That if any person or persons shall injure, break, damage or destroy any sewer main, sewer pipe, lateral, connection, manhole or manhole cover, machinery or other property or apparatus of said Corporation or shall do any act resulting in the obstruction of the flow of sewage, every such person and his or her aiders or abettors shall, upon conviction thereof before any competent court or authority having jurisdiction, be fined in a sum not less than Five ($5.00) Dollars nor exceeding Two hundred ($200.00) Dollars for each and every such offense, together with the costs of prosecution and shall also be liable for any such injury or damage in a civil action to the said Corporation for all damages arising from any of such acts or actions.

Section 8. It is understood and agreed by and between the Village and the Corporation that the sewage disposal system to be constructed, operated and maintained by the Corporation is for sanitary purposes only and that it is not intended or contemplated that the sewer mains, pipes or outlets will be used for discharge of storm water, surface water, ground water, roof run-off, subsurface drainage, industrial waste or other matter not commonly discharged in sewers used for sanitary purposes.

Section 9. That the Corporation hereby agrees to furnish all sewer service which may be required by the Village for sanitary purposes, including sewer service for all Village buildings, fire stations, parks and library buildings, which may be constructed during the term of this ordinance; said service to be furnished at no charge to the Village in consideration of this grant of franchise.

Section 10. That the Village and the Corporation hereby agree that this ordinance shall from time to time be subject to rules and regulations adopted by the Corporation and approved by the Illinois Commerce Commission or any other regulatory body having jurisdiction thereof during the term of this ordinance, and that all rules and regulations which may be hereafter adopted by the Corporation and approved by the Illinois Commerce Commission or such other regulatory body shall be and become a part of this ordinance to the same extent and with the same effect as if said rules and regulations were herein set out in full.

Section 11. That the said Corporation shall charge consumers other than the Village for sewer service furnished to such consumers during the term of this ordinance in accordance with the applicable rate or rates from time to time lawfully in effect and set forth in the schedule of rates then on file with the Illinois Commerce Commission or such other regulatory body as may then have authority to establish, fix or approve such rate or rates.

Section 12. That during the term of this ordinance no charge shall be made by the Village to the Corporation for any permit or privilege to excavate in the streets, avenues, alleys, sidewalks or public grounds of the Village for the purpose of constructing or installing sewer mains, sewer pipes, laterals, manholes, connections or other structures, appliances or devices or for otherwise carrying out the provisions of this ordinance.

Section 13. That upon the giving of at least ninety (90) days' notice in writing to said Corporation prior to July 1, 1967 which notice shall be in the form of a certified copy of a resolution or ordinance of the President and Board of Trustees of the Village of Mount Prospect, the Village shall have the right and option to purchase said sewer disposal system on July 1, 1967 for the price of Two hundred fifty ($250.00) Dollars per single resident family, industrial and commercial customer, and One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars for each apartment unit. Said sale to be free and clear of all encumbrance. In the event the Village shall not exercise its option as above set forth, said right to purchase shall terminate on July 1, 1967 without further notice.

Section 14. That the Village shall not grant to any other person, firm or corporation, a franchise to operate a sewer system in the sewer area unless the applicant for said franchise and the Corporation have mutually agreed to the sale of said sewer system, in which event the sale shall be subject to the option referred to above.

Section 15. Nothing herein contained shall be construed as preventing the Corporation in the construction of said sewage disposal system and in placing, replacing, taking up, repairing or removing sewer mains, sewer pipes, laterals, manholes, connections or other structures, appliances or devices for furnishing sewer service, from using any easements for sewer service or other public utility purposes which are shown on any plat or plats of any portion of said Village in the sewer area heretofore or hereafter platted or recorded or any such easement which may hereafter be created, granted or dedicated for any such utility purposes by any person, firm or corporation whatsoever.

Section 16. That title to all sewer mains, sewer pipes, laterals, manholes, connections and other structures, appliances and devices constructed or laid in the streets, avenues, alleys, sidewalks, bridges and other public grounds in the sewer area or in property designated or dedicated as easements for sewer service or other public utility purposes in the sewer area, shall from date of construction thereof be and remain in the Corporation, its successors and assigns.

Section 17. That the Corporation shall within thirty (30) days after the passage of this ordinance file with the Village Clerk its unconditional acceptance of the terms of this ordinance, said acceptance to be duly signed by the President and Secretary of the Corporation; whereupon this ordinance together with the acceptance shall constitute a contract between the parties thereafter, subject to the rights and powers vested in the Illinois Commerce Commission or such other regulatory body of the State of Illinois as may hereafter succeed to the rights and powers of the Illinois Commerce Commission or as may exercise statutory jurisdiction of sewer companies furnishing sewer service in the State of Illinois, and shall be the measure of the rights, powers, obligations, privileges and liabilities of said Village and of said Corporation. It is understood and agreed that the Corporation shall make application to the Illinois Commerce Commission for a Certificate of Convenience and Necessity which will allow it to operate as a sewer utiliity business in such areas of the sewer area as may lie within the Village of Mount Prospect within ninety (90) days from the date of the inclusion of said area within the Village, and if such Certificate of Convenience and Necessity is not obtained within a period of one year from the date of such inclusion, this franchise may be terminated at the option of the Village without liability or obligation on its part.

It is further agreed that the Corporation shall by July 1, 1967 obtain Certificates of Convenience and Necessity for all areas located in the sewer area heretofore designated by plat, and failing the obtainment of same the Village may terminate its franchise or obligation as to those areas not certificated by said date without liability or obligation on its part.

Section 18. That if any section or portion of any section of this ordinance shall hereafter be declared or determined by any court of competent authority to be invalid, the Corporation at its election (to be given to the Village by notice in writing within thirty (30) days after any such declaration or determination) may ratify or confirm the remaining portions of this ordinance and upon such ratification or confirmation the remaining portions of this ordinance shall remain in full force and effect.

Section 19. That to the extent now or hereafter permitted by the Statutes or law of the State of Illinois, this ordinance shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon any city, village or other municipal corporation to which the Village may hereafter be attached or annexed or into which it may be incorporated and any agency, instrumentality or political subdivision of the State of Illinois which may be authorized or empowered to furnish sewer service within the present or future corporate limits of the Village, and shall also inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the successors and assigns of the Corporation. The Corporation shall have the right at any time to assign this franchise to any public utility corporation organized under the laws of the State of Illinois or authorized to engage in utility business within the State of Illinois and to any other persons, firm or corporation authorized or empowered to own and/or operate a sewer utility business in the State of Illinois.

Section 20. That this ordinance shall take effect and be in force immediately upon its passage, approval and publication, according to law.

Ordinance No. 884

AN ORDINANCE PROVIDING FOR A SUPPLY OF WATER FOR PRIVATE AND PUBLIC USE, GRANTING TO THE UTILITY SEWER AND WATER CORPORATION, AN ILLINOIS CORPORATION, ITS SUCCESSORS AND ASSIGNS, THE PRIVILEGE AND FRANCHISE TO CONSTRUCT, OPERATE AND MAINTAIN A WATERWORKS AND DISTRIBUTION SYSTEM FOR SAID WATER SUPPLY IN CERTAIN AREAS OF THE VILLAGE OF MOUNT PROSPECT AND CERTAIN OTHER AREAS WHICH MAY BE ANNEXED THERETO, AND GRANTING TO SAID UTILITY SEWER AND WATER CORPORATION THE RIGHT AND PRIVILEGE TO CONSTRUCT, OPERATE AND MAINTAIN WATER PIPES, MAINS, APPURTENANCES AND CONNECTIONS IN AND UPON THE STREETS, AVENUES, ALLEYS, SIDEWALKS, BRIDGES AND PUBLIC GROUNDS IN CERTAIN PORTIONS OF THE VILLAGE OF MOUNT PROSPECT FOR THE SUPPLY OF WATER FOR PRIVATE AND PUBLIC USE AND FIRE PROTECTION IN SAID PORTIONS OF THE VILLAGE OF MOUNT PROSPECT, COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED by the President and Board of Trustees of the Village of Mount Prospect, Cook County, Illinois:

Section 1. There is hereby granted to the Utility Sewer and Water Corporation, an Illinois corporation, (hereinafter referred to as Corporation), its successors and assigns, from date hereof until January 1, 1987, the franchise, right and privilege of supplying such portions of the Village of Mount Prospect as may now or hereafter lie within the area designated on Exhibit A attached hereto, said area to be hereinafter referred to as the water area, and such inhabitants and users located in the water area of said Village with water for public and private use, to be taken from wells located in said Village or adjacent thereto or from any other source which will best secure an adequate supply of suitable water for public and private use and fire protection; together with the right to use such portion of the streets, avenues, alleys, sidewalks, public grounds and bridges of the Village as may now or hereafter lie within the water area for placing, maintaining, taking up and preparing mains, pipes, hydrants and other structures, appliances and devices for the service of water within such portions of the water area as may now or hereafter lie within the limits of the Village.

Section 2. That said Corporation shall have, during the continuance of this grant or extension thereof, the right to use any street, avenue, alley, bridge, sidewalk or other public ground located in such portions of the Village as may lie in the water area for water mains, service pipes, hydrants and other appliances and fixtures for the conveyance of water and distributing the same to the said Village and inhabitants thereof. All work done by said Corporation in laying down new mains, service pipes, hydrants or other appliances and fixtures and all repairing, replacing and removing of water mains, service pipes, hydrants or other appliances and fixtures shall be done in accordance with all ordinances governing same and the provisions of any and all general ordinances of said Village governing the excavation in and repair of streets, avenues, alleys, sidewalks, bridges or other public ground of said Village. In case said Corporation refuses or neglects to repair any such street, avenue, alley, sidewalk, bridge or other public ground within a reasonable time after said work is completed and notice in writing of such refusal or neglect shall have been given by said Village to said Corporation, the Board of Trustees of said Village may direct the necessary repairs thereof to be made at the expense of said Corporation and said Corporation shall be responsible for all damages sustained by any person or persons by reason of such refusal or neglect on the part of said Corporation.

Section 3. That there shall be no unnecessary or unreasonable obstruction of the streets, avenues, alleys, sidewalks, bridges or public grounds of the said Village by the said Corporation in constructing the said waterworks and distribution system or in placing, replacing, taking up or repairing any mains, service pipes, hydrants or other structures or devices for the supply of water and the said Corporation shall restore all paved or unpaved streets, avenues, alleys and public grounds and all bridges and sidewalks as soon as reasonably possible and as nearly as practicable to their former condition and shall hold the said Village free and harmless from any and all claims, demands, actions or causes of action arising from the placing, replacing, taking up or repairing of such pipes, mains, service pipes, hydrants, structures or other devices or from any cause or thing whatsoever arising out of or by reason of the occupancy or use of the streets, avenues, alleys, sidewalks, bridges or public grounds of said Village by said Corporation, including any expenses and attorneys' fees incurred by said Village in defending itself against any such claims, demands, actions or causes of action. When making street excavations for the aforesaid purposes or for any other proper purpose, the said Corporation shall erect barricades at the end of all excavations and at all street crossings. Upon demand of the Village, to be evidenced by a resolution adopted by the President and Board of Trustees of said Village, the Corporation shall furnish to the Village an indemnity bond in a sum not exceeding Five Thousand ($5,000) Dollars, indemnifying said Village and its officers, servants and employees against all claims, demands, actions or causes of action arising from the making of excavations in the streets, avenues, alleys, sidewalks or other public grounds of said Village.

Section 4. That if the said Corporation shall desire to lay a main or pipe in a street, the grade of which has not been established, it shall be the duty of said Village to establish said grade. All mains and pipes laid in and upon said streets, avenues, alleys, sidewalks, bridges and public grounds shall conform to the grade established by said Village so that on the completion of said work no obstruction of pipes or other materials shall prevent the free use of any such street, avenue, alley, sidewalk, bridge or public ground. In any case where said Village shall make or cause to be made any street improvements, including surfacing, resurfacing, or widening of streets, resulting in any change in the street grade, the said Village agrees to include in the cost of such improvements and to pay all necessary costs of raising stop boxes, distribution mains, manhole covers, hydrant locations and other changes necessary to the maintenance of the water supply and to have the work done under the terms of the general contract for such street improvements. If the Corporation shall be ordered or requested to make any such change, the cost of such work shall be billed to the Village, and the Village shall pay the Corporation for the same within ninety (90) days after said work is completed. If such improvements are constructed by any contractor engaged by the Village for the purpose of making such street improvements, then the same shall be done under the supervision of a duly authorized officer or agent of said Corporation.

Section 5. That the water supplied by said Corporation shall be good, clear water suitable for culinary and drinking purposes and shall conform to the standards for safe drinking water now or hereafter established by the Department of Public Health of the State of Illinois or such other department or agency of said State as shall hereafter have authority to establish such standards.

Section 6. That in the operation of said waterworks and distribution system the Corporation shall use machinery and appliances of such character and capacity as will furnish the necessary supply of water (excepting during periods of unusual and unavoidable casualties) for private and public use and fire protection along all lines of its water mains.

Section 7. That in compliance with its undertaking to furnish suitable water for private and public use, the Corporation shall permit the Village to flush out all hydrants located upon its water mains at least once annually or as may be necessary. The Village, in consideration of other concessions made to it, shall maintain hydrants in good condition during the terms of this ordinance.

Section 8. That the said Corporation shall not be required to furnish water consumers with water service when all proper bills for water used by such consumers have not been paid, particularly in the case of water consumers who have become delinquent in their water bills and are still occupying or residing in the premises for which said delinquent bills for water have not been paid.

Section 9. That if any person or persons shall injure, break or destroy any fire hydrant, main, pipe, service pipe, fixture, machinery or other property or apparatus of said Corporation or shall turn on or turn off or use any water supplied by said Corporation without any authority from said Corporation or pollute any of the water supplied by the Corporation, every such person and his or her aiders or abettors shall, on conviction thereof before any competent court or authority having jurisdiction, be fined in a sum not less than Five ($5.00) Dollars nor exceeding Two Hundred ($200.00) Dollars for each and every offense, together with the costs of prosecution, and shall also be liable for any such injury or damage in a civil action to the said Corporation for all damages arising from any of such acts or actions.

Section 10. That the said Corporation shall install a meter at the Corporation's expense on the service pipe of each consumer located within the water area.

Section 11. The Corporation agrees to furnish the water required by the Village for any purpose whatsoever at any time during the term of this ordinance and the Village agrees to pay for water service requested and furnished at rates mutually agreed to or, in the absence of agreement, at rates set forth by the Illinois Commerce Commission or it successors, except for such water as the Village may use for public fire protection and the periodic flushing of hydrants. Water so used shall be donated to the Village. The Village agrees to pay to the Corporation for the lease of its fire hydrants an annual rate of Ten ($10.00) Dollars per year per hydrant; said payment to be for the year commencing May 1, 1963 and ending April 30, 1964. The amount of hydrants for any one year shall be determined as of May 1. The Village shall not be required to pay for any hydrant which is located in an undeveloped block. A block for this purpose shall be defined as including a tier of lots on either side of a street between its intersection with two other improved streets.

Section 12. The Village shall use the fire hydrants for the purpose of extinguishing fires and for the periodic flushing of hydrants. In using the fire hydrants for flushing only, one hydrant shall be turned on at a time, using one line of hose with fire nozzle, and no hydrant shall be used for flushing during a fire. If any hydrant shall be injured or damaged while in use by an employee of the Village, the Village shall pay the cost of repairing or replacing same.

Section 13. That the Village and the Corporation hereby agree that this ordinance shall from time to time be subject to rules and regulations adopted by the Corporation and approved by the Illinois Commerce Commission or any other regulatory body having jurisdiction thereof during the term of this ordinance, and that all rules and regulations which may be hereafter adopted by the Corporation and approved by the Illinois Commerce Commission or such other regulatory body shall be and become a part of this ordinance to the same extent and with the same effect as if said rules and regulations were herein set out in full.

Section 14. That the said Corporation shall charge consumers other than the Village for water service furnished to such consumers during the term of existence of the franchise granted by this ordinance in accordance with the applicable rate or rates from time to time lawfully in effect and set forth in the schedule of rates then on file with the Illinois Commerce Commission or such other regulatory body as may then have authority to establish, fix or approve such rate or rates.

Section 15. That during the term of this ordinance no charge shall be made by the Village to the Corporation for any permit or privilege to excavate the streets, avenues, alleys, sidewalks or public grounds in the water area for the purpose of constructing or installing mains, service pipes or other devices and appurtenances or for carrying out the other provisions of this ordinance.

Section 16. That upon the giving of at least ninety (90) days' notice in writing to said Corporation prior to July 1, 1967, which notice shall be in the form of a certified copy of a resolution or ordinance of the President and Board of Trustees of the Village, the Village shall have the right and option to purchase said waterworks and distribution system on July 1, 1967 for the price of Three hundred fifty ($350.00) Dollars per metered single family resident customer and One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars for each apartment unit customer. The price per industrial and commercial customer shall be determined on the basis of the charge made for the average residential metered customer in the following manner:

The annual average industrial and commercial charge per meter shall be divided by the annual average residential charge per meter multiplied by $350.00 (Three Hundred Fifty Dollars) representing the price paid for residential meter. For example: If the average charge for residential meter in the year immediately preceding the year in which the Village exercises its option to purchase said utility is $50, and for which the Village pays $350.00 per meter, then in such event the purchase price of the single industrial and commercial meter shall be on the same basis. That is to say, that if the average charge per average industrial and commercial meter shall be $200.00 in such preceding year, the cost to the Village shall be $1400.00 per such industrial and/or commercial meter as follows:

$$\frac{$200.00}{$\ 50.00} \times $35.00$$

Should the Village seek to exercise said option to purchase, said sale shall require the Village to execute to the Corporation an indemnity agreement which agreement shall hold the Corporation free from any and all contingent or actual liability which it may have as a result of said transfer to the Village from the Citizens' Utility Company as a result of contractual arrangements made between said Citizens' Utility Company and the Corporation prior to date hereof. It is understood that Corporation will assign any and all rights it has under its contract with Citizens Utility Company to the Village. In the event the Village shall not exercise its option as above set forth, then said right to purchase under this option shall terminate on July 1, 1967 without further notice.

Section 17. That the Village shall not grant to any other person, firm or corporation a franchise to operate a water utility business in the streets and parts thereof occupied by the Corporation, unless the applicant for said franchise and the corporation have mutually agreed to the sale of the waterworks and distribution system; in which event, such sale shall be subject to the option referred to in Section 16 hereof.

Section 18. Nothing herein contained shall be construed as preventing the Corporation in the construction of said waterworks and distribution system and in placing, replacing, taking up, repairing or removing water pipes, mains, service pipes, hydrants or other devices for furnishing water services, from using any easements for water service or other public utility purposes which are shown on any plat or plats of any portion of said Village in the water area which have or may hereafter be created, granted or dedicated for any such utility purpose by any person, firm or corporation whatsoever.

Section 19. That if any section or portion of any section of this ordinance shall hereafter be declared or determined by any court of competent authority to be invalid, the Corporation, at its election, to be given to the Village by notice in writing within thirty (30) days after any such declaration or determination, may ratify or confirm the remaining portions of this ordinance and upon such ratification or confirmation, the remaining portions of this ordinance shall remain in full force and effect.

Section 20. That the Corporation shall, within thirty (30) days after the passage of this ordinance, file with the Village Clerk its unconditional acceptance of the terms of this ordinance, said acceptance to be duly signed by the President and Secretary of the Corporation; whereupon this ordinance, together with said acceptance, shall constitute a contract between the parties thereafter, subject to the rights and powers vested in the Illinois Commerce Commission or its successor. It is understood and agreed that the Corporation shall make application to the Illinois Commerce Commission for a Certificate of Convenience and Necessity which will allow it to operate as a water utility business in such areas of the water area as lie within the Village of Mount Prospect within ninety (90) days from the date of inclusion of said area within the Village of Mount Prospect, and if such certificate is not obtained within one (1) year from date of the inclusion of said territory within the Village, this franchise may, at the option of the Village, be terminated without liability or obligation. It is further agreed that the Corporation shall by July 1, 1967 obtain Certificates of Convenience and Necessity for all areas located in the water area heretofore designated by plat, and that failing the obtainment of same the Village may terminate its franchise or obligation to franchise any areas not certificated by said date without liability or obligation on its part.

Section 21. The title to all mains, pipes, service pipes, hydrants and other appliances and devices constructed or laid in the streets, avenues, alleys, bridges, sidewalks and other public grounds of such portions of the Village which are or may hereafter be located in the water area, shall from date of construction thereof be and remain in the Corporation, its successors and assigns.

Section 22. That this ordinance shall, to the extent now or hereafter permitted by the statutes or law of the State of Illinois, inure to the benefit of and be binding upon any city, village or other municipal corporation to which the Village may hereafter be attached or annexed or into which it may be incorporated and any agency, instrumentality or political subdivision of the State of Illinois which may be authorized or empowered to furnish water service within the present or future corporate limits of said Village, and shall also inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the successors and assigns of the Corporation. The Corporation shall have the right at any time to assign this franchise to any public utility corporation organized under the laws of the State of Illinois or authorized to engage in public utility business within the State of Illinois and to any other person, firm or corporation authorized or empowered to own and/or operate a water utility business in said State.

Section 23. That this ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage and approval, according to law.

Section 13.609:
"13.609. Adoption of Code. The National Electrical Code, 1962 Edition, is hereby adopted by the Village as its Elecrical Code and shall continue to be and its provisions shall continue to be controlling in the electrical wiring and electrical construction of all buildings and structures contained within the corporate limits of the Village, except insofar as the provisions contained in this Article may be in conflict therewith, in which event the provisions contained in this Article shall prevail and said provisions of the National Electrical Code in conflict therewith shall be of no force and effect."

Section 2. That this ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage, approval and publication according to law.

PASSED this 6th day of December, 1962.

APPROVED this 6th day of December, 1962.

Two Teams Remain Unbeaten

Two teams remained undefeated in the Arlington Heights Park District's Monday night volleyball league as the third week of play was completed.

The Old Men rolled by the Waterman Pops 40-22, while the Old Pros handled the Netters 32-20.

The Falcons and the Stags battled neck and neck to a 32-30 decision in favor of the Falcons.

Klehm's Nursery won their second contest in three tries by downing the Greens 37-25.

After next week's games the teams will take a holiday break and resume play on Jan. 7.

BEAT THE "PROS"

Professional advertising people all over the country continue to try to write the perfect ad. Yet you, the reader, have proven time and time again that you are the best ad writer.

This may come as a surprise to you, but through research, it has been found that the most successful ads are written by want ad users.

A good ad is just conversation in print. So, in preparing an ad, without realizing it, you are carrying on a conversation with your neighbors. You tell them in a few words that you have something to sell, or that you are in need of something. It's as simple as that.

Paddock Publications invite you to take advantage of its Want Ad columns. They are economical, and produce the desired results quickly.

It's always the right time . . . but this is the time of year when many of us are faced with the annual chore of spring house cleaning, and what could be more natural than for you to take pencil in hand, and list the no longer needed items that you have, and place that resultful Want Ad?

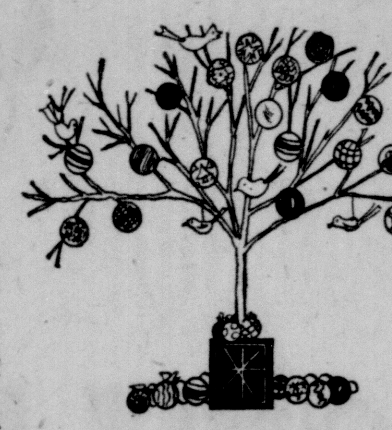
IT'S AN IDEA
HOME DECORATIONS



The housewife who doesn't like to decorate the Christmas evergreen tree too soon before Christmas Eve can still achieve a holiday atmosphere by setting up a hospitality tree several days before the holiday.

The holiday tree is a well-shaped, leafless branch which is liberally decorated with cookies, candies, and all sorts of holiday goodies.

A building block, covered with bright wrapping paper, makes an ideal base. Homemade or store-bought cookies and goodies are placed like ornaments on the "tree."

In order not to have guests consider the holiday tree merely an ornament, a gaily decorated sign may offer greetings of the season and invite guests to help themselves.

Improvement Awards Given At Local C. C.

Jean Witt, 1138 Patton Ave., and Wallace Hawley, 502 N. Beverly Lane, both of Arlington Heights have been named the most improved golfers of the year at the Rolling Green country club.

Chuck Pedersen, club pro, recently presented the winners with a gold bond certificate from Golf Digest magazine.

The awards are among the nation's most highly regarded individual golf awards. They were originated by Golf Digest in 1956 to reward the game's most important objective — improvement. The name's of the winners will appear in the January issue of Golf Digest.

Speak at University Assembly

Stratton and Kerner Analyze Prairie State Governorship

MONTICELLO, ILL. (UPI) — The Illinois governorship was analyzed last week by former Gov. William G. Stratton and incumbent Gov. Otto Kerner.

Both men addressed an Illinois Assembly on the Office of Governor sponsored by the University of Illinois.

In one of his rare public appearances since leaving office in 1961, Stratton described the governorship as "the most difficult job in government" except for perhaps the Presidency of the United States.

HE SAID that governors cannot delegate authority like the President and cannot isolate themselves from detailed and active participation in public affairs.

"I don't think you can do a good job by committee," he said. "A governor cannot withdraw from politics. Of necessity, you have to lead your party. You can't be a good governor unless you know how to get the most out of your party."

Asked what advice he would give a governor who must ask for more money from a legislature controlled by the opposition party—a situation faced in 1963 by Gov. Kerner—Stratton listed a three-point program:

—1. "You've got to educate the public and the legislators to state needs. You can't delegate this to someone else."

—2. "You have to be nice to people, like entertaining legislators at the mansion. A governor has to go out of his way to cultivate legislators; they are closest to the people at home."

3. "A governor must be the political leader of his party and his state."

Stratton continually emphasized the governor's responsibility for state happenings.

IN HIS address at the two-day conference, Gov. Kerner said that the governor of Illinois must assume many wide and varying roles.

"He is an administrator, a legislative leader, an important leader of his political party, an economist, and much more," said Kerner. "The increased responsibilities that have been vested in the office of the governor demand that the office be filled by a man who can initiate ideas, who is not content with merely preserving the status quo, but who will launch vigorous, new programs for the benefit of the state and its citizenry."

Kerner said the governor's legislative role is significant because the governor and his administration is judged principally by the success of his legislative program, and he must always try to make the activities of the state fulfill the needs of the times.

Kerner explained that a governor's philosophy is on the firing line every day the legislature is in session and every time he endeavors to pass his program.

THE GOVERNOR has certain specific judicial powers, such as the power to grant pardons and reprieves, Kerner said, and "I utilized this authority when I commuted the sentence imposed upon Paul Crump from death to imprisonment for a term of 199 years without parole."

Kerner said he felt the Crump case "an exceptional one. It called for executive action on the basis of rehabilitation."

Changing tensions in a rapidly changing world are constantly adding new dimensions to the administrative powers of the governor, according to Kerner. He cited state civil defense planning as an example.

Neighborhood Meets

Slate Discussions On Foreign Policy Starting February

An estimated 3,000 Chicagoland citizens will take part in a series of "grass roots" discussions of key issues in U.S. foreign policy at neighborhood group meetings, beginning the week of Feb. 3, it was announced this week by Edward D. McDougal Jr., president of the Chicago Council on Foreign Relations.

The eight-week series of group discussion marks the ninth annual "Great Decisions" program, a nationwide review by the American public of current headline issues facing the U.S. in global strategy, McDougal said.

Ralph Bettman, chairman of "Great Decisions . . . 1963" for the Chicago area, said that citizens of all ages are encouraged to participate in the series—either as individuals or as members of the more than 50 local organizations expected to sponsor the program.

SUPPLIED with special fact kits, available to each participant, scores of neighborhood groups — numbering 15-20 persons each — will meet weekly from February through March to discuss these critical issues:

1. The Common Market — Blueprint for a new Europe?

2. Red China and The U.S.S.R. — How firm an alliance?

3. Algeria —What future?

4. Spain —End of the Franco era?

5. India —Is democracy working?

6. Laos and Vietnam —Southeast Asia in danger?

7. Alliance for Progress—New deal for the Americas?

8. Peace—What problems and prospects?

AS IN prior years, kit material will be furnished by the Foreign Policy Association, a national nonpartisan educational agency.

Last year, more than 300,000 Americans participated in discussions covering subjects such as: Berlin, The United Nations, Nigeria, Iran and other vital international problem areas.

During the program of community-wide study and discussion, participants will be able to express their opinions on each of the issues by use of an "opinion ballot." Tabulated results of the ballots collected from all Chicagoland groups will be announced to local area news media weekly. Summaries will also be forwarded to Congress and the State Department in Washington.

"ESSENTIALLY, the program has a dual purpose," explained Bettman. "It provides a highly effective means for people throughout Chicagoland to learn and discuss all the facts behind our critical current issues . . . and an opportunity to voice their opinion to the government on what should be done."

Bettman urged all Chicago area church, civic and fraternal organizations and any individuals wishing to establish their own neighborhood group to call for more information at the Chicago Council on Foreign Relations, at RA 6-3860. (A-14

Church Is Removed From Life

ST. LOUIS, (UPI) — The Rev. Dr. Edwin T. Dahlberg, a Protestant church leader, said Tuesday that the church has become too spiritual and has lost contact with "the every day life of men."

Dr. Dahlberg, a former president of the National Council of Churches, said that the communists have been permitted "to walk away with the solid, earthy substance" of the faith and have prostituted it to their own political purposes.

THE Rev. Dr. Dahlberg, speaking before church leaders from across the nation, said that the church has in the past been wrongly castigated for not being spiritual enough, when in reality the opposite was true.

He also made a plea for racial toleration before the National Council of Churches' Home Missions and Stewardship Conference. "Why should we be sending our sons and daughters overseas to win men and women of other color to the Gospel of Jesus Christ, only to walk out on them when they move into our own neighborhood?" he asked.

Today's Agriculture

By: CARL F. MEES

According to the Bureau of Economic and Business Research, College of Commerce, University of Illinois the 1950-60 decade showed definite trends toward fewer but larger farms and an increasing complexity of technical and managerial ability.

In order to help alleviate the long-term decrease in farm employment caused by these trends and amounting to 41 per cent in the 1950's, Congress recently enacted a Manpower Development and Training Act providing the opportunity for adults and youths in rural areas to secure additional training in order to better adapt themselves to changing occupational needs in both urban and rural areas.

Adult workers in farm families with less than $1,200 annual net family income are considered to be unemployed and thus are eligible for priority referral for training under this legislation.

Other farm workers who are unemployed may also received training under the act. Since some workers may have to be referred to training facilities beyond commuting distances from their homes, transportation costs and subsistence allowances for separate maintenance are provided. In addition, youths 16 through 21 are eligible for training, but only those 19 through 21 are eligible for training allowances up to $20 a week.

Higher levels of activity in farm supply industries and marketing and processing industries are expected to result in the need for more workers in farm-related jobs such as machinery or equipment salesmen, equipment repairmen, dairy plant technicians, produce graders, and hatchery workers.

* * * * *

About 110 million civilians were old enough to vote during the recent general election. Of the civilians of voting age, 58 million are women and 52 million are men. If members of the armed forces of voting age are included, the total becomes 112 million and the excess of women over men is reduced to less than 4 million. The white population made up nine-tenths of this total.

The total vote cast for United States representatives in the presidential year 1960 was 64.1 million or 58.6 per cent of the total population of voting age. In 1958, the previous non-presidential election year, it was 45.7 million or 42.8 per cent. This year the total reached 47.9 million or 42.9 per cent, a record vote for a non-presidential year, but much too low to boast about.

CLOSED CHRISTMAS AND NEW YEARS DAY

Shows Greater Interest

Use More TB X-Rays In County This Year

"Cook County suburbanites showed a greater interest in their health during 1962, than they did in 1961," said Dr. Walter C. Bornemeier, president of the Tuberculosis Institute of Chicago and Cook County (the Christmas Seal agency).

"There were 3,877 more suburbanites who walked into a mobile X-ray unit located in their neighborhood this past summer than took advantage of this service last year," he said.

The community mass survey is sponsored by the Institute and the Suburban Cook County Tuberculosis Sanitarium District.

THE INSTITUTE is in the midst of its annual Christmas Seal Campaign. The goal this year is $825,000 for TB control.

"A total of 113,309 X-rays were taken during the suburban summer survey; 2,115 of these, or 1.87 per cent, revealed suspect TB. These people were advised to get a larger chest X-ray at a District clinic. How many of these people actually had TB, has not been officially released as yet.

"Despite the increase in number of X-rays taken this summer," The Institute president said, "the number of suburban TB suspects decreased, a drop of 64 suspect cases, or 2.9 per cent.

"THIRTY-TWO suburban communities showed a definite improvement in their awareness of the TB problem," he said.

"These communities had more X-ray applicants this summer than last year. Cicero demonstrated the greatest increase, with 7,067 X-rays taken in 1962, compared with 4,750 in 1961. Oak Park, which had the greatest number of X-rays of any suburb had 11,837 X-rays taken, and 11,196 the summer of 1961.

"Evanston, second in number of X-rays taken, had 11,040 in 1962, an increase of 1,023 over 1961. Berwyn had 9,137 X-rays, an improvement of 975 over 1961; Skokie had 3,077, or 826 more than in 1961.

"TOWNS THAT continue to take the lead in suspect TB cases are Oak Park, with 206; Berwyn, 205; Evanston, 203; and Cicero, 159. Oak Park, by the way, is the only one of the four that had fewer suspect TB cases in 1962 than in 1961, when it had 242 suspect cases.

"All in all," said Dr. Bornemeier, "one of the most encouraging factors in TB control is public cooperation. Without an interested public we cannot conquer TB."

Northwest suburban communities and the number of persons X-rayed are as follows:

Arlington Heights, 1,424; Elk Grove Village, 1,092; Des Plaines, 1,318; Hoffman Estates, 1,243; Mount Prospect, 957; Northbrook, 1,726; Palatine, 1,552; Prospect Heights, 631; Rolling Meadows, 1,535; Streamwood, 472; and Wheeling, 1,024. (B-8

Girl Swimmers in Second Win Here

The Northwest Suburban YMCA Girls Swim Team won its second meet of the season in competition with Downers Grove Dec. 1 by a score of 141½-131½. The South Shore Y fell to the area aquanauts in an earlier meet 195-37.

The Northwest Y team, combining group spirit and cooperation, is aiming for an undefeated season.

First place winners in the contest with Downers Grove were: Mary Ellen Geisler, Prospect Heights, midget 25 yard freestyle; Nancee Sheldon, Elmhurst, cadet 25 yard freestyle; Susie Hale, Mount Prospect, 25 yard cadet backstroke and 25 yard butterfly.

SHARON LUSCHEN, Itasca, 50 yard prep freestyle; Patti Wollerman, Arlington Heights, 50 yard prep backstroke and Sue Hinkins, Itasca, 50 yard junior backstroke.

Other members of the undefeated swim team include: Pam Bailey, Dana Grantham and Lynn Hughson, Mount Prospect; Cathy Rowe, Pam Evans, Sandy and Ruth Ann Gabler, Diane Kelly and Penny Loy, Arlington Heights; Tracy Renforth, Roselle; Danica Oberhardt, Barbara Kelly, Carol Meyer, Virginia Ahapin, Andrea Farmer, Julie and Robin Fedell, Des Plaines; Cathy Hoskins, Morton Grove; Karen Sheldon and Terry Schultz, Elmhurst; Linda Willits, Prue McFarland, Sue Ivison, Sue Lockwood and Linda and Pat Putta and Mickie Ryan, Barrington; Kim Meley, Northbrook and Arlene Libby, Itasca. Judge Provides Warmth for Man

MADISON, WIS., (UPI)—With temperatures dropping into the lower regions of the thermometer, Dwaine C. Jess, 23, a recent arrival in Madison by boxcar, stole a car "just to keep warm."

"I just wanted to get out of the cold for a while," Jess told police who found him in the warm parked car. It had only been driven a very short distance from where it had been stolen.

With the help of Judge William C. Sachtjen, Jess will be nice and toasty until the middle of March. He was sentenced to 90 days in jail for the theft.

Yule Trees Are Big Illinois Industry

SPRINGFIELD — The growing Christmas tree industry in Illinois will produce some 750,000 trees this year, the State Division of Forestry estimated this week.

A spokesman said Illinois growers, mostly from the central and northern part of the state, will sell about $1.5 million worth of trees. An estimated 3 million trees will be used in the state during the season.

Most popular Illinois-grown tree is the Scotch pine, followed by the white, red, and jack pines. Most of the trees from outside the state come from Michigan, Wisconsin, and Canada.

Oil Drilling Activity Increases

SPRINGFIELD — The Illinois Mines and Minerals Department said this week that 284 drilling permits were issued by its division of oil and gas during November. There were 216 oil well permits and 68 other permits.

Lt. Governors Elect Shapiro

CHICAGO — Samuel H. Shapiro of Illinois has been elected chairman of the recently-organized National Conference of Lieutenant Governors.

New UI Registration Program

URBANA — Prospective freshmen at the University of Illinois will be able to enroll ahead of the regular registration period under a program announced this week. Advance enrollments will be offered daily during the eight-week summer session, according to Dr. Eugene Oliver, assistant admissions dean. The program will enable students to consult with advisors and to complete their schedules in advance.

Businesswomen Seek Law Change

CHICAGO — A group of women business executives plan to ask the Illinois Legislature to let them work more than eight hours a day.

Mrs. Anne V. Zinser, director of Zinser Personnel Service of Chicago, said the women will seek an amendment to a state law limiting women's work days to eight hours.

"We believe that such a law is necessary for women in industrial jobs and many other kinds of work," said Mrs. Zinser, "but we know the law places an undue restriction on women engaged in executive, administrative, and professional fields."

Illinois Needs Million Jobs

CHICAGO — Illinois must develop more than a million new jobs during the 1960s to maintain its position as a leading state, the Illinois Council for Branch Banking said this week. The number of jobs in the state increased by 353,000 during the 1950s.

The council said Texas will surpass Illinois in population during the next 10 years unless conditions change. Illinois, formerly third behind New York and Pennsylvania, dropped to fourth behind California during the past decade.

It Was a Record Deer Season

SPRINGFIELD — A record number of Illinois deer hunters harvested a record number of deer during this year's season. William T. Lodge, conservation department director, said that about 35,900 shotgun hunters participated in the six-day white-tail deer season with 6,285 hunters being successful — a ration of one deer for every 4.9 hunters in the field. Not one hunter accident was reported.

War Quarters for Key Workers

CHICAGO — In case of national emergency, like war, key personnel will be moved from the Illinois Statehouse to the University of Illinois campus at Champaign, the state civil defense office announced this week. Space for 400 persons from the Statehouse will be provided at the university. No legislators would be sent to the emergen cyquarters, the office said.

State Revenue Report Is Made

SPRINGFIELD — Collections from the state's major tax sources totaled $69,697,941 in October, the Illinois Revenue Department said this week. During September, the state collected $41.3 million from sales taxes with food sales providing the greatest amount of the total — $8.4 million. During November, Illinois counties were allotted $3,230,324 as their share of motor fuel taxes paid into the State Treasury with Cook County's share amounting to $1,544,937.

Appoint Two to Commission

SPRINGFIELD — Two appointments to the Illinois School Problems Commission were announced this week. They are State Rep. Francis Dawson, R-Evanston, and State Rep. Anthony Scariano, D-Park Forest. Scariano, now beginning his fourth term in the Assembly, has been a member of the House Education committee throughout his legislative career.

Prison Population Shows Drop

SPRINGFIELD — Illinois prisons had an average of 10,222 inmates during October, according to Joseph E. Ragen, public safety director. He said the total represented a drop of 981 from a year ago.

Church Challenge Is Cited

BLOOMINGTON — The head of the Illinois Council of Churches Monday expressed concern that the world's population is growing at a faster rate than church membership.

Dr. Andrew E. Kurth said there is a "serious question of the efficacy of the whole manner of church communications," adding that church leaders must ask "seriously about the communication of the Gospel."

Civil Rights Data Prepared

CHICAGO—The Illinois Commission on Human Relations has announced issuance of an informative brochure titled "Know Your Civil Rights." The pamphlet provides information of civil rights legislation.

Executive Director Roger W. Nathan said: "The people of Illinois should know there is an agency prepared to offer them assistance with any complaints they may have in the area of civil rights."

Farmers Get Heavy Tax Bite

CHAMPAIGN — Illinois farm landowners paid a tax bill of $126 million this year, according to a University of Illinois professor of agriculture.

N. G. P. Krausz said the tax figure is 3.3 per cent higher than the year before and 97 per cent higher than in 1950. Illinois tax levies were the highest among Corn Belt states. The average tax levy on Illinois land was $4.18 an acre while the average for the rest of the Corn Belt states was $2.29.

'Serious Commemoration'

Says Civil War Observances Often Turned into Carnivals

by LANCE HARDEGEN
United Press International

MILWAUKEE, (UPI) — An official of the National Civil War Centennial Commission says some people were trying to "make a carnival" out of the observance of the war between the states.

"You can't just ignore that the Civil War ever happened," said Commission Executive Director Dr. James I. Robertson Jr. He was referring to people who have written newspapers saying there shouldn't be any Civil War Centennial because it may stir up friction between the North and South.

Robertson said the thing too many people forget is that the centennial should be a "serious commemoration." He explained by having an observance the U.S. was trying to do the same thing that Abraham Lincoln did at Gettysburg, "Honor, respect and remember those who died in the war."

HE SAID this is one of the reasons why the commission has frowned upon reenactments on the Civil War battlefields.

"These parks, in a sense, are as Lincoln put it 'hallowed ground' and most persons attending a reenactment are there just for a good time and turn it into a carnival," Robertson said.

He pointed out a reenactment at Gettysburg, for example, "would easily draw 100,000 people just because it is Gettysburg." But, he questioned "would those people remember 43,000 soldiers (north and south) had lost life or limb there?"

He also said he was "disgusted with the junk being dumped on the public" under the guise of the Civil War Centennial. "More Americans died in the Civil War than in all other wars the United States has fought," he said, "and if we lose sight of that—then God help us."

ROBERTSON spoke at Marquette University at one in a series of 10 lectures on the Civil War being sponsored this year by the school. He also addressed the Milwaukee Civil War Round Table.

He pointed out another thing to remember was that the war between the states "is the only example in history where a nation has been completely reunited just 100 years after a Civil war."

Robertson said the Revolutionary War "freed us just as the war in 1861-65 unified us."

The commission presently is trying to bring the centennial observation down to a more local level with state groups and local officials developing their own programs, Robertson said.

"We're trying to take the centennial from the ivy towers and give it to the people," he said.

"You can't just forget the Civil War ever happened, or that three - quarters of a million Americans died in it" said Robertson. "You have to remember the soldiers in 1861 were fighting for the same principle of freedom won just a few decades before."

ROBERTSON noted not remembering Confederates because they were "rebels" would also be a mistake.

"After all, such Americans as George Washington and Benjamin Franklin were called rebels during the revolution," he said. "In fact, we've been a nation of rebels since the beginning." (A-14

See Fan-Jet Engines Cutting Plane Noise

WASHINGTON, (UPI) — An American Airline expert said the new fan-jet engines have permitted a "remarkable reduction" of aircraft noise at some airports.

Frank W. Kolk, of New York, called the new engines an important step toward solving the jet noise problem. He was one of 13 technical experts reporting on anti-noise progress to a special House Commerce subcommittee considering the problem last week.

Kolk said the fan-jets cut down the velocity of air and resultant noise emerging from an engine but still give more thrust and use less fuel.

HE SAID THE difference between the pure jet engines and the fan-jets was measured at Idlewild Airport on an American Airlines Boeing 707 that was converted from one type of power plant to the other.

At 2.6 miles from takeoff point, he said, the pure jet registered 127 on a special scale designed to measure the effect of noise on human beings. The fan-jets on the same plane at the same distance registered 113. Kolk indicated the reduction was significant in terms of noise problems.

"We have just started down this road," he said, "but it is very, very important."

The airline expert said virtually every jet plane now being built is equipped with fan-type engines. He said he would guess that about half the jets now in service have such power plants. But he said it could cost up to $1 million to refit a $5 million plane with the engines.

KOLK SAID noise suppressors on pure jet engines were a "weak crutch" because they cut down efficiency sharply without really reducing noise to an acceptable level. He indicated they would do little good on fan-jet engines.

Kolk and Karl Kryder, Cambridge, Mass., another panelist, emphasized that the jet roar was not the only noise problem facing engineers. They said if the roar was cut down, machinery noises including the distinctive jet whine still would have to be dealt with. (A-14

Spending on Health Is $116 Per Capita

Per person expenditures for health purposes have risen from $87 in 1956 to $116 last year, reports the Health Insurance Institute.

The organization said the higher outlays were chargeable to the expanding demands of a prosperous and health-conscious people.

A total of $21.5 billion was spent for health and medical services by Americans in fiscal 1960-61. This was 48 per cent more than their annual expenditures five years earlier.

THERE CAN BE no question that modern medical care is expensive, the Institute said. It cited as the fundamental reason the constant improvement in the quality of care and the steady increase in the volume of service sought by the American people.

In each of the last five years the people allocated an increased part of disposable personal income to health care.

In 1956, the proportion of take-home pay spent for health purposes was 4.9 per cent; in 1961, it was 5.8 per cent.

ABILITY TO pay for the benefits of modern medicine increased correspondingly. In 1956, disposable personal income totaled just under $293 billion, an average of $5,400 per family.

In 1961, disposable personal income had risen to $364 billion, averaging more than $6,300 per family. (A14

SUSIE SCOUT Says

Betty Winsell CLearbrook 5-3868

WINDING BALLS of bright yarn to be hung as Christmas ornaments on the Christmas tree in Mount Prospect Public Library are Girl Scouts Cathy Kurth, Betsy Moran and Janet Skibbe. After Christmas, the yarn will be sent to Algerian children for knitting into garments. Anyone interested in contributing left-over yarn is urged to call CL 5-5119. Brownies of the area are making paper candles for use on the tree. (B9

ROLLING MEADOWS

Troop 732 made hospital tray favors for Thanksgiving and Susan Rybski and Carol Siers took them to the Northwest Community Hospital. The girls are now working on their Christmas play which will be presented to their parents and another Brownie troop at Christmastime. Leader of this troop is Mrs. George McCafferty, who is assisted by Mrs. George Grunwald.

NEW LOCAL TROOP

Eight excited girls received their Girl Scout pins in an investiture ceremony at Countryside Farm School Nov. 30.

The girls sang "When E're You Make A Promise," following which they recited their promises and laws. Their leaders, Mrs. Lucretia Seegers and Mrs. Dorothy Cook, presented pins to the following girls: Marlys Bernstein, Shirley Gusewelle, Pat Hanson, Leslie Hughes, Lynne Naggatz, Nancy Phelps, Lenore Stelling and Philly Vondrak. The girls responded with the Girl Scout sign as they were congratulated.

MRS. HARRY Strouse then spoke to the girls about Juliette Low, founder of Girl Scouts. Mrs. Strouse grew up in Savannah, Ga., the birthplace of Juliette Low. She showed pictures of this famous place with some pictures of some of the first scouts in their uniforms of yester-year.

Another guest, besides the mothers of the girls, was Mrs. Mary Gould, who with the help of Mrs. Babbette Goldhammer, helped organize the troop, the first in the local district, for mentally retarded girls. Mrs. Gould suggested to the girls that they include in their spring planning, an overnight experience. Refreshments were served.

NORTHEAST ARLINGTON

Five neighborhood troops of Intermediate and Senior Girl Scouts joined troop 294 at Miner Junior High School, Dec. 11 to view the colored slides taken at the Round-up at Button Bay, Vt., last summer. Sandy Johnson and Sue Crawford, Senior Girl Scouts who attended the Round-Up, showed the slides and taught several Round-Up songs.

Troops 406, Mrs. T. Bart, leader; 58, Mrs. R. P. Balin, leader; 504, Mrs. George Morrow, leader; 474, Mrs. C. Strother, leader; and 638, Mrs. A. Gamenthaler, leader, with interested parents were able to view Girl Scouts and Guides from all over the world on these colored slides.

Troop 294 has welcomed Kathy Langan into their activities. She has transferred from Park Ridge. This troop of 24 Intermediate Scouts, under the leadership of Mrs. John Shelley, Mrs. Richard Dunlop, Mrs. Robert Novy and Mrs. Robert Miller, committee chairman, is presently working on a needlecraftcraft badge.

SOUTH MOUNT PROSPECT

Senior Troop 499 is making a Christmas gift for its "adopted" elderly couple in Chicago. With each girl making a few squares, an afghan is almost completed. These ninth graders will demonstrate their cooking skills at a supper party Dec. 19 when each girl will prepare and bring one dish. Leaders of this troop are Mrs. E. Schimek and Mrs. O. Williams.

Decorating and donating a Christmas tree to Northwest Community Hospital are girls of Troop 65, the U.S.S. Enterprise.

As a Christmas gift for exceptional children Troop 212 has made bibs and donated baby foods. During the holidays, the gifts will be delivered to the Misericordia Home in Chicago by a few members of the troop.

MOTHERS were delighted at the recent investiture of 16 Brownies in Troop 56 and the ensuing entertainment. One patrol baked and served cookies, one made and operated puppets and one made the stage and read the lines. Leaders Mrs. R. Wood and Mrs. J. Thorne were also invested at this time.

Dec. 11, Brownie Troop 742 trimmed the Christmas tree which it donated to the Mount Prospect Library. Adorned with decorated styrofoam balls and small toothpick ornaments made by the girls, the tree stands in the adult section of the library. Brownie Troops 8 and 53 also donated hand-made ornaments for the tree.

Another Christmas project of Troop 742 is the donation of toys from each girl for the Lincoln-Dixon Schools for Retarded Children. A recent addition to the troop is Pat Bonetze, who was invested Dec. 4.

SOUTH PALATINE

Four Girl Scouts from Troop 506 taught Brownies in Troop 888 the procedures of flag drill. The Girl Scouts who taught their little sisters in scouting are Margaret Betker, Kathy Weber, Susan Lohff and Pam Lenig.

Brownie Troop 888 also announces that it will again be decorating the Christmas tree in the Palatine Library Dec. 18. This year the girls will attempt an old fashioned trimming of the tree and will be stringing cranberry ropes and popcorn for decorations. Mrs. Ormerod and Mrs. LaFerte are leaders for this troop.

Girl Scout Troop 820 will be gathering toys in good condition for their Christmas service project. These toys will be taken to the Newberry Settlement House in South Chicago. The girls in this troop are also working hard to perfect their caroling which they will do at the Northwest Community Hospital Dec. 20.

An extra special Christmas party is also being planned for the troop Dec. 15, from 2 - 4 p.m. and the girls themselves are making all arrangements. Mrs. Walter Lethem and Mrs. Warren Gieffers are the leaders for Troop 820.

ELK GROVE VILLAGE

Two new second grade Brownie troops have been added to the growing number of troops in Elk Grove Village.

The new troops, established this past month, are headed by Leader Mrs. Lorraine Spasari with Co-leader Mrs. Gerry Ingratta and by Leader Mrs. Lorraine Lundgren with assistants, Mrs. Sarah Waldenmaier and Mrs. Merle Branshaw. The troops consist of 22 and 20 girls, respectively, who have spent the past few weeks getting acquainted and working on Christmas projects.

NORTH MOUNT PROSPECT

Bethesda Home for the Aged in Chicago will be the scene of Christmas caroling by Troop 100 and Troop 446 Friday evening, Dec. 14. The girls will deliver 140 tray favors, which they made, to the residents. After singing through the halls of the home, the Girl Scouts will be served refreshments. Parents are invited to join the choristers.

Troop 100 is led by Mrs. D. Bedford and Mrs. V. Brownell. Troop 446 leaders include Mrs. Ken Glabe and Mrs. Del Tyre. Both groups consist of fifth and sixth grade girls.

Prof Makes Tests on Safety in Motoring

MADISON, WIS., (UPI) — If you want to drive as safely as possible in this winter's slippery roads, heed the words and statistics of a University of Wisconsin professor and his colleagues who have made hundreds of tests in the past 14 years.

The professor is Archie Easton, director of the Motor Vehicle Laboratory in the UW College of Engineering's Department of Mechanical Engineering at Madison.

Prof. Easton is also chairman of the National Safety Council's Committee on Winter Driving Hazards. His work has made him widely known as an expert on the "coefficients of friction as related to winter road surfaces," which means in plain English to any car or truck driver the facts on safe winter driving.

PROF. EASTON and his coworkers have conducted tests with all types of vehicles, tire treads and chains in what could be called their outdoor "Deepfreeze laboratory." Their purpose is to show motorists how to cut the dangers of skidding or stalling on snow-icy roads to save themselves from injury or death.

Here are some of the Easton facts on making winter driving as safe as possible for you:

Starting—Your starting traction is much improved by snow tires, regular chains, and especially reinforced chains. The improvement over regular tires on glare ice is 28 per cent better with snow tires, 231 per cent better with regular tire chains, 409 per cent better with reinforced tire chains, and on loosely packed snow, 51 per cent better with snow tires and 313 per cent better with reinforced tire chains.

GOING—On the road remember that snow and ice make steering touchy, and that your traction varies with temperature. Ice patches linger on bridges, overpasses, and shady areas. Go easy on the gas pedal.

Get the feel of the road by cautiously trying your brakes and also by seeing how much acceleration it takes to cause wheel spin. Avoid abrupt changes in speed and direction, and help prevent skidding by anticipating your steering movements and slowing down sooner.

If the rear wheels skid to the left, steer left. If they skid to the right, steer right. But take it easy and turn the wheel only enough to correct the skid.

STOPPING — Pump your brakes to slow down safely on snow-icy roads. Don't jam them on. Apply them, then release them—on and off rapidly or you'll slide.

Braking distance of regular tires on dry pavement at 20 miles an hour is 21 feet, but on glare ice the braking distance with regular tires is 195 feet. With snow tires it is 174 feet, with regular tire chains, 99 feet, and with reinforced tire chains 77 feet.

On loosely packed snow braking distance with regular tires is 60 feet, snow tires, 52 feet, regular tire chains, 46 feet, and with reinforced tire chains, 38 feet. (B8

Area Workshops Mapped

Education Groups Set Revenue Study

A cooperative effort to promote better understanding of what "revenue reform" means in Illinois has been slated by three major education groups.

Representing three distinct elements in the educational scene, the groups are the Illinois Education Association (IEA), Illinois Congress of Parents and Teachers (PTA) and Illinois Association of School Boards (IASB).

Planning for workshops in Wheeling, Elk Grove, Palatine and Schaumburg Townships will be initiated at an area-wide meeting at Arlington High School on Saturday, Jan. 12.

ATTENDING THE planning session will be school administrators, school board members, IEA district representatives and representatives from local PTA groups.

Aim of the meeting will be the organization of local revenue reform workshops.

Culmination of the local workshops will be a proposed area-wide workshop. State legislators who represent the four townships at the state level will be invited to meet in a panel discussion with interested citizens. Major topic for the area-wide workshop would be the practical and political implications of revenue reform. (B8

Q. Is it necessary to send a wedding gift when one is invited only to the church, but not to the reception?

A. In this case, no. Only an invitation to the reception requires a gift.

FBI Report

ChicagoRobberyTotal Exceeds 6 Cities' Sum

by PHILIP NELSON

Chicago enjoys the doubtful reputation of having amassed more robberies during the first nine months of the year than New York and five other major cities combined!

This is a charge flung by Atty. Daniel A. Gallagher, representing the Chicago Patrolman's association, now "at war" with Police Supt. Orlando Wilson and his administration.

However, the Federal Bureau of Investigation appears to bear out his charge. Here is the way FBI figures stack up:

Chicago, 13,890 robberies; New York, 5,124; Los Angeles, 4,386; Detroit, 2,860; Pittsburgh, 770; Minneapolis, 434, and Milwaukee, 125.

BY ADDING the combined figures of the other six cities, one gets a total of 13,708 robberies which falls short of Chicago's 13,890 figure.

Even if one had selected other large cities like St. Louis, Mo., with 1,394, or Philadelphia, with 1,831, or San Francisco, with 1,035 robberies instead of Pittsburgh, Minneapolis and Milwaukee, the record for Chicago looks bleak indeed.

The Gallagher-selected cities' 1960 population figures are: New York, 7,781,984; Detroit, 1,670,144; Los Angeles, 2,479,015; Pittsburgh, 604,332; Minneapolis, 482,872, and Milwaukee, 741,324.

Their combined total population is 13,759,671 as compared with Chicago's 3,620,962.

Gallagher further charges that Chicago led the nation during these first nine months of the year in the number of aggravated assaults, forcible rape and auto thefts, and was among the leading cities in murders, larcenies and burglaries.

Let us take a peek at the FBI figures and see whether this is borne out:

AGGRAVATED ASSAULT: Chicago, 10,814; New York, 9,255; Los Angeles, 6,155; Detroit, 4,241.

FORCIBLE RAPE: Chicago, 1,290; New York, 601; Los Angeles, 693; Detroit, 253.

AUTO THEFTS: Chicago, 23,586; New York, 16,306; Los Angeles, 11,789; Detroit, 5,110.

The federal figures also indicated 285 murders and non-negligent manslaughter cases for Chicago, as compared with New York's 351; among larcenies, Chicago had 18,556; New York, 41,018; burglaries found Chicago with 27,012, and New York with 30,887.

Does Gallagher have an ax to grind? Certainly, as counsel for the dissident patrolman's organization headed by the turbulent Frank Carey, he is out to minimize the results of the police administration and its reforms.

But a sober look at official FBI figures must cause deep reflection among the city fathers. Police moral is at a low ebb in its thus far unsucessful battle to increase its wages by $500 a year, and it deeply resents the internal surveillance conducted by the administration and the monumental paperwork that must today be done by the policeman. The force resents, too, the one-man patrol car and other innovations brought by Supt. Wilson.

IN ANSWER to the superintendent's statement that he would like to see a $500 raise for his patrolmen but where was the money to come from?" the patrolmen's association recommended slashes in the proposed Wilson budget for 1963.

This would include a cut of $200,000 by eliminating what the association termed the "Electronic Brain," contracted out. In its place, the association offered that "a $100 adding machine can do the same work that the 'brain' does."

Another slash offered by the association is one that would save $1 million, by spending $450,000 for new cars in 1963 instead of $1.45 million. This could be done, the association, offered be done, the association offered in the cars less often.

Abolition of the $897,963 for "recording and transcribing reports" would be replaced, the association said, by policemen who were "willing to write their own reports and type them."

Another $600,000 "saving" proposed by the association would come from reducing the "auto maintenance" from $998,386 to $698,386 and radio maintenance from $732,447 to $432,447 by converting back to "two man cars."

IN ADDITION, the association would return to the old system of citizens inquiries of crime in the district where it occurred. This would save $200,000 for 109 junior clerks for the "Inquiry Section," the association explained.

A reduction by 50 per cent of the "radar speedtrap men" with a "savings of $130,000," association members offer, could utilize this savings "to fight crime."

"Abolish the political 'movie censor' jobs," proclaims the association, "and hire one professional person to review the films." This, it declares, would save $75,000.

"Most of the money for communication devices in 1963 is earmarked for electronic eavesdropping," the association charged. "Wilson already spent $55,000 for eavesdropping devices in 1960 and 1961." The association recommended spending only $67,400 instead of $167,400 and thus save $100,000.

THE PLANNING division, for which $755,366 is asked, has risen, the association said, from five men a few years ago to less than 26 three years ago. "In 1963," said the association, "Wilson wants 96 people for 'data processing.' " Recommendation—"save $500,000."

"Reduce the salary appropriation in the Internal Investigations division from $543,989 to $41,364," offers the association.

"A lieutenant and five patrolmen are sufficient here," the association asserts. "Transfer the surplus IID men into undermanned district stations and have them do police work."

In this fashion, the association proposed to make 37 substantial slashes in the Wilson budget, for what it termed would be a savings of $7,244,908.

IT IS OBVIOUS that the association's "prejudices" are showing. The oldtimer on the force, it is true, would like to return to the two-man car, elimination of inner surveillance and the rest.

But basically if the patrolmen could win a $500 a year raise in pay plus a $125 uniform allowance for every man on the force, it is quite conceivable the morale in the department would rise substantially and perhaps the shocking high crime figure in the city might drop. (A-14

Central Storage Is New Idea for Oil

The advantages of central storage facilities and individual home meters are adding a new convenience for oil users in housing projects in a number of states across the nation the National Oil Fuel Institute points out.

The new system — in which heating oil is stored in one central tank for a group of houses and then supplied by underground pipelines — was introduced a little more than a year ago.

It already is providing ample supplies of heating oil without individual home tanks for homeowners in East Coast, Mid West and North West states.

EACH HOME in a project is connected by a pipeline to a large storage tank — 10,000 gallons or more — and a pumping system located in the project itself.

The typical system is so arranged that duplicate pumping facilities are provided ensuring an uninterrupted fuel supply. A minimum of 3,000 gallons or more is kept in the central tank at all times.

The new system does away with the cost of installing an individual tank and accessories in the new home.

In addition, the buyer has the advantage of low cost oil — much the cheapest fuel in most of the Northern states and in many other areas throughout the nation — as well as the further convenience of being billed each month for oil consumed the previous month. (A14

National Survey Says:

If You Want Health, You're Better 'Wed'

Gals, if your cooking doesn't measure up, your allure isn't luring and you can't get a man with a gun, try using statistics in your manhunt.

Now it can be proved with numbers — married people live healthier and longer lives than the non-married. Married men in particular are a robust lot compared with bachelors.

The statistics were pulled together by the Health Insurance Institute from several studies, including parts of the U. S. National Health Survey, the U. S. Census and insurance company mortality tables.

HERE ARE A few hardy facts:

Married people of both sexes experience less illness and fewer and shorter periods of hospital confinement than bachelors, spinsters, widowed people and even the divorced.

Analysis of data from the National Health Survey indicates the incidence of serious illness requiring hospitalization is 20 per cent lower for married men than for single men.

Moreover, the average stay for hospitalized husbands is 9.8 days as compared to 19.2 days for single men.

THE STATISTICS apply to married and unmarried females, too.

The rate of hospitalization of wives on the one hand and single women on the other are almost the same (139 to 141 hospital discharges per 1,000 women in the respective categories), notwithstanding that the figures for wives include maternity.

Eliminating the childbearing years, mature married women experience considerably less hospital confinement than do single women.

Life expectancy of married people substantially exceeds that of the unmarried. Bachelors of different age groups have a mortality rate ranging from 37-to-136 per cent higher than married men, while the mortality rate of single women is 6-to-67 per cent greater than it is for wives.

FOR EXAMPLE, consider these figures: out of every 1,000 single men between the ages 25-34, there are an average of 3.6 deaths in a year, while the death rate of married men of the same ages is only 1.7. Divorced and widowed men have respective mortalities of 5.8 and 8.6 in the 25-34 group.

Among women in the same age group wives have a 1.2 mortality rate compared to 2.2 for single women, 2.6 for divorcees, and 4.1 for widows.

One explanation medical doctors offer for the apparent healthier state of married people is the general constancy of care and healthful advice married people extend to respective spouses in time of illness or threat of illness.

PEOPLE LIVING alone are not apt to get this kind of attention. Furthermore married people, according to health experts, probably are more attentive to diet and are more likely to take preventive measures against sickness than are single people.

Available data on illness and life expectancy does not statistically show how many people remain unmarried due to impaired health or how health may be involved in decisions for divorce.

These undoubtedly are important factors in the better health status of the married.

It's Legal For Lads to Tend Bar

MADISON, (UPI)—It's legal for an 11-year-old boy to tend bar, Dist. Atty. William D. Byrne said last Thursday.

Probing into the law books revealed that a youngster, ordered by police Wednesday, Dec. 5, to stop serving drinks, had a right to be in the tavern because he was a member of the bar operator's family.

The lad doesn't even need a bartender's license because state law says anyone can tend bar if there is a licensed operator on the premises. There was a licensed operator present when police stopped the boy from selling drinks Wednesday.

"It's certainly not sensible, but there's no law against it," Byrne said. (A14

Area Claimants on Unemployment Rise

For the seventh consecutive week the number of claimants for unemployment insurance has risen, Director of Labor Robert R. Donnelly noted this week. "Seasonal and inventory layoffs normally cause an upward trend in claims volume at this time of the year," he added.

During the week ended December 1, 1962, there were 85,484 unemployed workers filing claims for jobless benefits, three per cent up from the 82,925 of a week earlier but 7.2 per cent below the 92,112 who filed in the comparable week a year ago.

Cook and Du Page counties claimants, at 48,205, showed 7.6 per cent above the 44,785 claimants of the preceding week, yet 1.4 per cent below the 48,902 who claimed benefits in the same week of last year.

STATEWIDE initial claimants, of whom there were 14,804, rose 16 per cent above the 12,719 who filed initially in the preceding week, but remained 5.2 per cent under the 15,612 initial claimants in the same week last year.

In Cook-Du Page counties, 8,015 initial claimants showed an increase of 27 per cent over the 6,290 figure of a week earlier and 4.1 per cent above the 7,702 who filed initially in the comparable week a year ago.

Commissioner of Unemployment Compensation Samuel C. Bernstein observed that reported layoffs in Illinois included 1800 workers in electrical equipment, and 1,240 in fabricated metals, most of which were due to inventory shutdowns.

Other layoffs reported were 1,840 construction workers, 300 in chemicals, 285 in service industries, besides numerous smaller layoffs. (A14

Cost Can't Be Justified

Northwest CTA Line Is Not Supported by Report: CNW

Benefits to those who must use public transportation or highway facilities would be insufficient to justify the costs of extending a CTA rapid transit line in the median strip of the Northwest Expressway and would result in substantial annual losses to the CTA and the suburban service of the Chicago and North Western Railway Company.

These were among conclusions in the report of a study of public transportation neeas in the Northwest corrido by the engineering firm of Parsons, Brinkerhoff, Quade and Douglas of New York and San Francisco.

The consulting firm was retained by the Chicago and North Western Railway Company and the Chicago Transit Authority to make the study during the past year.

Of the various alternatives studied, the CTA's proposed $36,000,000 extension of a rapid transit line via the Northwest Expressway median strip was presented as the most effective in reducing traffic congestion in the city's Northwest corridor.

THE STUDY report pointed out, however, that this new facility would result in substantial losses to the CTA as well as to the suburban service of the North Western.

"For the Northwest corridor and for the City of Chicago and the surrounding area as a whole," the report said, "the cost of the various ways by which public transportation may be made effective must be weighed against the benefits of a balanced, congestion free transportation network. It must be recognized that there are policy matters here which can be settled only on a city-wide and regional basis."

The engineering firm estimated the CTA would experience an annual loss of $2,600,000 due to the extended rapid transit line, with $765,000 of this amount representing annual debt service on rolling stock and $855,000 as partial debt service on fixed construction.

THE BALANCE of the debt service on fixed construction, amounting to $1,000,000 a year, would come from the City of Chicago or some other public agency. At the same time, the suburban service loss of the North Western would increase by $1,100,000 a year.

The rapid transit extension was presented in the study as one of five major public policy courses of action, as follows:

1. Take no action. The already serious increase on congestion would continue unchecked as would the North Western's suburban service deficit, which approximated $1,900,000 in 1961.

2. RAISE NORTH Western fares sufficiently to eliminate its deficits. This would also discourage patronage and as a consequence vehicular traffic in the Northwest corridor would tend to increase by an amount equivalent to the operating capacity of two expressway lanes, one in each direction, thereby worsening the congestion.

3. Build the Northwest rapid transit line. While revenues would cover operating costs, the CTA would experience an annual loss of $1,600,000 and the cost to the City of Chicago or other public agency would be $1,000,000 annually.

In addition, North Western's suburban service loss would increase an additional $1,100,000 annually. While this alternative would not completely eliminate congestion, it would promote relief equivalent to about four expressway lanes, which would be far more costly to build.

4. REDUCE C&NW fares by at least one third. Substantial gains in patronage would result and vehicular congestions in the Northwest corridor, while not eliminated, would be relieved by an amount also equivalent to about four expressway lanes. However, North Western's operating deficit would increase by some $2,700,000.

5. Build the Northwest rapid transit line and reduce C&NW fares. Adoption of this alternative would result in essentially eliminating vehicular traffic congestion in the Northwest corridor. The CTA would experience an annual loss of $1,600,000 and the cost to the City of Chicago or other public agency would be $1,000,000 annually. In addition, North Western's suburban service loss would increase by $2,700,000 a year.

"It may be concluded from consideration of these policy choices," the engineers said, "that, in order to take effective action on this matter, the transportation policy of the entire Chicago area should be formulated; it does not appear that the problem of congestion in the Northwest corridor can be completely solved without the benefit of a broad policy base."

IN ANALYZING the need for enlarged or different public transportation service in the Northwest corridor, the engineers reported:

1. The need does not exist from the specific operating or fiscal standpoints of either the CTA or the North Western.

2. From the standpoint of those who must use public transportation, present services are reasonably adequate and their capacities can be readily expanded, although improvements in travel times and convenience would be gained with facility improvements in the corridor. There would not, however, appear to be justification for this standpoint alone for major public transportation expenditures which cannot be recovered from fares

3. FROM THE standpoint of those motorists who must use highway facilities, there would be benefit from improved public transportation, but such benefits would not by themselves justify large expenditures.

4. From the standpoint of the community in general and the development of the metropolitan region, there exists a need in the corridor for some form of additional or improved public transportation or facilities.

The report pointed out that motorists using the Northwest Expressway do not pay the full costs through user taxes. The engineers estimated that fuel and other user taxes paid by vehicles on the expressway yield only 34 per cent of its annual capital cost, and even less if highway maintenance, operation, traffic control, accident, and property tax revenue loss costs are included.

THE BALANCE of the costs must be met by taxes paid by vehicles operating over other roads and streets already completed, some for decades. They also pointed out that charges for curb parking, and in some cases for off-street parking, are not in proportion to what could be considered the real cost of such facilities.

"In a real sense, therefore, the Northwest Expressway has been subsidized by motor vehicles using other highways and streets," they said.

"This is not to suggest that such a way of financing highways is unsound, but rather to point out that since charges are not levied for the use of such limited access highways in proportion to their true cost, it cannot be expected that public transportation can remain competitive and attract patronage if it levies charges that are in proportion to its true cost. Policies and patterns of highway financing are one of the factors that may impose the necessity of subsidizing public transportation." (B-8

Red-Wigged Bandit Gets Bank's Cash

FLINT, MICH., (UPI) —A bandit who may have been wearing a red wig held up the Flint branch of the Citizen's Bank last week and escaped with about $15,000.

Police said the bandit pushed a small pistol at a woman teller, grabbed the money and escaped out the back door of the bank.

HE'S DESCRIBED as about 35 years old, five feet 7 inches tall, and wearing dark clothes.

Witnesses told police the red hair was so brilliant it may have been a wig.

Girl 'Bugs' Friend Into Stealing Car

WEST FRANKFORT, ILL., (UPI)—James Peak, a Radio-TV dealer, was watching television Friday night in his second story apartment when he heard a motor start up and then saw someone driving off with his 1963 model car.

Peak gave chase in a pickup truck but was outdistanced by the other driver who disappeared over a hill. Peak said his truck was going 80 miles an hour.

THEN PEAK heard a crash. He found his car wrapped around a tree. Inside was Larry Wall, 16, Herrin, a former West Frankfort resident, who suffered serious face cuts and possible internal injuries and was hospitalized.

Peak said he asked the youth why he took his car. He said the youth replied: "My girl friend was always bugging me because I never had a car to take her any place."

Police said no charges have been filed. (B8

A Story of:

Some American High School Boys and A Team Physician

Prospect Champs' Football Formula

by BILL HALLS

This is the story about 30 American boys and a doctor. The boys were the athletes and managers of this year's Prospect High School football team. The doctor was their team physician.

The doctor came to the United States from Cuba in 1956. He had studied medicine in that island country, but had decided to come to America to learn more about his chosen profession.

He continued his studies. He liked the Americans. They liked him. He married. Had children.

Last September, he decided to move to the suburbs of Chicago. As many Americans had decided before him, he felt it would be a good place to raise his family.

The football season started and he was asked to serve as game physician for Prospect's first home game with North Chicago High.

THE DOCTOR didn't know much about American football (soccer is more popular in Cuba), and didn't especially want the task. But he decided to try it for one game.

Prospect lost the game. Part of the doctor's duties are to examine all of the athletes from both teams after the game.

The doctor found North Chicago in perfect health, not a bruise. The Prospect players, on the other hand, had many hurts.

THE DOCTOR became angry. He did not know football but he knew that in order to win at such a game, one must be rougher and tougher than the opposition. He told the beaten Prospect athletes as much.

The doctor pointed out that he would not be physician to a losing team. He would be fair, however. The following week, he would come again. If the team won, he would stay. If they lost, he would wash his hands of the whole affair.

Now, normally, the job of game physician is a week to week affair, with a different doctor taking the responsibility each week. The home team is responsible for supplying the doctor.

BUT IN this case, the Cuban physician was invited back. The team won. The next game was on the road. The doctor insisted on going, although technically he was not needed. The team won again.

He attended the rest of the games except one, and was disappointed that he was not asked on this occasion (obviously, an administrative mixup).

Prospect won the Interim League championship. At the annual fall sports banquet, more than 400 parents turned out to congratulate the team, and its coaches.

SCHOOL letters were awarded to the 30 athletes and managers.

But there was an additional award. Senior manager Earl Boesenberg presented the Prospect block "P" to the doctor.

"He was sort of a mascot," explained Earl. "He came to almost every game, and even gave the team a pep talk on the bus before the Niles West game.

"THE VARSITY Club talked it over and said they would be willing to chip in for a special letter for the 'Doc.' "

The boys didn't have to "chip in." School officials, when approached about the idea, decided to donate the award. There was also a certificate of appreciation, signed by all the players, managers and coaches.

"He knew all of the players by their numbers," recalls head coach J. O. Jackson. "If he suspected a boy was injured during play, he would write down the number and check the boy when he came off the field."

THE DOCTOR liked the boys. For the most part, their only concern was if the injury was serious enough to keep them out of the game. Not like most patients, who are usually overly worried, concerned about themselves.

The boys liked the doctor. If the injuries were minor, he would always let them return to action. If it was a serious injury, he treated them on the spot.

But a good deal of the time, the doctor would just sit on the bench, watching and learning about football. It was a good game, he decided. The boys were good boys. He became a Prospect football fan.

HE WANTED the boys to win because he believes it is important to accomplish things in life. Important to leave something behind to be remembered.

"These boys will be able to return to the school years from now," he will often say. "They can look at the championship cup, and know that they helped accomplish something."

A couple of weeks ago, at Prospect's first home basketball game, the doctor was in the bleachers. He wore a blue Prospect letter sweater with a large block "P" sewn above the pocket. It was the doctor's way of showing his appreciation.

BUT THE doctor is properly modest.

"I am not a celebrity," he explains. "Just because I have green eyes and an accent."

Last week, the Cuban doctor became an American citizen along with 249 other persons.

Dr. Guillermo Lara was very proud to take part in the brief ceremony.

It is one thing to be born an American. It is another thing to become one. (A-14

The Real Spirit

Students Play Carols Requested Over Phone

CAMPAIGN, (UPI)—By dialing a recorded telephone message, it is possible to obtain the time, the weather, shpoping hints, sports results and the latest stock market trends.

Now you can phone for Christmas carols.

Students living at a University of Illinois dormitory have launched a drive to maintain the spirit of Christmas.

ANYONE calling their number can hear a recorded Christmas carol.

Their inspiration, they said, was the idea that "one of the most beautiful things about Christmas are the carols." So the students, who live at Snyder Sanctum House, mustered all their phonographs, took over a two-man room, and let it be known that any caller could have a entire Christmas carol played for him.

"About 10 of us were walking back from church," one of the originators, Gary Allen, Aurora, said, "and we were singing Christmas carols. Later, back at the dorn, we were talking about how wonderful we felt on that walk and how close we felt to the real spirit of Christmas. We just decided the best thing we could do would be to bring this spirit to others."

"WE THOUGHT just a few people would call," said Steve Price, "but already we're received dozens of calls.

"I guess people are getting tired of the commercialism that Christmas has come to mean . . . now they want to go back to the real spirit of Christmas, the spirit we felt on our walk.'

Society's Meet Date Corrected

The Des Plaines Valley Geological Society will hold its monthly meeting and Christmas social Thursday, Dec. 20, at 8 p.m. in the West Park Fieldhouse, 651 Wolf Road, Des Plaines.

According to Virginia Willis, society co-publicity chairman, the group erred last week in announcing the social for Dec. 13. (B8

What Is the Real Goal of Chemicals?

Profit Factor Plays A Role

by TOM EDWARDS
(Final of three Articles)

Americans are being subjected to an increasing barrage of chemicals in their everyday foods.

From the time a seed is plantd in a farmer's field until the time the resultant food prduct appears on the dinner table, meat or vegetable, it is subject to a bombardment of fungicides, insecticides, antibiotics, hormones, chemical processing and additions of flavoring, coloring, preservatives, synthetic vitamins and sweeteners, emulsifiers, stabilizers and thickeners, acids and neutralizers.

Even residues of the chemicals used to treat seeds before they are planted remain in the final food product.

What the over-all effect of this synthetic and even poisonous diet will have upon human lives is a glaring question mark. But it is a question obscured by a heavy fog of blandishments, assurances and reassurances of not only commercial suppliers, but government agencies as well.

DESPITE THE welter of statements that better nutrition and human health is the goal, doubtlessly the actual goal is cheaper and easier production, that is, a greater margin of profit.

Quantity is the primary end in food production; but it is the purported quality that is eulogized in advertising and information media.

Yet quantity production shouldn't be confused today with improvement of soils, plants and livestock. Chief emphasis has been shifted to cheaper and easier production methods, artificial growth and barren assembly line techniques.

Cultivation as a means to control weeds is being replaced by herbicide sprays. Rather than developing hardier and healthier plants, natural and harmless controls, insects and fungi are being battled with lethal poisons.

CROP ROTATION is ceasing in favor of pumping chemical fertilizers into the soil each year, which is followed by a decline in organic content and microorganisms, and which promulgates leaching and erosion.

Two and two doesn't make four in measuring the American food supply: "Technological progress . . . research to improve the food supply" has resulted in "a great many chemical substances . . . being employed to make foods more attractive, better tasting, and more economical," we are told in pamphlets put out by the U.S. Food and Drug Administration. "The American food supply is the best in the world."

If it is the best in the world, why is it necessary to add artificial colors and flavors? And "more economical" —when has the cost of food gone down since the 1930's?

Further, isn't the addition of artificial colors and flavors actually fraudulent when you get right down to it? And isn't the addition of "water" weight to meat animals through the use of the artificial female sex hormone stilbestrol in feeds actually an economic fraud?

(It is reported that Canada has ruled this watery weight gaining technique as fraud in at least one case. One U. S. meat packer was reported to have said, "It's not only stilbestrol that's responsible; it's the short-cut, cheaper fattening methods promoted by every agricultural college around . . . the quality isn't there.")

And what effect are the residues of stilbestrol in meat having upon feminine and masculine characteristics of humans?

We are told that our health and longevity are best in the world, with the food supply one of the important factors. Then is the food supply an important factor in what has been reported from all quarters as a sub-par national physical fitness? Is it a cause in the rejection of 52 per cent of draftees despite marked lowering of physical standards over the last 55 years?

WHY IS IT that when we speak of American health, we point to our comparative high number of hospital beds and doctors per population? Why are degenerative diseases skyrocketing, cancer, heart disorders, hepatitis, arthritis, mental illness . . .?

Three per cent of the children born in the United States today are mentally retarded, as compared to one per cent in Scandinavia, President Kennedy was reported as saying last week. Is nutrition a factor?

"Although in America today life expectancy at birth is near the best of any civilized country in the world . . . at the age of 40 life expectancy is near the bottom." (Dr. Norman Jolliffe, New York City Department of Health nutrition head, quoted from a 1955 medical journal.)

Foods themselves are chemical compounds, it is argued, so consumers should not be worried about chemical additives. Anything that is added is composed of basic elements which have always been present on the earth.

YES, BUT THE molecular arrangements of these new chemicals never existed before, such as deadly dieldrin, a cousin of DDT.

"It took thousands of years for the body to adjust itself" to naturally existing compounds of the earth's basic elements, William Longgood quotes in his book, "The Poisons in Your Foods." "When these conditions are suddenly altered by the actions of men, the cells cannot make the adjustment—disease is the result."

Longgood continues that the "food we eat is the stuff which makes up the blood, brain, bone and flesh . . . If the ingredients that make up men are poisoned and synthetic, what is man himself?

"Can a person be expected to have a strong nervous system and enjoy mental health when his system is bombarded daily by nerve poisons and other toxic substances?" (Most pesticides used by farmers are nerve poisons.)

FDA HAS SET limits as to how much of various chemicals can be present in foods. But should there be any allowed at all? Won't even trace amounts of these poisons have effects on the body, however minute, which will have an accumulating effect over the years?

"The enzymatic processes in our bodies are affected even by slight traces of chemicals—by as little as one part in 50 million, or less," said Leonard Wickenden in his book, "Our Daily Poisons." (The FDA permits up to seven parts per million of DDT in lettuce.)

Often, by the time the FDA gets around to getting a restriction on something which has finally proved harmful, it may have been on the market for many years. Several food additives were banned recently after years of use, and there is a long list of suspect items—even though the FDA will publicly say that the food supply is safe.

"Mineral oil, long used as a salad dressing and substitute for food oils, was found to interfere with the absorption and utilization by the body of several vitamins, primarily vitamin A, in foods," Longgood related.

"DESPITE THE huge amount of evidence linking food directly to human health, it is the exceptional doctor who ever bothers to ask his patients what they eat," he continues. Nutrition is almost "totally ignored" in medicine.

"What can we do? What choice do we have?" one housewife asked. About all that can be done is to let your congressman know that you want laws that will protect your health to the fullest possible extent, not someone's pocketbook, for it is difficult to buy health.

Housewives can also demand and buy naturally grown foods as much as possible, particularly those grown by organic farming methods.

Truly, the present use of chemicals may be almost totally unnecessary. For think, prior to 1945 when most of today's chemicals came into being, this country regularly produced huge crop surpluses.

IT WAS THIS country, Morton S. Biskind, noted physician, reminds, that "virtually eradicated insect borne disease in the Panama Canal zone" without today's pesticides; and is the country that produced so much cotton and wool from old farming methods that the market was periodically glutted.

Is this country now so lacking in ingenuity, Biskind asks, "that it must endanger the health and even the lives of its own inhabitants to keep them well fed and protect them from disease.

"But this is the age of the 'calculated risk' . . . Unfortunately, our culture is dominated by a simple-minded test-tube approach to biology."

An urgently needed reform, wrote Eve Balfour about 15 years ago in "The Living Soil," "is the opening of an entirely new line of agricultural research based on health rather than pathology, and on soil and plant ecology rather than on chemistry."

Rarely Happens

Stilbestrol Banned by Government

Stilbestro, the common name for the artificial female sex hormone estrogen, was banned in poultry meat after about a decade of use. The ban was effective last March.

Reason was that residues of stilbestrol were found in poultry skin, liver and kidneys, according to Dr. Charles Haggar, head of the Poultry Inspection Division of the Chicago office of the U.S. Agriculture Department.

Yet such bans are rarely put into effect unless the residues of such agriculture chemicals are definitely proved harmful.

STILBESTROL pellets were inserted under the neck of the skin of young male chickens to produce capons. In addition, it causes animals to gain weight, mostly in the form of water.

The hormone is still one of the most common additives to cattle and hog feeds as a technique to put wieght on animals rapidly.

Dr. A. R. Thiele, head of the Chicago meat (other than poultry) inspection office of the USDA, did not know what if any limit there was for the amount of stilbestrol residue in meat. Checking, he could not find it listed in a 1960 publication of legal foreign residues in meats.

IN A PHONE conversation, he said there is no laboratory analyses of residues of antibiotics, hormones and pesticides which cattle and hogs can be expected to come into contact with. Sometimes samples are shipped to Washington, D.C., for analysis, he said.

Haggar also said there is no laboratory analysis here of poultry for stilbestrol.

Tolerances for residues of pesticides in meat are set for DDT, Lindance and malathion, common insecticides used on farms.

FOR INSTANCE, up to four parts per million of malathion, a highly toxic nerve poison, is allowed in beef, Thiele read from the 1960 publication. Again, he said laboratory analysis are done in Washington.

Here's Rundown on What's on Labels

The list of unnatural chemicals that are present in the regular diets of American people is staggering.

Below is an attempt to delineate what appears on labels —and some of what doesn't, both artificial and natural components:

Chocolate covered maraschino cherries — artificial colors, citric acid, .1 per cent of sodium benzoate, .015 per cent sulphur dioxide, and lecithin.

PASTRIES — monoglycerides and diglycerides, enzyme, yeast, nutrients, artificial color and flavor.

Breakfast cereals — calcium carbonate, coloring, sodium phosphate, sugar, flour, wheat starch, corn starch, salt, corn syrup, sodium phosphate, calcium carbonate, glycine, iron phosphate, color, thiamine, niacinamide, riboflavin, butylated hydroxytoluene added to packaging material, sodium acetate, lysine hydrochloride.

Bread and rolls — products of bleach interaction in flour, ammonium chloride (dough conditioner), mono- and diglycerides and polyoxyethylene (softeners), dietiary-Butyl-para-Cresol (antioxidant), nitrated flour or coal-tar dye (yellow color), vitamin fortifiers (to replace nutrients lost in milling or otherwise wanting), and a preservative.

CAKE MIX — "freshness preserver," lactostearin, cocoa processed with alkali, artificial flavor and color, cellulose gum, bleached flour, mono and diglycerides, hydrocolloids, sodium carboxy methylcellulose, sodium phosphate, enzyme modified soy protein, sodium lauryle sulfate (a whipping aid), leavening.

Some cheese products — sorbic acid, sodium phosphate, lactin, artificial color, potassium sorbate.

Margarine — sodium benzoate, a preservative, vitamins, lecithin.

Marshmallow — sodium hexametaphosphate, vanilla, artificial flavor and color.

Olives — lactic acid.

SWEET pickles — tumeric, alum, spice flavoring, maybe mustard.

Rice mix — butylated hydroxytoluene, mono glutamate, flavoring, sodium sulfite, sodium bisulfite, sodium bicarbonate.

Cold meats — sodium erythorbate, sodium nitrate and nitrate, monosodium glutamate, ascorbic acid, flavoring, corn syrup, dextrose.

Ice cream cones — propylene glycol, artificial color and flavor.

Dried fruits — ascorbic acid, sulphur dioxide.

Frozen potatoes — trace of sulphur dioxide to maintain whiteness.

AGRICULTURAL chemicals include DDT and related compounds, methoxychlor, chlordane, heptachlor, toxaphene, lindane benzene hexachloride, aldrin dieldrin, and the organic phosphates, malathion, and parathion. They may be present in trace amounts in a great variety of foods, according to many reports.

Aureomycin, an antibiotic, and stilbestrol, a femals sex hormone, are common additives to livestock feeds.

Records Are Closed

Division of Foods Is Obscure State Agency

Only foods that cross state lines are under the jurisdiction of the United States Food and Drug Administration. All Illinois food products sold within the state are supposed to be under the surveillance of the Division of Foods, Dairies and Standards of the Illinois Department of Agriculture.

This division, which has its main office in Chicago, is a relatively obscure branch of the state government. And evidently its directors feel practically no obligation to keep the public informed of its work.

"I don't think the records (of the division) should be available to the public," its superintendent, Ray Cowperthwaite, said.

COWPERTHWAITE, appointed by Gov. Otto Kerner when he took office, indicated he feels that the American public "is very easily" panicked. "We have to cover some things up."

He cited a case last summer when several members of a vsiting high school band were reported in Chicago daily newspapers as having become ill from food bought at one restaurant.

Cowperthwaite said it was later shown that the food at the restaurant was all right, that the trouble was a combination of heat and too many malted milk shakes. But the restaurant nearly went out of business because of the publicity.

HE CALLED the "cranberry scare" of a few years ago a "disaster."

Another reason for keeping the division records private is that "big corporations that are in direct competition with each other" might like to use unsavory publicity against a competitor, the superintendent continued.

Names of firms that are found to be in violation of state food laws are "confidential," it was stated.

ASKED IF there wasn't a law requiring records of state offices to be open to the public, Cowperthwaite said, "I wouldn't know . . .I am like a politician; I stand on my record."

In areas not specifically covered by state law, the regulations of the U.S. Food and Drug Administration apply, authorities at the division office stated. The state food division "supplements" the work of the FDA and local health departments.

It was also stated that the state has never condemed any Illinois produce for containing too much pesticides used by farmers. However, the FDA has seized farm products many times throughout the nation for containing unlawful residues of poisonous agriculture chemicals.

IN FACT, it was related that such inspections are not even made by the state. Enforcement of pesticide regulations is "taken care of where" the food is grown, that is, on the farms, it was stated.

How well the state agricultural department can enforce limitations on crop and soil spraying with insecticides and herbicides is a serious question, if indeed, there can be any practical enforcement at all. For it would be necessary for an inspector to be on hand when the farmer is spraying a back 40 acres.

Chief chemist of the state food inspection division, John Bailey, indicated his laboratory is woefully lacking in equipment and manpower — that is, funds. To the lay eye, the state laboratory compares to the laboratory of the FDA Chicago office like a junior high chemistry laboratory compares to its college counterpart.

THE GREAT bulk of the work of the state food division deals with sanitation, with labeling of food products the next most important concern, it appears from a review of seizure entries in a date book (Name of the distributing firm or brand of food is not recorded in this log.)

The division has seven inspectors in Cook County at present, and 42 in the state. There are six men working in the analysis laboratory. Cowperthwaite indicated they are not under civil service, nor are there any definite qualifications for an inspector's job. He refused to show personnel records in order to review the qulifications of those employed as inspectors.

Cowperthwaite said he had owned a supermarket for 24 years before being appointed to his present job, and he is a past president of the American Retail Grocery Association.

HIS CHIEF assistant, James Burke, has been with the division for 27 years, he said. Inspector for the northwest suburban area is Roman Habrelicz, Burke said.

When asked for an appointment for an interview and tour of the division office for this series of articles on food contents, Burke said permission would have to be obtained from Ralph S. Bradley, director of the State Department of Agriculture in Springfield.

After an unsuccessful attempt to contact Bradley and his chief assistant, the interview was obtained through State Rep. John W. Carroll, R-6th. (A14

End of 'Dependence?'

Oil Research Points Toward All-Oil Home

The American home of the 1970's may well be able to draw its entire energy requirement from a tank of heating oil and end its traditional dependence on outside energy sources, the National Oil Fuel Institute reports.

And, on the basis of current research activities in the industry, the fuel oil will be prepared for burning by such new methods as air aspiration, starved combustion, electrostatics, or ultrasonics.

A survey of progress in research being done by oil company and heating equipment manufacturers shows that fuel oil can be adapted to every household chore from electric generation to sewage disposal.

EQUIPMENT to do some of these jobs is already on the market, but other newer ideas may not be marketed for some years, the Institute points out.

Among the novelty items of the future is an oil-powered outside lamp post in which a conventional gas mantle burns brightly on a diet of one hundredth of a gallon of No. 2 fuel oil per hour.

In quite another area, it has been established that an oil flame can evaporate the liquids and completely incinerate the solids in domestic sewage, with the long-range probability that an oil-powered disposer will replace economically the troublesome home septic tank and the expensive municipal sewer system.

EMPLOYES in one equipment manufacturer's laboratory cook their lunches on an oil-powered stove. Superheated air from a remote burner does an excellent job of cooking, they report.

An oil-powered heat pump is already available to provide both heating and cooling and oil-fired water heaters produce an unlimited supply of hot water for anything from a small home to a large apartment house or motel.

Electric generators will convert heating oil into electricity for jobs that oil cannot do directly but the number of such chores is diminishing rapidly. The oil-powered incinerator is already in limited production and the clothes dryer and automatic dishwasher are expected shortly.

THUS IN THE home of the '70s, low cost fuel oil expects to supply heating and cooling, provide unlimited hot water, burn the trash and garbage, incinerate the sewage, cook the food, wash the dishes, dry the clothes, and generate electricity for lights and automatic controls.

Super economies can be expected from the multiple oil appliances, since they can support and supplement each other. Waste heat from the incinerator and sewage disposer, for example, will be used for space heating or cooling, water heating, or converted into electricity via devices similar to the fuel cell.

And a single unit will prepare oil for burning and deliver it to all the appliances. In some of the newer appliances, oil is turned into a super-clean gas by a converter that combines air aspiration with catalytic combustion. A carefully proportioned mixture of oil and air is drawn into a confined firing chamber insulated with a ceramic ignition block.

HERE THE OIL is ignited to produce a starved flame that reaches temperatures of from 1000 to 2000 degrees. At these high temperatures the flame breaks down the fuel into combustible secondary gasses, but there is not enough oxygen in the combustion area to permit them to burn.

Instead the gasses are forced through a tube by their own expanding pressure and by the pressure of the new gasses forming behind them. At the other end of the tube these gasses are released against a flat metal plate called a "flame spreader" and in the presence of free oxygen, burst into what is possibly the cleanest flame ever produced by man.

The reason it is so clean is that the low end carbon and soot-producing particles in the original fuel have been burned off in the primary chamber. Combustion is so complete that efficiencies of 87 per cent to 93 per cent are commonplace.

ANOTHER NEW burner now being perfected employs ultrasonics to break the oil into small droplets for burning. A pilot model ran for 5,000 hours without requiring any service, and burned as little as a quart of oil an hour at high efficiency.

The commercial version promises to be about one-third the size of conventional units and to reduce the number of moving parts required.

Electrostatic atomization also shows considerable promise as a means of preparing oil for burning. By simply charging the fuel with a high voltage, it is turned into a mist which will burn cleanly.

The device has no moving parts and may eventually prove to be the ultimate in low initial cost and ease of maintenance.

Stigger to Participate In Chemistry Seminar

Earl Stigger, 202 S. Reuter Drive, Arlington Heights, of Quaker Oats Chemical Co. has been appointed counseling chairman of the Chemical Industries Council's sixth annual Chemistry Career Seminar for junior high and high school students.

Over 2,000 science-minded teen-agers from Chicago and suburban public, private and parochial schools are expected to attend the Council's seminar on Saturday, Dec. 15, at the Congress Hotel in Chicago.

DESIGNED TO give students direct, first-hand information on the chemical industry, the seminar will feature person-to-person interviews with over 100 representatives from practically every job area in the industry. The seminar is free to all students.

In addition, leading Illinois chemical companies have provided a wide variety of displays and exhibits telling about the industry and the jobs for future scientists.

Specially prepared educational material from chemical companies throughout the country will be distributed.

EXHIBITS AND demonstrations from industry and educational institutions will be featured.

The career conference is one of the educational activities sponsored by the CIC. The prime purpose of the group is to give students and teachers information on careers in chemistry and science, thereby helping ease the current shortage of trained chemists in industry, government and education.

For further information regarding the seminar, students or teachers should contact Miss Kay Thiel, MIchigan 2-1102.

Schultz Elected To Board

Robert J. Schultz, 307 S. Kenilworth Ave., Mount Prospect, has been elected to the board of directors of the Electric Association of Chicago for a two-year term beginning Jan. 1, 1963.

Ralph Beaudin Named Radio Man of Year

Palatine resident Ralph Beaudin, 34, president of Radio Station WLS, Chicago, was named Radio Man of the Year Friday, Dec. 7, at the annual awards banquet of the American College of Radio Arts, Crafts, and Sciences held in the Grand Ballroom of the Conrad Hilton Hotel. Awards were presented recognizing outstanding contributions in the radio field.

Beaudin, who also serves as president of the Plum Grove Homeowners' Association, lives with his wife, Darlene, and their four children at 301 N. Elmwood Lane, Palatine.

RALPH BEAUDIN

BEAUDIN CAME to WLS when the American Broadcasting Co. bought the station in March, 1960.

A native Omahan, Beaudin started his business career at the Omaha World Herald newspaper selling advertising, after serving a total of five years in the Marine Corps. He was also employed as a salesman for two radio stations in Omaha before accepting the general managership of station WBNY in Buffalo, N.Y., and later the same position at KQV in Pittsburgh, Penn. Truelson Moved to Canada

Ralph W. Truelson of Wheeling has been named production manager of the new Culligan of Canada, Ltd. plant in Clarkson, Ontario, near Toronto. In his new position he will supervise the manufacture and assembly of Culligan water conditioning equipment in Canada.

RALPH W. TRUELSON

Truelson joined the research and development at Culligan's home office in Northbrook in January, 1956, where he handled the technical development of Culligan water conditioning equipment and testing of new products. He was made supervisor of Culligan's Testing Laboratory in October 1960, which position he has held until the present promotion. (BB

Q. Is a hostess supposed to wait until all her guests have finished eating before beginning to remove the plates from the table?

A. Usually, yes. However, if one of her guests is "painfully slow" in eating, it would be all right, in consideration of the other guests, for her to begin removing some of the plates from the table.

Harold F. Diegel Elected To Borg-Warner Position

The election of Harold F. Diegel as vice president of relations and administration has been announced by Judson S. Sayre, chairman of the Norge Division of Borg-Warner Corp. Diegel lives at 734 N. Braeburn Road, Inverness Countryside, Palatine.

In this new position, Diegel will be responsible for the overall administration of Norge relations with employees and plant communities and will be in charge of factory-owned distributor operations, effective Dec. 15.

DIEGEL WAS associated with Chrysler Corporation for nearly 33 years, and held a number of executive positions including those of corporate comptroller, chief accountant, and chief of the finance staff. He was the chairman of the Chrysler dealer financial relations committee which set rules and standards for operation of the nationwide dealer warranty and incentive program.

In one position with Chrysler, Diegel directed a staff of 400 people and exercised functional control of financial operations in 40 divisions and plants.

Another committee he headed was that of the standards and appraisal committee which reviewed performance of the Chrysler plant complex.

Before coming to Norge, Diegel was vice president and treasurer of the Elgin National Watch Co.

Laundromat Schedules Celebration

A three day celebration will highlight the grand opening of the East-does-it Laundromat in Westgate Park and Shop, Campbell at Wilke, Arlington Heights.

To help celebrate, owners Mr. and Mrs. William Hintz, will invite the first 100 customers on December 13, 14 and 15 to wash and dry their laundry free of charge.

IN ADDITION there will be gifts and refreshments.

The laundromat has 20 washers, 2 triple loaders and seven large fluff dryers. Shag rugs up to 9' by 12', blankets, comforters, spreads and sheets can be laundered to perfection in the equipment, report the Hintzs.

They also say there is always "plenty of hot, rain-soft water."

The laundromat is open from 7 a.m. until 11 p.m. daily except Sunday. Sunday hours are 8 a.m. until 7 p.m. (BB TWIST, STOMP OR CHA CHA CHA, this recreation room offers an ideal area for teenage entertaining. Complete with fireplace, television set and soda bar with chairs, the room includes an acoustical ceiling which will provide quiet for the rest of the home from the noise of active teenage parties. The giant record in the floor is created by using contrasting colors in vinyl flooring in sheet form. Durable vinyl floors in six-foot widths offer an ideal dance surface and their virtually seamless installation makes maintenance an easy matter with a damp mop. (BB

New Sleepy Hollow Model Features Four Bedrooms

A new ranch home featuring a four - bedroom plan is now open to visitors in Sleepy Hollow Manor, just west of Dundee.

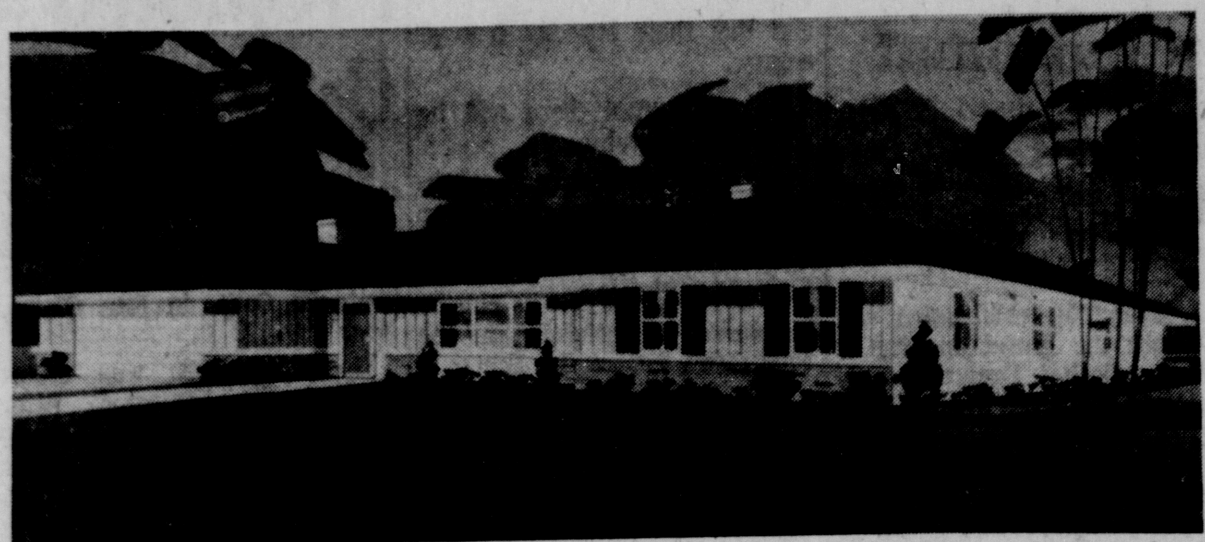
The 8-room, full-basement model — known as the "Pentagon"—is priced at $24,900 plus site. It is the latest of the several new ranch and split-level homes, ranging from $22,900 plus site, now being shown in Sleepy Hollow, on Route 72 one mile west of Route 31.

ANNOUNCING the opening of the new model, Floyd Falese—head of the developing firm and president of the Village of Sleepy Hollow — said: "Our homes are designed for the truly exceptional location we have here in Sleepy Hollow — with plenty of room, lots of healthy fresh air, and a real chance for relaxed, worthwhile living among friendly neighbors with the same community interests."

Immediately inside the front entry of the "Pentagon," a large guest closet is provided. Beyond an Early American divider lies the living room, over 26' long and 14' wide. This connects, in an open "el" arrangement, with the dining room.

Directly back from the front entrance, through a short corridor, is the kitchen and area for breakfast. Cabinets and appliances — including range, oven, refrigerator, dishwasher and garbage disposal—are in a step-saving U-shape. Just off the kitchen, with a separate entrance to the garage, is the family room, 19'8" x 12'1", with sliding glass doors to the rear patio area. Powder room is located between kitchen and the paneled family room.

Each of the four bedrooms has a large closet, with a big walk-in closet in the master bedroom. One of the two baths is private to the extra-large master bedroom; the other features a 5-ft. vanity and full-width mirror.



THE BIG, FULL-BASEMENT "Pentagon" is new ranch model in Sleepy Hollow, on Route 72 one mile west of Route 31, just west of Dundee. Priced at $24,900, it features four bedrooms, lots of space, convenient plan. (BB

NUMEROUS other features of the new model include an optional wood-burning fire-place—built-in china cabinet in the dining room—optional front porch—shuttered windows—walls and ceilings completely insulated—fingertip-controlled heat — complete weather-stripping — self-storing storms and screens — landscaping—and choice of decorating.

The "Pentagon" and other new models are open daily in Sleepy Hollow Manor from 10 a.m. till dark. All models are located in Sleepy Hollow, just west of Dundee, with entrance to the residential park on Route 72, one mile west of Route 31.

McDonald's Survey Says:

Small Car May Be On Way Out Here

The small car may be on the way out, reveals a study by the McDonald's chain of hamburger restaurants. Families are going back to bigger cars for sociability's sake.

Drive-ins like the McDonald's chain, which dots highways from coast-to-coast, helped do in the small car trend.

So did the population explosion, and the fact that America is a nation on wheels in more ways than just transportation.

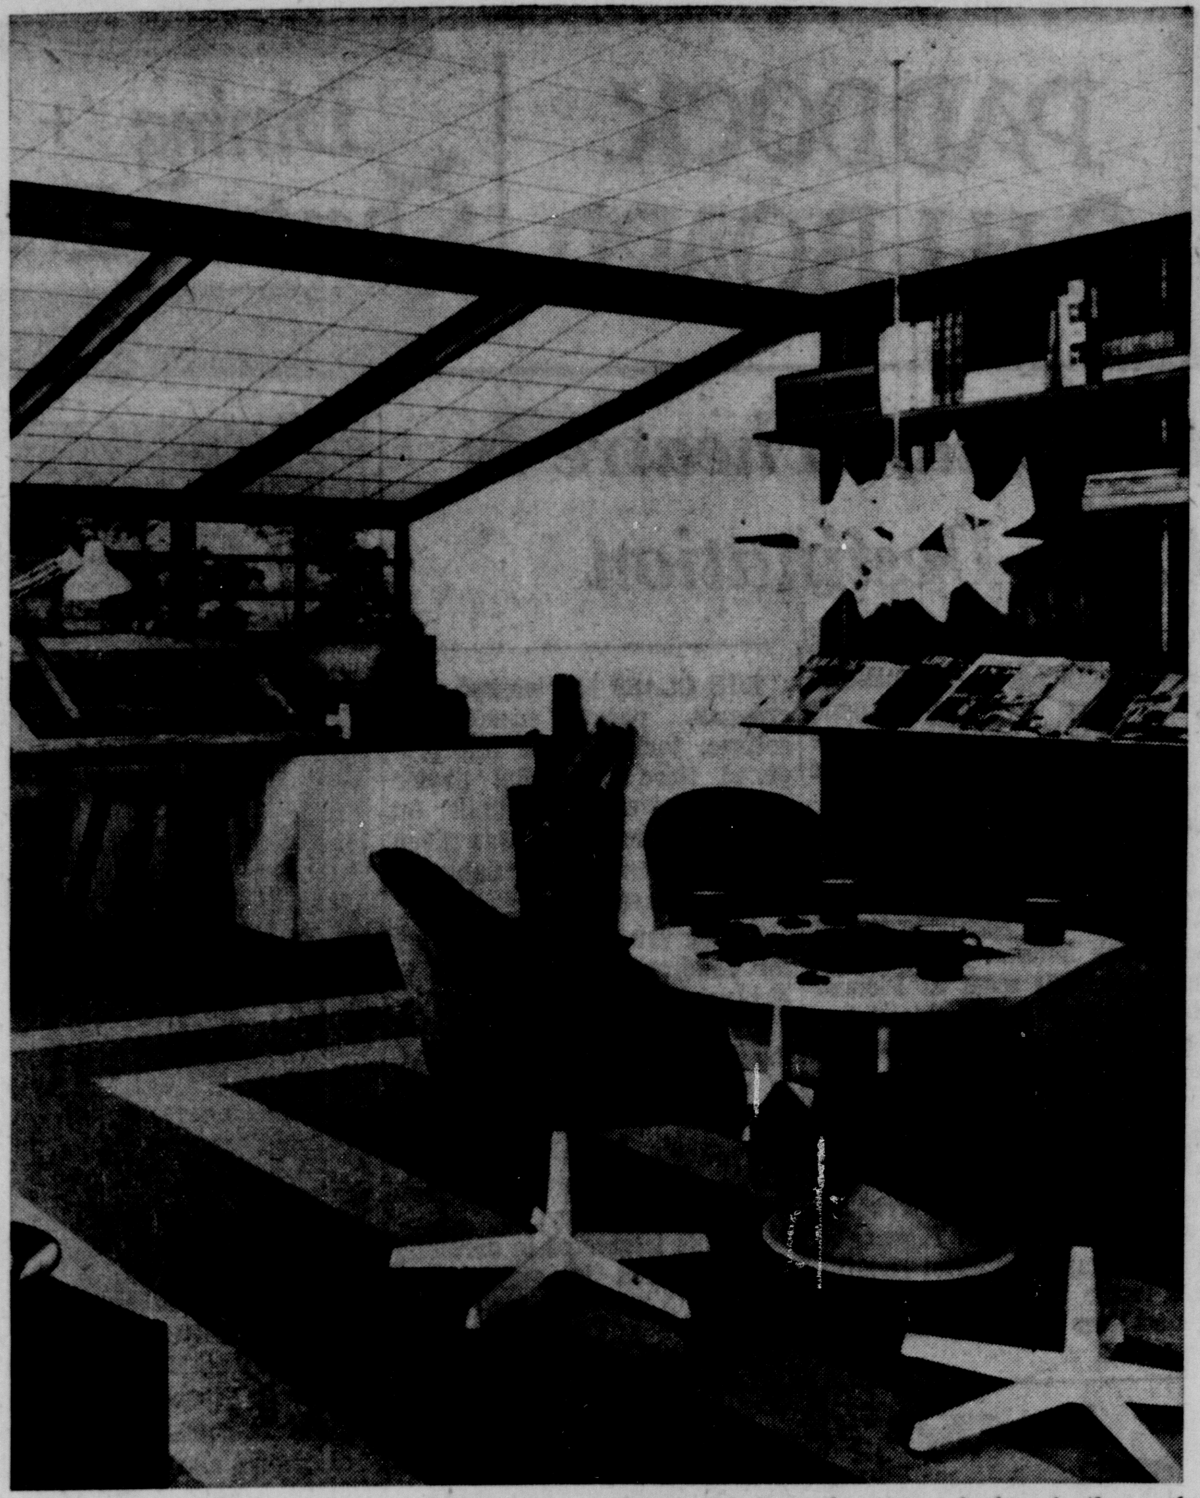
SURVEYING THE cars that flock to its 440 self-service carry-out restaurants scattered through 42 states, McDonald's found the cars are getting bigger than they were a year or two ago when the small car trend seemed to be at its peak.

McDonald's thinks its parking lots are good places to spot the end of the small car trend, because McDonald's itself is part of the reason cars are getting bigger again. McDonald's draws a family trade, and it's families who are turning back to bigger cars.

That's because the family car, in effect, has become the second living room—and dining room—and families are scorning cramped quarters in favor of cars with room enough for sprawling and eating, the McDonald's study finds.

SIGNIFICANTLY, most of the cars which come to McDonald's have four or five people in them. And the majority of the customers who line up at McDonald's self-service windows for hamburgers eat their burgers right there in their cars, rather than take them home.

The McDonald's study also found that the greatest enthusiasm for small cars today was as a second car in a two-car family—with the bigger auto serving as the family car. (BB



FOR A FAMILY in need of extra living space, an attached garage can be a distinct advantage. Most of the expensive structural work has already been done, so it's simply a matter of closing off the garage door, providing for adequate heating and lighting, and finishing off the interior. A good illustration of what can be done with garage space is shown above. This family room was once filled to the brim with rusty garden tools, worn out tires, discarded porch furniture, and assorted boxes of long forgotten junk. A thorough housecleaning and a lot of do-it-yourself ingenuity turned it into an ideal spot for hobbies, reading and entertaining. The room makes use of an attached storage shed at the rear which serves as a convenient study bay. The walls are finished in natural wood paneling and the floor is vinyl asbestos tile. A patterned cushiontone ceiling overhead helps keep noise to a minimum and lends an attractive decorative note to the interior.

Johnson Promoted By Firm

H. Dan Johnson, 1009 Pendleton Place, Mount Prospect, has been promoted to sales personnel director in the home office of the Allstate Insurance Companies in Skokie.

Johnson joined Allstate in 1958 as life, accident and sickness sales supervisor in the Milwaukee regional office. He served in the same capacity in the midwest zone office in Skokie prior to assuming his present position in the home office. He was associated with Guardian Life and the Equitable Life Assurance Society before joining Allstate.

Johnson was graduated from Oconomowoc, Wis., High School and the University of Wisconsin, where he received his law degree. He is a member of the Wisconsin Bar Association and th Sigma Chi and Phi Delta Phi fraternities. (BB

HINTS TO HOMEOWNERS

by James Fizzell, Associate Farm Advisor

ALERT HOMEOWNERS DIAL DAILY 392-3060

The recent furor caused by the publication of "The Silent Spring" has made most people acutely aware of the problem of improper use of insecticides. It is the careless use of the materials by persons who either don't care or don't know how they should be used, rather than the materials themselves, which are to be blamed. The abundance of America is ample proof as to the value of chemicals.

Rather than condemning these vital materials, let us condemn those who ignore all the established safety measures which have been painstakingly developed so that the materials can be used without hazard. Incidentaly, statistics show a preponderance of the accidents have been caused by uninformed persons not by professional agriculturalists.

There are many potentially hazardous devices present in our daily lives; fire and the family automobile to cite only a few. When an automobile strikes or runs down a child we do not say, "Let's get rid of cars," we say, "Let's get rid of the bad drivers."

IF YOU ARE a steady reader of this column, you know each time we recommend a spray or chemical treatment, we stress observing the label.

We believe the proper cure for the pesticide problem is education of the people who use the materials. All of our activities are designed to further this aim.

We in Extension also know full well that we will never be able to completely eliminate careless use of chemical materials. Because of this we continually search for other methods of controlling pests. One field which is most interesting is the use of diseases of insects themselves.

A LARGE number of their virus, bacterial, and fungus diseases are fatal to them, and entomologists in many countries have been working diligently to find disease types which could be used as practical control measures against economic insects

Although this type of control would seem to be the answer to the problem of noxious insects, by and large it has proven only moderately effective. Some of the virus diseases have been marvellous in controlling pine and spruce sawflies. Other disease organisms have proved less successful.

Some of them, such as the milky disease of the Japanese beetle, are extremely difficult and costly to culture and disseminate, and will maintain themselves in the field only if the population levels of their insect hosts are relatively high. Dr. John P. Kramer is our Illinois Natural History Survey Scientist making a continuous search for microbiological parasites of Illinois insects which have potentialities for use in insect control.

THE ONE PLANT disease which concerns everyone of us is Dutch elm disease. Dutch elm disease is a fungus, and is transmitted from tree to tree by either underground root grafts or by insects which have become infested with the disease organism while feeding on diseased trees.

Methods of protecting healthy elm trees which have underground root grafts with diseased trees are difficult to apply effectively. Effective control of the disease by killing the insect vector requires spray programs which can be injurious to some forms of wildlife.

The ideal control of the disease would be poisons which could be injected into the tree and which would kill the disease organisms without killing the tree. Dr. E. B. Himelick, Dr. Walter Hartstirn and Dr. R. D. Neeley, three of the Illinois Natural History Survey's experienced plant scientists, and Dr. L.L. English, one of the outstanding entomologists, have been testing two sets of these internal poisons, called systemics, in the Survey's tree plots in an effort to control diseases of several kinds of trees.

ONE SET OF systemics includes 32 organic compounds aimed at killing the fungus itself. A number of other systemics are aimed at killing the insects when they feed on the trees but before they can infect the tree with the disease organisms. The anti - disease compounds have shown no promise. One of the anti-insect systemics has shown some measure of disease control.

Unfortunately, however, this compound has ectremely adverse effects on the tree as well. The search for a practical systemic continues.

Goodman Theatre Is Class Destination

A trip to the Goodman Theatre at Chicago's Art Institute is in store for third through eighth grade children in the Saturday morning creative art class at Pioneer Park, Arlington Heights.

This is one of the art courses sponsored by the Countryside Art Center and has been taught by Aloise Zehner. Fifteen boys and girls will meet at Pioneer Park at 9:30 a. m. this Saturday, and will bring bag lunches for the trip to Chicago.

They will explore the Art Institute and then attend a performance of "The Blue Bird" by Maurice Maeterling. Presented by the Goodman Players at the Goodman Memorial Theatre, this is the first time in several generations this play has been produced.

THE CLASS has worked with craypas, paper construction collage, tempera and has produced third dimension papier mache figures and animals. An exhibit of their work was given for the parents at the Saturday morning class Dec. 8.

A new course in creative art for children will be offered in February and will be taught by Mary Bornarth, a graduate of the Art Institute and a nationally prominent artist. Mrs. Bornarth is a member of the Countryside Art Center and a stable gallery artist at the Countryside Gallery.

Parents interested in enrolling their children in art courses with the Countryside Art Center, should call Mrs. Fran Shillington, Palatine, at CL 3-9521.

Auto Mishap Avoided

Pranksters Leave Moose in Street

SPRINGFIELD, ILL. (UPI) — Leo Drendel "nearly drove the car right through the garage" when he saw a moose in his front yard here Monday.

Drendel was taking his family to church. He swung his head around as he started to back his car out of his garage, and then he saw it — a full size stuffed moose, leaning against a street sign in his front yard.

"It scared the daylights out of me," said Drendel. "I didn't know what to think."

BUT DRENDEL thinks he knows who to blame for the stunt. He figures the moose was place there as a prank by "The Fookarwi" — A group of Springfield hunters who go to Canada each year to hunt.

On one such expedition, two moose tried to crawl into a boat from which Drendel and his companions were shooting. Drendel said the hunters had to shoot the moose to halt them.

Drendel has decided to leave the moose where it is until the culprits claim it.

"I've got a real good trick to play back," he said. (B8

Film Breaks Records at Golf-Mill

Climaxing a record breaking engagement, "West Side Story" enters its fifth and last week at the Golf Mill Theatre.

The Academy Award winning film, playing the theatre as an exclusive northwest suburban attraction, is shown at four performances daily.

STARTING next Friday, Dec. 21, the theatre will open with "The Manchurian Candidate" starring Frank Sinatra, Janet Leigh and Laurence Harvey.

As a special treat for the children, and as an added attraction to "The Manchurian Candidate," the Golf Mill will present a Walt Disney cartoon featurette, "Paul Bunyan" each day at the matinee only. (Bill

Art Film Planned At Center's Meet

A full color interpretive art film of "The Story of the Nutcracker" and a film strip of Edgar Allen Poe's "The Fall of the House of Usher," both featuring original art by John M. Cadel, will be presented on the monthly program of The Suburban Fine Arts Center, 185 Skokie Valley Road, Highland Park, this Friday at 8:30 p.m.

Cadel, noted artist and faculty member of the School of the Art Institute of Chicago, and the Suburban Fine Arts Center, will be present to discuss his works and the form of interpretive art films. His artwork from the films will also be on exhibit.

Another exhibit of original paintings, by noted Chicago artist Lucile Leighton, will follow the film showings.

MRS. LEIGHTON is well-known in her many roles as painter, teacher of art and lecturer on art and travel. She has exhibited in leading museums and was nominated as New Talent in U.S.A., 1956, by Art in America Magazine. Her Suburban Fine Arts Center exhibit will take place from Dec. 9 thru Jan. 1.

"The Story of the Nutcracker," one of the world's most beloved legends, will feature the enchanting music of Tschaikovsky and dramatic narration.

The Christmas Eve adventure of Little Clara, whose toy nutcracker changed into a handsome prince and introduced her to the wonders of the Kingdom of Sweets, will delight audiences of all ages.

THE PUBLIC is invited to attend the program; refreshments will be served.

It is another in a series of by The Suburban Fine Arts Center, a non-profit community educational foundation. (Bill

Q. When you have entertained an out-of-town guest and have received a "bread-and-butter" letter of thanks from her, is it necessary to reply to this letter?

A. This would be far better than ignoring the letter. Your guest will certainly appreciate learning that you, too, enjoyed her visit, and that you are looking forward to seeing her again.

Theatre to Open At Old Orchard

Chicago's newest theatre, the Country Club Theatre in the Old Orchard Country Club, Prospect Heights, will open New Year's Eve with its first production, Noel Coward's popular comedy, "Private Lives."

The theatre's resident equity company will appear in light comedies produced and directed by Ted Liss, known in Chicago theatre circles for the past 32 years.

THE COUNTRY Club theatre will have an intimate 250 seating capacity around a three-quarter stage. It is located on the lower level of the Old Orchard Country Club which opened in June. A public dining room and cocktail lounge are upstairs of the theatre.

Curtain time will be at 8:30 p.m. each evening with tickets moderately priced. There will be a matinee each Wednesday, but no performance Monday nights. All seats are reserved.

"Private Lives" is scheduled for a three-week run. (Bill

Sheriff Shows Saddle Savvy; Stymies Snow

PONTIAC, MICH., (UPI) — Oakland County Deputy Sheriff Mendon Wescott doesn't let a little thing like snow keep him from his job.

There was too much snow for his car so he saddled his horse.

He rode the horse to the highway—two miles away—left the horse with a friend—and then hitchhiked the remaining eight miles to Pontiac and work. He made it on time too. (A14

'See How They Run'

Hospital Employes in Production of Comedy

The doctors and staff of the Northwest Community Hospital, Arlington Heights, will present Philip King's comedy, "See How They Run," at Cutting Hall in the Palatine Township High School Jan. 18, 19, 25 and 26 at 8:30 p.m. A single matinee will be given Sunday, Jan. 20 at 2:30 p.m.

HELEN BODELSON

Feminine lead in the show will be Betty Howell, wife of Dr. Richard Howell. Mrs. Howell has appeared on the Northwestern University stage as a vocalist. In real life she is the mother of eight children.

Joseph Okulanis, best known for his roles in "Caine Mutiny" and "Cave Dwellers," plays the male lead, Clive Winton.

THE PLOT OF the farce features a pair of old friends, an American actor, now an air force lieutenant stationed in England, and an actress, presently the pert wife of a vicar. The results of a return to the vicarage by the two, following an innocent date, set the stage for three acts of witty dialogue and comedy action.

Supporting roles are filled by Dr. Bernard Gordon, the hospital's anesthesiologist, who is cast as Rev. Lionel Toop, the bewildered husband. Dr. Gordon backs his performance with experience gained in the John Marshall High School drama society and the College of Jewish Studies student playmakers group.

Wilma Dubs, operating room supervisor, plays Miss Skillon, a tea-totalling spinster who gets tipsy from drinking cooking sherry.

PEGGY LYNCH appears as Ida, the saucy maid who can be both lovable and nasty. Peggy, a secretary in the cast room, three years ago organized a dramatic group in Idlewood which is still active.

Dr. Richard Treanor, an Arlington Heights internist, portrays the poor-bewildered Bishop of Lax who tries hard to keep his composure as lunacy appears to overtake the vicarage. Dr. Treanor appeared in several plays while attending Schurz High School.

Dr. Louis Leone, a Mount Prospect obstetrician and gynecologist, will be seen as Rev. Arthur Humphrey, a meek and mild visiting minister who becomes baffled by having a routine visit changed into a wild chain of events.

DR. JUSTIN Fleischmann of Palatine plays an escaped Communist prisoner who spends much of his time on stage waving and shooting a pistol.

Edwin Schmidt, chief X-ray technician at the hospital, takes on the role of an air force sergeant in pursuit of the prisoner.

Helen Bodelson, who directs the play, has been active in the Palatine Players for several years. It was Mrs. Bodelson who fostered the idea of the play to raise funds for the hospital's expansion program.

Jean Bonesteel is designated as assistant director and Wilma Dubs has accepted the dual responsibility of actress and production assistant.

Tickets will soon be available from all Northwest Community Hospital personnel. (Bill

'WAY BACK WHEN'

Compiled by Mrs. G. Rex Volz Phone CLearbrook 5-9078

60 Years Ago—Dec. 6, 1902.

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS: Council proceedings: Trustee Batterman reported that the pumps had been placed on foundation and as soon as the boilers arrived both will be set and attached.

On motion of Trustee Volz the Board voted to accept the offer of the Cleveland Vapor Light Co. to install 126 of their gas burners with mantels complete at $2.25 each and it is probable that a week hence all our streets will be brightly lighted by the new burners.

(Note: Wm. Legal, lamplighter paid $40.00 monthly for lighting street lamps)

Notice: I will give my customers 5 per cent discount on all sales during December. This will make a handsome Christmas Present. F. Redeker, Sr., General Store.

Catharine Barbara Kuhn born at Judgeheim, Hess-Darmstadt, Germany, Aug. 16, 1846, came to America with her parents who settled near Wheeling in 1852. She was married to Christian Volz, Apr. 18, 1866, and they located in Arlington Heights in 1857. She was the mother of Albert F., Arthur G., and George K. Volz, who survive her, and who have become prominent citizens.

The first blizzard and snow storm this season came Dec. 2. Six inches of snow fell but it quickly melted away and only served to spoil our good roads.

Editorial "Who said 'To the victors belong the spoils?' Those Democrats who were hoping for a job as deputy sheriff or baliff may as well hang up their diffles, as the experienced Republican incumbents have been reappointed and put up new bonds. What is the use of being a Democrat, anyway?

SCHAUMBURG: A fake medicine show in town this week. Did anybody get soaked?

MOUNT PROSPECT: The R. R. Co. appreciates the business they get at Mount Prospect and are laying new concrete platforms on both sides of the tracks.

John Meyn, our popular blacksmith, is rushed with work. Monday he was pounding iron so fast that he raised his hammer too high and struck himself in the face; as a result he goes around with a black eye.

Louis Hertel, Sr. is helping Herman Schimming move to the Mrs. C. Busse house recently vacated by Henry Rodewalt who moved in after John Hagenow so quick that the house didn't have time to cool off.

50 Years Ago—Dec. 6, 1912

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS: Gas Fixtures for Sale Cheap. Having installed electric lights in the Herald office and at our residence, we offer our gas fixtures for sale at a special bargain. Gas is far superior to oil for light and heat. H. C. Paddock, Owner.

Come to the Big Show: Gracy and Kelling, at Kelling's Hall, (NW Hy at Evergreen) on Thursday, Dec. 5—5000' film, "The Squaw Man", "White Fawn", "A New Cure for Divorce", "Love's Four Stone Walls", and "The Light of the Way", Good singing. Good Music. Two shows every Thursday night, 7:00 and 8:30. Admission 10 and 15 cents.

This weather knocks the bottom out of business and the roads, but is easy on fuel and seems to be bucking the coal trust.

It is against village ordinances to deposit ashes or rubbish in the public streets. All parties are hereby notified to stop this practice under penalty of prosecution and fines for continuing the offense after this notice. Christ Niemeyer, Street Commissioner.

Joseph Lindner, the new miller, is making good flour. Farmers are coming many miles to get their wheat and feed grinding done here. They say he does a finer job than most millers. Many satisfied customers tell their neighbors and Mr. Lindner's trade is increasing. Try a sack of my flour and have some extra good bread. Council proceedings: Lamplighter's salary is now $52.50 per month. Street Commissioner, Chris Niemeyer gets $50.00; Henry Kolling, Supt Waterworks, $60.00, and Joseph Horcher, Night Police, $65.00. Night police Horcher reported two arrests during November.

Roy Harris tendered his resignation as lamplighter.

ELK GROVE: Hinrich Mueller was born in Elk Grove, Feb. 22, 1852, and died after a brief illness, Nov. 24, 1912, aged 60 years. Mr. Meuller was united in holy wedlock to Friederika Senne, Oct. 19, 1876; to them were born two daughters, one of whom has gone before, as we hope, to greet her father at the heavenly shore. He was a member of St. John's Evangelical church. He leaves to mourn his departure, his sorrowing life's companion, one daughter, one son-in-law, a brother, a sister, and three grandchildren. Rev. Theo. F. Bierbaum officiated, at the funeral from the German Evangelical church, Wed. Nov. 27. Burial at St. John's cemetary.

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS: Heights Lutheran Choir Ladies have a Big Night: Talk has not ceased about the "big night" Nov. 28 that was enjoyed at the home of Miss Alma Scharringhausen, followed by a progressive program of eats at the homes of 8 members. When it was announced that a "mock wedding" would take place, a marriage cast was quickly arranged, and all the old garrets were ramshakled to find the oldest wedding clothes that could be begged, borrowed or stolen. Such things as the obsolete bustle of the 80's, and gowns of the early 70's, gave the bride and her attendants just that sedate dignity that is so desired for such a momentous occasion. The young ladies who were asked to take the part of the groom and the others were not to be outdone and appeared in swallow tale coats, stove pipe hats and other formal clothes that could be silently abstracted from the wardrobes of brothers and others. The ceremony was held at the home of Miss Alma Scharringhausen: Food, fruit cocktail at Emma Kehe's; bean salad at Zela Tesch's; Selma Troyke, cream chicken, mashed potatoes, peas, carrots, buns; Della Scharringhausen, jello, cookies, coffee: Minnie Clausing, wedding cake, ice cream, favor, and at Julia and Edna Geffert's, candy and nuts; bonvoyage and good luck, Mrs. Walter Karsten's. The wedding cast: Rose Stier, bride: Della Scharringhausen, groom: Edna Geffert, Maid of Honor: Flower girl, Alma Scharringhausen; Ringbearer, Selma Troyke; Bride's Father, Zelda Tesch; Bridesmaids, Minnie Clausing, Minnie Schroeder, Cora Weide, Mrs. Walter Karsten, Laura Long; Minister, Julia Geffert.

Mr. Emil Sieburg is having an ammonia refrigerator installed under his market.

The suit or overcoat raffle, which was held by the Athletic Club, proved the winner to be no other than a popular citizen of Arlington Heights, namely Mr. George Klehm. The club wishes to thank the public who attended their bunco parties and promises there will be more in the future.

Anton Hesch is opening a new bakery in the Korton building, corner Vail and Campbell Sts., where you will find anything in modern bakery goods. Come in and give me a trial.

Council proceedings: Hy. Kolling, Supt. Water Wks., salary $62.50; Henry Horstman, Street Commissioner, $45.00. Lighting Committee reported three lights on Haddow ave. installed. On motion committee was empowered to purchase 6 red glass danger signs for ends of stub streets.

Public Grounds and Building Committee reported Village Hall redecorated.

Treasurer's report showed a balance of $175.74.

On motion meeting adjourned until Tuesday evening, for purpose of advertising for bids for chassis to mount hook and ladders on for Fire Dept., A. L. McElhose, Clerk.

BENSENVILLE: Geo. E. Franzen is down in Arkansas hunting ducks.

The new addition to the village hall is complete and makes a nice improvement.

Don't forget the Royal Neighbor's Hard Times dance given Saturday, Dec. 9. Come all dolled up in your overalls and ginghams.

MOUNT PROSPECT: More good news: The Texas Oil Co. sent a representative of their's to ask the opinion of the Village board about constructing a gasoline and oil branch to be located on the Wille property bounded by Elmhurst road on the west, the Northwest Highway on the south, and Central road on the north. All members of the board were greatly pleased with the new improvement and hoped them speedy progress.

The Firemen, their sweethearts, wives and friends, will go to a duck dinner at the Elk Inn as we go to press. A good dinner, a good time is what we wish you all, even if ye reporter is out of it.

There was not a fire Monday night—just the Fire Dept. boys going thru their regular drills.

Even the manufacturers of fire hydrants have heard of Mount Prospect's progressiveism and submitted two makes of hydrants for the village board's consideration Tuesday night. (A14

You and Your Problems

What to Do With Rude, Messy Child

by DR. GERARD G. NEUMAN

Dear Dr. Neuman,

I'm getting tired of hearing the same pat answers to every problem that comes up with children. It seems that anything that a child does can be excused because he's "at that stage."

I'm probably old fashioned, but I think that children should be taught right, right from the beginning. Messiness, rudeness and irresponsibility are never right. After all, the child of today is the adult of tomorrow. If we don't train them properly when they're small, how will they ever learn?

Mrs. Y.

There are no pat answers to questions of rearing children, because there are different viewpoints and, therefore, different ways of dealing with the same problems. However, there may be value in comparing the so called "old-fashioned" method with the more modern approach.

I think that the greatest change that has taken place in our thinking is the recognition that children are not adults—more specifically — not even miniature adults. As we have learned more about what children are really like, we have made basic changes in our way of caring for them at home, educating them in school, and helping them prepare for the future.

IF CHILDREN are only seen as miniature adults, then the only goal for childhood would be to quickly push into full-fledged adulthood. However, as we have learned more fully about what the childhood experience means, we have been able to enrich the goals that we have for our children. Although we still work toward helping children grow into mature, responsible adults, we also want our children to have a full and happy childhood.

This is in line with our whole emphasis on wanting each individual to achieve and enjoy life to his fullest potential. The two-year-old discovering the joys of mud and water should have his time of happy messing around as he learns about manipulating materials. The seven-year-old who has successfully completed the first scary step of leaving mother and entering school can be forgiven for "throwing his weight around" as he feels his own power and strength as an individual. Judged by adult standards, his behavior may be "rude," but if we can identify with him, we can understand and enjoy his feeling of relief and triumph at this major achievement of childhood.

HOWEVER, THE twin goals of childhood are not unrelated. The child who has been free to be a two-year-old and a four-year-old and a six-year-old to the hilt, can also become the 20-year-old and the 30-year-old who is able to be fully an adult, taking on the responsibilities that these years bring, but also able to live a broader and richer life with fuller enjoyment.

Not only the goals for childhood have changed. We have also made changes in our methods of teaching as we have discovered more about how learning takes place.

Rule and order can be taught by force, but using force creates new problems. Children learn most by imitating their elders, and, where the relationship is good, the child will naturally incorporate the same standards and values that are so important to the parents.

Arteriosclerosis Mysterious Disease

Hardening of the arteries, or arteriosclerosis, is one of the oldest diseases known to man. It's also one of the most mysterious, for despite many years of intensive research, no proved method of cure has been uncovtred.

Consequently, more than 500,000 Americans will die from it this year.

ARTERIOSCLEROSIS is not an inevitable result of old age. Quite the contrary. It usually attacks the arteries of youngsters, with the condition growing progressively worse with age.

Normally the arteries—or canals by which the blood travels to the various organs, muscles and bones—are flexible and supple, allowing blood to flow freely throughout the body. So long as the amount of blood received by a given organ is adequate for its nutrition, the body functions normally.

However, arteriosclerosis disrupts this process by hardening and thickening the artery wall, thereby impeding the natural flow of blood. Little by little, less blood flows through it and the organ being nourished by this blood begins to suffer.

THOSE AREAS most often affected by this lack of proper nourishment include: the brain, thus leading to possible stroke or apoplexy; the heart, leading to a "heart attack;" the kidneys, leading to a form of Bright's Disease; and the limbs, bringing on gangrene.

Some of the factors believed to play a significant part in the production of arteriosclerosis are heredity, hypertension, stress, diet and lack of sufficient exercise.

The disease — three times more prevalent among men than women — also shows a much higher rate of incidence among the obese.

THE PICTURE is not entirely bleak, however. Work in the field of arteriosclerosis is progressing rapidly, building the solid foundation of knowledge necessary for ultimate solution of the many problems.

The next few years will doubtless see a rash of suggested preventives and treatments for arteriosclerosis. In the meantime, certain common sense rules are advisable which can be safely and effectively used in the prevention of this disease:

1. If obese, lose weight.
2. Avoid excessive use of tobacco, especially cigarettes.
3. Moderate, but regular exercise, especially walking.
4. Reduce the proportion of solid animal fats to the liquid vegetable fats and reduce the total quantity of both. A balanced diet is important and extremes of all sorts should be avoided.
5. Practice moderation in all things, so as to minimize mental and emotional stress.
6. See your family doctor for regular medical checkups.
7. Accept life's challenges, come to terms with the inevitable and live as though you will live forever and in the spirit you will.

by JOAN LORENSON

Life was a matter of charading for the first eight months as the American family tried to adopt to living in a small French village 30 minutes outside Paris.

Captain Jack Robertson, chief pilot for Trans World Airlines, and his wife and three sons had been transferred from Detroit to Paris where Robertson heed the airline's office. None of the family spoke French and the French language records they hastily purchased prior to leaving the States did little good, commented Jack and Phyllis Robertson in their Bloomingdale home as they recalled their stay in France.

THE ROBERTSONS moved in October to Bloomingdale, a small town in DuPage County (south of Hoffman Estates) to Paris where Robertson headred to O'Hare.

The first eight months of living in Neauphle Le Chateau peopled by 2,000 French inhabitants and them as lone American family were difficult, admits Mrs. Robertson. The Robertsons found the French people reserved — even women waiting in line in the market to buy meat, greet friends but hold no confabs —and the language was a definite barrier.

The boys, John, now 10; Donold, 8, and Jim, 7 were entered in the village school. They were first to adapt as they fitted in the 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. school routine where quietness and neatness was stressed.

ROBERTSON had little difficulty in making friends through his work. When his wife became acquainted with a teacher and another villager, the ripples in her life smoothed. A dinner invitation from a French village couple was the equivalent of a legion of merit to the family who knew they finally were accepted.

The French maid and her son who lived with the family also assisted in acclimating the Robertsons. The first day she pantomimed that they were expected to tip the movers and also offer them wine. "We even learned to eat our salad after dinner and enjoy it," laughed Mrs. Robertson, who suggested they changed more than the middle-aged Frenchwoman.

The Robertsons found wine and bread inexpensive but a small roasting chicken costly. pound," cited Mrs. Robertson, who added she made a weekly trip to Paris to shop in a private commissary for Americans. She bought milk there since the children disliked the taste of French milk and its pasteurization was questionable. At the commissary items of which Americans are particularly fond — popcorn, cake mixes, and peanut butter — could be bought.

EACH FRENCH family receives $15 allowance for each child so a mother could feed her family with this if necessary, substituting eggs and cheese for meat, Mrs. Robertson mentioned.

As a result of their two and one half years in France, Mrs. Robertson learned to prepare French cuisine. She attended a cooking school. "French cooking is wonderful," acknowledged the petite wife and mother, "but it takes patience and all day to prepare."

Paris is a mecca for women's and children's clothes. "The boys are wearing pants I got them in Paris though they have requested American corduroys," commented Mrs. Robertson, who added French clothes are more durable. "When they grow out of these I am going to get some more." Fortunately for the Robertsons, TWA recently inaugurated a non-stop jet flight from Chicago to Paris, meaning they can keep contact with Parisian friends and make an occasional shopping expedition.

MRS. ROBERTSON'S wanderings in Paris produced several paintings which are hanging in the ranch home in Bloomingdale. Mrs. Robertson scouted out some copper kettles in the Paris Flea Market and "antiquing" produced some valuable finds. Possessions in their home reflect the family's stay in France and their travel in Europe and the Middle East. A marble top coffee table comes from Cairo; lacquered delicately painted chest from Hong Kong, candlestick holders from Thailand; silver candlesticks and a marble top old desk from France.

The gregarious couple found people of France generally were friendly toward Americans, indicating appreciation of this country's help to France after World War II. In contrast, it is the British toward whom they are cool.

Robertson as a dynamic American used to getting things done, found the average Frenchman uninterested in staying beyond official working hours if he had a problem needing finishing —no matter how much he were paid. A quick lunch break was as impossible as a snowflake on a summer day. "You wait to place your order; you wait to be served each course; you wait to get your check; it's a two hour affair," ruefully remembered Robertson. The airline captain admitted Americans who live more hurried lives get frustrated at this leisurely attitude. A lesser percentage of Frenchmen are drivers or go-getters, he pointed out.

"THE FRENCH of all classes place extreme importance on their 'holidays' which come in the summer especially August when everyone deserts Paris," described the Robertsons. "And August is the only time it is a pleasure to drive in Paris; otherwise it is nightmarish," added the head-of-the-household. Like Americans, the French take to camping out.

No regret was lost on leaving the telephone system and the French clerk attitude to customers, said Mrs. Robertson. "If you wanted to buy something and someone else was buying, four clerks managed to flutter around one customer, leaving you waiting it seemed," she reminisced. The French telephone system bred irritation.

In their little French village the telephone operator could not speak a word of English. To add to this, telephone operators are not nearly as helpful as the Bell System's. "I was fine with telephone numbers up to 10 but it was the higher numbers that frustrated me," exclaimed Mrs Robertson as she vividly recalled her predicament. "Jack's office was 1083 but you couldn't say un-zero-huit-trois, you had to say it as ten-eighty-three which was harder with my limited French. The whole thing so thwarted me one day I spilled my cup of coffee."

IN ANSWER to an inevitable question of what he thought about French women, Captain Robertson thoughtfully summed up, "Frenchwomen are more concerned with their appearance and cultivate this trait of appearing attractive to a man. Their physical beauty is not greater but they lend this impression because of the meticulousness of their care." Chimed in his wife, "Even little girls will wear white gloves on the street and be attired in frilly dresses."

The French man is head of his household and is a more authoritarian figure "though women learn to work around him much more than an American wife would," explained this charming suburbanite.

The Robertsons expressed pleasure in being Stateside again, commenting they appreciated their country more for having been abroad. As parents they prefer American schooling for their sons, pointing out the French system emphasizes memorization and ignores athletics or social endeavors. Mrs. Robertson added a qualification that she felt European schooling for girls was more desirable. "Little girls in France are charming young ladies," she noted. "There are almost no tomboys," summarized Robertson.

ROBERTSON cheered one French idea which was that boys went to school on Saturday but had Thursday off. "They have haircuts and take care of other things on Thursday. Saturday is planned as a day parents can be together to do things."

Now in a mental pocket of memory each of the Robertsons has tucked a particular high light of his stay away from the States.

TWA CAPTAIN JACK Robetson and his wife Phyllis of Bloomingdale smilingly discuss problems of interior decoration in their home which shows the evidence of their traveling. Chest is from Hong Kong and the candlesticks are from Thailand. Two rugs also testify to the African leg of their traveling.

ARRANGING COPPER bowls and watering can be found in the Flea Market in Paris, France, Mrs. Jack Robertson, 279 Goodrich Terrace, Bloomingdale, remembers some highlights of her family's 2½ years in a small village outside Paris. In the upper left is a hanging light fixture which has stones imbedded in brass cris-cross which came from Bangkok.

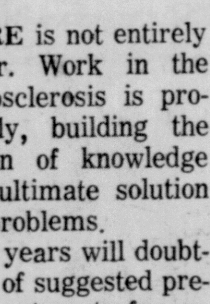
The Case of a Paper Bag



MARY

A paper bag is for throwing things into. This is a family adage and don't forget. We nurture our adages and nothing, but nothing stands in our way of keeping all adages true. You see an open paper bag, you throw things into it and then you throw it in the garbage. But, the bag must be standing on the floor. That's a rule.

Not long ago, I made a trip to the bakery and bought three loaves of bread and some other little goodies. I made a mistake and did not remove the bread from the paper bag immediately. Perhaps I was derelict in my duty but sometimes things come up. Later on I wanted to make a sandwich which I proceeded to do secure in the knowledge that I was well supplied with the staff of life. No bread. I question each witness with all the stealth and cleverness of a Perry Mason. No one had anything to do with my bread.

Shifting from Perry Mason to the detective role of Paul Drake, I went out and scrounged around in the garbage can. I just can't accept things without a fight. I don't like messing with garbage either. Sure enough, there were my three loaves of bread and goodies. And whichever one got neat had added the crowning blow of jumping on the sack to make more room for more garbage.

Somehow I have lost by Christmas card address book. This isn't the first thing I have lost but it is sort of vital. But, as luck would have it, I have all of last year's Christmas cards. Dear Father asked me to save them so he could look at them so I stored them in a paper sack. In a closet. Well, I felt that all was not lost because I could compile a new list by the simple experient of going through last year's cards.

I dragged them out the other day and made a sad mistake. I put them on the floor. Came time to make my new list and hope to heaven I could get the addresses from phone books and friends, I was obliged to dig the cards out from under quite a nice drift of cigarette ashes, apple cores, soup cans, grapefruit rinds and an old steak bone.

Donning rubber gloves, I proceeded with the task at hand. And around her I watch the paper sack department like a hawk.

Christmas Meeting Tonight for AAUW

Christmas Meeting 2-36 bold

Women from the Paddock area who are members of the northwest suburban branch of the American Association of University Women will attend the group's Christmas meeting tonight, Dec. 13, in Franklin School, 2501 Manor Lane, Park Ridge.

The program, "Christmas in Other Lands," will be presented by the Status of Women committee under direction of Mrs. G. W. Hrbek of Elk Grove. Christmas in other lands will be portrayed in colorful costumes from a collection owned by Mrs. Earl Beling of Rockford, mother of Mrs. Charles Jenks of Arlington Heights.

BRANCH members will model the costumes, which have been accumulated by Mrs. Beling during visits to each country. Her collection totals 50.

Christmas music typical of various countries will be provided by the AAUW Chorus. Local members of the chorus include Mrs. J. J. Atkinson, Mrs. T. M. Bulgers, Mrs. R. C. Cooper and Mrs. R. E. Reedy, all of Mount Prospect.

MEMBERS OF the Book Review and International Relations study groups of the branch board will hostess at the Chicago Hospitality Center for foreign students on Dec. 24. Refreshments will be served from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. This is the second year that the local branch has participated in this project. Husbands of members and college students are encouraged to visit the center.

Women with degrees from a college or university which meets AAUW standards may apply for membership in the local branch by calling Mrs. G. W. Dahl, 824-4245. (S

Pat Hess Becomes Bride Of Colorado Man Nov. 21

Following their wedding in Boulder, Colo. and a honeymoon at Aspen, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond K. Isernhagen are residing in Boulder where Mr. Isernhagen is doing graduate work at the University of Colorado and his bride is employed as a secretary for Transformer-Electronics Co. The bride is the former Patricia Ann Hess, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grove Hess, 15 S. Reuter Drive, Arlington Heights.

The wedding took place Nov. 21 in Trinity Lutheran Church and was followed by a reception in the Holiday Inn, Boulder. Rev. Jack W. Lundin officiated at the 8:30 p.m. service amid a setting of fall baskets of bronze, yellow and orange mums.

FOR HER wedding the bride chose a gown of white peau with bodice of peau d'ange lace fashioned with high rounded neckline and long, fitted sleeves. The soft, dome-shaped skirt was street-length and her veil of pure, silk illusion fell to her shoulders from a tiara of alencon lace. She carried white orchids and was given in marriage by her father.

Serving as attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Al Bartlett of Nederland, Colo. Mrs. Bartlett's dress was of green faille and her flowers were bronze mums.

Ushers were Kenneth Vogel of Arvada, Colo. and Stan Lampe of Ft. Morgan, Colo.

MRS. HESS chose a green and beige wool sheath while the groom's mother chose a brown lace sheath. Both complemented their ensembles with cypripedium orchid corsages.

The new Mrs. Isernhagen was graduated from Moser Secretarial School, Chicago, and the groom from the University of Colorado. (S

Arlington Clubwomen Help Brighten Yule for Others

Many committees and groups of Arlington Heights Woman's Club are at work to make Christmas a bit brighter for those less privileged.

The Public Health, Mental Health and Welfare Committee, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Robert E. Meyers, have been making wind bonnets of net, sequins and ribbons. These gay, colorful bonnets will be given to patients in Davidson Cottage and Cl North Ward at Elgin State Hospital at a Christmas party arranged by this group.

As in previous years, the Veterans' Service Committee has again decorated the Service Center at the Nike Base for the Christmas Party and Dance. The chairman, Mrs. Thomas P. Johnson Jr. was assisted by 20 members who donated their time at this busy season to help in this project. Many club members also donated cakes and cookies to make the party a success.

THE GENEROSITY of members in the donation of money at a recent meeting of the club will enable the Indian Affairs Committee, and chairman, Mrs. Foster F. Pedersen to spread cheer at the Indian Center in Chicago and also enable the Chairman of Park Ridge School for Girls, Mrs. Sam Cullison Jr. to help brighten Christmas at the school.

At the meeting Mrs. Z. R. Rogozinski, president, gave a report on the 71st annual convention of the General Federation Women's Clubs in Washington D.C. She outlined briefly the aims and purposes of the Federation for the year and quoted the president, Mrs. Dexter O. Arnold's theme, "To strengthen the arm of Liberty."

Mrs. Rogozinski served as delegate from Arlington Heights Woman's Club. (S

Mexican Cuisine: Tasteful Treat

Fine Foods Offer Dining Surprises

The intricate, infinitely varied, and always taste-thrilling Mexican cuisine has evolved through the centuries in a blend of native Indian, Spanish, and international influences.

As early as the year 1525, places offering food and lodging to the public had been established in Mexico. This country was, in fact, the first on the Western Hemisphere mainland to issue regulations for the restaurant business.

The cuisine of the newly arrived Spaniards along with the wide variety of pre-Hispanic dishes formed the basis for the richly assorted Mexican menu of which the Latin nation is so proud today.

NATIVE eating habits developed around the basic food crop, corn. Systematic cultivation of this grain ended the aborigenes' nomadic life and tied them to the soil in their earliest settlements. Corn is the main ingredient of the tortilla, the native bread, which is a kind of flat, round pancake, about five to six inches in diameter, and quite thin. It is sometimes made in smaller sizes, and thus may be used in recipes for special dishes. It serves also as a wrapping for fillings, or a times as an edible spoon into which are scooped any of an endless array of foods.

Mexican cuisine dates back to the developement of the Mayan civilization, which bloomed brightest between A.D. 300 and 900. Basically, classical Mexican food has remained unchanged.

Mexicans understand rice as well as the Chinese do. They fry it first in fat, then cook it in water. This keeps each grain of rice as separate from its neighbor as two pretty ladies who find themselves wearing identical dresses at a ball. In Mexico, it is not unuslal to have two rice dishes at the same meal.

FRIJOLES, which are only beans in Boston, are boiled and served whole, or boiled, then mashed with a fork and fried. Made the second way, they are frijoles Refritos, which means refried beans. Mexican tomatoes grow both red and green.

All these — chilies, tortillas, rice, frijoles and tomatoes —are the staple foods of Mexico, the delicious core of a magnificent cuisine which bears little resemblance to the food served as Mexican in the border towns and cities of the United States.

These are some of the foods which originated in Mexico and were transplanted to Europe after the Spanish conquest: tomatoes, beans, vanilla, squashes, chilies, maize, avocados, eggplant, cashews, peanuts, pumpkins, chocolate, and potatoes.

The pork of the Mexican tropics is wonderfully succulent because the pigs roam at will through lush vegetation and eat, instead of commercial garbage, orchids, payayas and such shrubs as jicama and frangipani. The best Mexican fowl is better than first-class. Mexican goat is superb.

Cosmopolitan Mexico is in the tropics; its fruits, therefore, are meaty, juicy and of unexpected good flavor.

MEXICO City and Acapulco are particularly noted for their fine restaurants, serving native as well as American and international cuisine. Most of these are member establishments of the Mexican Restaurant Association and are dedicated to the service of the tourist trade. They maintain certain standards set by the association to guarantee care and quality in the preparation of their meals. Health and sanitation measures required by law are faithfully observed, including regular disinfection, pest eradication, and water purification.

The adventure of dining in Mexico will await northwest suburbanites who participate in Paddock Publications "Mexican Fiesta" vacation party. The 14-day tour of Mexico begins March 8 and will include visits to Mexico City, San Jose Purua, Taxco, and Acapulco. The attractive package price of $474 per person on a double rate includes 21 meals, with choice of Mexican or American food, as well as round-trip airfare, all transportation in Mexico, all hotel accommodations, sightseeing, an Acapulco beach party, all transfers to and from airports, hotels, and all tips for guides.

OPTIONAL at slight extra cost is a Mexico City night life tour, evening in a Taxco night club, bullfights, moonlight cruise on Acapulco Bay, and an evening at an Acapulco night club featuring famous high divers at night diving with torches.

Full details on the Paddock tour and a colorful brochure are available from Paddock Publications. A convenient request blank can be found elsewhere on this page and may be mailed to the newspaper offices in Arlington Heights.

MEXICO CITY AT NIGHT is an exciting, colorful, and unpredictable adventure. Superb dining, cosmopolitan environments, and first-class entertainment await the traveler who discovers the unique charm of this "Paris of the Western Hemisphere." A Mexico City night life tour is one of several reasonably-priced optionals offered northwest suburbanites participating in Paddock Publications "Mexican Fiesta" vacation party. The 14-day tour begins March 8 when the group departs for Mexico City from O'Hare Field via new Comet Jet.

The 'Turista' Ailment

Before blaming the food, it may be well for American tourists in Mexico to consider a number of other possible causes of poor digestion: change of location, daily habits and eating hours; fast eating, rushing around, legnthy trips, general fatigue, excessive drinking, change of climate etc. This applies not only to tourists who come to Mexico but also to Mexican residents who travel abroad.

Recent medical studies show that nervousness, fatigue, irregular meal schedules, and an excessive amount of liquids in the stomach, etc. may cause perceptible digestive disturbances. These are things that each person must guard against in keeping with his own resistance.

Airline Initiates New Baggage Plan

Passengers flying to Mexico will benefit from a convenient money - saving "bonus baggage" allowance plan to be initiated January 1 by Mexicana Airlines (CMA).

According to F. Paul Miscione, regional sales manager in Chicago, the airline will permit all round-trip passengers from Chicago to spread their baggage allowance over both portions of their flight.

This means, according to Miscione, that a passenger with a 66-pound one-way allowance could use as little as 10 pounds of this enroute to Merico, and apply the additional 56-pound balance to his regular 66-pound allowance on the return trip — for a total of 122 pounds at no extra charge!

THE PLAN will be effective on all round-trip tickets from Chicago, with a total baggage allowance of 132 pounds in first class and 88 pounds in tourist.

According to Miscione, the move eliminates the problem of expensive excess baggage charges for passengers whose baggage exceeds the regular allowance on the return trip. Many visitors cannot resist the handicrafts of Mexico and duty-free Caribbean islands served by Mexicana — and these purchases add extra weight to baggage on return trips.

Or, Miscione adds, passengers wishing to bring gifts to friends in Mexico may carry much more than the regular allowance, but pay no penalty if their return baggage falls within the total round-trip allowance.

Mexicana serves Chicago with Comet 4C jet flights to Mexico City five times weekly.

Outdoors Not 'Free'; Udall Warns of Approaching Crisis

by STEWART L. UDALL
Secretary of the Interior

Today we face perhaps the gravest threat in history to our resources of land and water — and particularly to the once plentiful "green acres" which traditionally have played a vital role in shaping the character and destiny of America.

And this is at a time when some 90 per cent of our people — turning back by the millions to the spiritual solace of the land — take part in outdoor recreation of some form.

While heartening, this vast movement to the out-of-doors presents two thorny problems:

First, our people are multiplying and more people need more land, both to live and to relax; and,

Second, the demand for industrial, commercial, and residential development for this burgeoning population is chewing away a million acres of remaining open space a year, wiping out suitable outdoor recreation areas at an alarming rate, and, at the same time, through ever stiffer competition for use of the land, sending the prices for the remnants of our natural, unspoiled wilderness and waterfront to levels swiftly approaching the astronomical.

OBVIOUSLY, a solution must be found. But to find it we shall have to pay a price because, for better or worse, in the 1960's the out-of-doors is no longer free.

An example of the cost may be seen in this Administration's vigorous efforts to save needed land to preserve our wildlife. Before 1961, land acquired for Federal wildlife refuges cost an average of $12.40 an acre; in fiscal 1961, this average price rose to $69.39 an acre; while in the 1962 fiscal year—as suitable land grew scarcer—the average price per acre had soared to $86.71.

Spurred by the President's leadership, the conservation-minded 87th Congress took unprecedented action in setting aside three superb strips of seacoast as National Seashores at Cape Cod, at Point Reyes, near San Francisco, and at Padre Island, along the Gulf Coast of Texas.

IN MAY 1962, President Kennedy called the first White House Conference on Conservation since the turn of the century. At that extraordinary gathering of conservation leaders from throughout the country he said: "I can think of no more suitable effort for an administration which is concerned with progress than to be identified with efforts to preserve this land and maintain its beauty."

Congress will act this year on a proposed pay-as-you-go Land Conservation Fund to be financed by those who now enjoy our superb outdoor recreation areas and from recreation and land related Federal receipts.

THE BILL establishes modest user fees for campers, picknickers, boaters, and others who in 1961 comprised more than 300 million visitors to national parks, forests, reservoirs, and seashores. Revenues would be utilized by the States and the Federal Government to plan cooperative and comprehensive outdoor recreation programs and to acquire suitable new recreation areas.

Further financing for open space acquisition programs would be provided through a car permit which would entitle annual admission to all national parks, forests, fish and wildlife recreation areas throughout the Nation.

Spain Ideal Tourist Spot

Budget Cost Luxury Is Still Available

by JEANNE WELCH

Prices in Spain are among the lowest in Europe. This does not mean that there are not luxury resorts or that in luxury reports, prices are low. It does mean that for $6 to $7 a day you can live in modified luxury and for $3 to $4 a day comfortable quarters, with meals, are available in family pensions.

On the other hand, prices on the Spanish riviera are on their way up. A coastal cottage which cost $800 to build ten years ago now may bring the same amount for a season's rental.

PART OF the reason for the increase may be the fact that skiing enthusiasts have discovered that the Costa Brava, which fringes the sea north of Barcelona, is an ideal base for forays into the Pyrenees. The Costa Brava area, where the thermometer seldom goes below 45 or 50 degrees in January, is as pleasant in winter as in summer when it is the playground of the international set. Hotels in the area now number some 200 and most of them are open the year round.

One of the most unusual hotels is the Hostal de la Gavina on S'Agaro peninsula, midway between Barcelona and the French border. Furnished in rare antiques, and boasting two beaches the Hostel de la Gavina has all of the elegance of a country house in the grand manner. All of this elegance is available to the traveler, however, for about $12 a day, including three meals.

The moderate winter temperatures in the Costa Brava area permit many outdoor activities, even dining al fresco. A favorite dish at such meals might be the hearty Catalan beef stew, redolent with garlic and red wine.

THE GREAT port city of Barcelona is at the peak of its social season around the Christmas holidays. Montserrat, a mountaintop monastery famous for its Gregorian music, draws pilgrims from all parts of Spain on Christmas Eve. There an aerial cable carries visitors up 4,000 feet to the Hermitage of St. Jerome and a spectacular view.

Those interested in leaving the temperate climate of the Costa Brava for the ski areas of the Pyrenees should make their reservations well in advance. Snow conditions are good from late December until the end of March, but February is the peak month, bringing with it crowds from Barcelona as well as tourists. La Molina, training center for the ski troops of the Spanish army, and Nuria are two of the most popular resorts.

BARCELONA is one of the cities included in Pan American World Airways special 17-Excursion Fare plan. This bargain rate brings the round-trip fare, New York to Barcelona, down to $412.90.

A Correction

It was incorrectly reported in last week's editions that U.S. Customs law permits a tourist who is in Mexico 12 days or more to bring home duty free $500 worth of merchandise at wholesale prices. The law was recently revised, and the duty exemption is now $100.

Let Imagination 'Go' For Yule Gift Wraps

With the coming of the biggest gift-giving season of the year (Christmas accounts for 41 per cent of the gifts an average family buys each year) — are new opportunities to put your creative talents to work dressing up packages.

Some wrapping paper, tags, tissue, enclosure cards, and tie-on decorations, mixed with a dash of imagination, is all you need to whip up your best batch of holiday packages yet.

Important Rules

First, a few simple, yet important rules to help you turn out professional looking packages every time.

Be sure to cut your paper the right size, allowing enough to go around the box and overlap about two inches. It should extend beyond the end of the box no more than three-quarters of the depth.

Tape the lid to the box to prevent bulges, then lay the box upside down on the paper, being sure to center the pattern so that it shows to best advantage. Fold the paper around the box and seal. Miter the corners at the ends and seal.

Let Imagination Go

Once your gifts are neatly wrapped, you're ready to let your imagination roam to decorate them. Here are some suggestions to help you get started:

Silhouettes can be used to give a hint of what's inside—a fish if the package contains something for the ardent fisherman; a barber pole if the content is after-shaving lotion; notes if a musical instrument or records.

Decorate outside of a tissue-wrapped package with a ribbon-tree. With green ribbon, form a series of graduated loop bows to form the outline of a Christmas tree, then finish off with ornament tie-ons. Use red ribbon for the tree's base.

Use sparkling glitter to spell out a persons name when you have used a solid color foil wrapping. Write the name with an adhesive and then dust on the glitter.

Brighten Children's Gifts

Children's gifts are brightened with faces of clowns and Santas, or made to look like railroad cars. Make cars for the train by using flat packages of chewing gum covered with colored paper. Use single life-savers for wheels and a whole package wrapped in red and white striped gift wrapping for the engine.

Tall, slender gifts such as bottles of perfume, can be made to look like burning candles, or like child's party snapper, when the ends are fringed and tied.

'Tools' of Value

Proper Toy Purchase Aids Child's Growth

URBANA — Consider the full meaning of toys as you shop this Christmas, advises a University of Illinois child development specialist.

Mrs. Collene King explains that play to a child is "for real." Since toys are the tools of play, they can do much to further a child's growth and development.

Regardless of the age of the child on your list, Mrs. King suggests the following checklist for judging toys:

Is it safe? For example, it should be free from such hazards as sharp edges and corners, splinters, loose nails and tacks.

IS IT STURDY and durable? If it breaks easily, the child may become frustrated and discouraged. Too, the experience may lead him to become careless in handling all toys. Durable toys are also practical because they can serve several different roles as the child's interests change.

Can it be used in several different ways? Toys that give a child a number of experiences have more value than those that offer only one experience.

Will it require that the child have playmates, or will the child derive pleasure and benefit from the toy if he plays alone?

MRS. KING points out that the "toys" that 3- and 4-year-olds often prefer most are common household articles. These include clothespins, wooden spoons, wooden bowls, sieves, muffin pans, potato mashers, brightly colored measuring cups, empty thread spools and empty plastic cottage cheese containers.

The young child needs toys that have varied textures and are brightly colored. Since preschool children are apt to put things into their mouths, be sure the toys are washable. If they are painted, be sure the paint is nontoxic and color-fast.

As soon as a child walks, push-pull and pedal toys will appeal to him. Select trucks and cars that are large enough for him to sit on as he pushes along.

SINCE IT IS natural for a preschooler to relive the activities around him in dramatic play, such toys as tea sets, dolls and doll accessories, a fireman's hat and cash registers can add something to the child's toy collection. The dolls should be large enough to handle well and small enough to dress easily.

Select doll clothes with a simple style so that the child can manage dressing and undressing the doll on his own.

Other toys that have value for preschoolers are simple puzzles, string and beads, and pegboards and hooks. Properly selected, these toys will challenge the child's manipulative skills.

CHILDREN IN the primary grades especially enjoy making things. Therefore, such play materials as finger and easel paints, clay, sewing kits and woodworking materials should be welcome gifts, according to Mrs. Collene King, child development specialist at the University of Illinois.

She points out, however, that it's wise to check the tools that the child will need to use with play materials. To be helpful and safe, these tools should be of good quality and suited to the child's stage of motor development and muscular strength.

Both boys and girls still enjoy wheel toys, especially the two-wheeler. They also enjoy sleds, jungle gyms, trapeze and parallel bars and rings. They also like balls to throw or kick.

Another favorite activity is dramatic play. Therefore, such props as a nurse's outfit, doctor's bag, dress-up clothes, household equipment and dolls may fill the bill.

Children at this stage are also ready for group play. So good table games, such as picture or animal lotto, checkers, dominoes and jacks, are other possibilities. (S

Suburban Living

Sending Christmas Cards? Etiquette Very Important

One of the most enjoyable things about the Christmas season is contacting friends and relatives with Christmas cards.

THESE TIPS on "Etiquette" and Christmas card mailing will help make it easier on you, and even more of a pleasure for those on the receiving end of the line.

1. When your name is not imprinted or engraved, always sign your complete name. It is proper for husband - and - wife cards to be signed "Jane and John Doe," or "Mr. and Mrs. John Doe," or "The John Does." It is also correct to add "and family" to your signature.

2. When the whole family is listed on the card, father's name comes first, followed by mother's and then the children according to age.

3. Address a card to both husband and wife, even if you know only one of them. The exception to this rule is a semi-business card that may be sent to one or the other at his or her office.

4. Address envelopes by hand, never by typewriter, and always include a return address. In New York City alone every year six million Christmas cards pour into the Dead Letter Office at the main post office.

5. It's both proper and thoughtful to send Christmas cards to people in mourning. It is a matter of courtesy and good taste to use the form of name preferred by widows. The same is true of divorcees.

6. When sending cards to the clergy, always write "The Reverend Doe," instead of simply "Reverend Doe." However, the correct form for Protestant ministers with a doctor of divinity degree is "The Reverend Dr. Doe" or "The Reverend Doe, D.D." Initials of a special order or rank should be added to the names of Catholic priests who are also addressed as "The Reverend Doe."

MORE THAN 3 billion Christmas cards will be mailed this season, according to the Rust Craft greeting card company.

You can provide a great service to the post office by remembering to: mail early, write addresses plainly; use zone, apartment, rural route and box numbers; include return address; and tie all cards for local distribution with addresses face up and the same with all cards for "out - of - town" and "out - of - state." First American Yule Cards Made in Boston, Year 1875

American Christmas cards were launched on a commercial scale exactly 87 years ago by an eminent Boston lithographer named Louis Prang.

A penniless immigrant when he landed in America in 1850, Prang made a big impact on America's celebration of Christmas, earning him the title of "Father" of the American Christmas card.

Started In 1874

Prang got started publishing greeting cards in a rather strange way. In 1874, one year before he marketed his first American Christmas cards, a young art student by the name of Miss D. E. Whitney, who worked in his shop, presented him with a painting of a budding moss rosw which she had done.

There was something about this simple moss rose that appealed to both his artistic sense and to his commercial instincts. Prang saw a golden chance to increase his business. He decided to print "Merry Christmas" on small floral decorated cards as the British had been doing since the early 1840's.

32 Colors Used

Prang was an expert in the art of what he called "chromo-lithography" and his work and reputation was well established throughout Europe. By using slabs of a particular limestone found only in Bavaria, he printed pictures in multi-colors, as many as 32 different shades, at times. He reproduced them so perfectly that you could scarcely tell them from the original paintings.

Lithographed Painting

He had Miss Whitney's painting copied on lithographic stones and attached a holiday sentiment to it. He experimented with his British customers first and the next year Prang tried out the Christmas cards on the American people. Within five years he was turning out five million cards a year, and it wasn't long before Prang cards, trimmed with silk fringe and lace, also became known worldwide.

Original In Collection

The painting that inspired Prang to enter the greeting card business is now housed in the Rust Craft Antique Greeting Card Collection along with several hundred of his "chromo-lithographis."

Unlike today's Christmas cards, Prang used very few of the standard Christmas motifs on his cards. His favorite were illustrations of spring flowers, harvest scenes and pictures of children playing.

The Killarney rose, of all things, was the most popular of all. Religious scenes began to appear on Prang's cards in the mid 1880's.

Typical Of Victorian Era

Prang's delicate cards were typical of the Victorian era in which he lived. Many of them were equipped with silk cords for hanging, others were edged with inch-wide fringe and folded cards dripped with tassels. Fan-shaped cards bedecked with both fringe and tassels, competed with lustrous satin-and-plush creations. There were even some cards encrusted with blown glass frosting.

Art Competition Held

To insure that he would always have an ample supply of the finest designs for his cards, Prang conducted an annual competition with prizes totalling as much as $3,000.

In the 1880's, people were paying up to $1 each for a deluxe Prang card. The costly cards were usually stamped on the back with a notice that the design received one of Prang's prizes. (S

For High School Girls

Contest Sponsored By General Mills

A high school senior girl from northwest suburbs may well be among those who will share in $110,000 in college scholarships being offered again this year by General Mills in its ninth annual Betty Crocker Search for the American Homemaker of Tomorrow.

In past years, winners have come from every type community in the nation—large, small, medium—and from all types of schools—public, parochial and private.

Senior girls here joined with a record number of more than 410,000 others in more than 12,500 of the nation's schools Dec. 4 in a written examination to help determine winners in the 1963 Search Program.

THE TEST, prepared by Science Research Associates, Chicago, to emphasize the importance of homemaking as a career, is the determining factor in selecting local and state winners. Personal observation and interviews are added factors in selecting national winners.

The 1963 All-American Homemaker of Tomorrow and three runners-up will be named in the spring at the culmination of an expense-paid educational tour of New York City, Washington, D. C., and Colonial Williamsburg for winners from the 50 states and the District of Columbia and their advisors.

Scholarships range from $1,500 for each State Homemaker of Tomorrow and $500 for each state runner-up to $5,000, $4,000, $3,000 and $2,000, respectively for top national winners. A complete set of Encyclopedia Briticanna is awarded the school of each state winner.

INCLUDING the 1963 program, close to 3 million girls have participated in the Betty Crocker Search in its nine years of operation. Scholarship grants are approaching the million dollar mark.

From the start, the program has been on the approved list of national contests and activities of the National Association of Secondary School Principals.

Wide Choice of Gourmet Foods Awaits Shoppers

For people who "have everything," the "right" Christmas gift may be a gourmet food item.

Mrs. Glenna Lamkin, University of Illinois home economist, explains that gourmet foods are ones that have such distinguishing features as superior quality or a fancy pack indicating special handling. Or the foods may be exotic or especially prized. This type of gift is particularly suitable for people who appreciate and enjoy a wide variety of good quality food.

Mrs. Lamkin points out that a wide choice of gourmet foods awaits the shopper. Perhaps the most popular items are in the following food groups: cheese, jams, jellies and preserves, pickles; smoked meats, cakes and confections, specially selected fresh fruit, and teas.

BECAUSE OF the increasing popularity of gourmet foods, many items are easier to obtain than ever before. Consumers can look to supermarkets as well as specialty houses for these foods.

Mrs. Lamkin suggests that shoppers can personalize their gifts by making their own combinations of food items, carefully choosing the items to suit the recipient.

Another way for gift givers to personalize gourmet foods is by making their own items. Women with a hobby of cooking, for example, may give a specialty like holiday cookies, breads or homemade preserves and jellies. Creative wrappings add to the personal touch. (S

D'you Know . . .

THAT Christmas was denounced by the early Puritans. The General Court of Massachusetts passed a law in 1659 making the observance of Christmas a penal offense.

THAT the first American greeting card was sent by R. J. Pease of Albany, N. Y., in 1853. Pease, a dry good merchant, designed, printed and mailed a Christmas card which also served as an advertisement.

Choose Tree Carefully For a Safer Christmas

You'll have a safer and more tnjoyable Christmas if you choose your Yule tree carefully.

A tree that has been cut too long or stored in a warm place will lose its needles quickly. Even more important, says O. L. Hogsett, University of Illinois safety specialist, it's a fire hazard that can turn your Christmas into a tragedy.

If possible, cut your own tree or buy it directly from the grower. Then keep it in a cool, shaded place out of the wind until you're ready to decorate it.

IF YOU DECIDE to buy a shipped - in tree, you can tell whether it's fresh by examining the needles. Those on a fresh tree are limber, not brittle. If the needles snap or shatter easily, they not only will drop off quickly, but will be a fire hazard once the tree is in a warm plact.

Hogsett suggests putting the tree in a spot away from the drying heat of radiators, the fireplace or warm-air registers. Be sure the tree holder has a good-sized water container, and keep it filled. Make a new cut on the bottom of the tree, slicing the trunk at an angle. This cut will let it absorb more water. (S

AAUW Plans Busy Evening For December 13 Meeting

The art of floral decoration will be demonstrated by Walter "Walt" Bender, owner of Arlington Florists, at a meeting of the Arlington Heights Branch of the American Association of University Women at 8:15 Thursday evening, Dec. 13, in the Arlington Heights Federal Savings and Loan Association.

Besides showing how available flowers and holders can be used to advantage, the speaker will discuss flowers from the standpoint of their quality, cost and care. Mr. Bender, who studied design, architecture and landscaping at Arizona State University, has been in various branches of the floriculture business for several years.

He opened his shop in downtown Arlington Heights two years ago. He is a member of the Arlington Heights Rotary Club.

MR. BENDER'S talk will be preceded by a brief social period during which members will view a display of water colors and oil paintings by Hedvic Vlasak. A graduate of the University of Nebraska, Mrs. Vlasak is herself a member of AAUW, as well as the Countryside Art Center, the Mount Prospect Art Group and the North Shore Art Guild.

Also on the evening's program is a silent auction of "white elephants" donated by members. Proceeds from the auction will go to the AAUW Fellowships fund. Hostesses for the meeting will be Mrs. James Boult, chairman, Miss Mildred Bopp, Miss Mary Handlin and Mrs. Norman Cornelius. Interested women in this area who are graduates of approved colleges and would like to attend the meeting or learn more about AAUW are invited to telephone Mrs. Ted Meyer, membership chairman, at CL 9-1049.

Juicy Berries Mark Of Top Grade Holly

Buying good - quality holly berries helps to assure its fresh appearance through the Christman season, says a University of Illinois floriculturist.

According to J. R. Culbert, dry, dusty, tired-looking holly has already seen its best day and is doomed to a very short life.

To get good - quality holly, Culbert suggests that consumers buy from a dealer who knows how to care for holly and who follows good merchandising standards. Buy only holly that has a fresh, crisp look and feel and that has plump, juicy berries.

MOST GOOD holly is dipped in a hormone before being sold. This treatment helps to prevent leaves and berries from falling off prematurely.

As a further aid to giving the public - quality holly, many wholesalers. and retailers package the sprays to reduce damage due to handling.

To prolong holly life, Culbert suggests the following:

Crush or split stem ends as soon as possible after purchase. Submerge holly stems at once in a preservative solution, and leave them there until you use them in arrangement. The solution can be made with brown sugar (one tablespoon of sugar per quart of water) or a commercial flower preservative.

DO NOT STORE or use holly near such fruits as apples, pears and bananas. These fruits give off ethylene gas that causes the holly foliage to shrivel and drop prematurely.

When arranging holly, either by itself or with other greens or flowers, use brown sugar or a commercial flower preservative in the water in the same proportions as you used for prearrangement treatment. Re-cut and re-crush stems before arranging.

Avoid placing arrangements on or near sources of heat, such as radiators, hot-air registers or the fireplace mantel if fireplace is to be used.

In the warm temperatures of the average home, holly can be expected to last about two weeks if the recommended treatment has been carefully followed. (S

Old Customs Still Observed In Many Lands At Christmas

Although universal in its spirit and purpose, Christmas is observed in many different ways throughout the world.

Individual countries have acquired literally thousands of customs through the ages. Some have been discarded along the way, while others are still observed.

Mexicans Break "Pinata"

In Mexico, for example, breaking the "Pinata," an earthenware jug filled with fruits, nuts and candies is still an important Christmas custom. Blindfolded children armed with sticks try to break it open. When they succeed, all join in the scramble for the "goodies" that pour out.

In the northland of Canada, the Eskimos have a unique Christmas custom. Entire Eskimo communities set off to visit neighboring towns. The following year the visit is repaid and the visiting town becomes the host.

In Finland, all members of Finnish families must take a steam bath before the festivities of Christmas Eve can begin.

Sparks Bring Blessings

In Yugoslavia, the Christmas celebration is centered around the Yule Log. A young tree is felled and brought into the house before sunrise on Christmas morning.

While burning, it is struck with an iron rod causing sparks to fly up the chimney. Tradition says that blessings as numerous as the sparks will fall on the family during the coming year.

In Greece, special loaves of bread are baked for the Christmas celebration. Each loaf is marked with a cross on top; a silver coin concealed in each. According to custom, the person finding the coin is destined for a prosperous year.

In India, one week before the holiday, all villages that observe Christmas, fast by not eating animal food. On the last day they eat no food at all until they take communion on Christmas Eve.

Greeting Cards Universal

Probably the most universal custom associated with Christmas is sending Christmas cards.

For a custom that is so well established all over the world, it is relatively new, however—just over a century old.

It was in 1843 that the first Christmas card was published in England by Sir Henry Cole, who commissioned an artist named John Horsley to design a Christmas "greeting" for him because he was too busy to write to his friends at Christmas.

Some Send N.Y. Cards

Since then, the sending of Christmas cards has become almost universal, although in some countries greetings are sent for the new year, instead of Christmas.

This year, more than three billion Christmas cards will be mailed in the United States, alone, says the Rust Craft greeting card company. This is an average of approximately 15 cards per person.

Even Santa Claus takes on different forms and comes at different times in certain countries!

Santa Comes Jan. 6

In Spain, he bears his traditional gifts on Jan. 6, the Feast of the Epiphany which celebrates the arrival of the Three Wise Men. Spanish children fill their shoes with straw for the camesl of the Wise Men, and place them on the window sills. Similarly, in Holland, children place their wooden shoes filled with hay in a corner or a ledge, but it's for Santa's white horse.

In Germany, Santa wears a big chain which he rattles at the door. Candy and cookies go to the good youngsters, the bad ones get empty potato sacks.

In Italy, Santa comes as an old woman on a broomstick. She is named LaBefona, and leaves gifts in the children's shoes. (S

Greet Visitors with Gay Christmas Citrus Wreath

Your Christmas wreath is probably the first thing to greet the eye of a visitor entering your home during the holidays. Be original and make your own beautiful wreath using citrus and other small fruits of nature instead of the usual greens. The wreath is named Della Robbia after the famous Italian Renaissance sculptor, Andrea della Robbia, who favored round forms in his works.

The Della Robbia wreath is easy and fun to make. You'll find styrofoam wreath shapes at five-and-ten-cent stores or your local florist shop. Picture the color harmony in an assortment of citrus fruits—golden oranges, deep-orange tangerines and yellow grapefruit—fruits long associated with the Christmas season and now in excellent supply from Florida.

ATTACH THE fruits to the styrofoam using wire or pipecleaners, toothpicks and skewers. Fill in the spaces with small fruits such as kumquats or lady apples, then finish with a generous red or green velvet bow and streamers.

Hang your Della Robbia wreath on a door or wall or place it over the fireplace mantle for everyone to see. The wreath will lend a lavish touch to your house throughout the holiday week.

To make your Della Robbia wreath you'll need:

oranges
tangerines
grapefruit
Kumquats (optional)
Lady apples
Small green leaves
Styrofoam wreath shape
Red or green velvet ribbon, 3 or 4 inches wide
Florist wire or pipecleaners
Toothpicks, 6-inch metal skewers
Scissors

Luscious Gifts From Kitchen Bring 'Glad Tidings' To All

The spirit of the Christmas season is inherent in the philosophy that it is more blessed to give than to receive. And the gifts you give from your own hands seem twice blessed.

These luscious gifts to make in your own kitchen have one golden common denominator—fresh Florida citrus fruits. Oranges, tangerines and grapefruit, deliciously mature and abundant at the holiday season, have long been associated with Christmas traditions. For centuries an orange or tangerine has been tucked into the toe of a child's Christmas stocking, a custom begun in the days when the fruit was a priceless luxury.

RICH IN daily-needed vitamin C and other nutrients, citrus is well worth its weight in gold and the golden gifts you can make for sheer eating pleasure.

Recipes are given here for Citrus Conserve, a combination of grapefruit, orange and tangerine; Orange Pecan Bread; Tangerine - Cranberry Relish; Orange Slices Epicurean, to be served as dessert sauce, with meat or poultry, or as a cocktail garnish. Pomander Balls take a little time to make, but this classic treatment of the Florida orange makes a unique, aromatic ball of fragrance to scent linen or clothes closets.

ORANGE SLICES EPICUREAN

3 large Florida oranges
Grated orange rind
2 cups sugar
1 cup water
¾ cup white corn syrup
2 tablespoons lime juice
¼ cup dark rum (optional)

Grate rind of oranges thinly, and cut oranges in 1/8-inch thick slices. Combine grated rind, sugar, water and corn syrup in large skillet. Stir over heat until sugar is dissolved. Bring to a boil, and continue boiling over medium heat 3 minutes.

Add orange slices, bring to a boil and boil one minute. Add lime juice and rum; pour into hot jars or glasses. Seal with paraffin at once. Serve as dessert sauce, with meat or poultry or as a cocktail garnish.

Yield: 2 pints or 4 half pint.

CITRUS CONSERVE

Peel of 1 Florida grapefruit
Peel of 2 Florida oranges
Peel of 1 Florida tangerine
1/8 teaspoon baking soda
3 quarts cold water, divided
6 cups sugar
Pulp of 1 Florida tangerine
2 cups Florida grapefruit juice
3½ cups Florida orange juice
2/3 cup lime juice
1 cup raisins
½ cup chopped nuts

Remove peel from one grapefruit, 2 oranges and one tangerine. Cut peels in very thin strips about 1 to 1½ inches long. Add baking soda and 2 quarts cold water to the peels in 6-quart saucepan. Cover and simmer slowly until tender, about 20 minutes. Drain peels and discard liquid. Add one quart cold water to drained peels and bring to a boil.

ADD SUGAR and boil rapidly to 12 degrees F. above the boiling point of water, about 20 minutes. (224 degrees F. at sea level). Dice tangerine pulp; juice fruit, and add with raisins to peel mixture and cook again to same temperature (about 25-30 minutes), stirring frequently.

Remove from heat; stir in chopped nuts. Let stand 5 to 6 minutes; stir to distribute fruit. Ladle into hot containers and cover with melted paraffin.

Yield: Approximately 12 6-ounce glasses.

ORANGE PECAN BREAD

3 cups sifted flour
4 teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon baking soda
½ teaspoon salt
1 cup chopped pecans
2 eggs, well beaten
½ cup milk
½ cup Florida orange juice
1 tablespoon grated Florida orange rind
¾ cup orange marmalade

Mix and sift dry ingredients; stir in chopped pecans. Combine well-beaten eggs, milk, orange juice, orange rind, and marmalade; stir in dry ingredients. Mix well. Turn into greased 9 x 5-inch loaf pan and bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 1 hour, or until done. Cool in pan 10 minutes; remove.

Yield: one loaf.

TANGERINE-CRANBERRY RELISH

2 Florida tangerines, quartered and seeded
4 cups fresh cranberries
2 cups sugar

Put tangerine quarters with peel and cranberries through food chopper. Add sugar to mixture. Chill in refrigerator several hours. Yield: one quart Note: This relish will keep well in refrigerator several weeks.

POMANDER BALLS

6 large firm Florida oranges whole cloves
Powdered orrisroot*
Ground cinnamon

Select large firm Florida oranges for making pomanders. Stick whole cloves into the peel of the orange until completely covered. The cloves may be inserted more easily if the holes have been made with the tines of a fork or a skewer.

Roll the clove covered orange in a mixture of equal parts of orrisroot and ground cinnamon. Use about 1½ tablespoons of the combined spices for each orange. Pat in as much of the powdered mixture as will adhere to the orange. Wrap the pomander in tissue or cellophane.

AS POMANDER dries and shrinks, it develops its spicy fragrance. Remove the paper, shake off any loose powder and the pomander is ready for use in linen and clothes closets. To hang in closet, tie the pomander with a piece of ribbon ending in a loop.

Pomanders keep their fragrance for many years and make pretty and inexpensive gifts.

Sorority Activities

KAPPA ALPHA THETA

Husbands of members of Northwest Suburban Club of Kappa Alpha Theta will have their annual opportunity to join their wives at a club meeting Sunday, Dec. 16. The traditional cocktail party for husbands will be held from 4:30 to 6:30 p.m. in the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Cole, 33 N. Donald St., Arlington Heights.

Co-hostesses for the annual Christmas season event include Mrs. Thomas Duane of Mount Prospect.

Thetas who are new in the area and have not been aware of the club are invited to attend the party and bring their husbands. It is suggested they telephone Mrs. Duane at CL 3-9595. Mrs. Norval Stevenson is president of the club. (S TOYS FOR TOTS DRIVE, held in conjunction with the Marine Reserves, was recently conducted by Lambda Delta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority, assisted by Mariner Girl Scouts of Ship Enterprise 65, Mount Prospect. Dwarfed by the mound of toys are Brenda Aase, whose mother, Mrs. James Aase, center, is service chairman of the group, and Melissa Hemphill, daughter of Mrs. William E. Hemphill, right. Mrs. Bernard Bird, left, is president of the sorority. (S

Just Around the Corner

Chopping the Tree

Dear Peg:

I wish you could have seen us last Sunday afternoon—each one taking a turn crawling under the lowest branches of a pine tree to saw away at its slender trunk. Our family had decided to cut down our own Christmas tree this year.

Several days before. I had read an ad in the paper: "Come out and cut your own Christmas tree. $3.00 to $5.00. Large selection. CE 4-4263." I had known before that people did this sort of thing, but somehow the idea had simply not appealed to me until this year.

Maybe I was influenced by the fact that Patrick now loves to use his Daddy's little hand saw, hammer and nails to make boats, forts, etc. And I thought he would enjoy actually sawing a tree down. (Oh my I just had a dreadful thought! Do you suppose the mothers of those N. U. students, who were fined for also cutting their own Christmas tree —right out of someone's front yard—started their sons' lives of tree-cutting-crime by taking them to cut down their own tree when they were 6 years old?)

I called the number and asked if we could come out Sunday afternoon and where was the place. It turned out to be about 10 miles away —one mile north of 120 on Edic Road.

So, in the middle of the cold afternoon, in the midst of a powdery snowfall, we struck out for the tree farm—full of pioneer spirit. I must say the pioneer spirit was willing, but the flesh was definitely on the weak side when, upon reaching the place, we saw that there was a windswept field to cross before one reached the grove of pine trees. The car heater felt so good! However, we had bundled up for the occasion, so with saws in hand we started out across the field. Poor Deirdre kept tripping over the stubble and finally had to be carried.

When we finally reached the trees, we were happy to see that there was quite a large selection to choose from. Before long, one of the trees seemed to stand out over all the rest. It was full, round and just tall enough for our living room. Everyone agreed that this was to be ours and we fell to the turn-taking-task of sawing. I think Patrick was a little surprised to find that it took a little longer than he thought it would to cut through the trunk.

So, after a couple of turns with his little saw, he scurried around between the trees cutting down milkweed stalks, while the older ones sawed almost through the trunk. We gave Patrick the satisfaction of sawing the last quarter of an inch.

"Timber!" he shouted, as our Christmas tree slipped over on its side with a slight rustle of the branches.

My love,
Patty

Especially for Women

"A NIGHT IN THE OL' SOUTH" was the theme of the recent dinner dance sponsored by the St. Raymond's Woman's Club of Mount Prospect. Decorations in the dining room at Ray Foley's Hyatt House carried out an "Ol' South" theme and tables were decorated with various items found in that section of the country. Mr. and Mrs. Donald R. Duffy admired the centerpiece which represented Louisville, Ky.

Prospect Heights Women Busy with Yule Plans

During the business meeting of the Prospect Heights Womans Club on December 5 it was announced members o fthe club, together with Girl Scouts from the community, would be going to the Chicago State Hospital, (Dunning) to entertain patients, and to distribute Christmas gifts to the children Saturday, Dec. 15. Woman's Club members who will be attending include Mrs. William Kuhns, Mrs. Al Roth, Mrs. Charles Calwell and Mrs. J. Petropoulis. From the Community Church will be Mrs. Jas. Nail.

It was announced that the Prospect Heights Nursery School is again selling Christmas candy in order to purchase toys for the school. Anyone wishing to order candy may do so by calling Mrs. Al Roth, CL 5-6167. Membership of the Woman's Club voted to pay the rental for the school for the Christmas Party of Cub Scout Pack 336, which is sponsored by the Woman's Club. The women were also asked to collect old eyeglasses and/or frames to be sent to New Jersey to be repaired for the needy with sight handicaps.

AFTER THE business meeting, the club held its annual Christmas buffet luncheon, and heard a program by Harold Busse of Busse Flowers, Mount Prospect.

Mr. Busse made 10 Christmas floral arrangements, including one of these done with a gold candle, gold satin bells, and green boughs, and another done in a tall green Italian glass vase, which held holly and white mums. He also made a corsage of garnet roses and white carnations, which he presented to Mrs. Ed Schindeldecker, president of the club. (S

CAND HOUSE created by Mrs. E. C. Hofer of Arlington Heights for St. James bake sale Dec. 15 is previewed by her children, Barbara, Jacqueline, Kathleen, Sherrill and Carl. Mrs. Hofer, who holds her youngest, Jimmy, is chairman of the sale which is sponsored by the church's women's guild, and will be held in the school basement. Home baked "goodies" from simple butter cookies to English toffee will be sold from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. Santa will be on hand with candy for the children and coffee will be available for the mothers.

It's An Art to Be Gracious

by BETTY AINSLIE

It's an art to be a gracious receiver of gifts. You may be a cheerful giver, but how are you on this business of receiving? Do you open a gift with anticipation and pleasure?

Or do you think, "Good grief, Matty must have spent ten dollars on this bracelet and I only gave her a two dollar scarf."

All the joy is suddenly gone by putting a monetary value on the gift. That scarf was just the right color for Matty's gray hair and you hiked through a lot of stores to find one in that rose shade.

Remember too that Matty saw you admire that bracelet. She's gone back and bought it imagining your happiness at finding it under your tree.

THINK FOR a moment how disappointed Matty would be if she knew you were already planning to spend more than usual on her birthday to kinda even things up.

Half the fun of giving is to see or imagine the surprise and pleasure your gift will bring to the one who receives it. Don't spoil their pleasure by remembering the price tag.

There was that time that Tom brought a plastic vase, covered with more glue than sequins, home from Cub Scouts. It was to be my Christmas present. His face was doubtful as he saw me open it Christmas morning.

His own presents were forgotten as he watched me wade through the wrinkled wrapping and the many seals.

"I GUESS it isn't so good." He was waiting for my answer.

"Thank you honey, it's beautiful because you made it special for me." I held him close for a moment. I'm thankful I took the extra time to admire his gift and place it right then and there in the middle of the table, because I was helping him discover that nice warm feeling of giving something of himself to make someone else happy.

The Bible says, "It is more blessed to give than to receive," but we all have to learn to receive so that there is joy in the giving.

We have to teach children to understand that "thank you" means more than parrot-like repeating of a phrase. Sure it is the accepted term — the polite, well-bred answer for a gift received.

MAYBE BY not giving our children everything they desire they will have more pleasure in receiving something waited and yearned over.

Sharing our gifts and our joys with others who are not as fortunate will only increase our happiness in giving. Lowell has said, "It is not what we give, but what we share."

That elderly neighbor you took on a trip to town, or the time you acted as baby sitter for the friend with several children so that she would be free to do her own shopping. These are appreciated much more than any gift we could wrap in fancy paper and send because we have given of ourselves.

Now that so many have so much, we've forgotten how to receive with joy. We're all too busy in our own private yard to think much about the way we receive a gift. Everything seems to have a monetary value and children sense this quickly.

"JOHNNY got a bigger train. Susie's doll walks and mine doesn't," is a common cry. At an early age we probably receive too much and the joy of the gift is lost.

I've a friend that buys a present the whole family can enjoy. A new bit of camping equipment to be used the next summer—a special family game—a portable TV which can be enjoyed in any room in the house. The husband and wife take turns at this giving.

One year the wife has the family surprise and the next year the husband. Money isn't wasted on small gifts; it is all pooled into something they all may appreciate and look forward to having.

This idea of a family Christmas might work for you. We've tried it and the pleasure of the gift is increased by the sharing of each member of the family.

Christ never thought of a price tag. So we might celebrate His Birthday this year by giving thoughtfully and receiving joyfully. (Soc

An Experience to Forget...

Who Says Yule Gifts Are Easy to Assemble?

by ARMAND B. FERRARA

It all started when my wife said innocently enough, "we need an extra gift from Santa Claus for Donna."

Donna is our youngest. She's right on the threshhold of discovering that Santa is only a symbol of the goodness and kindness that Christmas brings out in everyone. Perhaps it is just as well that she finds out soon that a Santa as such, does not exist . . . especially after letting me know, as she did one day in no uncertain terms, that she knew there was a Santa Claus.

For didn't Santa bring the big presents whereas Daddy's gifts were always the small ones. This statement certainly can take the starch out of any Dad's sails. I almost spilled the beans right then and there.

Getting back to this little extra gift that my wife thought Donna needed.

We both knew that she wanted a doll wardrobe. Consulting the well-worn mail order catalog a few weeks before Christmas had turned up two models we both thought would make the ideal extra gift from dear old Santa.

ONE MODEL came put together. Naturally, it cost more than the other "an assemble it yourself" kit. I was willing to settle for the wardrobe that came put together. My wife thought differently.

As she said, "Dear, it's only an extra gift from Santa, so let's not spend too much. Besides, you amaze me with your ability to read instructions and put things together so easily. It'll be easy for you."

I'm usually not susceptible to female flattery except from a female. We ordered the cheaper knocked down version.

I FORGOT to mention that the doll wardrobe was constructed of cardboard. In my mind the assembling of such an infantile cardboard project would present no problem. So as a result, when the package came I dutifully hid it in the basement intending to put it together Christmas Eve when the young Santa Claus-believer was asleep.

At this point all I have to say is thank God I have an older daughter, a non-believer in Santa. Late in the afternoon of Christmas Eve she advised me to start assembling the wardrobe as she had with feminine curiosity peeked in the package and had found a gigantic sheet of instructions.

Non-plussed by this disclosure, but feeling that it might be a little late when we returned from Christmas Eve Church services, I jauntily wended my unsuspecting way down to the basement and to "Operation Doll Wardrobe."

I PULLED the disarmingly small package from its hiding place still feeling no qualms about my ability to assemble the wardrobe. Then I unfolded the sheet of instructions that had come tucked away like a treacherous rattlesnake inside the package.

Ye gads, as I scanned the detailed drawings (there were 24 intricate drawings in all) I knew I had hit the "put-it together" jackpot. I realized then, why the first doll wardrobe, the one my wife had vetoed, had been priced dollars higher. Hours later I was to realize that no matter what the assembled wardrobe would have cost, it would have been a bargain.

Now I prize myself on being a little bit above average as far as understanding some of the vague, incomplete and misleading instructions that one finds nowadays in most of the items purchased, as they say in the trade, K D (knocked down). But how any item costing, as in this case, less than five dollars, could come with such complicated instructions requiring at the least, an engineering degree to decipher, will forever be a mystery to me.

IN CASE you feel that I am stretching the point, let me give you a sampling of some of the instructions facing a bewildered parent who attempts to put one of these "easy to assemble if you follow the instructions" doll wardrobes together.

Take part c, remove excess fiberboard. Insert tabs 5, 6, 7 and 8 of part B into slots numbered 5 thru 8 of part c. Now push part B down at points indicated by red x on drawing same as in step 4.

Now fold up panel of part c as shown. Insert folded tabs 12, 13 and 14 of part E into slots 12, 13, and 14 of part C. Reach inside at points indicated by red hand on drawing. Unfold ears of tabs 9 thru 11 on one side and 12 and 14 on the other.

Fold down flap marked 26 of part c. Now fold flap 27 down on flap 26 so that holes meet. Insert 3/8 inch machine screw thru holes of flaps 26 and 27. Fasten with flat nut. Now insert 3/8 inch machine screw thru back of part E and thru hole of flap 15 of part F. Fasten with acorn nut. (COMMENT: This reference to a nut is in my estimation a direct reference to the person who dreamed up this instruction sheet nightmare).

Now, believe it or not, comes the crowning blow.

Step 26, supposedly the last step, the one that you've strained to reach for the last 3½ hours, hits you right between your eyes with this instruction:

Complete wardrobe by repeating the following steps in order: Step 13 — fold down long flaps 42 on to 41 so holes meet. Insert 3/8 inch machine screw thru holes of flaps 41 and 42 and fasten with flap nut. Insert 3/8 inch machine screw thru parts E and G. Now repeat steps 14, 15 and 16.

By this time any well intentioned dad has reached the point of no return. Hours have gone by and a quick sandwich has been snatched for supper. The youngest one's suspicions are at high tide, as she has been barred from the basement for hours and your wife keeps reminding you that it's getting close to the time to leave for church.

I FINALLY punched out the last tab, pushed in the last slot, inserted the last dowel and stumbled upstairs wondering if it was all worth the while.

This "Scroogish" thought let me say, was completely forgotten Christmas morning when Donna ran, not to the other "professionally put - together" toys, but to MY doll wardrobe standing there with one door ajar and leaning, I thought, like the proverbial outhouse to the starboard. One look at that doll wardrobe and Santa would have "flunked me out" as one of his helpers.

IN BEWEEN squeals of joy and delight, my youngest exclaimed, "Isn't Santa wonderful? Look at the beautiful doll closet he brought me . . . it's just perfect." (SF

Pride of Pigsty World Is Now a 'Museum Showpiece'

Contrary to the old nursery rhyme, there is one little pig that didn't "go to market"; nor did he "run crying all the way home."

Instead, pointing the way toward an entirely new social and cultural status for barnyard porkers, he will — through New Year's Day — occupy the limelight as one of the most unusual attractions ever displayed at the Museum of Science and Industry, the heaviest attended institution of its kind in the world.

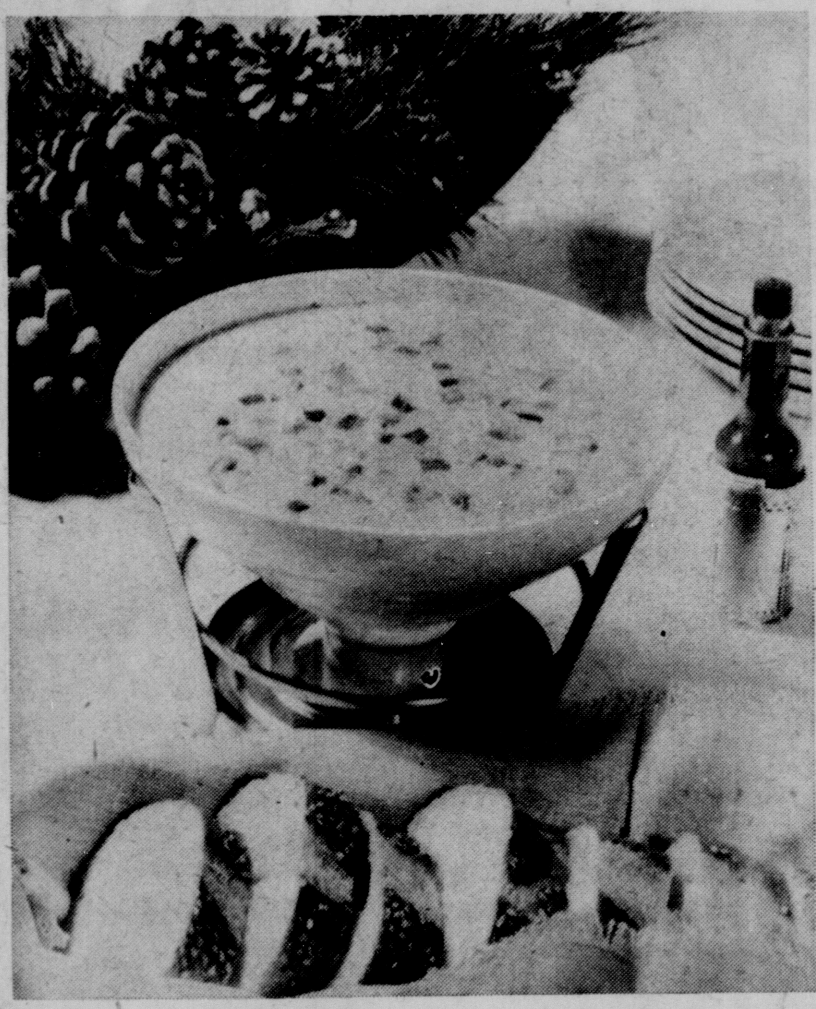
THIS COLORFUL graduate from what thoughtless humans are sometimes prone to describe sneeringly as the "pigsty," is "Hawkeye," the 230-pound barrow, who only two weeks ago demonstrated his supremacy over nearly a thousand rivals at the International Live Stock Show by walking off with the grand championship.

Purchased for $3,622 by the Jewel Food Stores, Hawkeye is making his debut at the Museum under the personal tutelage of J. A. Brewer, vice president, meat merchandising and meat operations of the big supermarket chain and George Swift, vice president of Swift & Company. Fittingly, his place of honor is in the most prominent spot in the popular "Food for Life" exhibit area, maintained at the Museum by Swift & Company.

aRised by Roy Keppy of Davenport, Iowa, Hawkeye has the distinction of being the first cross-bred barrow since 1907 to grab the hog world's coveted purple championship rosette. Instead of having purebred parents of the same breed, he was sired by a Yorkshire boar, mated to a Hampshire sow. (SH

HAWKEYE, PRIDE OF Pigsty world, has become a museum showpiece. This barrow represents the top type of animal producing the highest quality pork for the consumer market and was purchased by Jewel Tea Co. to encourage production of this quality of pork for consumer use. Left to right: George Swift, vice president of Swift and Co.; and J. A. Brewer, vice president of meat merchandising and operations, Jewel Tea Co.

Pizza Fondue–Informal Supper



During the festive holiday season friends are liable to drop in most anytime to exchange greetings and gifts. It's easy to say, "Do stay on for supper!" when you've a simple recipe like Quick Pizza Fondue at your fingertips. A chafing dish of this tasty cheese fondue provides fun for young and old as they dip forkfuls of French bread cubes into the piping hot mixture.

All that's required are canned stewed tomatoes, process cheese, salt and the zesty spice of Tabasco, the liquid red pepper seasoning. Diced green pepper completes the holiday color scheme.

QUICK PIZZA FONDUE

1 can (1 pound) stewed tomatoes
½ teaspoon Tabasco
½ teaspoon salt
½ pound process cheese, grated
1/3 cup diced green pepper

In heavy saucepan, combine tomatoes, Tabasco and salt. Place over low heat and bring to a boil; simmer 5 minutes to blend flavors. Stir in grated cheese and cook about a minute or until melted. Pour into chafing dish or one that can be kept hot and garnish with diced green pepper.

Serve with French bread. Yield: 2½ cups. (SH

Child's 'Tears' Made Yule Rose

The Christmas Rose, a winter blooming plant, first sprang up from the tears of a little girl who cried because she did not have a gift to offer the Christmas Child. The child picked the flowers and while kneeling at the crib, Jesus' hands touched the petals and a delicate pink appeared on the flowers.

This lovely legend is documented in an exclusive "Legend Series" of greeting cards. (S

Mothers Warned

Child Can't Remain Baby

Mothers may induce emotional illness in their children by wanting them to remain babies, according to Mrs. Gertrude Wilson, director of the Social Service Department at Forest Hospital, Des Plaines.

Speaking last week before an audience of mothers whose children attend Washington School in Park Ridge, Mrs. Wilson explained that such mothers fear unconsciously that they cannot handle their responsibilities as the child grows older.

"Some women are comfortable in meeting the physical needs of a baby, but are overwhelmed by the more complicated duties and responsibilities of leading the child normally through the growing process," Mrs. Wilson added. The desirable mother, the speaker stated, is the one who can see the child grow up without that process being a threat to her.

MRS. WILSON, who lives at 431 Meacham, Park Ridge, also described a second type of mother who sees in the growing child evidence of her own aging and resents the child accordingly. Such mothers feel the child as a "drain" upon them, the speaker continued. Motherhood is simply too time consuming and the child's dependency needs are felt to be an imposition, Mrs. Wilson said. Such mothers, also, are apt to push the child beyond its normal growth capacities, as she tries, unconsciously, to get rid of the child, as such. This second group may be as harmful to the child's emotional growth as the mothers who retard the growth process, Mrs. Wilson noted.

"The children of such mothers are caught in a bind. The child has needs which must be met somehow. Two things may happen in such instances," Mrs. Wilson explained. "The child can turn in on itself and create a life of phantasy and, perhaps, become seriously ill psychologically, or he may lead the rest of his life searching, unconsciously, for the care he did not receive from his mother, thus deforming his social relationships and meeting with frustration and unremitting disappointment throughout his lifetime."

MRS. WILSON said that many young people with emotional illness who come to the attention of physchiatrists, agencies and hospitals often the the offsprings of such mothers.

On the other hand, the speaker said, the majority of mothers bring up their children with "insight and fortitude. The often contradictory advice which mothers receive on how to raise children in itself is a source of confusion and, possibly, dismay. That mothers handle their job so well, on the whole, is certainly to their credit."

Special Cards For Yule Time

Special Cards 1-18 italic

Now, more than ever before, you can remember those "special" people on your Christmas mailing list with cards and verses created just for them. This year, why not send one of these cards to your family doctor, or the postman who brings all the pretty cards to your door.

Along with your order for eggnog, leave a special greeting for the milkman. And don't forget the little newsboy, your wonderful neighbor, the boss, and the minister and his wife.

Q. Should a wrist corsage be worn on the right or the left wrist?

A. There is no rule governing this, but I should think it would be better to wear the corsage on the left wrist than on the more-often-used right wrist.

OBITUARIES

Adolph Lindstrom

Adolph Lindstrom, 745 S. Beverly Lane, Arlington Heights, a contractor, died Dec. 7 in Magnus Farm Rest Home at the age of 79. He was born in Versav, Sweden Sept. 15, 1883.

Services were held Dec. 10 in First Methodist Church of Arlington Heights, with Dr. Hughes B. Morris officiating. Interment was in Memorial Park Cemetery. Contributions may be made to the First Methodist Church of Arlington Heights Building Fund.

He leaves his wife, Hilda, nee Erickson; three daughters, Jean Osmond of Ohio, Margaret Finlayson of Indiana, and Betty Thackery of Arlington Heights; three sons, John and Howard of Arlington Heights, and Ted of Palatine; 19 grandchildren; two sisters, Amanda Hagman and Ruth Wier, both of Sweden; and five brothers, Gustav of Michigan, David of Florida, Gunnar of Skokie, Eric and Theodore, both of Sweden. (A13

Tamara Jo Rasmussen

Services were held Dec. 7 in the Oehler Chapel in Des Plaines for Tamara Jo Rasmussen, 2-year-old daughter of Patricia and Willard Rasmussen, 180 E. Norman Lane, Wheeling. Rev. Herbert Armstrong officiated and interment was in Memory Gardens Cemetery.

She was born in Evanston April 19, 1960 and died Dec. 4 in Holy Family Hospital.

She leaves her parents; two sisters, Rebecca and Kim; one brother, Bryan; her grandparents, Ross and Buelah Freeman of Fort Atkinson, Wis., and Emil Rasmussen of Elgin; and a cousin, Marge Rasmussen of Des Plaines. (B9

Marion R. Stevens

Memorial services will be held Saturday, Dec. 15, at 2 p.m. in South Church Community Baptist, 501 S. Emerson, Mount Prospect, for Mrs. Marion R. Stevens, wife of the church pastor, 100 E. Sha-Bonee Trail, Mount Prospect. Interment will be private.

Mrs. Stevens, a former officer of the Mission Union of Chicago Baptist Associations, and an active member of several church groups, was born in Boston June 25, 1904 and died in her home Dec. 9 at the age of 58. Her husband has been pastor of South Church Community Baptist for the past 25 years.

She leaves her husband, Rev. Edwin I. Stevens; one son, Ralph R. of Ingelwood, Calif.; two daughters, Lucia Beth Robinson and Bonnie Ruth, both of Mount Prospect; four grandchildren; one sister, Kay Westfall of Milwaukee, and two brothers, David M. and Louis P. Rhoads, both of Fort Wayne. (A13

Stuart Richmond Sr.

Services were held Dec. 12 in Vero Beach, Fla. for Stuart Richmond Sr., former resident of Scarsdale Estates, Arlington Heights. Mr. Richmond, a retired district sales manager for the George Lamont and Sons, Paper Co., died Sunday in Vero Beach, where he and his wife moved several months ago.

He leaves his wife, Dorothy; two sons, Stuart Jr. of Long Grove and Bruce, at home; two sisters; and one brother. (B9

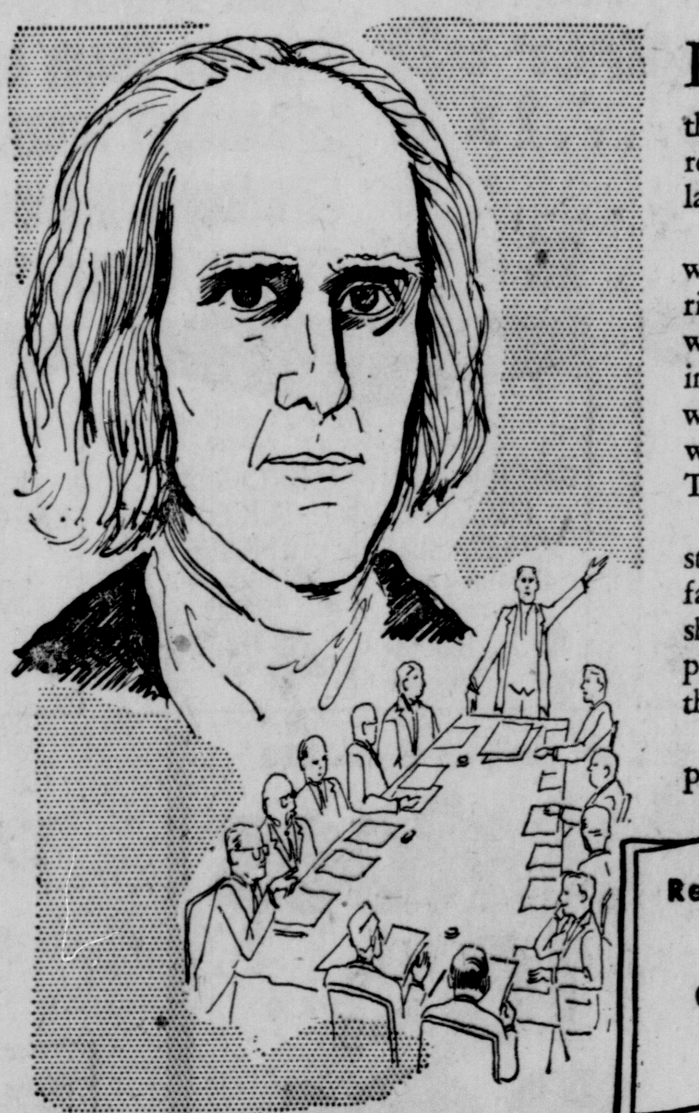
To Be Right

"Sir, I had rather be right than President".—Henry Clay



HENRY Clay was known as a great compromiser—but this related to his ability to resolve details of tricky legislation, rather than principle.

We compromise best when we hold to what we know is right and resolve the situation with wisdom and understanding. We do not compromise when we turn our backs and walk away from a problem. This is surrender of principle.

It is sometimes difficult to stand up and be counted in the face of opposition, and, it is shameful when we sacrifice principles in order to sit with the majority.

This is one of the great problems of being a Christian.

Aroma Of Yule Baking Fills Shoberg Kitchen

"WHAT'S COOKIN' MOM?" seems to be the question on Sandi and Susie Shoberg's minds as they watch their mother at the kitchen range. Lots of good things have been cooking in their kitchen these past few weeks, as Mrs. David E. Shoberg of Mount Prospect has been preparing Christmas delicacies. Four of her favorite recipes, a fruit cake, cookies and an elegant dessert, are featured. (SH

LIGHT FRUIT CAKE

½ cup orange juice
½ pound citron peels, cut fine
1 pound candied pineapple (red, yellow and green)
½ to 1 pound whole candied cherries
1 pound mixed candied fruit
½ pound lemon or orange peel
1 pound whole dates
½ pound dried apricots, cut (optional)
1 pound white raisins
1 pound butter
1 pound sugar
10 eggs
2 teaspoons vanilla
4 cups flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
1 pound whole pecans

Add orange juice to the fruits and let soak while mixing the batter. Cream butter; add sugar and mix until well-blended. Add eggs, one at a time, and vanilla and beat well.

Mix in sifted dry ingredients, mixed fruit and nuts.

Bake slowly at 275 degrees in greased and paper-lined pans. Use brown paper or double thickness of waxed paper and grease paper well. Small loaves bake for approximately two hours. Larger loaves take three hours, and a 9 or 10-inch tube pan takes 3 hours baking time.

The top should be golden in color and dry to touch. When cool, wrap in brandy-soaked cloths.

CHOCOLATE COOKIES

2½ sticks butter
⅔ cup sugar
1 teaspoon vanilla
2 cups flour
½ cup Hershey's cocoa
Pinch of salt
2 cups pecans, chopped

Cream butter and sugar. Add vanilla. Sift flour, cocoa and salt together and beat into batter. Add pecans.

Roll dough into balls and bake at 350 degrees for 15 to 20 minutes. Roll into confectioners sugar. Store in a covered tin.

CHOCOLATE EDGED BUTTER COOKIES

1 cup butter
1 cup confectioners sugar
2 teaspoons vanilla
1½ cups sifted flour
½ teaspoon soda
1 cup rolled oats
1 bottle chocolate shots

Cream butter; add sugar gradually and cream until fluffy. Add vanilla, flour, soda and rolled oats.

Shape dough into rolls 1½ inches in diameter. Coat rolls with chocolate shots. Refrigerate.

Slice ¼ inch thick and place on an ungreased cookie sheet. Bake at 375 degrees for 10 minutes. Yield: 7 dozen cookies.

CHOCOLATE WAFER PIE

3 egg whites
Dash of salt
¾ cup sugar
¾ cup chocolate wafer crumbs
½ cup chopped nuts
½ teaspoon vanilla
½ pint whipping cream
Chocolate shots

Beat egg whites and salt until soft peaks form. Gradually add sugar and beat until stiff. Fold in crumbs and nuts.

Spread in a 9-inch buttered pie tin and bake at 325 degrees for 35 minutes. Cool; fill with whipped cream. Decorate with chocolate shots and place in refrigerator until served. Serves 8. (SH

Cook Makes Fancy Delicacies Early

by LOIS SEILER

After trying several fruit cakes, Mrs. David E. Shoberg of Mount Prospect discovered a recipe she really liked and it has become one of her traditional Christmas favorites.

"This recipe appealed to my husband more than any other because it is rich and full of fruit," Mrs. Shoberg explained.

In addition to several varieties of candied fruit, the cake contains dried apricots, raisins, dates and whole pecans. A pound each of butter and sugar are used in the batter, as well as 10 eggs.

Light and golden in color, this moist cake can be baked in large or small loaves or in tube pans. Mrs. Shoberg decorates the cakes with cherries, pineapple and nuts.

Flavored with orange juice, they are then wrapped in brandy-soaked cloths and stored in the cupboard until used. (And the longer they stand, the better they are).

Two year-round cookie favorites are always included in Mrs. Shoberg's Christmas assortment. One is a chocolate cookie recipe which she received from her husband's mother. This small and dainty cookie, full of chopped pecans, is so rich and buttery that it melts in your mouth.

CHOCOLATE EDGED Butter Cookies are the other family favorite, and these appealing cookies contain a cup of rolled oats. The dough is shaped into rolls, rolled in chocolate shot and refrigerated. Sliced and baked, these round cookies, edged with chocolate, have an interesting appearance and a delicious flavor.

A delightful dessert which homemakers may enjoy using during the holiday season as well as other times during the year is this good cook's Chocolate Wafer Pie.

Simple to prepare, this dessert has a meringue-like base, with chocolate wafer crumbs and chopped nuts folded in. Baked in a pie tin, the cooled meringue is filled with whipped cream and decorated with chocolate shot.

The base can be made a day ahead, then filled and refrigerated a few hours before serving," Mrs. Shoberg commented. Rich but light, this delectable dessert is elegant company fare.

Mr. and Mrs. Shoberg moved from Arlington Heights to their new home at 618 S. Edward in Mount Prospect a year ago. They have two daughters: Susie, 5, and Sandi, 4.

Week's Best Food Buys

For the week of Dec. 10 the University of Illinois reports beef bargains more abundant. Pork continues as top market value and fryers are higher. Turkey and eggs discounted at retail as costs continue to drop.

Citrus lines continue cheap; some southern fresh vegetables are higher due to cool weather and a more active market.

CHICAGO AREA food values: Meats-beef chuck roasts, stew beef, round steaks, pork loin roasts, chops, picnics, bacon, smoked butts, lamb shoulder roasts, and steaks. Poultry-large eggs, turkeys. Produce-tangerines, oranges, apples, bananas, onions, potatoes, lettuce, radishes, carrots.

Dial the U of I telephone encyclopedia service for helpful homemaker hints. Messages change daily; the number for north Cook County residents to call is 392-3060. (SH

Sweetpotatoes from Other Lands Boost Holiday Menu

When Columbus' discovery of a great new world touched off a century or more of treasurer-hunting in the "Indies of New Spain," one of the most exciting finds was the sweet potato. Columbus himself said they looked like yams and tasted like chestnuts.

The Spanish explorer, Oviedo, thought they tasted like marzipan candy. English explorer Hawkins praised the sweet potatoes of the "Coast of Guinea" as "the most delicate rootes that may be eaten."

The early history of sweet potatoes and "Irish" potatoes becomes confused at times, for both tubers were called "batatas." Long before Columbus, Polynesians, great sailors themselves, seem to have spread the sweet potato as far as New Zealand. After the discovery of the Western Hemisphere, it was scattered further still throughout the Pacific, the East Indies, to India, China, Malaya.

IN PARTS OF the Orient today it is called "Chinese potato" or "Japanese potato." At various times and places, sweet potatoes have been known as "batatas," "ages," "camotes," "amotes," "ignanes." They thrive in hot damp tropical countries and there they are truly the staff of life, for they are surprisingly high in nutrients.

A single sweet potato weighing just under a half pound when peeled, provides, for instance, three times the recommended daily allowance of vitamin A for an adult. Count on it also for almost 2/3 of the vitamin C allowance, a fair share of protein, thiamine, iron and other minerals. These nutrients are all in addition to the energy value of the carbohydrates.

To give us an idea of the world-wide use of sweet potatoes today, here are recipes from places as far away as Africa, Hawaii and some of the islands of the Caribbean. They are delicious and unusual, though the recipes are quite simple.

SWEET POTATOES PLANTATION STYLE

6 medium-size sweet potatoes
1/3 cup butter or margarine
2 tablespoons sugar
½ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon ground black pepper
6 tablespoons cooking sherry or rum

Wash potatoes and bake whole, unpeeled, in a very hot oven (450 degrees F.) one hour or until soft. Remove from oven. Cut a slice from the top and scoop out potato, leaving shells intact.

Mash potatoes, add butter or margarine, sugar, salt, black pepper and sherry or rum. Beat until fluffy. Re-stuff into potato shells. Return to oven to brown. Yield: 6 servings.

FOUTOU MASHED SWEET POTATOES, AFRICA

5 medium sweet potatoes
1/3 cup butter or margarine
½ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon ground black pepper
1/16 teaspoon ground red pepper

Wash sweet potatoes, leave whole, unpeeled, and place in a saucepan with boiling water to cover. Cook, covered, 35 minutes or until potatoes are soft. Remove from water, cool enough to handle and peel.

Mash until fluffy with butter or margarine, salt, black pepper and red pepper. Serve with chicken or fricassee meat. Yield: 6 servings.

SWEET POTATO BALLS, CARIBBEAN

4 medium (1½ lbs.) sweet potatoes
7-oz. package flaked coconut
½ cup sugar
½ teaspoon salt
¼ cup (½ stick) butter or margarine, melted
1 small egg, beaten
Ground cinnamon

Scrub sweet potatoes, leave whole unpeeled, and place in a large saucepan with boiling water to cover. Cook, covered 25 minutes or until very tender when pierced with a pointed knife. Remove from water, cool and peel. Mash until fluffy in a saucepan.

Add coconut, sugar, salt, butter or margarine and egg. Mix well. Stir and cook over moderate heat 7 to 8 minutes or until potatoes come away come away from pan. Shape into 2-inch balls. Sprinkle lightly with cinnamon and serve as dessert. Yield: 30 balls, 8 to 10 servings.

SWEET POTATO FISH BALLS, HAWAII

1 lb. fish fillets (perch or haddock)
One 1-inch onion
2 teaspoons salt
½ teaspoon coarse ground black pepper
1 cup boiling water
1½ cups mashed cooked sweet potatoes
¼ cup milk
1 small egg, beaten
½ cup sifted all-purpose flour
1 large egg, beaten
1 tablespoon milk
Fine bread crumbs

Place fish, onion, 1½ teaspoons of the salt, black pepper and boiling water in a saucepan. Cook over medium heat 10 minutes or until fish is flaky. Drain, cool and flake fish. Set aside. Combine sweet potatoes, milk, small egg, flour and the remaining ½ teaspoon salt. Beat until fluffy. Stir in fish.

Using two tablespoons, shape into 2-inch balls. Drop into the large beaten egg mixed with the milk. Remove with two forks, and roll in bread crumbs. Fry in hot fat preheated to 375 degrees F. Drain on paper towels. Serve hot as the main-dish. Yield: 8 servings (2 balls each).

KICKIN' IT AROUND

WHEN MAINE EAST BATTLED Riverside-Brookfield in basketball at this time a year ago it attracted about as much interest as a baseball game at Wrigley Field does in the summer months.

Both clubs had dropped opening games and appeared headed for mediocre campaigns. As it turned out, Maine East clubbed Riverside, 62-44, but the result was passed over as just another score among the numerous prep games of a December evening.

Now, a year later, Maine East and Riverside-Brookfield again are slated to square off in a first round game of the West Suburban Conference cage scramble. If you're interested in watching this one, you better come early to the Park Ridge gymnasium. Seats should be pretty scarce pretty early.

Through the years any meeting between Maine East and Riverside in basketball has scarcely created any great concern among followers of the high school scene in Illinois. Maine East won the league title in 1960 with a perfect record, but, strangely enough, conference crowns in basketball are rarer for the Blue Demons of Park Ridge than for Riverside-Brookfield.

Maine has picked off only two West Suburban basketball titles on a varsity level since the league was formed in the mid-1920's. Prior to that title in the 1960-61 campaign, the Blue Demons had been without a cage crown since 1931 and they had to share it that year with (you guessed it) Riverside.

Although Riverside has been anything but a hardwood power in recent years, there was a time when the Bulldogs were a first-class threat each and every season. R-B has picked off eight conference titles in basketball, the last coming in 1950, and it landed four straight from 1928 through 1931.

Now we're in the 1962-63 season and although the league has been fairly difficult to analyse insofar as the varsity basketball scramble is concerned, there is general agreement that Riverside and Maine are two bona fide title contenders. Both have been impressive in their first two league outings and are the only two unbeaten clubs in the WSC.

Maine East comes into Friday's game off an impressive 68-59 victory over Arlington High.

MAINE'S BERNIE BRADY, who has directed the cage fortunes of the Blue Demons for several seasons, felt his club "had played better games" than it did against Arlington, but he was naturally satisfied to come out of the crucial road fray with a victory.

"We were too over-anxious at the beginning," Brady explained, "and picked up many unnecessary fouls. But when the boys relaxed, they started playing the basketball they're capable of. We also did some switching on both offense and defense that helped out.

"I knew we'd have trouble with Close (Chuck) and Brodnan (Gary), and they scored about as expected although Brodnan wasn't getting his shots in the second half.

"Bill King (Maine forward) played a poor first half and didn't rebound which hurt us, but he came through in the second half. And Len (Diorio) didn't have one of his better games."

Brady isn't surprised with the showing of his Blue Demons thus far this winter. "The kids relied too much on Smith (Maine's 6-5 center last year) at the beginning of that season but started playing together after the holidays. And, remember, we were a green team early in the year with several juniors and a sophomore (Jeff Jonswald)."

Although Maine East admittedly has been somewhat of a surprise, Riverside-Brookfield was expected to field a strong team this winter. The Bulldogs took their lumps in the 1961-62 season but are loaded with veterans and a rangy front line from that club.

"We scouted Riverside last Friday," Brady went on, "and know we're in for a tough game. They have real good size under the basket (6-6½, 6-3½, and 6-3½)!

"They do some half-court pressing and have a real fine guard with excellent speed in Randy Hrkel."

Riverside's Ron Nikcevich, who was tagged with an unencviable 5-16 record in his first year as head man of the Bulldogs, has molded a fine team with 6-6½ Kondla the leading scorer. Kondla has 45 points in two league games, and he whipped in 31 against York in the opener.

Tom is still a bit awkward under the boards and needs improvement in both shooting and rebounding, but this youngster is only a junior. He'll be a great one by the time he picks up his diploma.

It's been a long time since we heard coaches call Riverside-Brookfield "a real threat" in a major sport in the West Suburban Conference, but it's happening this winter in basketball.

They should pack 'em in at Maine East Friday evening for a contest that could go a long way in deciding the league championship.

Falcon JV Cagers Tire; Lose Pair To Leyden, Niles

Bob Rees' jayvee basketball team dropped their third straight game without a win this season in a double loss last weekend to West Leyden and Niles West.

The Falcons held their own in the first 16 minutes of both games, but faltered in the second half.

"The inexperience hurts us," commented Rees. "And it was the first time the boys played two games in a row. They appeared to tire Saturday."

Forest View trailed West Leyden, 19-18, at halftime Friday but were outgunned in the third quarter to fall behind, 40-27. Leyden went on to win, 54-38.

JIM LAFFOON led the Falcons with 11 points. Mike Griesman added eight. Rees said his squad collapsed on defense in the third quarter, and hit on only 13 of 50 field goal attempts for a poor 26 per cent. Tom Meyers played a steady floor game, Rees said.

The Falcons were edged by Niles West, 49-42, Saturday, finally falling behind when Laffoon and Ken Peters fouled out late in the game. Forest View led 16-13 at halftime, and increased the lead to nine points in the opening minutes of the third quarter. But the Indians caught up to take a 29-27 lead at the end of the period.

"It was our best game of the season," said Rees. "We might have won if Laffoon and Peters stayed."

Griesman led the Falcon attack with 14 points. Steve Humflett added 11. Meyers had eight, and paced the Forest View rebounding.

Patberg Plans Lineup Switch

Guilfoil May Handle Forward Slot Friday Against Downers

by BOB FRISK

A senior forward who has seen only limited varsity action may be in the starting alignment Friday evening when Arlington High School journeys to Downers Grove for a West Suburban Conference contest.

Bill Guilfoil, who has scored three points in his brief appearances, is slated to get the call over junior Paul Splittorff at the front line berth opposite Dan Sherman and Greg Buczynski.

After an impressive start as a varsity performer Splittorff has had some sub-par efforts, but head coach Norm Patberg is hoping that Paul will bounce back. The lanky junior averaged 17 points over the first two games, but has produced just 19 in his last three outings.

SIDETRACKED last Friday by an impressive Maine East quintet, Arlington needs a victory against Downers to move into a second place tie in the league scuffling. Maine and Riverside, the only two unbeaten squads, are slated to battle in Park Ridge Friday.

TIME:
Frosh-Soph game, 7 p.m., Friday
COACHES:
Arlington, Norm Patberg; Downers, Lloyd Wasmer

Patberg was disappointed in his squad's performance against Maine last Friday, but was high in his praise of the Blue Demons. "They have five good boys who can all score," Arlington's head man commented, "and their reserves came through when it counted."

Patberg bemoans the fact that Arlington continues to lack the ability to "win the big one." Last year the Cards had a good chance at knocking off highly regarded LaGrange and York, but fell short and in the crucial regional finale they dropped a decision to a club they had beaten on two other occasions.

"THE THING that's discouraging about that game last Friday," Norm continued, "was that we just couldn't take advantage of the opportunities that came up. They had two boys

St. Viator Home Friday

Close Contests Mark Lions' Cage Action

St. Viator High School has engaged in only seven varsity basketball games, but those seven outings have furnished enough excitement to last a complete season.

Two contests have been decided in an extra session with the Lions picking up both victories.

Three have been decided by five or less points, and the remaining pair were both determined by margins less than ten.

Although St. Viator has been giving every team a good tussle, coach Ron Feiereisal's young charges have recorded only two triumphs in those seven non-league outings. The Arlington Heights school is slated to hook up in two more non-conference games before the holiday break with league action getting under way in January.

Maryville Academy of Des Plaines, one of five teams owning victories over St. Viator, comes to town tomorrow evening (Friday) for a varsity and soph doubleheader.

The Lions will host Taft of Chicago next Thursday afternoon in their final action before the holidays.

WITH TWO sophomores and three juniors in the starting alignment St. Viator has been turning in some creditable hardwood performances against more experienced varsity units although its efforts may not be reflected in the record.

This invaluable experience gained by the Lions in the non-league affairs could pay off when league play opens on Friday, Jan. 4.

In action last week St. Viator blew a 15-0 lead against touted Farragut and dropped a stunning 44-39 decision on the home floor. The visiting Admirals didn't score their first point until only 1:53 remained in the first period.

SPORTING A front line of 6-7, 6-5, and 6-5, the Farragut quintet finally came alive after this shocking start and a fourth period explosion resulted in a five-point conquest.

Carrying a 16-4 lead into the second quarter, the host Lions saw that advantage cut to 21-17 at halftime. St. Viator held on and took a 35-30 lead into the final stanza.

Jim Vidt and Joe Heitz turned in impressive efforts on both boards although they were at a definite height disadvantage.

KEN HOFFMAN, junior guard, sparked the Lions' attack with 12 points, but Ken had foul trouble again and departed with five personals in the fourth stanza. Jim Murray pumped in 11 on a four and three afternoon.

On Friday St. Viator racked up its second overtime victory of the season with a 53-52 thriller over Foreman of Chicago. Hoffman dropped in a clutch free throw in the extra stanza for the decision.

At the end of the overtime Foreman stole a pass but missed what would have been the decisive basket.

ST. VIATOR carried a 43-32 lead into the third period, but Foreman outscored the Lions 18-7 in the final eight minutes. Murray paced the locals with 18 points on eight baskets and two free throws. Hoffman added 12, and Vidt chipped in with five baskets and a free throw for 11.

KEN HOFFMAN

Jim Consamus was the top man for Foreman with 22 points on 11 baskets. Jim popped in six baskets in the explosive fourth quarter.

St. Viator traveled to Marian Central of Woodstock Saturday and dropped a tight 55-51 decision. The Lions collected 27 of their points at the free throw line.

League Test Friday Night

Indians Bring 5-0 Mark Into Interim Encounter

by BILL HALLS

Dick Kinneman, encouraged by two weekend road wins at the expense of Morton West and West Leyden, brings his revamped Prospect High basketball team back to the fieldhouse Friday for an evening engagement with unbeaten Niles West.

For those who dislike travel, the game will provide time for a first leisurely look at Ron Moehling, Don Neubert and Dick Smith, all newcomers to the starting five since the last home outing.

MOEHLING, a 6-0 junior, has helped solve one of the Knights' most pressing problems—scoring. The hot-handed forward pitched 32 points through the hoop last weekend, including 15 in the first half of the West Leyden win.

"He had four personals, so we took him out," explained Kinneman. "He went back in for the third quarter, but fouled out right away."

Neubert, a 6-2 junior, and Smith, a 5-10 senior, have helped steady the Prospect rebounding and floor game.

The three boys replaced Ron Koepke, Jim Hogarty and Ken Groh in the starting lineup, but the three seniors still saw a good deal of action.

GROH APPEARED to be the most stimulated about being replaced. The rugged guard was inserted in the Morton game in a relief role and responded with 15 points.

By playing musical chairs with Groh, Smith and Dave White in the backcourt, Kinneman may develop some outside shooting and floor leadership.

The same theory may apply on the front line were oMehling, Neubert, Koepke, Hogarty and Bob Hope have all been used as starters. Moehling appears to have the edge as the best shooter. Hope plays well in streaks but appears to tire easily, giving Koepke, a fine defensive player, some playing time.

HOGARTY hasn't been scoring up to his potential, and Neubert may have the edge for some time at the other forward slot.

"We looked good in spots Friday," observed Kinneman. "And had a fine first quarter against Leyden Saturday. But the rest of the game was ragged."

Kinneman referred to 55 personal fouls called by the officials at Leyden. The violations were so frequent that the Knights managed only 35 shots. But they sank 18 for a fine 51 per cent shooting average.

Then there is Niles West.

THE INDIANS have won five straight, including wins over Palatine and Forest View.

The Palatine win was close (54-53) but impressive when one considers the Pirates' 6-7 Ron Kozlicki. Niles' Indians have no starter over 6-0. Kozlicki managed 34 points, but the quicker, more aggressive Indians pulled it out.

At Prospect

Niles West (5-0)			Prospect (3-1)
5-11	Zastrow	F	Moehling	6-0
5-11	Schnidt	F	Neubert	6-2
6-0	Birger	C	Hope	6-4
5-10	Kreiter	G	White	5-10
5-9	Landes	G	Smith	5-10

TIME:
Jayvee game, 7 p.m.

Niles Coach Billy Schnurr has six lettermen returning from last year's (7-15) squad. But he has already lost one of them — Jerry Berman, a 6-1 front liner whom Schnurr considers his best rebounder.

"He hurt his knee in the Glenbard East game last Friday," explains Schnurr. "We're hurtin' for rebounding."

THE LOSS didn't appear serious at Forest View Friday where the Indians disposed of the Falcons, 50-38, taking the rebounds away from a team that averages an over-all 6-3 in height.

But the Falcons are new at this pastime, and Niles still must be tested.

Schnurr plans to start Ed Zastrow and Jim Schnidt, a pair of 5-11 forwards; Mickey Birger, a 6-0 center; and Rick Kreiter, a 5-10 sophomore, along with Ron Landes (5-9) at the guards.

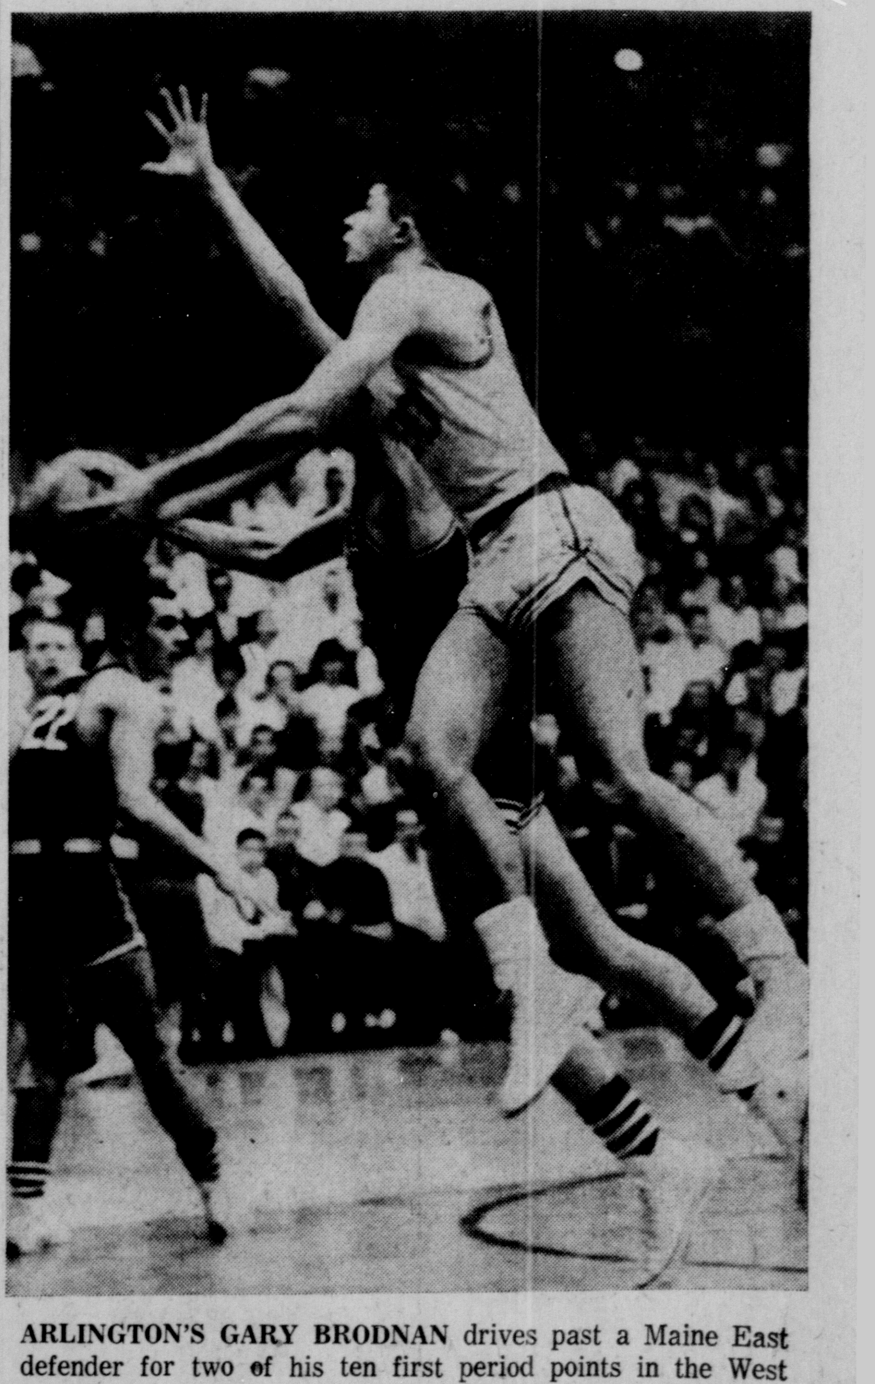
Bill Hohs (6-0) may play at guard with Schnidt moving to forward, and Landes returning to the bench. Barry Davis, at 5-10, in another possibility.

Zastrow and Schnidt are the best scorers, but all of the Indian crew appear to shoot fairly well. Niles' greatest asset is its speed, both on offense and defense.

The Knights will have to go some to beat them.

Glenbrook N. Sap Knight Freshmen

Glenbrook North handed Prospect High's frosh "A" squad its second setback in three starts this year with a convincing 59-34 win Saturday at Northfield. Jim Thorne was high for the Knights with seven points despite leaving the game on personal fouls. Fred Wesley added six points.



ARLINGTON'S GARY BRODNAN drives past a Maine East defender for two of his ten first period points in the West Suburban contest last Friday evening. The Cardinals jumped off to a 19-8 lead in the first period but couldn't hold on and eventually dropped a 68-59 decision. (Reece Photo)

Morton West Knights Upset In Wrestling

Prospect wrestlers upset a favored Morton West squad, 21-17, Friday but dropped a tough 23-19 decision to West Leyden the following day.

The Knights lost the opening bout with Morton in the 95 pound class — still a weak spot — but came back to win six of the next seven. Co-captain Ron Aukamp iced the victory with a tight 2-1 win at 165 pounds.

Two of the Knights five losses with Morton could be attributed to inexperience. Paul Wilson, filling in for Mike Phillips at 120 pounds, and Tom Johannesen, replacing Tom Rogers, made the starting lineup because of injuries.

PHILLIPS injured his knee warming up Friday, but returned Saturday to pin his opponent in the West Leyden match.

Wayne S. Zaehler (127) and Greg Field (138) were the only boys to pick up decisive victory margins in the win over Morton.

West Leyden came from behind—winning the last three bouts — to give coach Marty Schwartz his first victory over a Dick Mudge-coached team. Besides Phillips, Field picked up the Knights' only other pin, Zaehler, Jim McMillan (133), and Bill Murphy all picked up decisions for Prospect.

Murphy also won his match at Morton, his first crack at the 145-pound class.

THE KNIGHTS travel to Niles West Friday for a 7 p.m. match, the start of a tough weekend schedule. Niles clobbered always tough Evanston, 33-9, last week.

Saturday, Prospect hosts Glenbrook North which beat defending state champ Reavis earlier this year.

Prospect has one victory in three meets so far this year.

Grapplers Drop Fourth Straight

Forest View's varsity wrestlers dropped their third and fourth straight dual meets last weekend, but show signs of improvement in a double loss to West Leyden and Niles West.

"We're still learning," said coach Hal Henson. "But the boys have a lot of desire."

Henson signaled out Larry Andrews, Bob Torres and John Jennings as bright spots in the weekend outing.

Andrews picked up an impressive 11-2 decision in the 103-pound class in the Falcons' 37-11 loss to Niles West. Jennings won both of his matches in the 133-pound class, and has an overall season record of three wins in four matches. Torres won at 120 pounds on an 8-3 decision in the 34-13 loss to West Leyden, and came back to pin his man in the Niles West meet.

Other winners for the Falcons were Omar Aviles (95 pounds), who pinned his opponent in the West Leyden match, and George Derby, who fought to a draw in the 138-pound class.

Pirates Tip Cards' Frosh Matmen, 25-19

Palatine fashioned two pins and five decisions Saturday and rolled to a 25-19 frosh wrestling victory over host Arlington High School.

The Pirates trailed by two points with two bouts remaining when Arnie Jorgensen and Glen Volkening wrapped up the decision with a 4-0 win and pin.

Scoring for Palatine in addition to Jorgensen and Volkening were Dave Noonan at 103, Fred Baldacchi at 127, Dennis Koneczka at 133, and Russ Carr at 145.

Picking up points for Arlington were Darrell Meacham with a first period pin at 112, Chip Douglas at 120, Kirk Wolter with a pin at 138, Don Lindmark at 154, and Arn Abajian at 165.

Panthers Rip Nets

The fabulous DuSable five of 1954 ranks as the highest scoring quintet in State tournament history. The Panthers, featuring the likes of Paxton Lumpkin, Shelley McMillon and Sweet Charlie Brown, poured in 326 points in the four tournament games.

Russ has a high game of 44.

Palatine Captures 'Pa's Bucket'

"Pa's Bucket" belongs to Palatine High School for still another year.

The award for wrestling supremacy between varsity squads at Palatine and Arlington went to the Pirates for the fifth straight year Saturday afternoon.

Palatine jumped off to a quick 12-0 lead after four bouts, saw its advantage whittled to three with three bouts remaining, then pulled away for a 23-15 decision.

The loss was Arlington's first in dual meet competition after two victories.

PALATINE CLAIMED decisions in each of the first four bouts with Jim Bailey at 95, Fred Gluck at 103, Mike Gluck at 112, and Jim Nordin at 120.

Arlington picked up its first points at 127 when Bob Conti turned in an impressive 9-8 victory over Mark Walker, scoring three points in the third period on a near-fall.

Bill Anderson backed Conti's win with an 11-2 triumph over Jim Seagraves at 133, but Palatine bounced back on Seth Norton's surprisingly easy 18-4 victory over Terry Witt at 138. Norton scored 10 of his points in the final period with a pair of near-falls included.

ARLINGTON'S Ron Fritz decisioned Palatine's Ted Myers 8-2 at 145, and Rich Keller gave the Cards three more points with 5-3 win over Charles Price at 154.

State champ George McCreery handed Arlington's Bob Clark his first loss at 165 with a pin in 3:50, and the Cards' Randy Opela blanked Jack LaGreca 3-0 at 180.

Palatine's junior heavyweight, Mike Lang, handed Jim Bland a 3-1 setback in the concluding bout.

The summary:

Palatine 23, Arlington 15

95 pounds—Bailey (P) beat Brown (A), 4-1
103—F. Gluck (P) beat Fitz-Patrick (A), 5-0

(Cont. from preceding page.) out on fouls and we got most of the breaks, but we just seemed to quit playing.

"Our defense still hasn't come around, and we're missing far too many free throws. This club can score. We missed 17 free throws and still scored 59 points against Maine."

ALTHOUGH Downers Grove has dropped five straight games, coach Lloyd Wasmer feels that his Trojans are playing better basketball each time out.

Wasmer, in his first year as head man at Downers, says his club definitely feels the loss of junior forward Ray Shladek, who will be on the sidelines until after the holidays. A rugged 185-pounder, Ray was the squad's best rebounder until suffering a recurrence of a knee injury.

Forest View Cagers Lead; Stage Rally – Still Lose

West Leyden and Niles West handed the Forest View Falcons their fourth and fifth straight basketball losses last weekend.

The Falcons started off with purpose at Leyden, taking a 17-15 first quarter lead, and increasing it to 28-22 at halftime. But Leyden, paced by 6-2 senior Len Breston, went on a 20-point rampage in the third stanza to take the lead, 42-38.

The Knights never cooled off and went on to win, 62-48. Brian Karp led a comparatively balanced Falcon attack with 14 points. Joe Mueller (11), Russ Barger (8), Garron Kokai (8) and Dick Anderson (7) all chipped in.

WEST LEYDEN got 16 points from Breston and 11 from center Jim Gargano.

Back on the home court Saturday, Forest View started off cold, but managed to come within eight points of Niles West before dropping a 50-38 decision to the unbeaten Spartans.

The Indians built up a nine-point lead before the Falcons could make the scoreboard. Mueller finally hit on a jump shot with 10 seconds left in the first quarter to avoid complete embarrassment. Cold as a Minnesota winter, the Falcons managed only one field goal in 15 attempts in the first period, and only three in the entire first half.

MEANWHILE, Ed Zastrow and Jim Schnidt pumped in 18 points between them to give Niles a 21-11 halftime advantage.

The margin was increased to 16 points by the end of the third quarter, but the Falcons staged a brief rally to come within eight points before the Indians put the game out of reach.

Trailing, 40-28, Roberto Benevides and Mueller hit successive field goals with 3:47 left on the clock.

ZASTROW, who led the Indians with 23 points, popped in a one-hander, but Mueller cut the margin again with another score to make it 42-34.

Chip Julin stole a loose ball, bringing the partisan crowd to its feet, but lost it moments later on a walking violation.

With about two minutes to go, Bill Hohs hit a field goal, and Schnidt put the game away with a three-point play. Hohs added another field goal and a free throw before Kokai and Mueller hit the final Falcon tallies.

Mueller led all scorers with 25 points.

Bloom Tops Prep Cage Rankings

Bloom of Chicago Heights, a highly regarded entry in the powerful South Suburban Conference, heads the exclusive ranking of Chicago suburban area basketball teams released this week by the Suburban Press and Radio Association.

Compiling 235 points, Bloom headed runnerup Riverside-Brookfield by 21 in the balloting for the coveted top position.

Sportswriters and broadcasters in the Chicago suburban area take part in the weekly ratings which will be published in the publications of all association members.

AN IMPRESSIVE win over Arlington High School boosted Maine East's Blue Demons into third place with Maine slated to host Riverside this Friday in the league headliner. The Park Ridge five is resting 74 points ahead of fourth place Willowbrook.

Rounding out the top ten are Joliet Township, Waukegan, Libertyville, Blue Island, New Trier, and Proviso East.

Heading the list of honorable mention selections is Arlington High School, author of a 4-1 record.

Palatine Frosh Top Arlington

Two clutch free throws by Bob MacLee just before the buzzer insured the third win of the season for the Palatine freshmen as they edged Arlington 35-32 Monday afternoon at the Quentin Street School. The Pirate B's won 28-20.

After trailing most of the way, Arlington tied the game at 30-30. Palatine regained the edge and led 33-30 with :15 seconds remaining. Fearing a three-point play, the Pirate defenders allowed the Cardinals to score uncontested.

On the pass in, MacLea was fouled immediately setting up his insurance tosses.

Mike Danforth led the scoring with 12 points and grabbed nine rebounds. MacLea scored 10. Mike Whalen and Rick Whiteman paced Arlington with six.

Lestarge of Arlington and McWilliams of Palatine shared scoring honors in the B game with nine apiece.

Maine Demons Hand Cards First Setback

by BOB FRISK

Maine East's Blue Demons came to town Friday evening intent on answering any critics who placed little faith in their meteoric climb to cage prominence this winter.

For six minutes of the first period the critics had a field day.

Maine couldn't do anything right, and host Arlington couldn't do anything wrong.

The result? At the 2:20 mark of the first period the Cardinals held a commanding 19-8 lead and appeared headed for an effortless conquest of the visitors from Park Ridge.

BUT AS Arlington fans have come to realize through the years, no lead is a safe lead. The Cardinals have been guilty of some amazing turnabouts on the hardwood and in four minutes Friday Arlington blew its 11-point advantage and found itself even with the visitors at 21-all.

Coach Norm Patberg's Cards, seeking their fifth straight decision of the 1962-63 season, managed to hold a slim lead throughout most of the second period and carried a 34-33 advantage into the second half thanks to Paul Splittorff's jumper at the buzzer, but it just wasn't Arlington's night.

With two starters eventually relegated to the bench with five fouls the Blue Demons, now 5-1 for the season, still managed to hang on and with 2:41 left in the third period took a 43-41 lead on a steal and layup by reserve Dave Petrick. Dave then added a free throw, and Maine held a three-point lead.

THE BLUE DEMONS managed to stay on top throughout the remainder of the third period, but the Cards pulled into another deadlock at the 5:46 mark of the fourth stanza on a pair of free throws by center Greg Buczynski.

Jeff Jonswald, a key performer in the clutch Friday, dropped in a pair from the line to give Maine a 52-50 lead, a lead it didn't relinquish in the final five minutes. The Blue Demons moved out to a six-point margin at 2:20 and held on for the victory.

Arlington was terrific for the first six minutes of the league clash with Gary Brodnan putting on one of his finest shows in three varsity seasons. The 5-9 guard drilled a 20-footer, 10-footer, drive, and four free throws for 10 points.

BRODNAN, WHO had more than his share of troubles at the foul line, did pop in a pair to give Arlington its 19-8 lead, and that's when Maine came alive.

Jim Spohnholtz netted a 10-foot jumper, and Jonswald put in a free throw at the 1:54 mark. Bill King's free throw cut the Arlington advantage to seven, and Spohnholtz slipped in for a nifty drive at 1:01 that eventually meant three points thanks to a foul.

With 36 seconds remaining Brodnan put in one of two free throws, but Maine came right back on a drive by George Collins, a backcourt standout all evening.

MAINE TIED the count with 5:35 left in the second period on King's seven-footer, and then the two clubs traded points with Splittorff slapping home a jump shot at the buzzer to give Arlington a one-point advantage heading into the decisive half.

The Blue Demons gained the tie midway in the third period, took the lead for almost five minutes, fell back into a tie again, then pulled ahead to stay.

Maine lost both Spohnholtz and Le Diorio on fouls in the second half and Collins played over 11 minutes with four personals, but reserves Petrick and Bob Kuntz turned in stellar relief roles in the impressive victory.

JONSWALD, Maine's 6-3½ junior center, paced both clubs with 19 points, but 12 of Jeff's markers came in the final eight minutes when the Demons pulled away. Collins added 18 on nine nifty baskets with George easily the sparkplug of the Maine attack.

Brodnan topped Arlington with 17, and Chuck Close was right behind with 16. Junior Dan Sherman pumped in 14, eleven in the final half.

Close fouled out with 2:20 remaining in the game, but was the only Arlington regular lost via personals. Splittorff picked up his fourth with 2:35 left in the first half but managed to avoid that fifth over the final two and one-half periods.

Arlington experienced another unimpressive evening at the free throw line with only 17 of 31 finding the mark.

Forest View Sophs Lose Mat Meet

Wheaton defeated Forest View's soph wrestlers 31-16 Saturday, overcoming a 16-10 Falcon lead midway in the match with a strong finish in the heavier weight classifications.

Tom Briatic (95 pounds), Terry Hayden (103), Dean Jacobsen (127) and Bob Coon (133) all picked up individual wins for the Falcons. Hayden pinned his opponent. Rick Zographos fought to a draw in the 138 pound class.

Lions' Frosh Triumph

Featuring a balanced scoring attack, St. Viator's frosh basketball team rolled to an impressive 44-26 victory over Ridgewood Monday afternoon.

Each of five starters scored at least seven points as the Lions won their second game of the season.

St. Viator held a 24-14 halftime lead and outscored the Rebels by eight markers in the final two periods.

Dick Merkel was high for the winners with 11 but right behind were Paul Pomplun with nine, and Emile Bataille, John Piotrowski, and Duane Finfrock with seven each.

Tigers Bomb Falcon Five

Coach Ralph Naylor blamed "a lot of fundamental errors" on the Forest View frosh "A" 50-16 basketball loss to Wheaton's Tigers Saturday. The only bright spot in the loss — the second in as many games for the Falcons — was the rebounding of center Jeff Grismer. Rudy Perez led Forest View with six points.

Maine's Jayvees Top Cards

An explosive second period carried Maine East to a convincing 50-30 junior-varsity basketball victory over Arlington last Saturday morning.

Carrying only a 9-6 lead at the end of one period, the Blue Demons erupted for a 24-8 halftime advantage.

Eight boys scored for Ted Ecker's Arlington club, but Dave Christiansen's six markers represented the individual high. Jeff Beckman and Fred Devin each chipped in with five.

A FAKE BY Arlington's Gary Brodnan drew Maine East's Len Diorio into this foul in first period of last Friday's league contest. Diorio was one of two Maine regulars to foul out, but the visiting Blue Demons still posted a 68-59 victory.

St. Viator Sophs Post Two Wins in Week's Cage Play

St. Viator High's sophomore basketball team, coached by Larry Nomellini, engaged in three games during the past week and came out with two impressive victories.

The young Lions won their first game of the year with a 37-27 conquest of the Farragut Admirals.

Frosh Dick Merkel paced all scorers with 12 points on four baskets and four free throws. John Kidd added nine, and Mike Hogan chipped in with seven.

ST. VIATOR continued its hot streak on Friday with a convincing 50-30 victory over Foreman High School.

The Lions held a 24-19 lead at the intermission and carried an 11-point advantage into the final stanza.

Leading all scorers for the evening was John Kidd with 13 points on four baskets and five free throws. Next in line was Merkel with 11. Hogan added ten.

St. Viator dominated the board play all evening with Kidd leading the way.

ON SATURDAY evening nothing seemed to go right for Nomellini's outfit and Marian Central of Woodstock claimed a 47-33 victory.

Both the Lion offense and defense were sluggish. In addition, the locals could drop just 11 of 26 free throws.

Merkel, who continues to turn in outstanding performances, pumped in 11 points on three baskets and five free throws. Bakalar added nine and Kidd six.

St. Viator now stands 2-5 for the season.

A Cager, Too

Lou Boudreau, better known for his baseball talents, holds a little-known record as an Illinois prepster. Lou played in three state final games as a cager at Thornton of Harvey.

Tankers Open At Niles East

With five lettermen back from a squad that compiled a 2-5 record in its first year of interscholastic swimming competition Arlington High School will kick off its 1962-63 schedule next Tuesday afternoon against Niles East.

Eight dual meets and the Riverside-Brookfield Invitational face.

Cardinal tankers this winter with Ralph Eakins again in charge of both the varsity and frosh-soph squads.

In its initial year of swimming Arlington posted a 2-5 varsity record but was winless in seven soph outings. The varsity Cards dropped their first five duals but closed fast with impressive wins over Niles West and West Leyden.

HEADING THE list of varsity returnees is senior Doug Rice who qualified for the state finals in both the 400 yard freestyle and individual medley though failing to place among the top six.

In a highlight of the season Rice picked up two seconds in the tough Riverside Invitational

Another boy who scored for Arlington in the R-B meet is back this year. Bill Raasch, a senior, picked up a fourth in the 200 yard free style and sixth in the 50 yard free style, and Eakins is counting on Bill as an all-around performer with competition both in the sprints and middle distance events.

OTHER LETTERMEN back are Ken Brown in the breaststroke, soph Greg Inman in the backstroke, and junior Bill Truax in the butterfly event.

Cliff Hadick, a freestyler who lettered at Arlington as a soph, transferred to Forest View, and diver Cliff Holbrook, who had another year of eligibility, dropped out of school.

Other boys who have shown promise at this stage of the drills are divers Chuck Simmonds and Gary Mache; Phil Neas, Ed Bradle, Bill McCratic and Al Train in the sprints; Chuck Fenner, Bob Kopplin, Paul Michaels, and Jay Davis in the breaststroke, and John Softy in the backstroke.

SIMMONDS, a senior, was expected to be a mainstay in the varsity alignment last winter, but he broke his leg before the first meet.

Arlington is using the Northwest Suburban YMCA pool for its morning practices but will switch to St. Viator High School when the latter's facilities are available.

Cardinal Sophs Fall to Maine; Travel Friday

Two frosh-soph basketball teams still seeking that first West Suburban Conference victory will square off at seven o'clock Friday evening at Downers Grove.

Although the league season is only two weeks old, Arlington High and Downers are the only two sophomore units still searching for that first decision.

Coach Bob Baker's Arlington five dropped its fifth straight and second in league play last Friday when it was bumped by visiting Maine East, 44-34. However, the Cardinals showed flashes of some of their best basketball of the young season.

ARLINGTON put together a creditable first half on offense with 23 points but skidded in the final two periods with just 11 markers. Maine also enjoyed a fairly productive first half with 26 points but was checked with 18 in the final 14 minutes.

Lanky Bob Connors again was practically the whole show for the Cardinals on offense with 16 points on six baskets and four three throws. Fifteen of Connors' markers came in the first half, and he drilled nine in the second period.

Ralph Morrisett added seven points for Arlington, and Jerry Fink collected five.

Sasso Powers Rand In Sweep of Morton

Tony Sasso powered River-Rand Bowl to a four-point sweep over Morton Pontiac in the Paddock Classic Traveling League Saturday.

The win moved the slow-starting Rand team into a fifth place tie with Moyle Construction which was shutout by Pioneer Lanes. Pioneer moved into fourth place ahead of Moyle.

In other action, league-leading Highland Motors split four points with third-place James Stavros, and Stan's Standard capitalized on a 1045 closing game to split four points with second place Hal Lieber Bowlers Shop.

SASSO OF Des Plaines fired a 223-196-247—666 series to pick up high individual game and series honors during River-Rand's win over Morton. Teammate Don Oberg of Itasca hit a 613 series, including games of 200, 199 and 214. Don Christensen of Arlington Heights rolled a 595 series. Rand also picked up high team series laurels with 2989 total pins.

Ed Duff of Niles paced Morton with a 592 series. His high game was 211.

George Schmidt of Addison and Bob Krisch of Elmhurst paced Pioneer's win over Moyle. Schmidt hit games of 227, 181 and 223 for a 631 series. Krisch

A. Haase led Moyle with a 549 series.

Highland dropped its first two games to Stavros, but came back to take the third game and total pins on the strength of identical 202 games by Ron Fogarett of Palatine and Al Jordan of Roselle. Fogarett (595) paced Highland.

CHUCK GIBSON of Bensenville led Stavros with an even 600 series. He hit games of 227, 169 and 204.

After dropping two games, Stan's exploded in the final encounter to post the night's high team game (1045 pins) in its split with Lieber. Buck Perkins of Barrington Woods led the comeback with a 227 game. Combined with games of 192 and 195, Buck ended up with a 614 series. Andy Steichmann of Mount Prospect added a 585 series.

Irv Hahnfeldt of Palatine led Lieber with a 570 series. Teammate Cas Dewitz of Chicago posted a 561 series.

Arlington Frosh Handle Maine East

Arlington High School wrapped up a pair of frosh basketball victories Saturday morning over host Maine East.

The Cardinals' frosh "A's" won their first game of the season with a 34-31 decision, and the "B's" claimed a 41-31 advantage for their second straight win.

Jumping off to a 10-3 lead at the end of one period, Arlington held on for its tight three-point win in the "A" contest. Maine trailed by seven at halftime, but closed the gap with a 10-point third period.

Rick Whiteman popped in six baskets for 12 points to top both clubs, and Mark Saylor added seven markers. Mike Whalen contributed five points and did a terrific job at both boards.

In the frosh "B" game Arlington held a 16-13 lead at the intermission and went on for an impressive 41-31 victory.

Seven boys broke into the scoring column for the winners with Barker and Bloomquist contributing 10 to share honors. Anderson added eight points.

Tigers Whip Forest View Frosh, 37-13

The Wheaton Tigers whipped Forest View 37-13 Saturday in a freshman dual wrestling meet. Pete Phillips pinned his opponent, and Jim Kubik won a 6-4 decision for the Falcons. Forest View also picked up five points on a forfeit in the heavyweight class.

JUST DOGS

by DAVE TERRILL

Right and Wrong

Plans all made for the Christmas pup? Fine . . . but, just a few points to remember, especially if this is your first pup. The way a young puppy is played with can have a lasting influence on his grown-up behavior.

This doesn't mean that a puppy must be coddled. He is used to give-and-take rough play with his litter mates and as the human counterpart you can shove and tumble him about and he'll thrive on the attention and exercise. Just remember your own strength in comparison with that of a small puppy and don't push him around too roughly. Make sure that the youngsters know and understand, inasmuch as they often forget and give the new pup too big a squeeze with some rather bad results.

GROWLING IN play may appear "cute" in a puppy, but should never be encouraged. Slapping or grabbing at a pup puts him on the defensive and may lead to a lasting bad disposition. When a pup begins to growl in earnest, all play should stop with a sharp "no," then put him in his pen or bed, or give him a toy of his own and forget him for the time being.

People who are not accustomed to puppies sometimes misinterpret a pup's chewing fingers as attempts to "bite." But chewing on things is as natural as breathing to a pup. A pup uses his mouth and teeth as a child uses his hands in grabbing at things. Jerking your hand away or slapping at the pup won't help in correction. Simply let him know that hand-chewing has limits. Most of all, use just plain common sense, and your new pup will grow up with the correct knowledge of right and wrong.

Past Year

This past year saw a lot of things happen all over the world, and things about dogs were included. For one thing, Poodles again reigned as the nation's most popular dog.

In the dog show world about 200,000 dogs entered more than 500 shows held throughout the nation. The largest, Chicago's International Kennel Club show, drew 2,622 entries.

Even in the area around your newspaper, things about dogs were of interest. One point of interest, a German Shepherd used by the police of Arlington Heights had to be replaced. He was too friendly. And then the human side enters the picture even elsewhere. In Elkhart, Ind., a trainman finished work and drove 60 miles in his family car to free a dog trapped in a barbed wire fence. He had seen the dog from his passing train that day.

Barks and Bays

Christmas will have passed before the next "JUST DOGS" column goes to press. From the editor's family to yours, including that dog . . . old or new . . . best wishes for the holiday season.

Just Ask Marian Phillips

Tourney Coordinator Faces Many Problems

Marian Phillips has more than just a passing interest in the two Paddock Publications inter-league handicap bowling tournaments.

From September through January she serves as tourney coordinator and is responsible for the countless details which go into making successful events.

Office manager of the chain of suburban newspapers, Marian has been working with the tournaments for four years. Her actual work with the meets starts in September.

"First, we have to get the sanction for both tournaments from the American Bowling Congress and Women's International Bowling Congress," she explained, "and then the circulars, posters, and entry blanks must be printed."

LATE IN October and in November Marian is busier than ever, contacting each bowling establishment in an effort to gain a list of all league secretaries and forwarding the tourney information at the same time.

"Trying to find the names of all the secretaries is one of our biggest headaches," she went on. "Some bowling lanes don't have complete lists and then we have to check last year's sheet and contact previous secretaries.

"A BIG time-saver would be for each bowling house to keep a list of the various league secretaries, and I'm sure we're making progress in that direction."

As soon as Marian has a list of secretaries, she immediately forwards an entry blank and tourney fact sheet, stressing in letters the deadline dates and rules.

When entries are determined by each league, the secretary is requested to send in the entry fee and reserve a squad time. Slots in the various squads may be reserved prior to the actual deadline date without a definite entry.

"It's strictly a first-come, first-served basis for determining the squads," Marian stressed.

MRS. PHILLIPS computes all handicaps from the entry sheets and makes up a schedule for publication in the paper. She also arranges to get scorekeepers for both tournaments and serves as one herself in the men's meet.

TOURNAMENT COORDINATOR of the two Paddock Publications bowling spectaculars is Marian Phillips. The men's tournament will be held on Jan. 12-13 at Pioneer Lanes in Addison, and the gals' meet will be staged Jan. 20 at Rick Casares Pro Bowl in Buffalo Grove.

When the final returns are in from both tourneys, Marian must arrange the prize list and have the trophies engraved. The prize list, disbursements, tournament expenses and actual financial statement are forwarded to both the ABC and WIBC.

Her work for the tournaments is concluded in mid-January.

RIGHT NOW Marian is planning on entries from 107 men's and 94 women's leagues, both tourney records. "The tournaments just keep getting bigger each year," she commented, "and the interest grows accordingly."

Marian does a lot of bowling herself and currently sports a 149 average in one league.

First place teams in the area leagues on Dec. 22 will be eligible for the men's tourney at Pioneer Lanes in Addison on Jan. 12-13. First place teams in the women's divisions on Dec. 29 will compete in the gals' spectacular at Rick Casares Pro Bowl in Buffalo Grove on Jan. 20.

Deadline for the men's entries is Dec. 29 and the gals' material should be on Mrs. Phillips' desk by no later than Jan. 5, 1963!

Blanks Ridge Motors

River Rand Regains Share of 1st Place

River Rand is back in the news.

Just two weeks ago River Rand climbed into a three-way tie for first in the Paddock Women's Classic Traveling league. The following week these gals dropped a pair and skidded back to third.

Now River Rand is back on top again thanks to a sweep of three games with Ridge Motors.

With Fran Leschke of Elgin posting a 607 on fine games of 204, 199, and 204 River Rand knocked down the pins at a fancy 2772 clip for the three efforts and breezed to a 3-0 sweep.

ALL FIVE gals for River Rand eclipsed 500 with "Tiny" Davis of Elgin at 558 and Muriel Miller of Barrington at 555 ranking behind teammate Leschke. Rosie Alfson of Des Plaines posted a 537 and Hazel Steiger of Palatine claimed a 515.

In addition to the pair of 204 games by Fran Leschke, other 200-plus efforts by River Rand were recorded by "Tiny" Davis (214), Muriel Miller (202), and Rosie Alfson (201).

Maxine Moehling of Mount Prospect topped Ridge Motors with a 549 that included a 200. Arlene Stohrer of Northbrook opened with a 214, but skidded to 169 and 148 and wound up at 531.

MOYLE Construction fashioned an impressive 2-1 win over Tommy Thomas' Casablanca with Fran Altergott of Mundelein firing a neat 628 for the evening's individual honors. Fran opened with a 214 and followed that with a 192 and 222 for a 628 series.

Bonnie Kuhn of Mundelein with a 543 and Nancy Dietz of Mundelein with a 541 also played key roles as Moyle posted a 2699 over the three games with two 900-plus efforts.

Ruthie Baurhyte of Arlington Heights paced Casablanca with a fine 540, and Winnie Lohse of Palatine chipped in with a 527.

CELLAR dwelling Morton Pontiac showed some life with a 2-1 win over Steve's Restaurant as Joan Lindahl of Arlington came up with another 600 series. Author of a 626 the previous week, Joan knocked down the pins at a 601 clip Saturday with a 222 high. Jo Jericho added a 538.

FRAN ALTERGOTT

Substitute Laverne Rosset posted a 561 for Steve's Restaurant with a 168 and 170 backing a fine 223 opener. That 223 was the top game of the evening. Sis Jennings of Highland Park recorded a 559 thanks to a strong 220 third game.

Relay Squad Insures Win For Knights

Bob Hasse, Jeff Powell, Bob Perkins and Ralph Thompson thrashed through the Niles West pool one-tenth of a second ahead of the Indians' freestyle relay team to snatch victory from the hands of defeat Saturday in a dual swimming meet.

Thompson, anchorman on the Knights' relay squad, covered the final 50 yards of the 200 yard event in 27 seconds flat to insure the win. The timers clocked Prospect at 1:51.7, and Niles West at 1:51.8.

It was a pleasant win for coach Don Barrett's squad who trailed going into the final event, 45-43. The winning team in relay events gets seven points; the losers, none.

The Knight frosh-sophs picked up six firsts in the 11-event meet, including two apiece by Bob Angstadt and High Wesler. Mike Donovan picked up the other first.

Angstadt won in the 150 and 300 yard freestyle events; Wesler in the 100 yard individual medley and 50 yard butterfly; and Donovan in the 50 yard freestyle.

The team has won two meets (including a forfeit win over Eling Larkin) without a loss this year.

Win Two on Road

Moehling's Hot Hand Sparks Knight Attack

by BILL HALLS

Prospect High's basketball team — sparked by Ron Moehling — picked up two Interim League wins on the road last weekend. The Knights defeated defending champion Morton West 59-50 Friday, and came back Saturday to trounce West Leyden, 64-49.

Moehling and center Bob Hope provided the hot-hand to give the Knights a 17-12 first quarter lead. Moehling, inserted into the lineup to provide some scoring punch in the weak Prospect attack, pumped in 11 points in the first half. He added six more in the final period to lead Knight scorers with 17 points.

HOPE PICKED up nine points in the first half, seven in the first quarter rally.

Guard Ken Groh, ousted as a starter in favor of Dick Smith, entered the game in the second quarter and sparked a second half rally with 15 points.

Groh picked up 12 of Prospect's 24-point output in the final 16 minutes.

The Knights kept from five to nine points in front of the Warrior five all night. Morton rallied in the final three minutes on four straight free throws by 6-5 center Carl Gatlin and Al Berenik to come within six points (54-48), but Moehling hit a jump shot and Neubert cashed in on a foul shot to put the game out of reach.

GATLIN LED all scorers with 22 points, including 12 of 13 free throw attempts.

Moehling picked up where he left off Saturday, pouring in 15 points (despite four personals) in the first half to help give Prospect a 33 to 20 halftime lead at West Leyden.

The 6-0 junior forward fouled out after a brief appearance in the third quarter, but still managed high point honors for the Knights.

Hope and Don Neubert, starting in place of Jim Hogarty, picked up 13 and 11 points respectively to help share the scoring load.

AFTER THE first quarter, the game turned into a ragged affair with 55 personal fouls being called by officials, and five players being waived out for excessive infractions.

Besides Moehling, guard Dave White was ousted on the Knight squad. Forwards Wayne Plaza and Len Breston, along with guard Jim Nardiello were waived to the sidelines for West Leyden.

The Knights—when allowed to shoot by Leyden—hit 18 of 35 attempts from the floor for a hot 51 per cent. But the game was actually won on the foul line where Prospect bagged 28 charity tosses to 15 for West Leyden.

Jim Gargano of West Leyden led all scorers with 16 points. Smith had nine points for Prospect, and Hogarty added seven.

Stybr Says Defense Key To Success

Purcell Stybr's unbeaten frosh "B" squad at Forest View High picked up their second straight win Saturday, downing Wheaton, 32-28.

Kurt Koentapp led a balanced scoring attack with nine points. Chuck Boesenberg (6), Bob Hughes (6), Tom Straight (5), and Roy Palomo (5) added to the output, while Wally Price controlled the backboards.

The Falcons held the Tigers to five points in the first half while piling up 19.

"We've been winning on defense," explained Stybr.

Unbeaten Champ

Four undefeated high school teams have survived the tournament trail leading to the state championship. The unspoiled are: Taylorville 1944, (45), Mt. Vernon 1950, (33), Marshall 1958, (30), and Collinsville 1961, (32).

Arlington's Gymnasts Top Niles, Lane

Under new coach Tom Walthouse Arlington High's varsity gymnasts posted a pair of victories last week in their initial competition of the 1962-63 season.

Walthouse, who came to Arlington after serving at both Willowbrook and Glenbard East, saw his charges dump both Niles West 72-60 and Lane Tech of Chicago 68.5 to 63.5.

The results were encouraging in that disciplinary action had been taken against some of the top Cardinal performers, and they were forced to sit out the opener.

ARLINGTON claimed four firsts against Niles West and outscored the hosts on the trampoline, side horse, parallel bars, and in tumbling.

Individual winners against Niles West were Paul Garrity on the trampoline, Stan Rudowyj on the side horse, Ron Harstad on the parallel bar, and Tom Ostermann in tumbling.

Posting seconds against Niles were Conley Stewart on the tramp, Mel Peters on the side horse, Gary Holveck with a tie on the horizontal bar, Ulrich Geissler on the parallel bar, and Dick Rossiter in tumbling.

GARRITY AND Ostermann were the only Cardinals able to pick up firsts against Lane Tech although Arlington's balance paid off in the five-point decision.

Arlington's varsity and frosh-soph gymnasts will engage powerful New Trier in the home opener tomorrow evening (Friday) at 7 p.m. The Cards will host Palatine next Thursday afternoon, Dec. 20, at 4:30 p.m.

The summary:

Arlington 72, Niles West 60

Trampoline — Won by Garrity (A), 78-72—150; 2nd, Stewart (A), 70-64—134; 3rd, Roach (N), 57-72—129; 4th, Leffingwell (N), 64-56—120 and Baruck (N), 62-58—120; 6th, Holveck (A), 30-40—70.

Side Horse — Won by Rudowyj (A), 74-64—138; 2nd, Peters (A), 68-58—126; 3rd, Paddock (A), 66-56—122; 4th, Orser (N), 58-57—115; 5th, Senn (N), 57-40—97; 6th, Metnick (N), 66-56—122.

Horizontal Bar — Won by Satello (N), 65-63—128; 2nd, tie between Holveck (A), Berger (N) and Roach (N), 81; 5th, Kamrath (A), 42-35—77; 6th, Harstad (A), 37-35—72.

Parallel Bar — Won by Harstad (A), 72-80—152; 2nd, Geissler (A), 77-64—141; 3rd, Sotello (N), 67-71—138; 4th, Gorgenstein (N), 50-69—119; 5th, Barthule (A), 63-54—117; 6th, Sitman (N), 67-40—107.

Rings — Won by Sotello (N), 79-82—161; 2nd, Sitman (N), 78-71—149; 3rd, Olson (A), 76-71—147; 4th, Bulstein (N), 60-67—127; 5th, Garrity (A), 62-58—120; 6th, Harstad (A), 63-50—113.

Tumbling — Won by Osterman (A), 74-76—150; 2nd, Rossiter (A), 60-68—128; 3rd, Zager (N), 47-57—104; 4th, Schuldt (A), 50-51—101; 5th, Scantana (N), 42-43—85 and Baruck (N), 40-45—85.

Frosh, Soph Teams Win At Prospect

Prospect High's frosh and soph wrestling teams picked up wins Saturday in a double dual meet with Glenbrook North. The Knight frosh won, 36-16, while the sophs bombed North, 43-13. Both squads are unbeaten.

At the frosh meet, Bill Kralnog, Jerry Cowan, Doug White, Marty DeStefanis, Tom Nading and Frank Abboreno all pinned their opponents. Fred Sessions and Larry Knaack won on decisions.

Mark Pasidora and Rick Lytle paced the sophomore win. Pasidora pinned his man in 27 seconds of the first period, and Lytle turned the trick in 38 seconds.

Other boys who pinned their opponents include Karl Meisenheimer, Jim Herod, Bill Becker, Jim Zaehler, Bill Woodward and Tom Knutson.

Arlington Sophs Gain Gym Split

Arlington High's frosh-soph gymnastics team claimed a split in its initial competition last week at Niles West.

The Cardinals posted a 68.5 to 63.5 win over the hosts, but dropped an 80-52 decision to Lane Tech of Chicago. Lane was not originally included on the schedule, but the competition did count as two duals.

Individual winners against Niles were John Ungaro on the side horse, Johannesen on the parallel bar, Schulte on rings, and Condy in tumbling. Condy was the only Cardinal able to pick up a first in the competition with Lane Tech.

Hadick Wins But Falcons Lose Meet

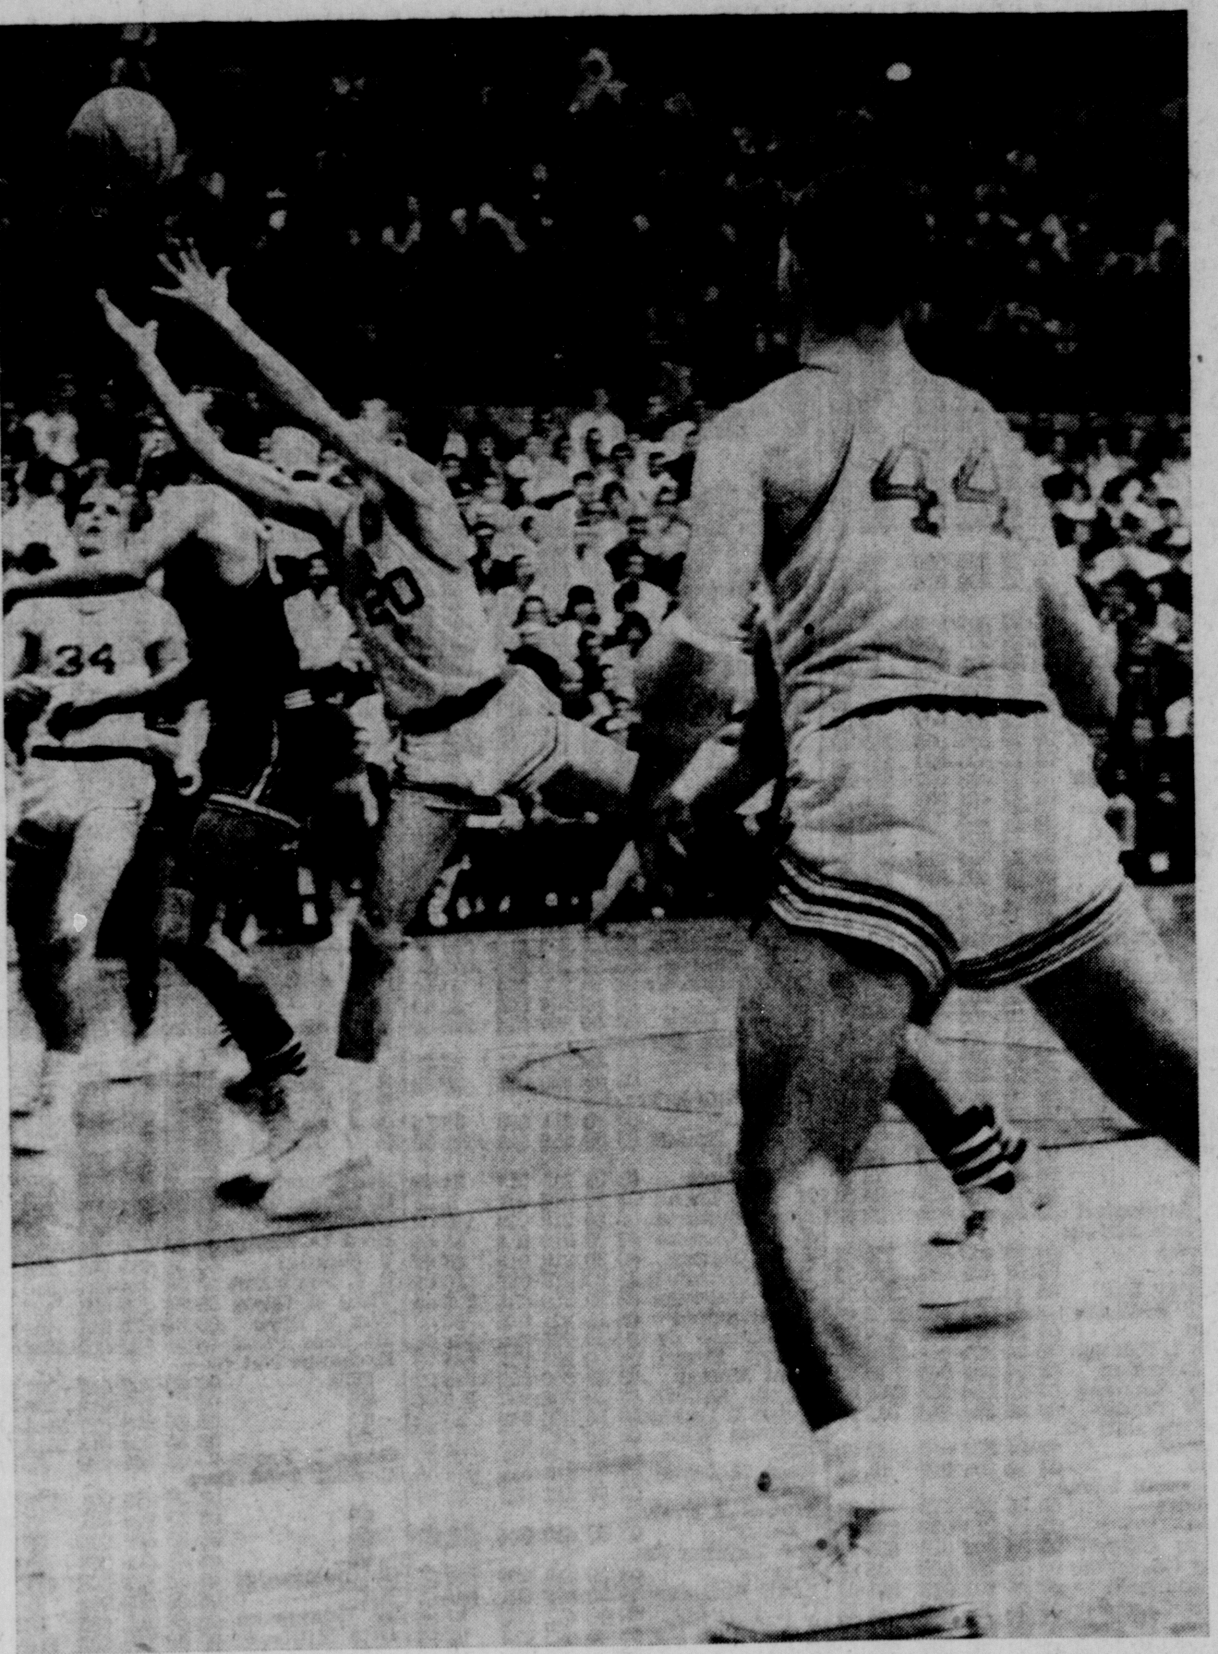
Forest View High's inexperienced swimmers were overwhelmed by Deerfield, 73-15, last Thursday in the Deerfield pool.

The only bright spot for Keith North's natators was Cliff Hadick's first in the 50-yard freestyle. Hadick covered the distance in 25.7 seconds.

Tom Blair managed a second in the diving competition.

Deerfield's frosh-soph team scored a first and second place sweep in swamping the Forest View undergrads 86 to nine.

The Falcons take on Glenbrook North at 7 p.m., Friday, in the Spartans' pool.



SWEEPING IN FOR another of his crowd-pleasing layups is Arlington High School's veteran guard Gary Brodnan (20). Brodnan scored 10 points in the first period and wound up with 17 Friday, but that still wasn't enough as Arlington dropped its first game of the season, a 68-59 decision to visiting Maine East. On defense for Maine is Bill King with Arlington's Dan Sherman (34) and Chuck Close (44) looking on. (Reece Photo)

Julin, Benevides Get Call

Arneson Jockeys Team For Weekend Twinbill

Looking for more speed and a stronger defense, coach Ken Arneson plans to revamp his starting lineup for Forest View High's third straight weekend basketball "doubleheader."

The Falcons will host Glenbrook North (4-1) at home Friday, and move on to Wheaton (2-1) for the second engagement Saturday.

Arneson plans to bench 6-4 forward Dick Anderson in favor of 6-3 Chip Julin, and in the backcourt, Roberto Benevides (5-11) will unseat 6-0 Russ Barger.

JULIN HAS played well in several relief appearances, and shows good potential as a shooter, something the Falcons need up front to go along with guard Joe Mueller's outside marksmanship.

"Julin takes a good shot," said Arneson. "Benevides is a good passer and floor man. He has that instinct for passing that you can't teach."

TIME:
Jayvee game, 7 p.m.
COACHES:
....Glenbrook North, Joe Hajost; Forest View, Ken Arneson.

KEN ARNESON

Anderson has been disappointing as a scorer, and Barger hasn't made expected improvement on his on again, off again play.

The Falcons will meet a small but consistent Spartan team Friday, led by 5-10 guard Chris Najork, coach Joe Hajost's only returning letterman. Najork has been hitting at a 15 point-per-game clip this year.

HE TEAMS with either Bill Harris (5-9) or Steve Priddy (6-0) at guard. Harris is a good outside shooter. The other scoring threat is 6-1 forward Jeff Browne. John Coffey (6-0) and John McFadzean (6-0) round out the starting five.

The Spartans have beaten Highland Park, Notre Dame, St. Viator, and Glenbard East so far this year. The only loss was a 73-58 drubbing at the hands of Wheaton.

Wheaton has played only three games, beating Glenbard West in addition to the Spartans. They lost to Niles West, 61-52.

GUARD JIM Crabtree (6-2) is back from last year's Tiger squad along with Ray Ebelt (6-6). Crabtree hit 30 points against Glenbrook North.

Coach Al Duhm guided the Tigers to a 20-7 mark last year, but his team lacks experience and has yet to jell.

Mueller, the Falcons' answer to everything, continues to bombard the nets. He has 78 points in five games (15.6) and is second in the Interim League individual scoring race.

St. Viator Wins JV Contest

St. Viator's junior-varsity basketball team posted a 37-33 victory over Ridgewood Monday afternoon.

Carrying a 21-7 lead at halftime, the Lions almost fell victim to a furious Rebel rally. Ridgewood scored 26 points in the final two periods.

Joe Sanchez was high for the Lions with 13 points, and Ron Bakalar added 10. Also scoring for the locals were John Kidd with six, John Erfort with five, and Rich Reardon with three.

Score by quarters:

St. Viator	10	11	5	11—37
Ridgewood	5	2	8	18—33

Prospect JV Cagers Win Twinbill

Prospect High's jayvee basketball squad turned in their third straight win without a loss last weekend with a doubleheader win over Morton West and West Leyden.

In a ragged, but convincing effort, the Knights defeated Morton West Friday, 48-38, with Dick Freyman pouring 25 points through the hoop. Tim Rogers added seven, and Tom McClellan, six. Paul Gunther led Morton with 15 points.

Prospect came back Saturday to bomb West Leyden, 56-44, in what coach Ted Wissen considers the best outing of the year.

McClellan (13 points) and Keith Bergen (12) led the scoring parade for Prospect.

"This was our best game to date," said Wissen. "We moved the ball real well and had some nice fast breaks."

Brown Double Winner

Indian Natators Defeat Prospect

Niles West picked up eight firsts and three seconds Saturday to hand Prospect High its first loss (59-36) in the opening dual meet of the Interim League swimming season.

The Knights swamped Elgin Larkin, 74-21, two weeks ago in a non-league opener. They now stand 1-1.

Sophomore Bob Brown picked up two of Prospect's firsts, churning through the 100 yard butterfly in 1:04.8, and winning the 400 yard freestyle (4:56.2).

The Knights other victory came in the 200 yard freestyle relay. John Gatts, Jim Cashmore, Jay Magnuson and Fran Wilkinson covered the distance in 1:45.6, two-tenths of a second ahead of the Spartan crew.

Magnuson, Ron McCully, Rick Peterson, Hank Jameson and Cashmore (diving) picked up second place points for the Knights.

The Knights travel to Maine West for a 7 p.m. meet tomorrow, and move on to Lake Forest for a 4:30 p.m. match on Monday, Dec. 17.

Zuckermandel, Grady Pace Local Skaters

Billy Grady and Jim Zuckermandel of the Mount Prospect Skating Club led the other 25 members of the local group in scoring at the Olympic Club Speed Skating Meet held at the University of Illinois rink at Champaign last Saturday, Dec. 8.

Billy Grady, skating in the Boys Pony Division, scored his first points of the current season with a second place finish in the 1/12 mile race and a third in the 1/6 mile event.

Jim Zuckermandel is fast developing into one of the top skaters in the Junior Boys Division, and he scored seconds in both his 1/6 mile and ¾ mile events.

JOHN GRIFFIN, also skating in the Pony Boys Division, won the only other point garnered by the Mount Prospect Club with a fourth place finish in the 1/12 mile race. John just moved up from the novice class and this was his first score.

All three boys were awarded plaques as prizes for their successful races.

Other club members who qualified in their preliminary heats, but failed to score in their final races, were Ray Leonard, Dick Solley, Greg Grippentrog, Brian Jonland, Mary Lou and Tom Haenisch, Jim Rybarczyk and Paul Juergensen.

PAUL IS one of the most improved skaters on the club since he graduated from the novice class. Skating in the Midget Boys Division at Champaign, he won both his preliminary heats and was leading in his semi-final races when a couple of unfortunate spills ended his chances for points.

Little Dick Solley likewise won his heats in the Midget Boys Division races, but he, also, was the victim of falls.

One of the highlights of the winter season in the Mt. Prospect area is the Winter Carnival, which is an annual event sponsored by the Mt. Prospect Skating Club and held each year at Lions Park.

This year the date is Sunday, Dec. 30, and Stephen Solley, club president, promises a star-studded show which is even expected to exceed the thrills and excitement afforded by last year's Carnival.

Further details on the Winter Carnival will be given in future issues of this paper.

Varsity Letter Winners Listed At Area Schools

Booster Clubs at Arlington, Prospect, and Forest View High Schools honored the fall sports programs recently at the annual banquets.

Following is a list of the varsity award winners at each school. Space now dictates the elimination of publication of award winners at the lower levels.

TAX LIST

OFFICE OF COUNTY TREASURER OF COOK COUNTY AND EX OFFICIO COUNTY COLLECTOR OF COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS.

Advertisement and Notice of Collector of Cook County of Application for Sale of Delinquent Lands and Lots for General Taxes for the year 1962, and Notice of Sale Thereof and application for judgment, fixing the correct amount of any tax paid under protest and for order for sale on such payments, as provided by law.

Dec. 13, 1962

NOTICE IS hereby given that the said Collector of Cook County will apply to the County Court of Cook County on the 24th day of December, A.D., 1962, for judgment against lands and lots hereinafter described as being delinquent upon which taxes remain due and unpaid, or personal property taxes charged thereon, as noted in this advertisement, remain due and unpaid, for said taxes, interest and costs and for an order to sell said lands and lots for the satisfaction thereof according to law, (excepting from said judgment and order of sale the cases which are included in this advertisement for sale only under former unexecuted judgments and orders for sale as may be noted in this advertisement).

Notice is also given that an application will be made for judgment fixing the correct amount of any tax paid under protest.

Notice is further herein and hereby given that on the second Monday next succeeding the 24th day of Dec., A.D., 1962 to-wit, the 7th day of Jan., A.D., 1963, at the hour of 8 o'clock A.M. all said lands and lots hereinbefore described for sale of which an order shall be made, or has been made and not executed as noted, will be exposed to public sale at the County Building of Cook County where the County Court is held in said County, for the amount of taxes, interest and costs due thereon respectfully.

The following is a list of delinquent lands and lots upon which the taxes remain due and unpaid, the name of the owners, where known, the total amount due thereon (excluding delinquent special assessments separately advertised) and the year or years for which the same is due.

(The total amount due in this application on each tract or parcel of land or lots is the sum of the amounts appearing due in this advertisement.)

EXPLANATORY NOTE — In this list in all places where no other notation is made the figures in the column headed "$" (meaning dollars) and the "cts" (meaning cents) represent the taxes due and unpaid for the year A.D., 1961. Where the letter "F" is placed to the left of the figures in this column it is intended for an abbreviation of the word "forfeiture," and denotes that the amounts set down to the right of the same are the amounts due and unpaid on said lands and lots for which said lands and lots have been previously forfeited to the State. When back taxes are extended they are indicated by the letters "B. T."

Payment of taxes made after printer's copies are sent to publishers for listing, and appear as delinquent in this advertisement, will be satisfied in judgment records before sale.

In lieu of legal description used heretofore each parcel of land or lot is designated by a permanent real estate index number.

In the permanent real estate index number system, the area is designated by the number appearing in the column headed "A," the sub-area by the number in the column headed "SA," the block by the number appearing in the column headed "Blk," and the particular parcel by the number in the column headed "Pcl."

Comparison of the permanent real estate index number with the legal description of any parcel may be made by referring to the cross indices maintained in various County offices.

LEGAL

ELK GROVE TOWNSHIP

DELINQUENT

OFFICE OF COUNTY TREASURER OF COOK COUNTY AND EX OFFICIO COUNTY COLLECTOR OF COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS.

Advertisement and Notice of Collector of Cook County of Application for Sale of Delinquent Lands and Lots for General Taxes for the year 1962, and Notice of Sale Thereof and application for judgment, fixing the correct amount of any tax paid under protest and for order for sale on such payments, as provided by law.

Dec. 13, 1962

NOTICE IS hereby given that the said Collector of Cook County will apply to the County Court of Cook County on the 24th day of December, A.D., 1962, for judgment against lands and lots hereinafter described as being delinquent upon which taxes remain due and unpaid, or personal property taxes charged thereon, as noted in this advertisement, remain due and unpaid, for said taxes, interest and costs and for an order to sell said lands and lots for the satisfaction thereof according to law (excepting from said judgment and order of sale the cases which are included in this advertisement for sale only under former unexecuted judgments and orders for sale as may be noted in this advertisement.)

Notice is also given that an application will be made for judgment fixing the correct amount of any tax paid under protest.

Notice is further herein and hereby given that on the second Monday next succeeding the 24th day of Dec., A.D., 1962, to-wit, the 7th day of Jan., A.D., 1963, at the hour of 8 o'clock A.M. all said lands and lots hereinbefore described for sale of which an order shall be made, or has been made and not executed as noted, will be exposed to public sale at the County Building of Cook County where the County Court is held in said County, for the amount of taxes, interest and costs due thereon respectfully.

The following is a list of delinquent lands and lots upon which the taxes remain due and unpaid, the name of the owners, where known, the total amount due thereon (excluding delinquent special assessments separately advertised) and the year or years for which the same is due.

(The total amount due in this application on each tract or parcel of land or lots is the sum of the amounts appearing due in this advertisement.)

EXPLANATORY NOTE — In this list in all places where no other notation is made the figures in the column headed "$" (meaning dollars) and the "cts" (meaning cents) represent the taxes due and unpaid for the year A.D., 1961. Where the letter "F" is placed to the left of the figures in this column it is intended for an abbreviation of the word "forfeiture," and denotes that the amounts set down to the right of the same are the amounts due and unpaid on said lands and lots for which said lands and lots have been previously forfeited to the State. When back taxes are extended they are indicated by letters "B.T."

Payment of taxes made after printer's copies are sent to publishers for listing, and appear as delinquent in this advertisement, will be satisfied in judgment records before sale.

In lieu of legal description used heretofore each parcel of land or lot is designated by a permanent real estate index number.

In the permanent real estate index number system the area is designated by the number appearing in the column headed "A," the sub-area by the number in the column headed "SA," the block by the number appearing in the column headed "Blk," and the particular parcel by the number in the column headed "Pcl."

Comparison of the permanent real estate index number with the legal description of any parcel may be made by referring to the cross indices maintained in various County offices.

Published by order of County Collector
Cook County, Ill.

LEGAL

PALATINE TOWNSHIP

DELINQUENT

OFFICE OF COUNTY TREASURER OF COOK COUNTY AND EX OFFICIO COUNTY COLLECTOR OF COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS.

Advertisement and Notice of Collector of Cook County of Application for Sale of Delinquent Lands and Lots for General Taxes for the year 1962, and Notice of Sale Thereof and application for judgment, fixing the correct amount of any tax paid under protest and for order for sale on such payments, as provided by law.

Dec. 13, 1962

NOTICE IS hereby given that the said Collector of Cook County will apply to the County Court of Cook County on the 24th day of December, A.D. 1962, for judgment against lands and lots hereinafter described as being delinquent upon which taxes remain due and unpaid, or personal property taxes charged thereon, as noted in this advertisement, remain due and unpaid, for said taxes, interest and costs and for an order to sell said lands and lots for the satisfaction thereof according to law (excepting from said judgment and order of sale the cases which are included in this advertisement for sale only under former unexecuted judgments and orders for sale as may be noted in this advertisement).

Notice is also given that an application will be made for judgment fixing the correct amount of any tax paid under protest.

Notice is further herein and hereby given that on the second Monday next succeeding the 24th day of Dec., A.D., 1962, to-wit, the 7th day of Jan., A.D., 1963, at the hour of 8 o'clock A.M all said lands and lots hereinbefore described for sale of which an order shall be made, or has been made and not executed as noted, will be exposed to public sale at the County Building of Cook County where the County Court is held in said County, for the amount of taxes, interest and costs due thereon respectfully.

The following is a list of delinquent lands and lots upon which the taxes remain due and unpaid, the name of the owners, where known, the total amount due thereon (excluding delinquent special assessments separately advertised) and the year or years for which the same is due.

(The total amount due in this application on each tract or parcel of land or lots is the sum of the amounts appearing due in this advertisement.)

EXPLANATORY NOTE — In this list in all places where no other notation is made the figures in the column headed "$" (meaning dollars) and the "cts" (meaning cents) represent the taxes due and unpaid for the year A.D., 1961. Where the letter "F" is placed to the left of the figures in this column it is intended for an abbreviation of the word "forfeiture," and denotes that the amounts set down to the right of the same are the amounts due and unpaid on said lands and lots for which said lands and lots have been previously forfeited to the State. When back taxes are extended they are indicated by the letters "B.T."

Payment of taxes made after printer's copies are sent to publishers for listing, and appear as delinquent in this advertisement, will be satisfied in judgment records before sale.

In lieu of legal description used heretofore each parcel of land or lot is designated by a permanent real estate index number.

In the permanent real estate index number system the area is designated by the number appearing in the column headed "A," the sub-area by the number in the column headed "SA," the block by the number appearing in the column headed "Blk," and the particular parcel by the number in the column headed "Pcl."

Comparison of the permanent real estate index number with the legal description of any parcel may be made by referring to the cross indices maintained in various County offices.

County Collector
Cook County, Ill.

LEGAL

HANOVER TOWNSHIP

DELINQUENT TAX LIST

OFFICE OF COUNTY TREASURER OF COOK COUNTY AND EX OFFICIO COUNTY COLLECTOR OF COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS.

Advertisement and Notice of Collector of Cook County of Application for Sale of Delinquent Lands and Lots for General Taxes for the year 1962, and Notice of Sale Thereof and application for judgment, fixing the correct amount of any tax paid under protest and for order for sale on such payments, as provided by law.

Dec. 13, 1962

NOTICE IS hereby given that the said Collector of Cook County will apply to the County Court of Cook County on the 24th day of December, A.D., 1962, for judgment against lands and lots hereinafter described as being delinquent upon which taxes remain due and unpaid, or personal property taxes charged thereon, as noted in this advertisement, remain due and unpaid, for said taxes, interest and costs and for an order to sell said lands and lots for the satisfaction thereof according to law (excepting from said judgment and order of sale the cases which are included in this advertisement for sale only under former unexecuted judgments and orders for sale as may be noted in this advertisement).

Notice is also given that an application will be made for judgment fixing the correct amount of any tax paid under protest.

Notice is further herein and hereby given that on the second Monday next succeeding the 24th day of Dec., A.D., 1962, to-wit, the 7th day of Jan., A.D., 1963, at the hour of 8 o'clock A.M. all said lands and lots hereinbefore described for sale of which an order shall be made, or has been made and not executed as noted, will be exposed to public sale at the County Building of Cook County where the County Court is held in said County, for the amount of taxes, interest and costs due thereon respectfully.

The following is a list of delinquent lands and lots upon which the taxes remain due and unpaid, the name of the owners, where known, the total amount due thereon (excluding delinquent special assessments separately advertised) and the year or years for which the same is due.

(The total amount due in this application on each tract or parcel of land or lots is the sum of the amounts appearing due in this advertisement.)

EXPLANATORY NOTE — In this list in all places where no other notation is made the figures in the column headed "$" (meaning dollars) and the "cts" (meaning cents) represent the taxes due and unpaid for the year A.D., 1961. Where the letter "F" is placed to the left of the figures in this column it is intended for an abbreviation of the word "forfeiture," and denotes that the amounts set down to the right of the same are the amounts due and unpaid on said lands and lots for which said lands and lots have been previously forfeited to the State. When back taxes are extended they are indicated by the letters "B.T."

Payment of taxes made after printer's copies are sent to publishers for listing, and appear as delinquent in this advertisement, will be satisfied in judgment records before sale.

In lieu of legal description used heretofore each parcel of land or lot is designated by a permanent real estate index number.

In the permanent real estate index number system the area is designated by the number appearing in the column headed "A," the subarea by the number in the column headed "SA," the block by the number appearing in the column headed "Blk," and the particular parcel by the number in the column headed "Pcl."

Comparison of the permanent real estate index number with the legal description of any parcel may be made by referring to the cross indices maintained in various County offices.

County Collector
Cook County, Ill.

BARRINGTON TOWNSHIP

DELINQUENT TAX LIST

OFFICE OF COUNTY TREASURER OF COOK COUNTY AND EX OFFICIO COUNTY COLLECTOR OF COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS.

Advertisement and Notice of Collector of Cook County of Application for Sale of Delinquent Lands and Lots for General Taxes for the year 1962, and Notice of Sale Thereof and application for judgment, fixing the correct amount of any tax paid under protest and for order for sale on such payments, as provided by law.

Dec. 13, 1962

NOTICE IS hereby given that the said Collector of Cook County will apply to the County Court of Cook County on the 24th day of December, A.D., 1962, for judgment against lands and lots hereinafter described as being delinquent upon which taxes remain due and unpaid, or personal property taxes charged thereon, as noted in this advertisement, remain due and unpaid, for said taxes, interest and costs and for an order to sell said lands and lots for the satisfaction thereof according to law (excepting from said judgment and order of sale the cases which are included in this advertisement for sale only under former unexecuted judgments and orders for sale as may be noted in this advertisement).

Notice is also given that an application will be made for judgment fixing the correct amount of any tax paid under protest.

Notice is further herein and hereby given that on the second Monday next succeeding the 24th day of Dec., A.D., 1962, to-wit, the 7th day of Jan., A.D., 1963, at the hour of 8 o'clock A.M. all said lands and lots hereinbefore described for sale of which an order shall be made, or has been made and not executed as noted, will be exposed to public sale at the County Building of Cook County where the County Court is held in said County, for the amount of taxes, interest and costs due thereon respectfully.

The following is a list of delinquent lands and lots upon which the taxes remain due and unpaid, the name of the owners, where known, the total amount due thereon (excluding delinquent special assessments separately advertised) and the year or years for which the same is due.

(The total amount due in this application on each tract or parcel of land or lots is the sum of the amounts appearing due in this advertisement.)

EXPLANATORY NOTE — In this list in all places where no other notation is made the figures in the column headed "$" (meaning dollars) and the "cts" (meaning cents) represent the taxes due and unpaid for the year A.D., 1961. Where the letter "F" is placed to the left of the figures in this column it is intended for an abbreviation of the word "forfeiture" and denotes that the amounts set down to the right of the same are the amounts due and unpaid on said lands and lots for which said lands and lots have been previously forfeited to the State. When back taxes are extended they are indicated by the letters "B.T."

Payment of taxes made after printer's copies are sent to publishers for listing, and appear as delinquent in this advertisement, will be satisfied in judgment records before sale.

In lieu of legal description used heretofore each parcel of land or lot is designated by a permanent real estate index number.

In the permanent real estate index number system the area is designated by the number appearing in the column headed "A," the subarea by the number in the column headed "SA," the block by the number appearing in the column headed "Blk," and the particular parcel by the number in the column headed "Pcl."

Comparison of the permanent real estate index number with the legal description of any parcel may be made by referring to the cross indices maintained in various County offices.

LEGAL

SCHAUMBURG TOWNSHIP

DELINQUENT TAX LIST

OFFICE OF COUNTY TREASURER OF COOK COUNTY AND EX OFFICIO COUNTY COLLECTOR OF COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS.

Advertisement and Notice of Collector of Cook County of Application for Sale of Delinquent Lands and Lots for General Taxes for the year 1962, and Notice of Sale Thereof and application for judgment, fixing the correct amount of any tax paid under protest and for order for sale on such payments, as provided by law.

Dec. 13, 1962

NOTICE IS hereby given that the said Collector of Cook County will apply to the County Court of Cook County on the 24th day of December, A.D., 1962, for judgment against lands and lots hereinafter described as being delinquent upon which taxes remain due and unpaid, or personal property taxes charged thereon, as noted in this advertisement, remain due and unpaid, for said taxes, interest and costs and for an order to sell said lands and lots for the satisfaction thereof according to law (excepting from said judgment and order of sale the cases which are included in this advertisement for sale only under former unexecuted judgments and orders for sale as may be noted in this advertisement).

Notice is also given that an application will be made for judgment fixing the correct amount of any tax paid under protest.

Notice is further herein and hereby given that on the second Monday next succeeding the 24th day of Dec., A.D., 1962, to-wit, the 7th day of Jan., A.D., 1963, at the hour of 8 o'clock A.M., all said lands and lots hereinbefore described for sale of which an order shall be made, or has been made and not executed as noted, will be exposed to public sale at the County Building of Cook County where the County Court is held in said County, for the amount of taxes, interest and costs due thereon respectfully.

The following is a list of delinquent lands and lots upon which the taxes remain due and unpaid, the name of the owners, where known, the total amount due thereon (excluding delinquent special assessments separately advertised) and the year or years for which the same is due.

(The total amount due in this application on each tract or parcel of land or lots is the sum of the amounts appearing due in this advertisement.)

EXPLANATORY NOTE — In this list in all places where no other notation is made the figures in the column headed "$" (meaning dollars) and the "cts" (meaning cents) represent the taxes due and unpaid for the year A.D., 1961. Where the letter "F" is placed to the left of the figures in this column it is intended for an abbreviation of the word "forfeiture," and denotes that the amounts set down to the right of the same are the amounts due and unpaid on said lands and lots for which said lands and lots have been previously forfeited to the State. When back taxes are extended they are indicated by the letters "B.T."

Payment of taxes made after printer's copies are sent to publishers for listing, and appear as delinquent in this advertisement, will be satisfied in judgment records before sale.

In lieu of legal description used heretofore each parcel of land or lot is designated by a permanent real estate index number.

In the permanent real estate index number system the area is designated by the number appearing in the column headed "A," the subarea by the number in the column headed "SA," the block by the number appearing in the columns headed "Blk," and the particular parcel by the number in the column headed "Pct."

Comparison of the permanent real estate index number with the legal description of any parcel may be made by referring to the cross indices maintained in various County offices.

Christmas... at Randhurst

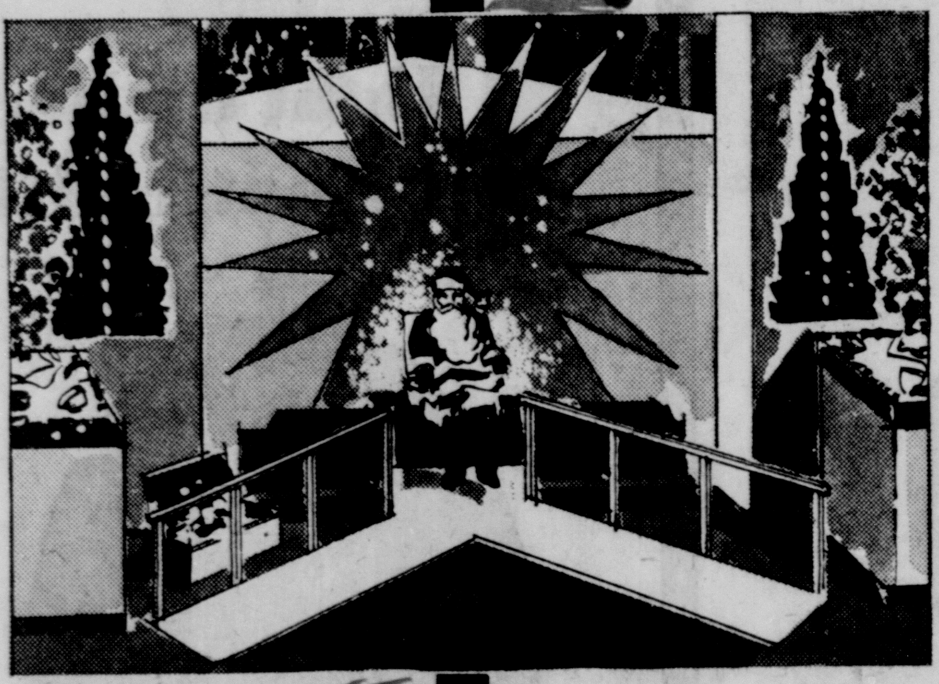
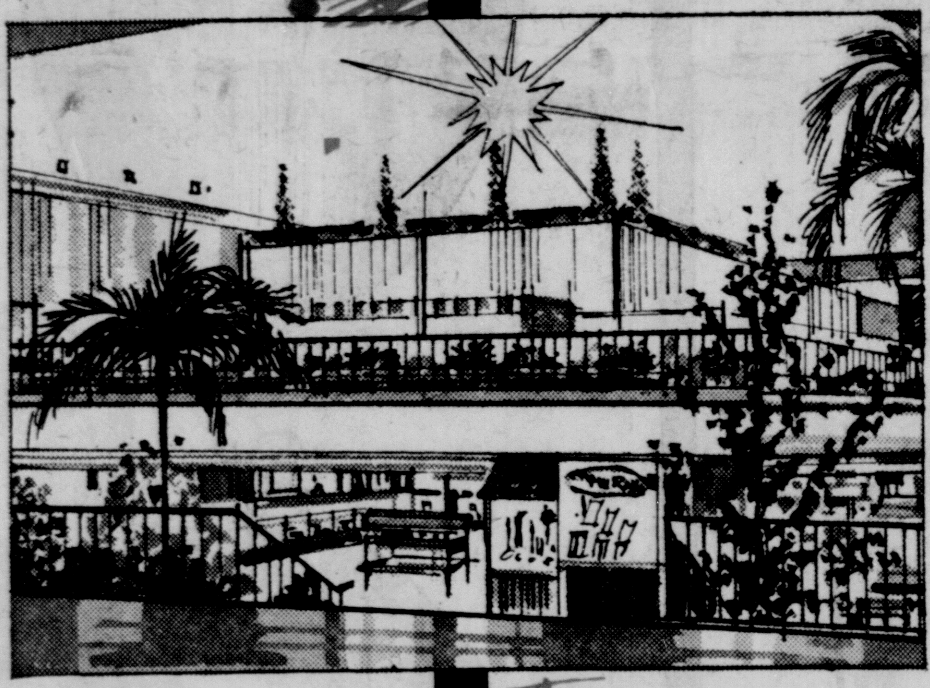
See the story of an old fashioned Christmas retold by our charming animated dolls.

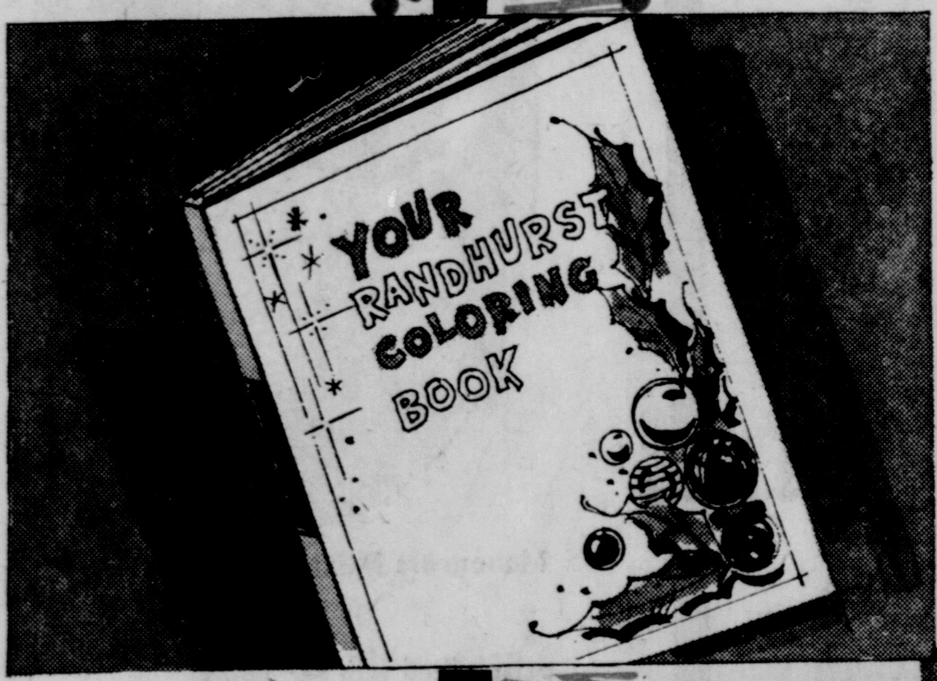
Get your RANDHURST Christmas seals, to gleam on your gifts as a symbol of your good taste and thoughtfulness.



Visit Santa on his throne as he presides at RANDHURST, waiting to hear the whispered desires of every boy and girl.



See the beauty and sparkle that is RANDHURST at Christmas. Park close to your favorite stores and shop in 72° comfort.



Get your free RANDHURST Coloring Book. A gift from Santa for the kiddies to remember their visit.

What is Christmas at Randhurst? It's many things . . . It's a beautiful center made more beautiful with shimmering, glittering Christmas decorations . . . It's over 50 stores with hundreds of thousands of gift ideas . . . It's friendly trained salespeople with a smile . . . even during those last hectic Christmas shopping days . . . It's 72° indoor comfort . . . shopping without coats, scarfs or boots . . . It's little children whispering in Randhurst Santa's ear and getting a special coloring book . . .

Most of all it's you, enjoying Christmas shopping like you never have before.

SCHOOL ACCIDENTS ARE COVERED BY

Paddock Publications

Suburbanite Emergency Protection
Personal Accident Policy

ISSUED EXCLUSIVELY TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS AND THEIR FAMILY HOUSEHOLD MEMBERS

- Parents are always relieved of anxiety when the student returns home safely from elementary or high schools. They are always worried about the safety of the student while away at college. They are concerned about accidents in an automobile, truck, bus or on a bicycle, scooter or roller skates, or as a pedestrian. Also, accidents on the playground, in the gymnasium and during athletic contests. Parents should remember this policy provides coverage 24 hours a day every day in the year.
- The entire family should have this protection—man, woman and children.
- Policy will help pay those expenses resulting from bodily injury—whether simple or serious—when accidents strike at home, while traveling, at work, on the farm, at school, or at play.
- Subject to its provisions, the policy includes indemnity for: Loss of Life, from $500 to $10,000; Loss of Limb, $250 to $10,000; Loss of Sight, $175 to $10,000; Total Disability, up to $500, pro-rated on a daily basis; First Aid, up to $5 for non-disabling injury; Ambulance, up to $10 for this service; Hospital, up to $200, pro-rated on a daily basis; X-Ray, up to $10 for injury examination.
- Issued without medical examination.
- No age limits (Specific Loss and Total Disability Indemnities are reduced fifty per cent (50%) when insured is or becomes age 70 or over).
- Pays in addition to other personal accident insurance carried.
- Pays on work accidents that are covered by State Compensation Laws.
- Specific Loss Indemnities increase in value ten per cent (10%) each year during first 5 years of consecutive renewal.
- The policy is issued by Old Republic Life Insurance Company, Chicago, Illinois. Protection begins at NOON on the actual date of issuance of the policy.

Campus Capers

At National

Miss Jeannie Ewert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl H. Ewert, 28 S. Salem, Arlington Heights, will be awarded the bachelor of education degree from National College of Education, Evanston, in commencement ceremonies, Sunday, Jan. 27. Miss Ewert is one of a class of 55 receiving this degree.

Miss Ewert has been active in various campus activities, serving as treasurer of the dance group, assistant social chairman and publicity chairman of the dormitory, historian of the Association for Childhood Education, and has been a member of the Drama Club and the International Club.

National College is known for its contemporary leadership, combining principles and practice in its entire program for elementary school teachers and administrators. The College awards a bachelor of education degree on the completion of the four-year course and a master of education degree for the fifth year. The most recent additions to the College schedule are graduate programs in guidance and counseling for elementary school teachers, and in special education for teachers of the retarded.

At Kalamazoo

More than 80 girls will take part in the traditional Kalamazoo, Mich., College Candlelight Christmas Carol Service on Dec. 8 in the campus chapel. Among these students will be Martha Staples, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Staples Jr., 119 S. Louis St., and Sharon Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Young, 116 S. Mount Prospect Road.

BOTH FRESHMEN, the girls are enrolled in the Kalamazoo College plan for one year-around education. Under the four-quarter system students may work on a social service project one quarter, and spend another quarter employed in the field of their career choice. Other features include six months of study at a foreign university center, at no increase in tuition, for juniors and three to six months of off-campus independent research for seniors.

The Christmas service, which has been a tradition for 36 years, includes the singing of more than a dozen hymns and carols. Miss Staples will sing in the soprano section of the choir and Miss Young is an alto.

At Northwestern

Sara Elizabeth King, 350 S. Burton Place, Arlington Heights was one of 11 Northwestern University seniors who were initiated into Phi Beta Kappa Dec. 7.

Phi Beta Kappa is a national honorary scholastic society whose purpose is "to foster the love of wisdom and sound knowledge as the guide of life." Students in the College of Liberal Arts who have maintained a high scholastic average for their university work, usually at least A-, may be elected at the end of their junior year or in their senior year.

At Lawrence

Karen Prahl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin W. Prahl, 304 S. Edward Street, Mount Prospect was named to membership in the Lawrence College chapter of Phi Beta Kappa, national honor fraternity. Announcement of the achievement was made at an all-school convocation on the Appleton, Wis., campus.

Miss Prahl was one of six seniors chosen in the fall election of Phi Beta Kappa. She has held several offices in the Alpha Delta Pi Social Sorority, is a member of the Lawrence Choir and has taken part in student government and Lawrence Women's Association activities. An English major, she has attained a grade average of 2.719, with 3.0 representing straight "A" work. (CC

At Michigan

John R. Lacina, a junior at the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, has been elected to serve as President of Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity for the coming year.

Lacina, a 1960 graduate of Arlington Heights High School, is enrolled in the School of Music at the University, the piano being his prime interest. (CC

At Monmouth

Jeanne Zimmerman, 311 N. Haddow, Arlington Heights, is a member of the Young Women's Christian Association on the Monmouth College campus.

The campus group is a part of the world-wide YWCA organization, and is an integral part of the college. It sponsors many campus activities, as well as assisting in Religion-In-Life week and World University Service work.

Jeanne is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jewell A. Zimmerman and is a freshman at the 109-year-old liberal arts college.

At Grinnell

Miss Marie H. Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard F. Martin, 506 S. Elmhurst Ave., Mount Prospect, was a member of the choir which presented a concert of Christmas music at Grinnell College Dec. 2.

Miss Martin, a junior at Grinnell, is majoring in history. She is a 1960 graduate of Arlington High School. (CC

At Harding

Jeffrey Anne Rorex, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Rorex, 163 S. Plum Grove, Palatine, was recently selected as one of three finalists for Queen of May at Harding College.

MISS ROREX

Miss Rorex, a junior medical technology major, represented Zeta Phi Zeta social club. She is a 1959 graduate of Palatine High School.

The three were selected by the student body after a pageant presenting the 20 nominees of the ladies social clubs. The queen will be revealed on May Day and will reign over the annual Harding May Fete. (CC

For Happy Holidays

Fire Safety Rules Should Be Obeyed

A warning that the coming holidays can change from rejoicing to ruin if basic fire safety rules are ignored was issued this week by Elmer F. Reske, chairman of the Fire Prevention Committee of the Chicago Association of Commerce and Industry.

In his reminder to business and civic leaders and all residents of Metropolitan Chicago, Reske noted:

"We are reaching the year's peak period for fire hazards, with the winter heating season combined with potential dangers created by holiday decorations and social events."

THE ASSOCIATION of Commerce also pointed out that property losses, injuries and deaths created by fire carelessness are particularly tragic during the Holiday Season, yet this is when they most often occur.

Reske offered a seven point check list to minimize fire hazards:

1. Keep Christmas trees outside until ready to set up; inspect tree-light wiring for worn spots and breaks; water the trunk daily; dispose of it as soon as the branches begin drying out.

2. As you open Christmas gifts, put all wrappings in a carton and dispose of them immediately. Don't let them pile up around the tree, fireplace, cook stove or heating devices.

3. KEEP EXTRA close watch over candles and decorative electric lights to avoid igniting nearby curtains, decorations or packages.

4. Screen all open fireplaces and never leave open fires, electric tree lights on, or candles burning, while out of the room.

5. Be sure everyone in the family knows the Fire Department phone number (in Chicago — FIre 7-1313), and calls it as soon as any fire is detected.

6. For "first aid in emergencies," always keep a full pail of water close to trees, other Christmas decorations, and at holiday celebrations.

7. WITH COLD weather coming on, special attention should be given to make sure central heating plants and space heaters are operating properly.

"Through the conscientious efforts of all citizens, including householders, businessmen and municipal officials, we can go far in reducing the wasteful toll of deaths, injuries and property losses levied by carelessness during this time of maximum fire dangers," Reske stated.

"I REMEMBER" BY The Old Timers

From Mrs. Edna Rupprecht, Newbury Park, Calif.: I remember when men wore hats, galluses and whiskers. Nothing wrong with a hat—at least it is more comfortable than a coat on hot days. Besides, it made a woman feel quite special and superior when a man always removed his hat before speaking to her. But—in this hatless age . . .

As to hats and suspenders, we raise no dissenting voice. Whiskers are something else.

Refer to the stone age. By pictures, we see the stone age man did not wear a hat, but he did wear whiskers. He couldn't doff a hat if he had one since his gallantry was demonstrated by wielding a club with one hand and dragging his dame by the hair with the other. From the stone age until now, no woman has been quoted to the effect that "I like whiskers."

Truly the razor has blazed a noble trail down the corridors of time, crusading in the interest of good grooming. Never in the annals of history has so small a gadget done so much good for so many men.

I remember children read from McGuffey's Reader the story of Pocahantos and John Smith. I did not take kindly to these stories. Once in school I was not too gently seated when I stood to denounce them as silly frauds . . . especially the high-ranking gentleman who spread his cloak on the ground for the queen to walk on. Even at that tender age I regarded this as a stupid gesture and thought of more cozy and romantic means of transportation across the historic mud puddle.

New York Visit Can Be Costly

NEW YORK, (UPI) — A woman guest from Illinois Monday reported to police that $20,000 worth of jewelry and a pocketbook had been stolen from a bedroom closet in her suite at the Gotham Hotel in Midtown Manhattan.

Mrs. Roy A. Kropp, of Mundelein, Ill., told detectives that her purse disappeared from her suite on the 10th floor during her absence Saturday night between 7 p.m. and 11:55 p.m.

Letters to the Editor

Our 'Logic' Is Puzzling

The logic of your reasoning in the editorial, "Men of Puny Vision," is puzzling to me. In the example of the school principal ordering copies of Scholastic Magazine burned, I agree that this is not his job. But, how his action violates "democratic tradition" escapes me. For his thoughtless act, he is accountable to his superintendent, school board, parents and others in the school district.

In the example of the "seized manuscript" the full story would need to be known. As described, there would seem to be a violation of property rights of some kind.

But in the Alton, Ill., incident of people waging an economic boycott against goods from Communist countries, what "democratic tradition" are they being "unfaithful" to? Are you saying it breaks democratic tradition when people: 1) Exercise their right of choice, 2) Exercise their right of opinion, 3) Refuse to help economically nations they consider to be enemies, and 4) Exercise their right of free speech to win others to their views?

WHAT "DEMOCRATIC tradition" was violated in Ft. Wayne, Ind., when the merchant made a bonfire of Communist-made goods and people danced around. Isn't it traditional for Americans to dance around bonfires for special occasions? Was it a violation to be "pictured in the press dancing about the flames in anything but a casual manner."

(Incidentally, how people are "pictured in the press" is indicative only of what the writer wants to say. The "picture" may range from absolute truth to utter falsehood. Everyone knows that even photographs have been "doctored.")

You say these latter two incidents "could be viewed as childish reactions . . . if it weren't for the frantic, frenzied way in which they were and are being carried out." In other words, what they did was not so bad. Your objection seems to be based upon a subjective thing: How YOU FEEL they acted. Isn't it possible that someone else might feel that those same actions were enthusiastic, zealous and steadfast in purpose?

YOU WRITE, "It is in this state (Texas) that vigilante groups have been attempting to purge school shelves of 'objectionable' and 'suspect' literature." Is it not "democratic tradition" that public schools are controlled locally through the people's representatives? Then, if a group which believes some school materials are objectionable attempts to persuade others to accept their views, is this not democracy in action—rather than a violation? Is this not "the people speaking?"

The Corinth Baptish Church in Midland, Texas, puts out a pamphlet saying that in its opinion certain books are "unfit for consumption." What basic right does it "nibble at?" Is freedom of the press NOT for them?

IN ALL OF these examples, except the first two, people are exercising their right of objecting to something. It seems to me that if they are "nibbling at," "unfaithful to," or violating "our democratic traditions" or "civil rights," you are doing the very same thing when you object to them by calling them names, "absurd," "intolerant," "frenzied" or "frantic." Further, imputations of their violating "democratic traditions," in my opinion, comes very close to being a smear, which I am sure you abhor.

To paraphrase a Quaker saying: Methinks all about us are confused but thee and me—and sometimes I am skeptical of thee.

Retarded Drive Efforts Cited

As we near the close of the 1962 fund-raising campaign (Retarded Children's Appeal), the members of Community Welfare for Mentally Retarded Children wish to express their sincere thanks to the people of Itasca and Bensenville who worked with us, and those who donated so generously to the drive—and to those who did both! We are grateful, too, to the press for the publicity which is so vital to the work done for the retarded, not only for fund-raising but also for providing people with information about what is being done for retarded children in our area.

Community Welfare for MRC participated in Retarded Children's Appeal which was directed by the Illinois Council for Retarded; Community Welfare is the DuPage affiliate of the Council and the National Association for Retarded Children and helps in the support of these organizations for the sake of long-range good of all retarded, research, etc.

EXCEPT FOR the support of the state and national associations, all the money raised by Community Welfare for MRC is used supporting the Bonaparte School on Thorndale Road in Elmhurst, to which 26 children from all over the county and parts of western Cook County are taken by bus every day. These are children who have no other opportunity for learning open to them. Community Welfare also supports the new Ray Graham Rehabilitation Center, in Elmhurst, which is now providing work and vocational training to young adults of 17 and over. At present 12 young people from various DuPage communities and western Cook County towns are working at the Ray Graham Center, which will expand as funds permit.

Mrs. Kenneth Murison, 611 Country Club Drive, Itasca, Itasca Chairman, and Mrs. Harold Connelly, 1006 Hillside, Bensenville chairman, join the Community Welfare general membership in thanks to all who helped make this appeal a success.

Administrator Does Good Job

At this wonderful time of year, when most hearts are overflowing with good-will toward our fellow men. I feel compelled to publish a few lines of sincere commendation and gratitude to one of our oft unsung village officials. In so doing I am not in the least unmindful of the dedication and accomplishments of fine village administration as a whole, but Rudy Hanson has especially earned the plaudits of every one of us.

He has gone far beyond the call of duty in an almost dogged determination to furnish our village with a municipal building at a cost that is little short of miraculous. The sound thinking and the display of unusual judgment in planning and equipping the new facility is a lasting tribute to the energy and enthusiasm of this fine public servant.

HIS SHOPPING techniques for the furniture and equipment in the new facility would be a distinct credit to the most astute purchasing agent in our land. There are many examples of this superb performance, but one in particular stands out in bold relief. Mr. Hanson happened to be in the office of a large Loop corporation, when he overheard a conversation pertaining to a large new conference table the firm had purchased for approximately $2,500. It was delivered to them slightly damaged and firms' officials refused to accept it. Mr. Hanson quickly noted the manufacturer's name and—you can guess the balance of the story, he finally negotiated a deal whereby this new table, now in perfect condition, was purchased for our new village hall for approximately $600.

To me, this man Hanson stands out as an eminently capable and dedicated public servant, and, as a bit of innuendo, he is so regarded by a number of other municipalities, who find themselves in not such an enviable position.

Until it takes more tangible form Rudy, I join with a great many of our citizens in offering our sincere appreciation for the job you and your associates are doing in our behalf.

Township School Treasurer Takes Issue with Editorial

In your publication of November 15, 1962, under the heading of "Township Treasurer An Obsolete Office," you show the following figures. Treasurer's salary, $13,000, office expense $45,489, and $60,000 for his office, a total of $118,489 expended for the year.

This figure of $118,489 is incorrect, and a distortion of the facts. The annual report of the Township School Treasurer of Proviso Township as filed with the County Superintendent of Schools, show the following figures: Treasurer's office expense — $60,000, — this item of $60,000 includes the Treasurer's salary and the office expense. It, not the $118,489 mentioned in your paper, represents the annual cost of the Treasurer's office. It should be mentioned that the Treasurer, through investments, earned and distributed $71,538 during the same period.

YOUR editorial also states "Although trustees aren't paid a salary, there is a provision for paying their expenses, which apparently accounts for this item ($45,489)." An itemized account of the $45,489 expenditure is enclosed. The trustees receive nothing for salary or expenses; to recieve any benefit would violate our State laws. For their services they are entitled, if not to thanks, at least to freedom from accusations of dishonesty.

Your article further recites "There is really not much left for Township School Treasurers to do . . ." Each year, the Proviso Township School Treasurer's Office administers the receipts and disbursements of Forty Million Dollars for eleven grade school and two high school districts. On June 30, 1962 these school districts had a bonded indebtedness of $24,455,000 payable, as to principal, from one to nineteen years, and as to interest, annually. It is the School Treasurer's duty to approve or disapprove of the validity of each of the thousands of requisitions drawn annually on these funds, and to preserve the good credit of each of the districts.

AS THE PRESENT law was drawn, it reflects the view of the lawmakers that each individual school district's finances should be supervised capably and impartially. Our bonded School Treasurer, with over 40 years experience, is a constant source of helpful advice to officers of the school districts who are conscientious but transient; he stays very busy.

We are willing to believe your misstatements were unintentional. Your publication of this correction will confirm our belief.

Lloyd W. Lehman,
President
Township School Trustees
Town 39, Range 12

EDITOR'S NOTE: We believe the error arose from the treasurer's report filed with the Cook County Superintendent of Schools, not our presentation of this material. In the report, the Proviso treasurer lists his salary at $13,000. Beneath this item was one asking for an itemization of the other expenses. Two figures of $45,489 and $60,000 were entered simply as "trustees' expenses." The $60,000 figure apparently was entered as a total, although the report did not call for one and other treasurers did not submit totals. The total of the treasurer's salary and other expenses would have amounted to $58,489. The report, however, asked for actual expenditures, not rounded budget figures. The expenses shown were those incurred by the treasurer's office, not the trustees, as the report stipulated and were not itemized.

Get Information Before You Vote

In May, 1961, a referendum for a bond issue to build a third elementary school in Itasca was deferred. There appeared in this column at that time a letter replete with erroneous generalizations, projections of imaginary figures, etc., and was signed "Anonymous." In cases where this letter served as the only source for information it could not help but contribute towards the defeat of the referendum.

If our democratic system is to endure as it must, we should welcome true controversy — we should hear the other fellows' views and ideas, and through an exchange of thoughts based on the best information available, we should be able to arrive at valid conclusions.

PERHAPS we are too reticent to state our views after perusing the best information available. We say to ourselves, "let the other fellow do it," and then become outraged at the results and realize too late that the other fellow is "we" — all of us. We are not anonymous; we should seek information and then be heard.

Through the organization of a Citizens Committee, many people have studied the information and are being heard. Speakers are appearing at coffee groups, civic groups, various community and church organizations and many others are giving information through house canvasses and telephone calls. Printed literature has also been made available for further study.

LET'S NOT have Dec. 15 referendum defeated because of misinformation or because we have failed to listen. Let us go to the polls adequately informed. The Citizens' Committee has arranged a final meeting for all interested citizens at the North School on Friday night, Dec. 4, the eve of the election at 7:30 p.m. Won't you join us, Mr. Anonymous?

Suburbs Don't Need Industry

On Dec. 5 the Wheeling Plan Commission, together with the professional planner hired by the city, offered its basic plan to the public for the future growth of the village of Wheeling. One of the main questions raised at this meeting was — Is Wheeling to be a suburban residential community or a basically industrial town? The plan commission seems to favor heavy industrial growth.

Let me answer this question with some of the reasons my neighbors and I moved into Wheeling and bought homes here. A good many of us are refugees from the metropolitan Chicago area who wanted a bit of God's earth with a modest home away from smokestacks, noise and the dirt of an industrial city. We wanted to leave our social and racial problems behind us. To people like us, the new village plan means "professionally planned disaster." We will no longer have the quiet, fresh country air and the pleasant village atmosphere that brought us here. This will be replaced by the rumble of trucks, shrill of factory whistles, automobile congestion from factory employes and the foul air of heavy industry and its high smokestacks. In essence, we will have here in Wheeling everything we hoped to leave behind us. We are already accustomed to the smell of animals, why not move the stock yards next door?

WHO IS going to work in these factories? We already have jobs. Heavy industry will extend Wheeling's offer to those now residing in the heavy industrial areas such as the Gary-Hammond steel and chemical areas. How can this avoid bringing upon us a serious social problem. When our schools become flooded with, unfortunately less educated children, the quality of the education our children receive will be lowered. Residential property values will drop as these very low income families find it more and more difficult to maintain our neighborhoods. This is a much too high price to pay for lower taxes 25 years from now.

We ask, we beg, we demand, that the Wheeling Plan Commission reconsider. What do we want Wheeling to be? We know what we don't want it to be. At the next election, why not ask each of us what type of town we would like to grow into and from the majority of the citizens' answers, form a new plan and give the people a little more of what they want.

I was very glad to see the editorial in the Herald about "Frightened Little Faces," and approve most heartily of your editorial stand. I couldn't quite believe my ears when I heard the plans mentioned in board meeting.

The Way We See It

Our Polluted Air

Most everyone agrees that air pollution — like counterfeit money and watered liquor — is a bad thing. But for many years Americans considered the problem in the same breath with the weather.

There is an old joke: "Everybody talks about the weather, but nobody does anything about it."

For many years the story could have been applied to air pollution. It was merely a problem that provided fodder for funny stories in Los Angeles and Pittsburgh.

But things began to change. Doctors and scientists began relating air pollution to lung cancer and respiratory ailments. Committees were formed, research studies made. Los Angeles and Pittsburgh partially solved their problems. In the process, other major industrial areas began to take notice. Chicago was one of them.

As the nation grew, people began to move to the suburbs. One of the reasons given for leaving was "fresh air," accompanied by vague references to the smoke and dust of the city.

Chicago has an air pollution ordinance. So do many suburbs. Cook County — or more properly what is left of the unincorporated area — does not.

The county had never adopted an ordinance, primarily because it had no industrial concentration to speak of. There was no need. But times change.

In the last 10 years, according to Harry Chaddick, a Chicago planning consultant, more manufacturing has developed outside of Chicago than has been built in Chicago in the past 20 years.

"The unincorporated area of Cook County has become the dumping ground of the obnoxious uses that they (manufacturers) cannot get by with in Chicago . . . and the villages," points out Chaddick.

At the direction of Seymour Simon, president of the Cook County Board, Chaddick's firm was directed to prepare an air pollution ordinance for the county. It has not yet been approved by the county board.

The ordinance is more stringent than the one now in use in Chicago. Area businessmen and manufacturers feel it is too stringent; in fact prohibitive.

Chaddick's firm feels the proposed law will provide protection as good as that covering any community in the United States.

There is room for argument on both sides, and room for compromise.

The suburbs provide a paradox. They want the industry to provide a strong tax base, and help pay for village services. But they do not want the smoke, smell and contamination. Industry wants to move to the suburbs but does not want to pay prohibitive costs for converting furnaces, smelters and other equipment to lessen air pollution. Industry is ready and willing in most cases to do what it can, but not at the cost of going out of business.

There are also political overtones. Some feel the proposed county ordinance was made intentionally more stringent than Chicago's in order to keep industry "locked in" the Second City. To keep the Chicago tax base intact, in other words. This may or may not be true.

There are only two important things to consider in making any law. The people, and enforcement.

The law must be fair to everyone, big and small. It must be provided with adequate enforcement controls.

Air pollution — like the weather — knows no boundary. A law governing air pollution should be conceived in a similar light.

The Sheriff's Dilemma

Newly-elected Cook County Sheriff Richard B. Ogilvie has mapped out an ambitious four-year campaign to rid unincorporated county areas of gambling and vice.

He carries with him into this declared war on the "bread and butter" resources of the crime syndicate the well wishes of the voters who elected him to office.

There are, however, certain practical considerations which tend to deflate estimates of just how effective Sheriff Ogilvie's grand strategy will be.

Ogilvie is inheriting an unwieldy and cumbersome office definitely in need of more modernization and manpower if it is to carry out the program of law enforcement outlined by the new sheriff.

At last count, Ogilvie had 168 deputies under his command to patrol 400 miles of unincorporated area. This is spreading it tissue paper thin, regardless of the caliber of men that can be mustered.

Joseph D. Lohman, the county's onetime "blue ribbon" reform sheriff, adds to this that the sheriff cannot even offer his officers job security because they are filling political patronage posts.

Further obstacles Lohman points out are the courts and state's attorney's office, both under Democratic control, and the fact that hoodlumism doesn't respect party lines, so that Republican Ogilvie will be faced with the prospect of offending some members of his own party by vigorous prosecution of his duties.

Ogilvie is expected to take some sensible steps toward improving the quality and morale of the men who will serve under him. It is anticipated that he will ask the Cook County Board to improve the salaries of some officers by transferring a portion of funds allocated in the budget for janitorial and maintenance personnel.

Every man on the sheriff's police force will be given the opportunity to save his job by taking an examination Ogilvie has introduced.

The new sheriff has also surrounded himself with competent lieutenants at the top and is retaining those officers of demonstrated ability.

But the sheriff's office will never become truly professional until its personnel are brought under the protection and high standards of civil service. It will never attract proficient officers until the pay becomes commensurate with the risks and hardships involved. It will never become an effective weapon to employ against the crime syndicate until its ranks are increased to a respectable number.

It is interesting to note that Chicago Police Superintendent O. W. Wilson, even with the unequivocal support of Mayor Richard J. Daley and the brace of department reforms he has initiated, has not been able to curb the Windy City's robbery rate which exceeds the combined total of New York's and five other major cities for the first nine months of 1962.

Ogilvie will, for all practical purposes, be on his own. He is on record as saying he favors having his law enforcement officers under civil service.

Remedial legislation should be sought to insure the carrying out of this proposal, and to increase the size of the sheriff's force. Otherwise, Ogilvie — despite all his good intentions — will find himself tilting with windmills instead of the real thing.

Everything Is Democratic

Who's Fooling Whom?

by BOB CUMMINS

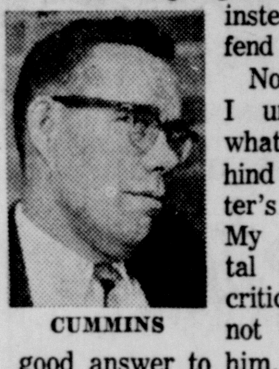
A few columns ago I tried to stick some pins into Arthur Sylvester, who is Defense Secretary Robert McNamara's right-hand man for public information.

Sylvester had decreed that his subordinates shall be regulated in their contacts with reporters. He added that he considers news to be just another weapon in the military arsenal.

Since then, Sylvester has appeared at meetings of professional journalistic bodies, not to retract his edict or to apologize for it, but instead to defend it.



CUMMINS

Now I think I understand what is behind Sylvester's thinking. My sentimental sort of criticism was not a very good answer to him.

What Sylvester is saying, in an indirect way, is that democratic decisions are out of the question on big national security matters in this day and age.

For a long time, it has been plain that Congress does not declare war any more, even though the Constitution says it does.

U.S. REP. Sidney R. Yates, in an interview last fall with Paddock Publications' editors, indicated that members of Congress have only a vague idea of the terms of defense contracts. Yates, a long-time member of the appropriations committee, is in the best possible position to know.

For years I have kept a memory of a village board meeting in Morton Grove, which somehow seems pertinent to all this.

Three full-time reporters attended the meeting, because at that time there was some lively newspaper competition in Morton Grove.

The highlight of the meeting came when a bill for $85 was presented for payment. The bill covered repairs to the clutch of the village dump truck. Alas, the requisition for the repairs had not been countersigned by the village president, as required on all expenditures exceeding $50.

SHOULD THE bill be paid? Should the law be amended? Perhaps the new ceiling should be $100? Was one counter-signature enough? Was it too many?

The three reporters kept their pencils flying as the debates raged. The following Thursday, a full report appeared in three papers.

The public had $85 of its money tied up in that clutch and by the First Amendment, the Federalist Papers and all holy traditions, those three reporters were determined to see that the public was fully informed so that it could safeguard its interests!

What a contrast between this episode of local government and the operation of federal government! In Washington, a million times $85 has and will be spent behind closed doors without a reporter present, and without even members of Congress having an idea of what is happening.

CAN IT BE otherwise? Sylvester seems to be saying it cannot, and it is only hypocrisy and deception of the public to pretend that it can.

I am inclined to agree with Sylvester when he implies that much of the criticism of him has been hypocritical.

Certainly, to encourage the public to believe it is being informed when it is not is worse than Sylvester's policy of censorship.

The right answer to Sylvester is to show that democracy still has a future in Washington. So far, Sylvester's critics have not demonstrated this. All they have said is that it is more comfortable to have everyone thinking that everything is democratic.

For Provocative Reading

A Look Behind the Masks

by MARTIN E. MARTY

1962 has 18 days to go and I am open to surprise, but I think I can already safely nominate a piece of writing as the most memorable of the year.

If you want to try it out yourself, go to your librarian and ask for the Nov. 17 issue of the New Yorker magazine. Maybe you receive the magzine and didn't read the article — if so, rescue it. If you can, borrow an issue (though most New Yorker readers are wary of lending out this copy.)

MARTY

In the Nov. 17 issue an article by James Baldwin, "Letter from a Region in My Mind," wends through 85 pages of Christmas advertisements to its chilling conclusion. Baldwin is the most articulate of the generation of "angry young Negroes" in America and is one of our best writers.

THE DOCUMENT is subversive, and the editor might do well today to assert that the opinions of columnists are not his own. Some Christian friends may be concerned that I recommend a piece of writing so filled with criticisms of Christianity. (Remember: to recommend does not mean to agree with everything, but rather to call attention to its importance.) Baldwin does not say what I wish American Negroes would think; he writes what they do think. It is always better to live in a real world, without masks.

In essence, the long article tells of a visit to the head of the Black Muslim movement in Chicago. One could say it is Baldwin's apology and explanation for the reason why he is not a Black Muslim. He tells of his youth as a "boy preacher" in Harlem and of why he left the church. He describes attitudes in the Negro spectrum ("Why, for example—especially knowing the family as I do—I should want to marry your sister is a great mystery to me. But your sister and I have every right to marry if we wish to . . ." Or, on integration at this hour: "Hence the question: Do I really want to be integrated into a burning house.") We wish the attitudes were not there. It was so much easier to treat the Negro as the downtrodden, happy-go-lucky pickaninny. That won't work, says Baldwin.

IN HIS argument, the white race is today such a minority it looks like a fiction, an invention. Its hour in the historic sense is spent. The Christian God is a white God, and he may well be repudiated by world-wide non-white forces. The church, the segregationist, the liberal alike do not really want to deal with the basic facts of life symbolized by the presence of the Negro. They do not really want equality; sinners never do. (Baldwin writes better theology than he knows. In repudiating a cultural form of Christianity he does not know how often his insights into man are strangely Christian.)

In such an hour Baldwin knows the world-wide forces of nihilism, nationalism, anti-colonialism, vengeance, hate which would see the tables of power between races turned.

HERE IS where the weird Black Muslim movement in America fits in. Then comes the important part of the argument. Baldwin parts company with the vengeance-minded non-white and his whole motivation.

In the process he celebrates the virtues that ought to motivate the white and the Christian world but which he does not find there. These virtues sound "corny" in such an angry document: love, brotherhood, non-vengeance, humanity's humaneness.

"I am very much concerned that American Negroes achieve their freedom here in the United States. But I am also concerned for their dignity, for the health of their souls, and must oppose any attempt that Negroes may make to do to others what has been done to them. I think I know—we see it around us every day — the spiritual wasteland to which that road leads. It is so simple a fact and one that is so hard, apparently, to grasp: Whoever debases others is debasing himself. That is not a mystical statement but a most realistic one, which is proved by the eyes of any Alabama sheriff—and I would not like to see Negroes ever arrive at so wretched a condition."

WHY SUCH turmoil in the racial and national world? Baldwin says that the tragic destiny of the Negro reminds the white of the reality he wants to avoid: "the fact that life is tragic" and death is its fact.

"It seems to me that one ought to rejoice in the fact of death—ought to decide, indeed, to earn one's death by confronting with passion the conundrum of life."

There are glimpses of hope in Baldwin's celebration of life. His article concludes with a celebration, from the "wine- and urine-stained hallways" of Negro - dom: What will happen to all that beauty?—the beauty of people, the beauty of blacks, in a day of hatred and vengeance. And his last line is from a slave song: "God gave Noah the rainbow sign, No more water, the fire next time."

DON'T WRITE A letter to the editor about a columnist recommending James Baldwin. Read Baldwin first—you haven't seen anything yet. But, despite his misreadings of some of history, his dismissal of Christian resources, his prophetic call for non-vengeance — if heeded — may help save us all, yet.

As the old banner lying in the windswept street read, "Brother, there still is time." But, implies Baldwin, not very much.

Critic's Corner

Has Sports Fan Failed?

by TOM TULLY
Sports Writer

Why are the Chicago Zephyrs of the National Basketball Association striking out with the Chicago sports fan?

One suggestion is that this is a hockey conscious town and there isn't room for professional basketball. We can't buy this. It's true that the old Chicago Stags folded, but this is a basketball hotbed at the prep and college levels and it doesn't follow that the fans should be disinterested in the men who play it best.

Another natural conclusion is that the fans are merely rejecting an inferior product. In the Zephyr's case this is true when judged by NBA standards, but we have a hunch you would have trouble convincing a Bostonian that the Celtics are minor league or an Angelino that the Lakers are anything but professional.

TULLY

This is the core of the problem. A Chicagoan doesn't care what you call the Zephyrs. He doesn't even talk about them himself. In the restaurants and bars you hear talk of the Bears and Hawks and even the Cubs and White Sox, but not a whisper about the Zephyrs.

AT PRESENT they don't rate more than a whisper. Granted, they are one of the poorer clubs in the NBA, possibly the worst. But new clubs in any league can't look at the present. The Zephyrs draft choices in their two years of existence, men like Walt Bellamy, Terry Dischinger, Billy McGill, Don Nelson and Mel Nowell, compare favorably with any club in the league.

It is our contention that the two things hurting the Zephyrs most are: inadequate playing facilities and poor exposure. With this in mind we called the Zephyr front office and discussed the situation with Ed Youngerman of the club's front office.

Of major interest was the Coliseum where the home games are played. While seeing the Zephyr's play the Syracuse Nationals a few weeks ago, we were shocked that a major sports attraction would be held in such a place. Supposedly renovated, the ancient arena is still just one step from the condemned list.

WE WONDERED why the home games weren't being played at the more modern and spacious Chicago Stadium. The answer couldn't be a conflict of schedules with the Black Hawks — hockey and basketball are played in both the Boston Garden and Madison Square Garden.

It was far more practical than that. The Stadium rent is five times as high. We didn't have to ask why Abe Saperstein was able to use the Stadium for his Majors of the ABL. Saperstein has been bringing the Harlem Globetrotters to the Stadium for years and apparently is getting a better deal.

This is no problem in New York and Boston. Ned Irish owns the Knickerbockers, the Rangers AND Madison Square Garden. Walter Brown enjoys a similar situation with the Celtics, the Bruins and the Boston Garden.

SO THE Zephyrs are stuck with the Coliseum which, on top of being out of date, is too small. Capacity is 6,500-7,000. With the exception of the stadium in Syracuse, every other arena in the NBA holds at least 10,000.

And, they use the seats. Last week 14,500 jammed the Sports Arena in Los Angeles to see the Lakers and the Hawks. A doubleheader in Madison Square Garden is an automatic 18,000.

How does Zephyr attendance compare with these figures? In the first place, an average of 5,000 is generally considered the minimum needed to break even. Even with a house limit of say 7,000, that doesn't leave too much for profit.

According to Youngerman, the Zephyrs have been averaging 4,500 to 5,000. Twice they had 6,800 and and on the poorest night 2,500 turned out. (If they counted 2,500 the night we were there they must have been counting eyes instead of heads.)

THE OTHER thing choking the Zephyrs is lack of space in the Chicago papers. With the exception of the Sun-Times, Zephyr coverage has been pathetic. Early in the season this is understandable to an extent because the season overlaps football. Why it hasn't picked up lately is a mystery.

Right now the Zephyrs are aired by that remote media, FM radio. It strikes us that FM listeners are not interested in basketball, but so far that is the best the Zephyrs have been able to do. The AM stations have refused on the grounds that there isn't enough interest.

ALL OF THIS brings about an interesting speculation. Should the Zephyrs fail to make it and Chicago loses professional basketball again, it will be said once more that Chicago fans cannot support pro ball.

We wonder how much of the blame belongs to the fans?

NON KNITTERS!

Solve your gift problem for the knitter on your list at THE KNITTER'S NOOK. We just received a large shipment of Knitting bags — our selection was pretty low, and Christmas was quite far off so we restocked quickly—all shapes and descriptions. SWEATER PACKS make wonderful gifts too—and don't overlook our sweater and skirt sets (matched yarn for a sweater and material for a skirt).

Or give a GIFT CERTIFICATE if in doubt.

There are lots of Knitting Gadgets, too, for stocking stuffers.

What else have we for Christmas? Christmas Bags for Christmas Cookies or awkward presents—colored tissue paper—adorable Danish wrapping paper—children's stationery (cute as can be)—unusual note paper.

Drop in—browse—help yourself to a cup of coffee.

Check Earnings to 'Update' Records

"Keep the score with seven-double-o-four" is the advice of the Social Security Administration to northwest suburban workers who have not checked their social security records in recent years.

The "7004" is a pre-addressed post card form on which to request a statement of the earnings credited to your social security account.

You need only to insert your name, address, social security number and date of birth, sign and mail it.

SHORTLY afterward, you will receive a statement showing not only the total earnings listed for you but also annual totals for each of the last three complete years.

If the statement does not agree with your records, you can take it and your own records to your social security office, so that steps can be taken to get your social security account corrected.

Why is this so important? Because the earnings you have credited to this account will be the basis for determining whether you or your dependents will be eligible for social security payments upon your retirement, disability or death.

TO ASSURE yourself of complete protection, check your social security account about once every three years. Check yours now. A "7004" may be obtained by writing or telephoning your nearest social security office.

The Northwest District office is located at 4255 Milwaukee Avenue. The phone number is Kildare 5-8844. DuPage County readers are served by the district office located at 1124 Westgate Avenue, Oak Park. (A14

Modern Etiquette

Q. My wife has taken me to task for my habit of eating the olive or cherry that comes in my cocktails. How about this?

A. It is perfectly all right for you to eat these fruits, provided you do it as gracefully as possible. Above all, don't be obvious about your efforts to get at the fruit—such as tipping the glass high and then tapping it on the bottom in order to loosen the fruit.
